2006-07 Lobo Men's Basketball Review

The New Mexico Lobos ended their 104th season in the first round of Mountain West Conference Tournament with a 62-54 loss to TCU. UNM finished 15-17 overall, just the program's second losing season in the past 24 years.

After starting 5-0, the Lobos ended the season on a five-game losing streak, something that had not happened since the last five games of the 1979-80 season. New Mexico had not lost five straight games at any point of a season since 1995.

Picked to finish fifth in the conference's preseason poll, New Mexico was 4-12 in the MWC regular season, tying TCU for eighth - or last - place. UNM lost 12 conference games for the first time since 1959 when it finished 1-13 in the Skyline Conference.

New Mexico endured its fifth losing record in the MWC in the past seven seasons. The Lobos' only winning mark in league play since 2000 was 10-4 in 2005. UNM was 8-8 in 2005-06. New Mexico never had a losing conference record from 1984-2000, a span of 17 seasons.

UNM was 2-12 away from home, 1-10 in true road games. The lone win was 70-66 at Colorado State on Feb. 3.

STEVE ALFORD NAMED LOBOS' 19TH HEAD COACH

University of New Mexico athletics director Paul Krebs announced March 23 that Steve Alford has been named the school's 19th head men's basketball coach. Alford spent the past eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Iowa.

Alford replaced Ritchie McKay, who compiled an 82-69 overall record in five seasons at UNM. McKay is now the head coach at Liberty.

Alford, 42, has a 308-183 (63%) career record in 16 seasons as a collegiate head coach. His teams has qualified for postseason play 11 times, produced 13 winning seasons and reached 20 wins on eight occasions.

"We are thrilled to have Steve and his family join our Lobo family," said Krebs. "He is an outstanding coach and he possesses a proven track record in arguably the toughest men's basketball conference in the country. In addition to his great basketball pedigree and national name, Steve is an outstanding teacher and recruiter who cares deeply about the student-athlete. Steve's arrival at the University of New Mexico signals a commitment to re-establishing UNM as a national player in men's basketball."

"This is a tremendous opportunity," said Alford. "I appreciate the opportunity that the University of New Mexico has given to me. We're looking forward to getting started and excited to meet the team and building the program. The Pit and Lobo basketball has a great tradition with NCAA Tournaments. We want the home court advantage to be even better. The fans will have a big part in making that possible."

In eight seasons at Iowa, Alford compiled a 152-106 record with a school-record seven consecutive winning seasons, and six postseason appearances. The Hawkeyes won two Big Ten Conference tournament titles (2001 and '06). Iowa was 17-14 in 2006-07. It was 9-7 in the Big Ten, tied with NCAA teams Illinois and Purdue for fourth place.

Prior to Iowa, Alford posted a 78-29 record in four seasons (1992-95) at NCAA Division III Manchester (Ind.) College and a four-year (1996-99) record of 78-48 at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State). The Bears defeated Wisconsin and Tennessee to advance to the Sweet 16 of the 1999 NCAA Tournament before losing to top-ranked Duke in the regional semifinals. In 1997 Alford led the Bears to a 24-9 record (second in the Missouri Valley Conference) and a trip to the National Invitation Tournament.

The Bears were 16-12 in Alford's first season at the Division I level in 1995-96. In 1997-98 Southwest Missouri won 12 of its final 18 games, posting a final record of 16-16 while advancing to the title game of the MVC postseason tournament for the second straight season. Alford joined the collegiate coaching ranks at Manchester College in 1992, taking over a team that had lost its first eight games. After winning four of 20 games that season, Alford led Manchester to a 20-8 mark in his first full year of 1992-93.

The following season Manchester was 23-4 followed by a 31-1 mark in his fourth and final season. Manchester won three straight conference tournament titles from 1993-95, advancing to the NCAA Division III Tournament all three seasons.

Manchester advanced to the 1995 NCAA Division III championship game before suffering its first defeat in 32 games to place second in the nation. Alford was named Indiana Collegiate Conference coach of the year in 1993, 1994 and 1995 and his record was 74-13 over his final three seasons.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Alford was a prep standout for his father, Sam Alford, at New Castle Chrysler High School. He earned Indiana's Mr. Basketball Award in 1983 after averaging 37.7 points per game as a senior.

