TIPPING OFF

The Lobo win streak extended to three games and the win streak against the Aggies extended to eight games following a home-and-home weekend sweep of New Mexico State.

LaTascya and LaTora Duff were nearly unstoppable on Friday night, combining for 39 points in the 77-58 Lobo victory.

LaTascya led all scorers with 22 points and added six rebounds, two assists and a steal, while LaTora was an efficient 5-for-7 from three-point range and 8-for-17 on the evening for 17 points to go along with three assists and two offensive rebounds.

Jaedyn De La Cerda finished with 15 points on 6-for-10 shooting in the game, 3-for-5 from three, for the third Lobo to reach double figures. The New Mexico native finished with a team-high eight rebounds and tied Shaiquel McGruder with four assists, with McGruder leading with a game-high two blocks.

UNM held the Aggies to 11.1 percent shooting from three-point range (1-for-9), while recording a season-best 13 three-pointers, shooting 66.7 percent in the fourth quarter alone (4-for-6) and shooting 54.2 overall from distance.

Sunday's storyline went much differently, with the Lobos rallying for the comeback win, outscoring the Aggies 28-10 in the fourth quarter. UNM led for just 3:30 in the game, compared to 36:49 in Friday's game.

Trailing by 14 points at the beginning of the fourth quarter of Sunday's game at New Mexico State.

a LaTascya Duff three-pointer (her first made three-pointer of the game) cut the gap down to 10 and started an eventual 15-2 run to tie the game at 63 with 3:55 remaining and a Shaiquel McGruder layup completed the comeback, putting the Lobos in front 65-64.

After NMSU scored at the 5:22 mark of the fourth quarter, the Aggies didn't score again until the 3:04 mark on a free throw, to unbreak the 63-all tie before McGruder's layup gave the Lobos the lead for good. From there, UNM closed on a 10-2 run that included a McGruder three-pointer, just her second made three-pointer all season, a Duff jumper and three free-throws closed the game in the 73-66 Lobo win.

In the series, LaTora averaged 20.5 points per game, LaTascya 15.5 points per game and McGruder 12.5 points per game with Anderson leading with 7.0 rebounds per game, three blocks and added 9.5 points per game. LaTora made 10 three-pointers in the two games, shooting 66.7%.

The Lobos face Arizona for the first time since 2012 and the first time in Tucson since 2011. In addition, Sunday's game will be the first ranked opponent the Lobos have faced since West Virginia in 2019 and the highest-ranked opponent since No. 4 Texas in 2014. UNM is 4-4 in Tucson and has won two of the last three meetings in Tucson (76-63 on 12/5/06 and 81-61 on 12/9/09).

NEW MEXICO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2021-22 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Balanced Attack

Much like their M.O. last season, the Lobos had balanced scoring. In their first three games of the season, the Lobos finished with four double-digit scorers before having three finish in double figures at Houston. They returned to form in the game against Houston Baptist. In the 11 games this season, the Lobos have had four double-digit scorers in five games and three in the other six.

Five Lobos are currently averaging 10-plus points per game in Shaiquel McGruder (14.0), LaTora Duff (13.1), Jaedyn De La Cerda (12.5), LaTascya Duff (10.9) and Antonia Anderson (10.2).

De La Cerda and LaTora have reached double figures in eight games, McGruder has reached double figures in seven games, Anderson in six and LaTascya in five.

Further, LaTascya has tallied two, 20-plus point games with McGruder four, 20-plus point games including one, 30-point game.

In addition, the Lobos have had six different leading scorers in the 11 games this season: Anderson (16, Lamar), Vianè Cumber (17, Northern New Mexico), McGruder (30, Prairie View; 20, Houston Baptist; 22, Grambling State), LaTora Duff (16, Houston and 24, at New Mexico State), De La Cerda (18, Stephen F. Austin and 15, Louisiana-Monroe) and LaTascya Duff (21, Texas Tech and 22, New Mexico State).

UNM is outscoring its opponents 834-684 with the largest margin in the first quarter (218-153, 65 points). The greatest point output is in the fourth quarter with 224 points, an average of 20.4 points per game in the quarter.

Put the 3 in 3-2

Antonia Anderson has made at least one three-pointer in each game this season and has a 13-game streak of making one dating back to last season. The game against Texas Tech was the first time Anderson has made multiple three-pointers since making two against Colorado State on March 5, 2021.

