 UVU series record: 1-4 UVU win streak: L1

- The Wolverines will enter the weekend with a 9-39 overall record and a 7-25 WAC clip after splitting a four-game league series against New Mexico State in UVU's final home series of the 2021 season last weekend. Following the series split against the Aggies, Utah Valley then dropped a midweek slugfest to in-state foe Utah on Wednesday night in Salt Lake City by a score of 10-9.
- UVU opened up an early 6-1 lead on Wednesday against the Utes thanks in large part to five quick RBIs from sophomore outfielder Jake Plecas. Plecas first started the scoring with his third home run in UVU's last four games with a second-inning three-run bomb to left center. He then followed it up with a two-run single in the third and Mick Madsen added an RBI single to give the Wolverines the early 6-1 advantage. The Utes chipped away at the deficit from there, as they added a run in the bottom of the third and four more in the fourth to tie the contest at 6-6. Madsen and Tavyn Lords then combined to drive in three more runs for UVU in the fifth thanks to back-to-back doubles to give the Wolverines a 9-6 lead. But back struck Utah with two in the last of the fifth, along with single runs in the sixth and seventh to take the late 10-9 advantage. The Utes would go on to hold the lead from there en route to earning the come-from-behind victory.
- The Wolverines and Utes combined to slug-out 26 total hits and score 19 runs in the contest. Four Wolverines finished with multiple hits in the ballgame and Madsen led the way by going 3-for-4 with a double and three RBIs, while Plecas went 2-for-4 with 5 RBIs and a run scored. Brandon Luna and Tavyn Lords also each added 2-for-4 outings for UVU.
- A total of six pitchers appeared in Wednesday's ballgame for UVU and Dylan Cook led the way by not allowing a hit or a run over the final inning and a third. The team's normal closer Spenser Triplett also pitched well by allowing just one run on two hits over 2.0 innings in his first start of the season.
- Senior Kade Poulsen leads UVU on the season with .283 batting average and 25 runs scored. He is also second on the club in doubles (7), homers (4) and RBIs (21). Mitch Morales is next, as he's batting .276 and has a team-best five stolen bases, while Madsen follows with a .269 clip. Alexander Marco, who is hitting .262, leads the team in homers with nine, doubles with 21 and RBIs with 24. His 21 doubles are also good enough lead the WAC and rank him second in the nation in that category, while he is also tied for second in the WAC with his nine home runs. Reliever Dylan Cook leads the Wolverine pitching staff in ERA on the season with a 3.98 average, while Nick Sims has the best ERA from UVU's starting rotation with a 4.93 clip. Mason Gray tops the team in wins with three and also strikeouts with 57 over 56.0 innings of work.
- With 42 double plays turned on the season, the UVU defense is currently tied for fourth in the nation in that category. Utah Valley also ranks 19th nationally in double plays turned with a per game average of 0.88 per contest. The Wolverines turned an impressive tally of seven double plays in the four-game series against Tarleton a few of weeks ago, including a season-high four in the series finale on April 18.
- Friday's opener will mark just the sixth all-time meeting between the Wolverines and Lobos on the diamond. UNM will enter holding to a 4-1 advantage and all five previous meetings have been played in Albuquerque. UVU's lone win came in the second-to-last meeting between the two clubs in a 12-8 victory in a midweek contest on May 5, 2014.
- Following the series, UVU will head to the Pacific Northwest for a big final WAC series of the season May 20-22 at Seattle U. Both Utah Valley and Seattle U are currently battling for a spot for the 2021 WAC Baseball Tournament that will be held May 26-30 in Mesa, Ariz. The crucial four-game WAC series will begin Thursday, May 20 at Bannerwood Park in Bellevue, Wash.

