DUFF DOING IT ALL

It didn't take long for LaTora Duff to get back to form, accounting for nine assists in two games this season and 12 assists in a game. The point guard tied her career high with nine assists against Lamar in the season opener, with seven assists coming in the fourth quarter, and then bested that performance against Prairie View A&M with a career-high 12 assists, while also setting career highs in points (then-17), rebounds (eight) and blocks (four) for her first double-double as a Lobo.

CONNECT FOR TWO

Of Duff's career-high 12 assists in the game against the Panthers, she connected with Shaiquel McGruder on eight of them.

AN ADDED SURPRISE

With 4:00 remaining in the second quarter of the game against Northern New Mexico, LaTascya Duff checked in at the scorer's table and into the game for the first time this season, after being cleared to play earlier in the week. It was thought that Duff would be out through the non-conference portion of the schedule at the beginning of the year, but head coach Mike Bradbury confirmed pregame that Duff was ahead of schedule and available to play.

To make it even better, LaTora Duff delivered a perfect pass to LaTascya on the wing, who drained a three-pointer in her first and only attempt of the game.

Duff has started 11 games this season and has made at least one three-pointer a game this season, with five made against Texas Tech and UTEP.

The senior guard was back to form with 21 points on 5-for-7 shooting that included five three-pointers against Texas Tech and improved on that performance with 22 against New Mexico State on Dec. 3.

In addition, the senior had a career-high eight rebounds against Arizona.

Duff leads the MW in three-pointers made per game with 2.6 and in three-point field-goal percentage (43.1). Nationally, she is 26th in three-pointers made (31), 49th in three-point field-goal percentage and 52nd in three-pointers per game.

PUTTING NEW MEXICO ON THE MAP

In her first official start for UNM against Houston, Reus distributed a season-high seven assists to go with seven points, two steals and five rebounds and had her best scoring output against New Mexico State on Dec. 3 with nine points on 3-for-4 shooting.

In the second game against the Aggies, Reus was called upon to play all 10 minutes of the fourth quarter and held her own against the NMSU post players, finishing with six assists, six points, six rebounds, two blocks and a steal in 28 minutes.

The freshman is averaging 4.9 points per game with 54 points in 11 games (sixth on the team), is third in assists (32, 2.9 per game) and fourth in blocks with six. Twice in the last three games, Reus has dished out six assists.

AA BATTERY

It didn't take long for freshman Aniyah Augmon to bring energy to the Lobos, providing an immediate spark off the bench and has found ways to make an impact in each game this season.

Augmon has recorded at least one steal in nine games this season and a rebound in 10 games while playing 11.1 minutes a game. Augmon has been credited with three steals in three games this season, and has grabbed six rebounds in two games.

When the Cardinals answered with an 8-0 run of their own to tie the game in the season opener, it was freshman Aniyah Augmon who stepped up to provide the spark off of the bench with a personal 5-0 run that entailed a fast-break layup, a steal and a three-pointer.

Augmon had a full stat sheet with eight points (3-for-3 shooting), six rebounds (tying the team high) and three steals (a team high) in her first collegiate game and nearly matched it in her second game as a Lobo.

The energy and contributions continued into game two, as the California native registered four rebounds, three assists, a steal and six points in the win over Northern New Mexico, going 2-for-3 from the floor and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line.

In the game against Prairie View, while the freshman was held to just one point, she found other ways to help the Lobos, with six rebounds and three steals.

SHÉ'S JUST A FRESHMAN

It took all of one week of collegiate play for Vianè Cumber to earn her first award, as the guard earned the inaugural MW Freshman of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15.

The distinction came after Cumber led all scorers with 17 points on 7-for-10 shooting and 3-for-5 from three-point range in her first collegiate start on Friday. The guard also was credited with an assist and two steals.

Cumber took over midway through the first quarter, accounting for eight straight Lobo points, making three consecutive shots on back-to-back threes and a layup as UNM built its lead in the first quarter, going a perfect 3-for-3 and 2-for-2 from three while also having a steal and an assist against Northern New Mexico. In the third quarter, Cumber went 2-for-3 with a fast-break layup and created the steal that led to a fast-break layup on the next possession.

The Albuquerque native added a layup and a final three in the fourth quarter while grabbing four defensive rebounds.

Her first collegiate basket occurred in the second quarter against Lamar on a jumper that extended the Lobo lead to seven and collected three rebounds.

On the week, Cumber averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.5 steals per game.

MANAGING EXPECTATIONS

After winning the Mountain West regular season in 2020-21 for the first time since 2004-05, the Lobos were picked to finish second in the preseason MW poll with 251 points and seven first-place votes.

It is the second time in head coach Mike Bradbury's tenure that the Lobos have been picked to finish second, with the last time occurring in 2019-20 when the Lobos earned three first-place votes and 280 points.

New Mexico finished above UNLV with the Rebels at 232 points and three first-place votes, and fourth-place Colorado State with the Rams earning 207 points and one first-place vote.

State and Colorado State with one each, San Diego State with two, UNLV at three, UNM with seven and Fresno State the preseason favorite with 13 first-place votes and 269 points.

In addition, senior Antonia Anderson was selected to the MW preseason all-conference team, one of five players to earn the distinction. For Anderson, the Cibolo, Texas native is coming off of a campaign in which she averaged 12.1 points per game, 6.2 rebounds per game, 1.9 assists per game, 1.0 steals per game and 1.0 blocks per game and scored 10-plus points in 13 games with a career-high 29 points in the victory over UNLV on Jan. 17. Anderson led the team in rebounds and rebounds per game, was second in made field goals and blocked shots and third in total points.

In MW contests, she averaged 12.6 points per game and a team-high 6.6 rebounds per game, as well as led the conference in field-goal percentage with 49 percent. Further, Anderson was eighth in blocks per game at 1.07 and ranked in the top 15 in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage, blocked shots and defensive rebounds, resulting in her first all-conference honor in being named to the Mountain West all-conference team.

PRIDE OF NEW MEXICO

The Lobos have two New Mexico natives on the 2021-22 roster with freshman Vianè Cumber and senior Jaedyn De La Cerda. In addition to being from New Mexico, the duo has something else in common: New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year distinctions.

Cumber was named the 2019-20 and 2021-21 New Mexico Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year after averaging 26.5 points, 9.3 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.5 steals her senior season and 22.4 points, 10.6 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 3.3 steals as a junior at Sandia High School in Albuquerque. Out of Roswell, N.M. and Roswell High School, De La Cerda earned the 2016-17 New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year.

2021-22 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 103-59 (6TH SEASON)

CAREER RECORD: 281-176 (15TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, only the second coach in program history to reach 100.
- Most single-season wins in Wright State history (26)

Mike Bradbury enters his sixth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous five seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 94-55 (.631) overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his most recent season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 11 times during his tenure.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO 2021-22 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 27 winning seasons.
