TOUGH WEEKEND FOR LOBOS

It was a tough weekend for the Lobo softball team as they fell in all three games to UNLV, including two heartbreaking games in game one and two. They hit .354 for the weekend but could not come up with a win. In game one and two, the Lobos had the lead going into the seventh innings but fell by one run. They fell in a slugfest in game one 13-12 and in game two 7-6. In game three, the Lobos couldn't quite get enough offense going, falling 7-3 to the Rebels.

JOHNSON NOW LEADS THE LOBOS AT THE PLATE

Before last series, sophomore Chelsea Johnson was second on the team in batting average but after hitting .667 against UNLV she is now leading the Lobos at the plate with a .435 average. Against UNLV, she was 8-for-12 with a double, two home runs and six RBI. She had a 1.250 slugging percentage and a .615 on-base percentage. Over the last five games, She has hit .750 with six runs scored, four home runs, including a grand slam, and 16 RBI. On the season, she has a total of seven home runs, four doubles and 26 RBI with a .797 slugging percentage and a .461 on-base percentage.

RIMMER HAS BIG WEEKEND

Although the Lobos didn't have a great weekend, senior Mariah Rimmer put together a big weekend, hitting .600. She went 6-for-10 with four runs scored and two home runs. She had a 1.200 slugging percentage and a .692 on-base percentage. She also walked three times. Over the weekend, she broke the career total base record, passing Danielle Cassara (1997-2000). Cassara had 347 career total bases. Rimmer now has 349 career total bases. On the season, Rimmer is hitting .422 which is second on the team. She has a total of seven home runs, 13 doubles and two triples. She owns a .704 slugging percentage and a .473 on-base percentage.

RIMMER BECOMING A TOP PLAYER IN UNM HISTORY

Senior Mariah Rimmer has made her mark here at the University of New Mexico. She will go down as one of the top players in UNM history. Rimmer is in the top 10 of many career categories for the Lobos, including batting average (1st, .361), slugging percentage (4th, .539), on-base percentage (5th, .411), at-bats (4th, 648), runs scored (3rd, 133), hits (2nd, 234), doubles (5th, 39), triples (7th, 8), home runs (7th, 20), RBI (3rd, 124), total bases (1st, 349) and stolen bases (8th, 58). In a single-season, Rimmer is third on the list in batting average (.422) and fifth in slugging percentage (.704).

LOBOS DOMINATE RAMS

Even though the Lobos only got two of their games in, they dominated Colorado State, taking the series. They claimed the first game 14-3 in six innings and took the victory 7-6 in game two. The Lobos pounded out 19 hits and were led by sophomore Chelsea Johnson. She went 7-for-8 in the two games with 10 RBI off a grand slam and a two-run home run.

RAIN DELAY DOESN'T KEEP LOBOS AWAY

It wasn't the best weather conditions for the doubleheader with Colorado State, but that didn't keep the Lobos away as they took the two games. The rain really started to come down hard in game two, forcing the two teams to a delay. Play stopped at 2:46 p.m. and didn't resume until 5:46 p.m., exactly a three hour delay.

JOHNSON EARNS MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK AGAIN

For the second time this season, sophomore Chelsea Johnson earned Mountain West Player of the Week. She went 7-for-8 for the week with 10 RBI, three run scored and two home runs, including a grand slam. Both home runs came in game one, the first giving the Lobos the lead for good. Johnson also had the eventual game-winning hit in game two. Johnson is second on the team with a batting average of .386 with a .702 slugging percentage and a .429 on-base percentage.

CAREER FIRSTS

Over the two games against Colorado State, two Lobos hit their first career home runs. Redshirt freshman Jade Gray hit solo shot in the sixth of game one which helped extend the Lobos lead and take a 14-3 win. Breland smashed her first home run in the second game, hitting a two-run shot over left field to tied the game up 2-2.

LOBOS MAKE THE MOST OF FRESNO STATE SERIES

It's tough going up against the No. 23 ranked Fresno State Bulldogs three times in a row but last weekend, the Lobos made the most of it. In game one, the Lobos were down 5-1 but cut the deficit to 5-4 but Fresno State showed why they were No. 23 in the nation, claiming that first game 11-5. The Lobos had a 2-1 lead in game two going into the fifth inning but a couple pitching mistakes cost the Lobos the game, falling 6-2. The final game was the toughest game for the Lobos as Fresno State came out with big offense early and ended up taking that game 11-1 in five innings.

FRANC LEADS THE WAY AGAINST BULLDOGS

Junior Shelbie Franc led the Lobos over last weekend against the No. 23 ranked Bulldogs. She hit .429, going 3-for-7 at the plate. Her biggest hit of the weekend came on Sunday, hitting her sixth career triple, that was just short of going over the right field fence. That fueled a little bit of energy for the Lobos as freshman Cheyenne Smith singled to score Franc. Franc also scored a team-best four runs over the weekend.