ABOUT THE OPPOSITION

The Lobos will also enter the weekend with just nine wins on the season, as UNM holds a 9-23 overall record and currently sits in sixth place in the Mountain West standings with a 6-15 conference record. New Mexico has dropped eight straight games after getting swept by both Air Force and Fresno State and falling to both Texas Tech and Washington in non-league competition. UNM's last win came on April 25 in a 5-3 extra-inning win over the Washington Huskies. The Lobos were picked to tie for third in the Mountain West this season after going 14-4 last year and 23-28-1 overall and placing seventh in the MW standings with a 11-16-1 conference mark in 2019.

Kyler Castillo leads UNM on the season with a .389 average, 11 doubles and 25 RBIs. He is also second on the club in homers with six. Mack Chambers is next with a .375 average, six homers, 11 doubles and 19 RBIs. Jack Silverman paces the Lobos in homers with seven. Reliever Cody Dye leads New Mexico with a 2.87 ERA, while Saturday's scheduled starter Armbruster is UNM's top starter with a 3-2 record, a 3.97 ERA and 72 strikeouts in 59.0 innings or work.

DREW SIMS NAMED TO BUSTER POSEY AWARD WATCH LIST

Fourth-year junior catcher Drew Sims has been named to the Buster Posey National Catcher of the Year Watch List for the 2021 season. This marks the second time of his career that Sims has been named to the prestigious watch list, as he was previously named as a freshman in 2018 when it was called the Johnny Bench Award. Arguably the best defensive and receiving catcher in the WAC, Sims has already thrown out two would-be base stealers this season (2-for-3) and a total of 38 would-be base stealers in his career. He has started a total of 102 games in a UVU uniform behind the plate and batted .246 with five doubles, two homers, 26 RBIs and 21 runs scored during his last full season of competition in 2019. Sims is one of 69 catchers to be named to the watch list this season. It will then be narrowed down to semifinalists on May 20 and the finalists will be announced on June 7.

MADSEN RESIGNS, CARTER TABBED INTERIM HEAD COACH

After 18 years with the Utah Valley baseball program and the last 13 season as head coach, Coach Eric Madsen announced his resignation on April 27. Madsen compiled a 309-363 career record during his tenure at UVU, and also led his Wolverines to three Great West Conference regular season and tournament championships, as well as the program's first NCAA Regional berth (2016 Baton Rouge Regional) after winning the WAC Tournament in 2016. He has also led his club to a pair of 40-win seasons, which included an improbable 32-game winning streak in 2012 and a program-record 47 wins that year (47-12). Longtime associate head coach David Carter has been named UVU's interim head coach and will take over at the helm of UVU baseball.

BROTHERLY LOVE AND BATTERY MATES

Utah Valley junior catcher Drew Sims and second-year freshman right-handed pitcher Nick Sims are brothers. Hailing from Murrieta, California, both the older brother Drew and younger brother Nick attended Vista Murrieta High School in Murrieta. Now at UVU, the two brothers are also battery mates, as the catcher Drew usually catches each of Nick's starts on the mound. In 11 starts on the mound for Nick this season, Drew has been behind the plate calling the balls and strikes for his brother in all but one of those so far in 2021.

JESSE SCHMIT EARNS PRESEASON ALL-WAC HONORS

Fifth-year senior right-handed pitcher Jesse Schmit earned Preseason All-WAC honors as well as being named to the Perfect Game's Preseason All-WAC squad. Schmit was one of the top starting pitchers in the WAC last season by leading the league with a 1.08 ERA. The righty was also UVU's top starter last season after going 2-0 with 27 strikeouts in 25.0 innings of work. He also limited opposing batters to just a .153 average and held a 0.80 WHIP.

2021 WOLVERINES

UVU returns 28 returning letterwinners, eight position-player starters and all four of its starting pitchers from last year's squad. The Wolverines also welcome in 17 total newcomers to its 47-person 2021 roster. Four 2020 seniors are back for an extra-year of eligibility for the Wolverines this season due to COVID-19 in OF Alexander Marco, INF Kade Poulsen, RHP Jesse Schmit and RHP Spenser Triplett.

