TIPPING OFF

The University of New Mexico women's basketball team enters conference play with a 3-0 record and coming off of an emphatic 120-66 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

UNM set a program record for most points scored in a game with the 120-point performance and the Lobos were one three-pointer shy of tying the program record with 17 against the Golden Lions.

Newcomers LaTora and LaTascya Duff have added an additional threat to the prolific Lobo offense, both as scorers and facilitators. LaTascya earned MW Player of the Week after scoring a game-high 28 points, going 10-of-11 from the floor, 4-of-5 from distance and 4-of-5 from the free-throw line.

Jaedyn De La Cerda was a stat stuffer with a 13 point, 11 rebound double-double, adding a game-high six assists and three steals. Six Lobos again scored in double figures, including a career-high 18 points from Corina Carter.

UNM is 3-1 in MW openers under Coach Mike Bradbury.

On the other side of the court is Nevada, with the Wolf Pack 4-1 on the season and coming off an 83-68 loss to Saint Mary's on Dec. 21.

Balanced Attack

Through three games, six Lobos are averaging double figures in points per game.

LaTascya Duff leads the team and the MW in points per game with 19.7, followed by Jaedyn De La Cerda (17.7), Corina Carter (14.0), LaTora Duff (14.0), Ahlise Hurst (12.3) and Antonia Anderson (12.0).

For the second-straight game, the Lobos had six players finish in double-digit scoring, led by LaTascya Duff's 28 points. De La Cerda added a double-double with 13 points and a career-high 11 rebounds and Carter set a career high with 18 points as the Lobos finished with a program-high 120 points at Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

Additionally, the Lobos had five players reach double figures in the first game against MSU with Ahlise Hurst leading the team with 18 points, followed by LaTascya Duff and Jaedyn De La Cerda with 16 points each, LaTora Duff with 14 points and Antonia Anderson with 13 points. Kath van Bennekom was one point shy of six Lobos finishing in double figures against MSU, with the majority of her points coming from the free-throw line (6-for-8).

Showing Range

On the season, the Lobos are averaging 12.7 made three-pointers per game, which leads the NCAA, and have attempted 102 three-point attempts.

UNM hit 17 three-pointers at UAPB, one shy of tying the program record, with nine coming in the first two quarters. Seven different Lobos made a three-pointer, led by LaTascya Duff going 4-of-5 from behind the arc.

The Lobos caught fire early on from behind the arc at Midwestern State to open the season, hitting eight three-pointers in the first two quarters. De La Cerda and Hurst accounted for three each, with Hurst going 3-for-4 from distance. While the Lobos cooled off in the second half, UNM finished with 13 three-pointers with five different players hitting at least one.

In the game against the Bearkats, UNM hit eight three-pointers with six different Lobos making a three. In the second quarter alone, UNM went 5-for-6 from distance to turn a deficit into a lead.

Double Trouble

If the first three games of the season are any indication, LaTora and LaTascya Duff will be trouble for opponents to account for.

Through their first three games as Lobos, they have combined for 101 points, with LaTascya leading the team with 59 points, and filled the stat sheet with a combined 23 assists, 24 rebounds and eight steals.

Additionally, both Lobos have scored in double figures in all three games and rank first (LaTascya) and third (LaTora) on the team in ppg.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2020-21 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

LaTascya entered the season being named the Mountain West Preseason Newcomer of the Year, and currently ranks first in the MW in points per game with LaTora ranked fourth in assists per game in the MW (4.7).

On Dec. 21, LaTascya was named the MW Player of the Week for her performance at Arkansas-Pine Bluff, finishing with 28 points on 10-for-11 shooting from the floor and 4-for-5 from three-point range.

The Duffs rank second and third on the team in field-goal attempts and assists, first and third in field-goals made and third and fourth in total rebounds.

Simply the Best

The Lobos have scored 90-plus points in every game this season, including a program-best 120 points at Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17. The Lobos have scored 311 points through three games, an average of 103.7 points per game, which leads the NCAA.

UNM also leads in three-point field goals per game (12.7) and are eighth in the country in assists per game (20.0). The Lobos have a 30.3 scoring margin to rank 10th overall and 15th in assist-turnover ratio (1.36).

In the MW, UNM leads the conference in assists per game, three-point FG defense (24.4%). On an individual basis, De La Cerda leads the conference in offensive rebounds per game (4.3) and LaTascya Duff leads in ppg (19.7).

Fast Starts

The Lobos are outscoring their opponents in every quarter, with the largest margin occurring in the first quarter with 32 (69-37) and the second-largest margin in the second quarter (30). UNM is outscoring its opponents 155-93 (margin of 62 points) in the first two quarters with its largest scoring output in the second quarter (86 points).

