BENGALS PREVIEW

Idaho State returns six starters and 17 letterwinners while welcoming nine newcomers for the 2018 season. The Bengals got an early start this year with a trip to Costa Rica where they defeated three first-division teams in international friendlies.

They finished preseason play with a 3-2 record. The Bengals scored at least one goal in every game with 12 different players finding the net. Idaho State also had 13 players earn an assist in preseason play.

The leading scorer from last year, Makena Bambei, returns to the midfield for her junior season after tallying 11 points on five goals and one assists in 2017. Bambei was the team's leading scorer in the preseason with three goals and assists for nine points.

Brooke Kortekaas also rejoins the roster for her junior campaign after a three-goal season in 2017. Grinders Paige Smith and Tristen Spooner make reappearances after starting all 18 games a season ago and logging 1,457 and 1,261 minutes of play respectively.

Head Coach Allison Gibson returns for her 13th season with Idaho State as the winningest coach in ISU history. Gibson carries an 80-123-22 overall record and has won the Big Sky Conference Tournament for a bid to the NCAAs three times: in 2006, 2009 and 2012. In 2006 and '12, the Bengals also earned the regular-season title or a share of the title. Stephanie 'Kramer' Beall returns as an assistant coach after helping ISU secure the title in 2012 and guiding Sheridan Hapsic to the Big Sky Conference Championship MVP.

SCOUTING OPPONENT: UTEP

- The Miners opened 2018 with a dominant 6-1 victory over Lubbock Christian after six Miners netted a goal. They fell to 1-1 after a double OT loss to Abilene Christian.
- UTEP returned 18 letter winners to the roster although 14 of 23 players are underclassmen.
- UTEP returns its top-three goal scorers and netminder Alyssa Palacios who has recorded 18 career shutouts.
- Head Coach Kevin Cross has been with the program since 1997 and is the ranked No. 40 in the nation for winningest active coaches in NCAA DI soccer.

SCOUTING OPPONENT: NEW MEXICO

- New Mexico is 0-1 on the season after dropping its opener to Texas Tech 2-0.
- The Lobos return GK Emily Johnson who played every minute for NM in a MWC runner-up finish in 2017. Jessie Hix also returns after scoring eight goals and earning All-Mountain West First Team honors.
- The Lobos are led by third-year Head Coach Heather Dyche who owns a 19-15-5 record.

Three-time Big Sky Coach of the Year Allison Gibson enters her 13th season as the winningest head coach in Idaho State University history.

Idaho State made big improvements during the 2016 season; in fact, the Bengals were listed by the NCAA as one of the most improved teams of the 2016 season, improving five games from 2015 to 2016. The Bengals finished in eighth place in the Big Sky Conference with a 4-6-0 conference record.

During the 2015 season, Gibson was instrumental in the development of Maria Sanchez, the 2015 Big Sky Golden Boot recipient. Sanchez led the conference in shots, shots per game, goals and goals per game and finished ranked tied for 15th in the nation in goals scored on her way to earning Big Sky All-Conference First Team honors.

Idaho State finished in fifth place in the Big Sky Conference in 2014 with a 10-9-1 record (5-4-1 Big Sky) and returned to the Big Sky tournament after a one-year hiatus. The Bengals ended a stellar Big Sky tournament run in a 2-1 championship loss to Northern Arizona. Seven members of the 2014 team were honored by the Big Sky. Amanda Ellsworth was named Big Sky Offensive MVP as well as to the first team. Maria Sanchez, Lauren Bermudez, Katherine Roberts, Vanessa Cabilan, Mikaela Carrillo and Taylor McBride all received honorable mention nods.

The Bengals finished the 2013 season in fifth place, just outside of the Big Sky tournament field with a 7-8-2 record (4-3-2 Big Sky). Despite the disappointing finish, ISU set a school record for 11-straight games of scoring at least one goal. Gibson became the winningest coach in ISU history with a 2-0 victory over Southern Utah on Oct. 6. Six players honored by the Big Sky. Amanda Ellsworth and Allyson Stainbrook were named to the all-conference first-team, Sheridan Hapsic was named to the all-conference second-team and Lia Margolis, Allyssa Kenney and Whitney Peterson received honorable mention nods from the conference.

During the 2012 season, Gibson led her team to a four-match winning streak late in the season to clinch a share of the regular season title and the rights to host the 2012 Big Sky Tournament. The Bengals won the tournament title after defeating both Weber State (semifinal) and Montana (final) on penalty kicks. For her performance in the goal, Sheridan Hapsic was named 2012 Big Sky Tournament MVP. The Bengals made their fifth program NCAA Tournament appearance, facing defending champion Stanford in the first round.