During his collegiate career at Indiana, Alford started all but five of 125 games, helping the Hoosiers post a four-year mark of 92-35. Alford served as head coach Bob Knight's team captain in 1987 when Indiana posted a 30-4 overall record and won the national championship.

Alford concluded his college career as Indiana's all-time scoring leader with 2,438 points and he became the first player to win the Indiana MVP award four times. He is also Indiana's career leader in steals and three-point field goal percentage. Alford was a consensus first team all-America selection and the Big Ten MVP as a senior.

Alford earned first team all-Big Ten honors in each of his final three seasons and also earned all-America honors as a junior. He was named to the NIT all-tourney team as a sophomore when the Hoosiers finished second to UCLA. His career free throw percentage of .897 (535-596) ranks fourth best in NCAA history and he led the nation in free throw percentage as a freshman.

Alford was named to the all-tournament team at the 1987 NCAA Final Four and to the NCAA tournament all-decade team for the 1980s. He set an NCAA Final Four record when he made 7 of 10 3-point baskets in the 1987 championship game victory over Syracuse. In 1997, Alford was inducted into the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2001 he was one of 15 players selected to Indiana's all-Century team. He was one of five players named to ESPN's Big Ten Conference Silver Anniversary team in 2004. The Sporting News recently published Legends of College Basketball, a publication that recalled the careers of the 100 greatest Division I college basketball players. Alford was No. 35 on the list.

Following his freshman season at Indiana, Alford was selected to play for the United States basketball team at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Alford shot 64.4% percent from the field, averaged 10.3 points per game and was second on the team in assists as the U.S. collegians won the gold medal.

Alford was born Nov. 23, 1964, in Franklin, Ind. He holds a bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University. Alford is married to the former Tanya Frost, whom he has known since the two were schoolmates in grade school in New Castle. The Alfords have three children: Kory, 14; Bryce, 12; and Kayla, 9.

NEW MEXICO'S POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Lobos have a 27-21 record in 24 years of conference tournaments. The breakdown is 22-14 with two titles in 16 years in the Western Athletic Conference, but just 5-7 and one championship in seven tries in the Mountain West.

UNM has never won an MWC Tournament game seeded fifth or lower. The Lobos are 0-4 in those contests.

UNM has exited the MWC tourney after one game six times with three of those knockouts coming courtesy of UNLV. UNM lost to BYU in the 2001 title game and beat Utah to win the 2005 championship.

POSTSEASON HONORS

After being the only program in the Mountain West Conference with a first team all-league pick from 2002-06, the Lobos were shutout this year. Junior Tony Danridge was a third-team pick while juniors J.R. Giddens and Darren Prentice received honorable mention.

First team Lobos in the past were Ruben Douglas in 2002 and '03, Danny Granger in 2004 and '05 and Mark Walters in 2006.

TCU REVIEW AND NOTES

New Mexico couldn't hang on to a halftime lead, as the Lobos fell 62-54 to TCU in the opening round of the Mountain West Conference Tournament. TCU advanced to face top-seeded BYU in the quarterfinals, and the Lobos finished with just their second losing season since 1984.

J.R. Giddens had 10 points and 11 boards for New Mexico, which also got 12 points from Jamaal Smith. Kevin Langford pulled down 13 boards and Femi Ibikunle added 10 points and some very big defensive stops for TCU, which trailed by six at the half.

The Lobos, who hadn't lost five straight games since 1995, jumped out to a 24-11 lead on the eighth-seeded Horned Frogs but then went stone cold from the floor.

Brent Hackett's drive to the basket with just under five minutes left gave the Horned Frogs a 52-46 lead and capped a 13-3 run. Chad Toppert responded with a 3-pointer for New Mexico, but Alvardo Parker's three-point play with 3:42 restored TCU's six-point lead, and the Lobos didn't have another run left in them.

New Mexico used an 18-0 run highlighted by Smith's rebound and fastbreak basket to take a 24-11 lead. The Horned Frogs went seven minutes between baskets during that stretch. After trailing by as many as 14, however, TCU pulled to 34-26 at the half.

The Lobos missed their first eight shots after halftime before Tony Danridge sank a bucket with 13:36 left, giving New Mexico a 37-33 lead.

