TIPPING OFF

The University of New Mexico women's basketball team enters the game with two, 90-point performances on the season, coming off of a 28-point win to open the season against Midwestern State and a competitive 98-89 win over Sam Houston State.

The Lobos return seven players from a year ago, notably veterans Jaedyn De La Cerda, Antonia Anderson and Ahlise Hurst, who have all averaged over 10 points through the first two games.

Shaiquel McGruder is coming off of a dominant game against Sam Houston State, recording a double-double with 17 points and 13 rebound, and added five blocks and three steals to her stat line. De La Cerda posted a team-high 24 points, going 14-for-15 from the line and a total of six Lobos finished the game scoring double figures.

Newcomers LaTora and LaTascya Duff have added an additional threat to the prolific Lobo offense, both as scorers and facilitators.

On the other side of the court is Arkansas-Pine Bluff, with the Golden Lions entering the contest coming off of a 74-70 loss to Central Arkansas in their last game on Dec. 1.

This is the first meeting between the two teams.

Balanced Attack

Through two games, six Lobos are averaging double figures in points per game.

Jaedyn De La Cerda leads the Lobo scoring with 20.0 points per game, followed by LaTascya Duff at 15.5, LaTora Duff at 14.5, Antonia Anderson at 11.5, Ahlise Hurst at 10.5 and Corina Carter at 10.0.

Against Sam Houston State, UNM had six players reach the 10-point mark with De La Cerda leading with 24 points. Shaiquel McGruder added 17 points, the Duff sisters had matching 15 points and Carter and Anderson each contributed 10 points. It was the first time that the Lobos have ever had six double-digit scorers in a game.

Additionally, the Lobos had five players reach double figures in the first game against MSU with Ahlise Hurst leading the team with 18 points, followed by LaTascya Duff and Jaedyn De La Cerda with 16 points each, LaTora Duff with 14 points and Antonia Anderson with 13 points. Kath van Bennekom was one point shy of six Lobos finishing in double figures against MSU, with the majority of her points coming from the free-throw line (6-for-8).

Showing Range

On the season, the Lobos are averaging 10.5 made three-pointers per game and have attempted 63 three-point attempts.

The Lobos caught fire early on from behind the arc at Midwestern State to open the season, hitting eight three-pointers in the first two quarters. De La Cerda and Hurst accounted for three each, with Hurst going 3-for-4 from distance.

While the Lobos cooled off in the second half, UNM finished with 13 three-pointers with five different players hitting at least one.

In the last game against the Bearkats, UNM hit eight three-pointers with six different Lobos making a three. In the second quarter alone, UNM went 5-for-6 from distance to turn a deficit into a lead.

Double Trouble

If the first two games of the season are any indication, LaTora and LaTascya Duff will be trouble for opponents to account for.

In their first games as Lobos, they combined for 60 points and filled the stat sheet with a combined 16 assists, 13 rebounds and seven steals.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2020-21 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Against Midwestern State, LaTascya Duff led the Lobos in assists (six), while LaTora Duff led the team with four steals. In the last game at Sam Houston State, the duo had matching 15-point stat lines with LaTora tying for the team high in assists with five. LaTora added a steal, a block, and four rebounds to her all-around contribution.

LaTascya entered the season being named the Mountain West Preseason Newcomer of the Year, and currently ranks third in assists on the team (six) and in offensive rebounds (three). LaTora leads the team in assists (10) and steals (five) through the first two games and is second in defensive rebounds (six).

Even Better

The Lobos are outscoring their opponents in the first, second and fourth quarters, with the largest margin occurring in the second quarter with 18 (55-37) and the second-largest margin in the fourth quarter (55-44).

In the last game, UNM outscored SHSU in the even quarters to take the lead in the second quarter and secure the road win in the fourth. UNM entered the second quarter against SHSU down 23-12, but used an 18-0 run to outscore SHSU 31-18 in the frame to take the 43-41 lead into the break. The Lobos held just a one-point advantage entering the fourth against the Bearkats and outscored SHSU 34-26 to pull away with the nine-point win.

Not Shai About It

Shaiquel McGruder made her presence known on both sides of the floor against Sam Houston State. McGruder registered seven points, nine rebounds (two offensive) and five blocks through the first two quarters and registered eight points in the third quarter on her way to a final stat line of 17 points, 13 rebounds, five blocks and three steals, including going 2-for-3 from three, a career high.