WOLVERINES PICKED SEVENTH IN WAC PRESEASON POLL

Utah Valley was picked to finish seventh in the 2021 WAC Preseason Coaches poll. UVU finished with a 5-14 record during the COVID-shortened 2020 campaign and seventh in the WAC standings in 2019 with a 9-18 conference record and then went on to make a deep run at the 2019 WAC Tournament. Grand Canyon, Sacramento State and UT Rio Grande Valley were picked to win the WAC in a three-way tie, while New Mexico State was selected fourth, followed by California Baptist, Seattle U, UVU, Dixie State, and Northern Colorado and Tarleton tied for ninth.

UTAH VALLEY'S D1BASEBALL DRAFT PROSPECTS

Senior starting pitcher Jesse Schmit is listed as UVU's top 2021 MLB Draft prospect, as he checks in as the 21st-best draft prospect in the WAC, while junior catcher Drew Sims is right behind him at No. 25. Second-year freshman shortstop Garrett Broussard is also listed as sixth-best 2022 draft prospect by D1Baseball.

PAXTON SCHULTZ TAKEN IN 14th ROUND BY BREWERS

Right-handed starting pitcher Paxton Schultz became the highest draftee in UVU history in the summer of 2019, as he was taken in the 14th Round by the Milwaukee Brewers. During his standout junior campaign, Schultz tied the single-season strikeout school record with 99 strikeouts in 99.1 innings of work. He also limited opponents to a .260 batting average while leading the team with a 4.08 ERA. The native of Orem and graduate of Orem High School reached double figures in strikeouts three times in 2019, which included fanning a career-best 11 at SEC foe South Carolina.

* School Record

UVU ATHLETICS: A BRIEF HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In the summer of 2009, UVU'S provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events.

The Wolverines spent six seasons as an independent before the Great West Conference became an all-sports league in 2008 and began its first full season in 2009. UVU also became a university in 2008, changing its name from Utah Valley State College (UVSC) to Utah Valley University (UVU). Utah Valley University joined the Western Athletic Conference in 2014, where it currently competes today.

The 2016 Utah Valley University baseball team made program history, earning a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time. The Wolverines swept through the WAC Tournament, defeating, in order, CSU Bakersfield, New Mexico State, and Seattle University (twice). UVU was sent to the Baton Rouge Regional, where it faced national powerhouse and No. 5 LSU. Following several rain delays lasting over six hours, the Tigers defeated the Wolverines, 7-1. Two days later, after more weather delays, UVU dropped a 3-2 contest to Southeastern Louisiana to see it's historic season come to an end.

From 2010-12, Utah Valley twice led all of Division I in team batting, including hitting .372 in 2010. That team also led the nation in hits (840), doubles (188) and ranks second in the NCAA record book in doubles per game (3.19). Three individuals led the nation in offensive categories: Jake Rickenbach (runs pg), Chris Benson (RBIs), and Jace Brinkerhoff (runs). Brinkerhoff batted .456 and finished less than one-tenth of a percentage off of the top average in the country and became the program's first DI All-American.

The 2012 team exceeded even that of 2010 with a winning streak that reached 32 games, two shy of the NCAA record of 34 held by Florida Atlantic (1999) and Texas (1977). UVU led the nation in winning percentage (.797) after finishing 47-12. The team was also first in batting average (.350), runs per game (9.02), runs (532), slugging percentage (.523). Despite its success and 28-0 record in the Great West Conference, and 4-0 record in the GWC Tournament, due to the league not holding an automatic bid, UVU was not selected for an NCAA Tournament bid.

The 2012 team produced three All-Americans, including first-team selection Goose Kallunki. Billy Burgess and Austin Heaps also were named third-team All-America. Kallunki had the most renowned season in program history after batting .419 with 18 home runs, 86 RBIs, 96 hits and a slugging percentage of .734. He also led the nation in RBIs per game. Kallunki was the Great West Conference Player of the Year, the District VIII Player of the Year, semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, and one of the three finalists for the Dick Howser Trophy.