• UNM shot 54% (13-24) in the first half, but converted only 24% (6-25) in the 2nd half to finish the game at 39%... the Lobos missed their first 8 shots of the 2nd half

• TCU shot 59% (10-17) after halftime and out-rebounded the Lobos 21-7 in the final 20 minutes and 36-24 for the game

• New Mexico was 9 of 15 from the FT line, or 60%

• UNM made 299 shots from 3-point this year, the 3rd-highest total in school history...the record is 301 set by the 1997-98 team in 32 games followed by 300 in 31 games in 1993-94...the Lobos averaged 9.34 treys a game in 2006-07, the third-best in school history

LOBOS TIE SCHOOL RECORD FOR OVERTIME GAMES

New Mexico tied a single-season school record by playing four overtime games, and they came in an 11-game stretch in Mountain West Conference play. UNM was 1-3 in OT games..

The Lobos edged Utah at home 86-82 on Jan. 13. Two weeks later, UNLV got past the Lobos 76-72. On Feb. 20, New Mexico had a chance to beat San Diego State in regulation but UNM missed a lay-up at the end of regulation. The Aztecs prevailed 81-74 in the extra period. The very next game, Utah got revenge with a 93-91 double-OT triumph in Salt Lake City.

UNM played four overtime games in a season on three other occasions: 1989-90, 1994-95 and 2000-01.

3s FELL AT NEAR RECORD PACE

The Lobos averaged 9.34 treys a game and 11 of the 13 players on the roster connected from long range. UNM ranked 1st in the MWC and finished 10th nationally. New Mexico's top 3-point shooting teams:

3s/game	Total	G	Season
9.67	300	31	1993-94
9.40	301	32	1997-98
9.34	299	32	2006-07
8.46	237	28	2003-04

New Mexico opened the season by canning 16 of 39 3s in a 91-54 victory over Abilene Christian. The 16 treys tie for 5th-most in school history. It's the most 3s since 16 against Penn State on Dec. 29, 2004. Current Lobo Aaron Johnson was a member of that PSU team.

The 39 attempts are the most by the Lobos in a non-overtime game. UNM threw up 42 in a 112-104 double overtime loss to New Mexico State on Dec. 11, 1993.

UNM stroked 17 in a 93-91 double overtime loss at Utah, tied for the 4th-most in a game in school history. The Lobos were 9 of 15 in the two overtime periods.

SLIPPERY LEADS; NICE COMEBACKS

New Mexico watched three second-half, double-digit leads go by the wayside in MWC games. The Lobos led at nationally-ranked Air Force 37-16 in the first half and 41-24 early in the second period only to have the Falcons embark on a 28-1 blast. UNM lost 65-57. The Lobos led Air Force 19-9 at home, but came up short 60-51. They also had a 59-49 advantage at Utah before falling 93-91 in double overtime. New Mexico held a 28-14 advantage over TCU in the MWC Tournament, but was outscored by 16 in the second half in a 62-54 loss.

Against Utah in The Pit, New Mexico led 40-25 right after halftime, but the Utes rallied to eventually tie the game. UNM squeaked out an 86-82 overtime win.

The Lobos held a 44-28 advantage over rival New Mexico State only to have the Aggies trim it to one with 21 seconds remaining. UNM hung on to win 79-76.

On the other hand, the Lobos erased some big deficits season. UNM trailed Pepperdine 36-23 in the first half before taking off on a 19-0 run and an eventual 101-96 victory.

At Texas Tech on Jan. 1, New Mexico fell behind 33-13 and trailed 48-35 early in the second half. The Lobos rallied to take a 66-63 before coming up on the short end of a 70-68 decision, giving Bob Knight his 880th career win, tops among NCAA Div. I-A coaches.

New Mexico led UNLV at The Pit 29-16, then fell behind by 16 (58-42) in the second half. The Lobos rallied for a 1-point lead, but fell 85-83 when a 3-pointer by J.R. Giddens at the buzzer came up short.

LOBOS SHOCK WICHITA STATE

On Dec. 22, New Mexico knocked No. 8 Wichita State from the ranks of the unbeaten with a gutty 71-68 victory in the semifinals of the Las Vegas Classic played at the Orleans Arena. The Shockers were 9-0 coming into the game.

The last time New Mexico beat a team ranked that high was in 1999 when it nipped No. 2 Arizona 70-68 in Tucson.

The victory over WSU was all the more impressive considering UNM was without the services of leading scorer J.R. Giddens for most of the second half. The junior guard sprained his left ankle a few minutes into the second half and was limited to 26 minutes.