The Ohio native leads the team with five blocks as well as in rebounds per game with 8.5.

Hurst So Good

Ahlise Hurst has shown her range through her first two years as a Lobo, especially behind the arc. The Australian finished the 2019-20 season with 92 three-pointers to rank second in Lobo program history for most threes in a single season and ended the season ranked ninth in the nation in 3-point field goals made (92) and 17th in three-point field goals made per game (2.88).

Hurst led the Lobos in minutes, points, points per game, made field goals and attempted field goals last season.

In the season opener against Midwestern State, Hurst led the Lobos with 18 points and picked up right where she left off last season with five three-pointers in the game.

This season, Hurst is 6-for-12 from distance.

Pride of Roswell

The only New Mexican on the roster, Jaedyn De La Cerda is representing the Land of Enchantment well. In her senior season, De La Cerda leads the team with 40 points over the first two games and with a team-high 24 points against Sam Houston State. The guard also leads the team in field goal attempts (21), field goals made (10), free-throw attempts (19) and free-throw percentage (.895), is tied for the team lead in minutes played (61), and ranks second in rebounds (11) with seven offensive boards.

In the fourth quarter of the game against Sam Houston State, De La Cerda stepped up to lead the Lobos to victory, tallying 13 of the team's 34 points and going a perfect 7-for-7 at the free-throw line. The senior also grabbed three offensive rebounds which led to six second-chance points.

Under Pressure

Led by four steals from LaTora Duff, the Lobos registered 13 steals against Midwestern State.

UNM turned those steals into nine fast-break points and finished the game with 27 points off of turnovers.

The Lobos added nine steals against the Bearkats with Shaiquel McGruder leading with three.

Pushing the Pace

Speaking of fast-break points, the Lobos finished with 23 in the game against MSU, with a game-high 11 coming in the third quarter. UNM added 14 fast-break points at SHSU, bringing the season total to 37.

Limit the Opponent

In the first quarter against MSU, the Lobos held the Mustangs to just six points, all coming from the free-throw line. The Mustangs went 0-for-7 from the floor and 0-for-2 from behind the arc. In addition, UNM didn't allow any offensive rebounds by Midwestern State in the first quarter, limiting the possession and any opportunities for MSU to get second-chance points.

In the second and fourth quarters of the game against Sam Houston State, the Lobos didn't allow any second-chance points, allowing the Lobos to not only go on a run in the second quarter to take the lead, but allowed the Lobos to keep the lead in the fourth quarter.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2020-21 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Never Let Up

UNM led from start to finish in the season opener, scoring 20-plus points in each quarter for the eventual 28-point win.

The Lobos separated from the Mustangs early, finishing the first quarter with a 19-point advantage, which would grow to 24 points at the half and 25 points at the end of the third.

The third quarter provided the closest margin in scoring between the two teams with the Lobos scoring 23 points to the Mustangs' 22 points, but the first half cushion made it so that the lead was never in danger.

From the 53-second mark in the second quarter when a Kath van Bennekom three made it 46-25, the Lobo lead never dipped below 21 points for the remainder of the game.

Know Your Opponent

Arkansas-Pine Bluff enters Thursday's game 1-1 with a win over Arkansas State (85-68) and a loss to Central Arkansas (74-70).

The Golden Lions are led in scoring by guard Tyler Pyburn, who is averaging 15.0 per game and on the boards by center Nissa Sam-Grant, who is averaging 7.5 rebounds this season.

Out of the SWAC, UAPB went 7-22 last season and was picked to finish eighth in the predicted order of finish.

MIKE BRADBURY | @COACHBRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 81-50 (5TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 259-167 (14TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Spent six years at Wright State (2010-16) and went 128-73 for the Raiders
- Most single-season wins in Wright State history (26)
- Five 20-win seasons at Wright State with five postseason appearances

Mike Bradbury enters his fifth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous four seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 79-50 overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 - 2008-09 seasons.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 - 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the pre-season WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch.

Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached eight All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Bureson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Bureson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each season in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19).

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years - a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years.

At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 28 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 26 winning seasons.