Over her career she has made Davis Field a huge home field advantage for the Bengals. Since 2006, Gibson has led the Bengals to an overall 69-79-20 record and an impressive 44-19-14 record at Davis Field.

During the 2011 season, Gibson had four athletes earn all-conference honors and freshman Amanda Ellsworth was named co-Newcomer of the year as well as all-conference honorable mention. Ellsworth became Gibson's second athlete to be named Newcomer of the Year after Ashley Jones earned the honor in 2009. Jones was named all-conference second team while freshman Mikaela Carrillo and Junior Rachel Strawn were named all-conference honorable mention.

During the 2009 season, Gibson led the Bengals to a 10-8-0 season record, her best overall record at Idaho State, as well as ISU's first ever season without a tie. Idaho State posted a 4-3-0 Big Sky record capturing a perfect 4-0-0 record in league play at home at Davis Field. The Bengals held its opponents to eight shots on goal at home and scored 13 goals at Davis Field including a 4-2 victory over Northern Arizona and a 4-0 victory over Weber State.

Gibson made her second Big Sky Tournament appearance in 2009, Idaho State's sixth appearance in history, where three Bengals were named to the all-tournament team: Annamarie Hofstetter, Kacey Ball and Karissa Henage-Fisher. In 2009, Idaho State had three players named to all-conference teams, including freshman Ashley Jones who was named Big Sky Newcomer of the Year. Senior Hofstetter and junior Henage-Fisher earned first team honors while Jones earned second team. Four Bengals earned honorable mentions.

In her first season with the Bengals in 2006, Gibson reestablished the soccer tradition at Idaho State, leading the Bengals to both a Big Sky Conference regular season title and a tournament championship. The tournament title earned the Bengals an automatic bid to the NCAA College Cup, where the team nearly upset 11th-ranked Utah on its home field, falling 3-2 in double overtime. Gibson earned her first Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year for her accomplishments during the 2006 season and had one of her players, Lyndsay Gensler, earn Big Sky Tournament MVP.

Under Gibson's direction, 23 Bengals have landed spots on the Big Sky All-Conference First and Second teams in addition to 23 earning honorable mention accolades. Thirteen Bengals have earned places on the Big Sky All-Tournament team. She places emphasis on academic achievement and on her watch, 67 Bengals also received Big Sky All-Academic honors with a program record 15 athletes earning all-academic honors during the 2013 season.

During the 2007 season Gibson posted a 7-5-6 record. Gibson tied the record for the fewest losses in a season. Unfortunately a string of ties, that set the record for most tied games in a season, kept the Bengals from the Big Sky Conference tournament by one point. Gibson is the only coach in Idaho State history to have an undefeated home season which she achieved in both 2012 and 2007. She also posts the longest home undefeated streak in ISU history with 13 games from 2006-08.

Gibson also serves the soccer community in numerous roles outside of college athletics. She served as the head coach of the U-17 Olympic Development Program team marking the eighth year that the coach has been involved in the program.

Gibson came to Idaho State after a five-year stint as the top assistant at the University of San Francisco of the West Coast Conference, considered one of the nation's best soccer conferences. While serving as an assistant for the Dons, Gibson also served as a head coach in the Region IV Olympic Development Program, for seven years. At USF, Gibson handled all matters of coaching, including practice planning, travel, scouting, recruiting and USF summer camps. She also developed a leadership workshop for student-athletes.

USF's best season was the 2004 campaign, when the Dons went 10-7-3 despite a schedule that included regional and national powerhouses such as the University of Portland and Utah. Gibson has definitely seen the best the nation has to offer, as in her last year San Francisco her team played the nation's toughest schedule, facing 10 teams that qualified for the NCAA College Cup in 2005, including national champion Portland and North Carolina.

Gibson is highly decorated as a player, leading Sonoma State University to a pair of NCAA College Cup appearances, including the Final Four in 1992 and a Final Eight appearance in 1993. She led the Cossacks to a pair of Northern California Athletic Conference championships, earning NCAC Player of the Year both in 1992 and 1993, while leading SSU to a 31-9 composite record. She also earned All-America honors both years from the National Soccer Coaches Association of American. In 2000, Gibson was inducted into Sonoma State's Hall of Fame.

Gibson then became an assistant coach at SSU, helping the Cossacks to a 29-6-1 record over the next two seasons and two more postseason trips.

Gibson graduated from Sonoma State in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, and she earned her master's in 2004 from the University of San Francisco in organization and leadership. She holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" coaching license. She also holds a NSCAA "Premier" Diploma.