ROBERT GETS ANOTHER VICTORY

Freshman Colette Robert claimed her eighth win on the season, picking up the final game of the series. She allowed two runs off eight hits while striking out two and walking one. Robert is second on the team in ERA at 3.67. In a team-leading 89.2 innings of work, she has allowed 61 runs off 125 hits while striking out a team-best 44. She also holds her opponents to a .330 batting average.

LOBOS IN THE CONFERENCE

The Lobos are top 10 in three categories of the Mountain West. They are sixth in batting average at .302, fifth in ERA at 3.98 and tied for third in fielding percentage at .957.

BOMBS AWAY TO MW PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Sophomore Chelsea Johnson led the Lobos at the plate in the series with Utah State, hitting .600 to go along with nine RBIs and three home runs, including a grand slam to win game two. With that performance, Johnson earned Mountain West Player of the Week, her first Mountain West weekly honor in her career. Her grand slam came when the Lobos and the Aggies were tied 6-6, which gave the Lobos a 10-6 lead and eventually being the game-winner.

FORTNER PITCHES TO FIRST CAREER SHUTOUT

Sophomore Krissy Fortner picked up her first career shutout over last weekend, downing Utah State 4-0. She allowed just three hits in her second career game of seven innings. She struckout one and walked two. Fortner owns a 3-1 record with a team-leading 3.50 earned run average. In 26 innings pitched, she has 10 strikeouts. Fortner is known for her ability to come in and close out game. She has four saves on the year which broke UNM's career save record. She recorded her ninth save against No. 23 Nebraska on March 19.

FORTNER BREAKS UNM'S CAREER SAVE RECORD

As a freshman last season, Krissy Fortner broke the UNM single-season save record with five. This season, she has broke the UNM all-time career-save record after record her fourth save of the season and ninth career save against No. 23 Nebraska. She came in in the seventh. Nebraska ended up threatening with bases loaded but Fortner got out of the jam to get the save. Fortner's four saves is tied for first in the nation with nine other player's across the country.

RODRIGUES GETS FIRST WIN OF SEASON

With Fortner's save against No. 23 Nebraska on Saturday, senior Lisa Rodrigues was able to claim her first win of the season in the circle. Rodrigues came into the game to relieve starter Tess McPherson in the third. She allowed one run off three hits while striking out one and walking four.

FRESHMAN ROBERT CLAIMS FIRST CAREER VICTORY

In just her first career start for the Lobos, freshman Colette Robert picked up her first career victory. Robert started the first game of the season against San Diego. She allowed one run off six hits while striking out five and walking none.

LOBOS PICKED FOURTH IN MW PRESEASON POLL

New Mexico is picked to finish fourth in Mountain West action this season. The Lobos received a total of 34 points which is 15 points away from eighth pick San José State. The Lobos finished eighth in 2015 with a 13-11 record, for a fourth place finish and one of the best seasons in program history.

The favorite of the conference once again is Fresno State, who finished with a 20-4 conference record last season. They claimed the MW title last season. The Bulldogs received eight first place votes for a total of 64 points.

San Diego State picked up 57 points and one first place vote for second while SJSU was picked to finish third for a total of 49 points. Along with New Mexico, UNLV, Utah State and Colorado State are the middle of the pack for five, six, and seven. Nevada and Boise State are picked at the bottom for eighth and ninth.

ABOUT THE 2015-16 LOBOS

New Mexico returns 11 letterwinners for the 2016 season, including four pitchers from last season. The Lobos are broken down by four seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, a redshirt freshman and seven true freshman. The Lobos are looking to climb up further in the Mountain West. Last season, they finished with one of their best seasons in program history, picking up their first-ever win over Nevada and picking up four series wins in the first five weekends of conference play.

TOP RETURNERS

Top returners for this year's squad include Mariah Rimmer and Jasmine Casados.

Starting center fielder Rimmer finished second on the team with a .378 batting average, finished with a team-high 65 hits and 13 stolen bases. On defense, she finished with a .929 fielding percentage, committing just seven errors in 54 games.

Casados is the Lobos starting third baseman and led her team in the batting average category, finishing with a .386 average. She had a .593 slugging percentage to go along with 56 hits, 10 doubles, a triple and six home runs. She also led the team with 40 RBIs.

PITCHING PROSPECTUS

The Lobos made huge strides in the pitcher's circle last season. Lauren Soles and Krissy Fortner were the Lobos go-to pitcher's. Soles finished the season with a 10-5 record and second on the team with a 3.43 earned run average to go along with 46 strikeouts in 96 innings of work. Rodrigues finished with a 2-5 record and a 6.37 era.

Fortner was the Lobos closer last year and finished as the top pitcher on the team. She owned a 9-5 record with a 2.85 earned run average. In 92 innings of work, she had 58 strikeouts and held her opponents to a .246 batting average. She made 38 appearances and set a new UNM softball record of five saves.

Beach will also look to Tess McPherson and Lisa Rodrigues for some clutch innings. The Lobos added a new pitcher, Colette Robert, who played at a high level in Oregon.