Three-Point Streaks

Other streaks on the Lobos: LaTascya Duff at 13 games with a three-pointer and LaTora Duff has made a three in the last nine games.

Showing Range

As a team, the Lobos are making 9.5 three-pointers per game and have reached double figures in five games and made nine in three games. UNM made a season-high 13 three-pointers and shot a season-best 54.2% from three against New Mexico State on Dec. 3.

Both LaTora and LaTascya Duff have made 24 three-pointers this season, with LaTascya making 2.4 per game and LaTora making 2.2 per game. LaTora is shooting 44.4% from behind the arc (24-for-54) with LaTascya at 41.4% (24-for-58).

LaTora has made five threes in each of the last two games, going 5-for-7 (71.4%) in the first game against New Mexico State and 5-for-8 in the second game against the Aggies. In the three games last week, LaTora made 12 three-pointers, shooting 63.2% from three-point range.

Jaedyn De La Cerda is closely behind with 23 made three-pointers, making 2.1 per game. The Lobos have five players with double-digit made threes to date (Vianè Cumber, 10 made, 35.7% and Antonia Anderson, 12 made, 44.4%).

Shal Time

Shaiquel McGruder has had four games so far this season with 20-plus points, including a 30-point performance against Prairie View A&M. Against the Panthers, the senior forward set several career highs, finishing with a career-high 30 points on a career-high 13-for-18 shooting, while adding seven rebounds and four steals to her stat sheet.

The scoring started early for McGruder, with the Lobo winning the tip and immediately making a layup 14 seconds in. McGruder already reached double digits in the first quarter with 10 points and accounted for three of UNM's five steals.

When it comes to steals, the senior has recorded multiple steals in six games with a season-high four steals against Prairie View. McGruder has recorded at least one steal in eight games, including the last three.

After not tallying a block in the first four games, McGruder has had at least one block in five games, including a season-best three blocks against Texas Tech and two games with two blocks.

McGruder has recorded two double-doubles this season (20 points, 10 rebounds against Houston Baptist and 22 points, 11 rebounds against Grambling State).

In addition, she leads the team in scoring (154), points per game (14.0), field-goal percentage, made field goals (70), steals (20) and steals per game (1.8), and rebounds (70) and rebounds per game (6.4).

The Ohio native leads the MW in field-goal percentage at .642, is eighth in rebounds (6.4 rpg) and ninth in scoring (14.0 ppg). She is also ninth in blocked shots (0.8 per game) and in steals (1.8 per game).

Nationally, McGruder is fourth in field-goal percentage, 16th in field-goals made (70) and 51st in points (154).

How May I Assist You?

It didn't take long for LaTora Duff to get back to form, accounting for nine assists in two games this season and 12 assists in a game. The point guard tied her career high with nine assists against Lamar in the season opener, with seven assists coming in the fourth quarter, and then bested that performance against Prairie View A&M with a career-high 12 assists, while also setting career highs in points (then-17), rebounds (eight) and blocks (four) for her first double-double as a Lobo.

The Lobo facilitator is averaging 5.5 assists per game, to go along with 13.1 points per game, 3.2 rebounds per game, 1.6 steals per game and 0.7 blocks per game. Duff has scored in double figures in eight of the 11 games and has scored in double figures in the last three games with a career-high 24 points after playing all 40 minutes at New Mexico State. Against the Aggies, Duff set career highs in made field-goals (eight) and in both games against the Aggies made five three-pointers (career highs).

Duff leads the MW in assists per game, is second in the conference in assist/turnover ratio (2.5) and is 11th in scoring. Nationally, Duff is tied with LaTascya for 33rd with 24 made three-pointers, is 40th in three-point field-goal percentage (44.4) and is third in assists (61) and 29th in assists per game.

Connect For Two

Of Duff's career-high 12 assists in the game against the Panthers, she connected with McGruder on eight of them.

An Added Surprise

With 4:00 remaining in the second quarter of the game against Northern New Mexico, LaTascya Duff checked in at the scorer's table and into the game for the first time this season, after being cleared to play earlier in the week. It was thought that Duff would be out through the non-conference portion of the schedule at the beginning of the year, but head coach Mike Bradbury confirmed pregame that Duff was ahead of schedule and available to play.

To make it even better, and a welcomed sight, LaTora Duff delivered a perfect pass to LaTascya on the wing, who drained a three-pointer in her first and only attempt of the game.

Duff has started nine games this season and has made at least one three-pointer a game this season, with four made against ULM and five made against TTU.