In the last game at UAPB, UNM got out to a 17-0 lead en route to a 32-8 first quarter lead and a 63-27 halftime score.

In the first game at Midwestern State, the Lobos took a 25-6 lead into the second quarter that grew to a 49-25 halftime lead.

Hurst So Good

Ahlise Hurst has shown her range through her first two years as a Lobo, especially behind the arc. The Australian finished the 2019-20 season with 92 three-pointers to rank second in Lobo program history for most threes in a single season and ended the season ranked ninth in the nation in 3-point field goals made (92) and 17th in three-point field goals made per game (2.88).

Hurst led the Lobos in minutes, points, points per game, made field goals and attempted field goals last season.

In the season opener against Midwestern State, Hurst led the Lobos with 18 points and picked up right where she left off last season with five three-pointers in the game.

This season, Hurst is 9-for-20 from distance, leading the team with the most made and attempted threes.

Pride of Roswell

The only New Mexican on the roster, Jaedyn De La Cerda is representing the Land of Enchantment well.

In her senior season, De La Cerda is second on the team in points over the first three games (53) and posted a team-high 24 points against Sam Houston State. The guard leads the team in field goal attempts (36), second in field goals made (15) and rebounds (22), while leading in offensive rebounds (13). She is tied with LaTora Duff in assists (14) for the team high and tied with Duff for second in steals (6).

In the last game at UAPB, De La Cerda was a stat stuffer, finishing with a career-high 11 rebounds, 13 points, a game-high six assists and game-high three steals.

In the fourth quarter of the game against Sam Houston State, De La Cerda stepped up to lead the Lobos to victory, tallying 13 of the team's 34 points and going a perfect 7-for-7 at the free-throw line. The senior also grabbed three offensive rebounds which led to six second-chance points.

Not Shai About It

Shaiquel McGruder made her presence known on both ends of the floor against Sam Houston State. McGruder registered seven points, nine rebounds (two offensive) and five blocks through the first two quarters and registered eight points in the third quarter on her way to a final stat line of 17 points, 13 rebounds, five blocks and three steals, including going 2-for-3 from three, a career high. The Ohio native leads the team with five blocks and seven steals as well as in rebounds per game with 8.0.

Under Pressure

Led by four steals from LaTora Duff, the Lobos registered 13 steals against Midwestern State. UNM turned those steals into nine fast-break points and finished the game with 27 points off of turnovers.

At UAPB, UNM scored 31 points off of 15 Golden Lion turnovers.

The Lobos added nine steals against the Bearkats with Shaiquel McGruder leading with three and 10 steals at UAPB, led by De La Cerda's three.

Pushing the Pace

Speaking of fast-break points, the Lobos finished with 23 in the game against MSU, with a game-high 11 coming in the third quarter. UNM added 14 fast-break points at SHSU and nine at UAPB, bringing the season total to 46.

Limit the Opponent

In the opening quarters in two of UNM's three games, the Lobos

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

have held their opponent below 10 points.

In the first quarter against Midwestern State, the Lobos held the Mustangs to just six points, all coming from the free-throw line. The Mustangs went 0-for-7 from the floor and 0-for-2 from behind the arc. In addition, UNM didn't allow any offensive rebounds by Midwestern State in the first quarter, limiting the possession and any opportunities for MSU to get second-chance points.

UNM scored the first 17 points in the game at Arkansas-Pine Bluff to finish the first quarter ahead 32-8. UAPB went 4-for-17 from the floor and 0-for-3 from three.

Never Let Up

UNM led from start to finish in the season opener, scoring 20-plus points in each quarter for the eventual 28-point win.

The Lobos separated from the Mustangs early, finishing the first quarter with a 19-point advantage, which would grow to 24 points at the half and 25 points at the end of the third.

The third quarter provided the closest margin in scoring between the two teams with the Lobos scoring 23 points to the Mustangs' 22 points, but the first half cushion made it so that the lead was never in danger.

From the 53-second mark in the second quarter when a Kath van Bennekom three made it 46-25, the Lobo lead never dipped below 21 points for the remainder of the game.

An Antonia Anderson layup off of a LaTascya Duff steal with 2:18 left in the game created the largest lead of the game for the Lobos at 33 points (93-60) before the Mustangs closed the game with the final five points.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO 2020-21 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

MIKE BRADBURY | @COACHBRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 82-50 (5TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 260-167 (14TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Spent six years at Wright State (2010-16) and went 128-73 for the Raiders
- Most single-season wins in Wright State history (26)
- Five 20-win seasons at Wright State with five postseason appearances

Mike Bradbury enters his fifth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous four seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 79-50 overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the pre-season WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch.

Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached eight All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burseson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burseson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each season in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19).

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years - a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years.

At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 28 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 26 winning seasons.
