About Wyoming

Wyoming has an overall record of 14-3, and the team is 2-0 in the Mountain West. The Cowgirls have five players that have at least 10 wins in the Spring, led by Ana Tkachenko, who is 14-2 in the Spring and 19-5 overall. Also with double-digit wins in the Spring are Dorottya Jonas and Tessa van Der Ploeg (both 13-3), Milka Genkova (12-4), and Elisa Koonik (11-4). Wyoming has won five straight, all against opponents UNM has played on its six-match home stand. In addition Wyoming has won 11 of 12 matches.

About Colorado State

The Rams are 8-10 on the season, and 0-2 in the Mountain West. Emily Kolbow has been the only player to play in the same flight all season, going 5-11 at No. 1 singles. The top player in the Spring has been Madison Porter, who is 7-5, mostly playing at No. 5 and No. 6 singles. Solene Crawley is 5-5 in the Spring. Colorado State is on a two-match winning streak, but they lost 7-0 to Utah State and 5-2 to Boise State its two conference matches.

It's a Streak

New Mexico is now of a four-match winning streak after getting a pair of tense wins at home over Utah State 5-2 and Boise State 4-3 on Senior Day. The four-match winning streak.

Hopping Into April Like Peter Cottontail

Remember when UNM started the season 1-11? Yeah, we just needed to get to April. The Lobos, dating back to 2014 are now 21-4 in the month of April.

What A-Bhat Rachana?

Rachana Bhat moved up to No. 7 on the all-time singles wins list with her two wins this past weekend. Bhat also picked up win No. 15, giving her the team lead. She is now a team-best 15-5 this season. Bhat picked up the clinching win in both matches, for the doubles point each time, and for the overall match each time. That's good timing.

To Wong Fu, Thanks for Everything, Julie Newmar

Diana Wong not only improved to 11-5 on the season, but she won both of her matches this weekend. Those two wins also improved her team-best winning streak to seven (over a span of 10 matches). That streak is the longest for any Lobo this season, besting four-match winning streaks by Bhat, Ruth Copas ... and Wong earlier in the year. Wong hasn't lost a match since February 17, nearly two months ago.

The Greatest Dukakis is the One Not Named Dukakis

Dominique Dulski (who now sometimes is referring to as Dukakis after an iPhone auto-correct error changed her name on the website) saw her winning streak end at four in a row on Sunday. However, Dulski is playing her best tennis of the season, solidifying UNM's No. 3 singles slot, having gone 4-1 in her last five matches.

Olivier Getting Closer to Top 15

Emily Olivier teamed up with Diana Wong to win at doubles against NMSU 6-3, giving her 57 doubles wins in her career, the team active leader and one away from breaking into the top-15 at UNM.

Kate McKinnon isn't the Only Awesome McKinnon These Days

The Linda Estes Tennis Center served as a wonderful home for UNM Tennis, and even though UNM doesn't play outdoor matches there, UNM's tennis offices, locker room and the Randy Briggs Indoor Tennis Dome are all still located there. The Briggs Indoor Dome covers three courts. It is 40 feet tall, 196 feet long and 128 feet wide, and was at one time the widest indoor tennis bubble in the world. There is a lobby area and the bleachers that seat close to 1,000 fans.

Now, UNM calls the McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium home for it's outdoor matches. The McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium is located directly across the street from Linda Estes, behind The Pit basketball arena and next to the Lobo baseball field.

The stadium features stadium lights, electronic scoreboards and six sunken outdoor courts that include stadium seating for approximately 1,000 fans. Fans can keep up with all the action via a large electronic scoreboard located between the two central courts as well as smaller boards at each individual court.

The McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium comes courtesy of a $1.2 million donation that was part of a $7.5 million gift to UNM that Ian and Sonnet McKinnon made in 2011. Another $500,000 was raised privately for the project and the stadium lights were donated by the City of Albuquerque. The McKinnon family also contributed $300,000 to an endowed scholarship in the name of Loren Dils, a former director of the Lobo Tennis Club and an ex-UNM assistant tennis coach, who has been diagnosed with ALS. Ed and Shirley Corley donated the scoreboards.

The McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium has also served as the host site of numerous events including the 2014 USTA/ITA Regional Championships and 2015 Mountain West Conference Championships. In summer 2015, the McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium was recognized as one of 13 winners in its 34th annual USTA Facility Awards Program, which recognizes excellence in the construction and/or renovation of tennis facilities throughout the country.