The senior guard was back to form with 21 points on 5-for-7 shooting that included five three-pointers against Texas Tech and improved on that performance with 22 against New Mexico State on Dec. 3 with 22 points.

Duff leads the MW in three-pointers made per game with 2.4 and is shooting 41.4% from distance with 24 made threes, tied for the team lead with LaTora.

Putting New Mexico On The Map

The Lobos are among the top of the NCAA in several statistical categories. UNM is second in three-point field goals made (104), fourth in assists (187) and three-point field-goals attempted (278), 15th in rebounds (424) and 18th in steals (108). In addition, the Lobos are 14th in three-point field goals per game (9.5), 24th in field-goal percentage (46.5), 26th in three-point field-goal percentage (37.4), 29th in blocked shots (45) and 32nd in assists per game (17.0). The Lobos are 52nd in scoring offense (75.8).

On an individual level, LaTora Duff is third in the NCAA in assists (61) and 29th in assists per game (5.5); Shaiquel McGruder is fourth in field-goal percentage (64.2) and 16th in field-goals made (70) and Antonia Anderson is 26th in blocked shots (19). Jaedyn De La Cerda is 33rd in three-point field-goals attempted (64) and 46th in three-point field-goals made (23). LaTascya and LaTora Duff are tied for 33rd in three-point field-goals made (24) with LaTora 40th in three-point field-goal percentage (44.4).

Milestone Achieved

Jaedyn De La Cerda became the 23rd Lobo to reach the 1000-point milestone in the fourth quarter against Texas Tech on Nov. 28. She currently has 1030 points in her illustrious career.

The New Mexico native is not the only Lobo with milestones within reach this season. Antonia Anderson is 61 points away from 1000 points. Should Anderson reach the milestone, she will be the 17th player in program history to have 1,000 points, 500 rebounds.

In addition, Anderson has played in 126 games at UNM, with the record 134 games set by Angela Hartill (2005-09).

Head coach Mike Bradbury also achieved a milestone this season, winning his 100th game at UNM against Grambling State on Nov. 30. Bradbury became just the second coach in program history to reach 100, joining only Don Flanagan.

Quarter Lockdown

The Lobos have held an opponent to single digits in a quarter seven times, with the latest in the first quarter of Friday's game against New Mexico State.

Against Louisiana-Monroe, the Lobos held the Warhawks to single digits in the first two quarters with nine in the first quarter and eight in the second quarter. It was the second time in the week that the Lobos held their opponent below 20 points in the first half, holding Houston Baptist to 16 in the first 20 minutes.

The Lobos had an impressive defensive display, holding the Huskies to just two points in the opening quarter and without a basket for almost the first eight minutes of the game (2:01).

In the game against Northern New Mexico, UNM held the Lady Eagles to seven points in both the second and fourth quarters, while holding them under 15 points in each quarter.

UNM also held Grambling State to below 15 points in each quarter, with 11 in both the first and second and 14 in both the third and fourth.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2021-22 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Lobos held Northern New Mexico to 18.2% in the fourth quarter on 2-11 shooting and 23.1% in the second quarter on 3-13 shooting.

As a whole, NNMC shot just 27.6% in the game with 16 made baskets on 58 attempts and 17.4% from three with four makes on 23 attempts.

Against Lamar, the Lobos shut the Cardinals down defensively in the third quarter, allowing just nine points in the quarter for the 53-37 (16 points) lead.

UNM held Lamar to 2-of-11 shooting from the floor (18.2%) and 1-of-7 (14.3%) from three.

On the offensive end, UNM shot 53.8% from the field in the third quarter to the Cardinals' 18.2%, with Jaedyn De La Cerda accounting for 14 of UNM's 18 points in the quarter.

Further, the Lobos held the Panthers scoreless for the first 2:16 of the game, the first Lamar points came at 7:15 remaining in first and the Lobos held the Lady Eagles the final 5:06 of the first quarter without a point.

Antonia Anderson leads not only the team, but the MW in blocks per game, with 19 blocks on the season and 1.7 per game. The super senior had a season-high five blocks against Houston Baptist and has recorded a block in all but one game with five games with multiple blocks. Nationally, she is 26th in the NCAA in blocks.

Anderson has 142 career blocks, ranking her 5th all-time in program history and is two blocks away from 4th and seven from 3rd.

As a team, the Lobos lead the conference with 4.1 blocks per game and 45 on the season.

