

POSTGAME NOTES: NEW MEXICO 74, SAN JOSE STATE 58

In-Game Notes

- This was the 11th all-time meeting between San Jose State and UNM, the Lobos are now 11-0.
- The 11 wins over San Jose State is the most against teams that the Lobos have an undefeated record against.
- UNM is now 5-0 since San Jose State joined the Mountain West Conference.
- The Lobos are now 7-0 against San Jose State in Albuquerque.
- This was the closest game played between these two teams in WisePies Arena.
- UNM is now 15-3 when leading at the half.
- When outrebounding their opponents, the Lobos are now 14-4.
- Inside WisePies Arena the Lobos are now 11-2 this season.
- The Lobos held San Jose State to 30.4% shooting tonight, this was the first time the Lobos held a team below 35% shooting since facing Air Force on 1-27-16.
- For the second time this season and first since 12-30-15, the Lobos had more free throws made than field goals made.

RS-Junior Tim Williams

- This was Williams' 22nd double-digit scoring effort on the year.
- Lead the team in rebounds with nine tonight. Williams lead the team in rebounds for the 14th time this season.

RS-Sophomore Elijah Brown

- Lead the team in scoring for the 16th time this season.
- This was also his 24th double-digit scoring effort on the year.

Sophomore Xavier Adams

- Set a season and career high in rebounds with seven.