In Giddens' stead, junior Tony Danridge stepped up to tie a career-high with 17 points. Point guard Jamaal Smith, playing in front of hometown family and friends, was solid under constant pressure with 13 points and 5 assists. Chad Toppert came off the bench to score 10 points, including a huge 3-pointer with 39 seconds left for a 68-62 lead.

11 IN A ROW VS. THE BUFFS

In an unconscious stretch in the 106-65 victory over Colorado, the Lobos nailed 11 consecutive shots in the second half, and it wasn't a lay-up drill. Eight players contributed, getting 27 points from the 11 baskets over a span of 6 minutes and 7 seconds. Five of the buckets were 3-pointers from four different players.

STATS TRENDS

• Since 2003-04, New Mexico is 62-6 when it shoots better than its opponent...the only losses came in 2004-05 against Air Force (UNM 69.2% to AFA's 50%) and to Villanova (29.8% to 28.3%) in the NCAA Tournament, last year against Washington (54% to 50%) and twice to BYU (UNM 53% to BYU's 49% in The Pit, UNM's 51% to BYU's 46% in Provo) and this year at San Diego State (51% to 46%)...the record is 102-10 since 2000-01, including 11-1 this season

• The Lobos are 27-2 when allowing less than 60 points since 2004-05

• Under Ritchie McKay since 2002-03, UNM is 9-44 when it trails at halftime, however, four of the wins came in 2005-06 and three this year

• Since 2004-05, the Lobos are 50-11 when they lead at halftime, however, 10 of the losses came in the past two seasons

40TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The 2006-07 season was a year-long recognition and dedication to the former student-athletes who played in The Pit over the past 40 years. The highlights:

• A 40th anniversary logo was created by Albuquerque's Esparza Advertising at no charge...the UNM men's team, spirit squad and Lobo Louie and Lobo Lucy will all wear the logo patch on their home uniforms during the 2006-07 season

• Special murals were hung above all entrance doors inside The Pit...the displays highlight former Lobo greats alongside current team members...photos of former Lobos and the 40th anniversary logo will also be displayed prominently throughout the arena

• The 1966-67 team - the first to play in The Pit - was recognized at halftime of the Abilene Christian game on Nov. 10. Abilene Christian was UNM's first opponent iin the facility on Dec. 1, 1966.

UNM THE ONLY ONE

New Mexico was the only team in the Mountain West that produced a 1st team all-Mountain West Conference representative from 2002-06: Ruben Douglas in 2002 and '03, Danny Granger in 2004 and '05 and Mark Walters in 2006.

SEASON NO. 104

The 2006-07 season was the 104th in school history. The Lobos first laced up the hightops on Feb. 2, 1900, when they lost 8-6 to the Albuquerque Guards. While this season is actually the 105th anniversary of that inaugural year, UNM did not field a team for various reasons in 1900-01, 1903-04, 1917-18 and 1920-21.

The Lobos have been on the hardwoods continuously since the 1921-22 season and have compiled an all-time record of 1,264-997 (.559). New Mexico was 418-495 (.458) from 1900-62, but has gone 846-502 (.628) over the past 45 seasons, an average of nearly 19 wins per year. The Lobos have made 27 trips to the postseason during that span, including 11 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and 16 showings in the NIT.

GOV. RICHARDSON MAKES PLEDGE TO PIT RENOVATION

New Mexico Gov. Bill Richardson announced at a news conference Jan. 28, 2006, that he is pledging $15 million to improving athletics facilities at the University of New Mexico. The focal point of Richardson's capital outlay is an $8 million down payment for the renovation and modernization of The Pit/Bob King Court. The venerable arena opened Dec. 1, 1966. All renovations in the past 40 years have been limited to locker rooms and offices. An architect for the project has been chosen to begin preliminary plans and drawings.

"It has been almost 23 years since Jim Valvano and North Carolina State won the national championship in The Pit," said Richardson earlier this year. "If it is to continue to be one of the best arenas in college basketball, it has to be updated, and this is the first step."

POSTSEASON PERENNIALS

UNM has appeared in the NCAA Tournament or NIT eight of the past 11 years and 19 times in the last 23 seasons, dating to 1983-84. The Lobos participated in the NIT from 2000-02, advancing to the second round in 2000 and the quarterfinals in 2001. The Lobos have also made eight NCAA Tournament appearances since 1991, including a school-record four straight from 1996-99, moving to the second round each time.