Paula Peaking

Freshman Paula Reus has quickly found her footing, and has emerged as a prolific passer and key piece to the Lobo offense as of late.

Making her first official start for UNM against Houston, Reus distributed a season-high seven assists to go with seven points, two steals and five rebounds and had her best scoring output against New Mexico State on Dec. 3 with nine points on 3-for-4 shooting.

In the last game against the Aggies, Reus was called upon to play all 10 minutes of the fourth quarter and held her own against the NMSU post players, finishing with six assists, six points, six rebounds, two blocks and a steal in 28 minutes.

Reus is third on the team in assists (25, 2.8 per game) and fourth in blocks with five.

AA Battery

It didn't take long for freshman Aniyah Augmon to bring energy to the Lobos, providing an immediate spark and has found ways to make an impact in each game this season.

Augmon has recorded at least one steal in eight games this season and a rebound in nine games while playing 11.9 minutes a game. Augmon has been credited with three steals in three games this season, and has grabbed six rebounds in two games.

When the Cardinals answered with an 8-0 run of their own to tie the game in the season opener, it was freshman Aniyah Augmon who stepped up to provide the spark off of the bench with a personal 5-0 run that entailed a fast-break layup, a steal and a three-pointer.

Augmon had a full stat sheet with eight points (3-for-3 shooting), six rebounds (tying the team high) and three steals (a team high) in her first collegiate game and nearly matched it in her second game as a Lobo.

The energy and contributions continued into game two, as the California native registered four rebounds, three assists, a steal and six points in the win over Northern New Mexico, going 2-for-3 from the floor and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line.

In the game against Prairie View, while the freshman was held to just one point, she found other ways to help the Lobos, with six rebounds and three steals.

It's a Small World

Both rosters feature international players, but in a small coincidence, a few of the Lobos and Wildcats share a home country and in one case, even a hometown.

Arizona has two players on the roster from Spain in freshman Gisela Sanchez (Barcelona) and junior Helena Pueyo, who shares the same hometown of Palma de Mallorca, Spain as Lobo freshman Paula Reus. Sanchez played for the same team as Reus in Segle XXI.

Further, there will be two Turkish players on the court as Arizona sophomore Derin Erdogan is from Istanbul, Turkey, and Zeyno Seren is from Ankara, Turkey, with both having played on the Turkish National Team.

She's Just a Freshman

It took all of one week of collegiate play for Vianè Cumber to earn her first award, as the guard earned the inaugural MW Freshman of the Week on Monday, Nov. 15.

The distinction came after Cumber led all scorers with 17 points on 7-for-10 shooting and 3-for-5 from three-point range in her first collegiate start on Friday. The guard also was credited with an assist and two steals.

Cumber took over midway through the first quarter, accounting for eight straight Lobo points, making three consecutive shots on back-to-back threes and a layup as UNM built its lead in the first quarter, going a perfect 3-for-3 and 2-for-2 from three while also having a steal and an assist against Northern New Mexico. In the third quarter, Cumber went 2-for-3 with a fast-break layup and created the steal that led to a fast-break layup on the next possession.

The Albuquerque native added a layup and a final three in the fourth quarter while grabbing four defensive rebounds.

Her first collegiate basket occurred in the second quarter against Lamar on a jumper that extended the Lobo lead to seven and collected three rebounds.

On the week, Cumber averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds and 1.5 steals per game.

Managing Expectations

After winning the Mountain West regular season in 2020-21 for the first time since 2004-05, the Lobos were picked to finish second in the preseason MW poll with 251 points and seven first-place votes.

It is the second time in head coach Mike Bradbury's tenure that the Lobos have been picked to finish second, with the last time occurring in 2019-20 when the Lobos earned three first-place votes and 280 points.

New Mexico finished above UNLV with the Rebels at 232 points and three first-place votes, and fourth-place Colorado State with the Rams earning 207 points and one first-place vote.

State and Colorado State with one each, San Diego State with two, UNLV at three, UNM with seven and Fresno State the preseason favorite with 13 first-place votes and 269 points.

In addition, senior Antonia Anderson was selected to the MW preseason all-conference team, one of five players to earn the distinction. 2021-22 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 102-58 (6TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: 280-175 (15TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, only the second coach in program history to reach 100.
- Most single-season wins in Wright State history (26)

Mike Bradbury enters his sixth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous five seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 94-55 (.631) overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his most recent season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 11 times during his tenure.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 27 winning seasons.
