About Tonight's Game

Opening Tip

- The Rams will head for their fourth different city in this five-game stretch, playing in Albuquerque against New Mexico in this rescheduled game on Feb. 17 at 7 p.m.
- The game will be streamed on the Mountain West Network.
- The audio will be on the Colorado State Sports Radio Network (along with online at CSURams.com), with Brian Roth and Adam Nigon handling the broadcast. CSU Sports Network broadcasts can be also accessed on mobile devices through the Varsity Network app (free on all Apple and Android devices). Fans can use the app for instant access to free gameday audio streams and receive push notifications to remind them of games starting or upcoming audio broadcasts.
- The game will also have live stats on CSURams.com.

2021-22 Rams Quick Hits

- Colorado State is under the direction of fourth-year head coach Niko Medved, who took over the helm of the Rams' program in 2018-19. In his ninth season as a head coach, Medved has a 150-130 record overall but improved on the previous season's winning percentage in each of his eight years as a head coach, including both years now at CSU.
- The 2021-22 season marks the 117th in the history of the Colorado State men's basketball program. The Rams are 1,322-1,295 (.505) in 2,617 games all-time.
- CSU concluded the 2020-21 season in the National Invitation Tournament, advancing to the final four and finishing 20-8 overall record, including 14-4 in MW play, a three-game improvement over 2019-20 and 11 games over 2018-19.
- The Rams earned their eighth invitation for postseason play in the last 11 years, though postseason events were eventually canceled due to the COVID-19 virus worldwide pandemic.
- CSU returns all five starters and nine letterwinners to this year's squad along with four newcomers.

The Leaders

- Colorado State head coach Niko Medved (Minnesota, '97) is in his fourth season at CSU as head coach with a 72-43 mark and has a 151-130 overall record in his ninth season as a head coach.
- New Mexico head coach Richard Pitino (Providence, 2004) is in his first season with the Lobos with a 11-14 record and 10th season as a head coach overall with a 170-151 mark.

A Quick Look at New Mexico

- Returning two starters and seven letterwinners from last year's 6-16 team that finished 2-17 in league play, New Mexico was picked to tie for eighth in the preseason poll.
- The Lobos are led by Jamal Mashburn, Jr. and KJ Jenkins. Mashburn, a sophomore guard who transferred in this year from Minnesota, is tops in minutes and points while Jenkins, a redshirt-junior guard, is the leader in three pointers and free throw percentage.

History Versus New Mexico

- New Mexico holds the lead in this series, 78-50, including 71-49 in conference play, including 50-12 in Albuquerque.
- Last season due to COVID situations, the two teams only met once with CSU getting a resounding home win.
- Against current Mountain West Conference teams, head coach Niko Medved is 43-29 overall (15-17 on the road), with a 43-28 record while at CSU.

NEW MEXICO - 50-78

Conference: 49-71

Home: 37-26 / Away: 12-50 / Neutral: 1-2
(complete set of results on page 17)

Medved vs. New Mexico: 4-1 [4-1 at CSU]

Mountain West Record

- Colorado State - a charter member of the Mountain West - is now 162-193 (.455) in regular-season action against MW foes since the formation of the league in 1999-2000.

- Boise State (41) – Quad 2

A Great Start To The Season

- For the first time in his head coaching career, Niko Medved

had his team at 11-0 in the early part of the season. His previous best starts were 3-1 in his only season at Drake and 3-1 in each of his three previous seasons at CSU.

- The only other time CSU was 11-0 to start the season was in 2014-15, when the Rams were a school record 14-0 to start the season but ended up in the NIT.
- The 11-game winning streak is also tied for the second longest in program history with Boyd Grant's 1988-89 NCAA Tournament squad. The school record is 14 games, set in 2014-15 under Larry Eustachy.

On This Date

- All-time, CSU is 9-16 in games played on Feb. 17, but just 6-10 on the road.

CSU Preseason MW Favorites

- For the first time in program history, the Colorado State men's basketball team has been picked to win the Mountain West in the annual preseason media poll, announced today prior to the league's Media Days.
- As part of that, juniors David Roddy and Isaiah Stevens were named to the Preseason All-Mountain West squad.

Improvement Always

- Head coach Niko Medved has had extensive success wherever he has coached, both as a head and an assistant.
- As an assistant coach, he helped turn around the CSU program to improving its win totals from his first year in each successive year, ending in four straight postseason appearances.
- He continued that trend at Furman and Drake, improving both programs' win totals from the previous year in each of his five seasons as a head coach, finishing his last three years in postseason play.
- In his first year at CSU in 2018-19, he led the Rams to surpass the previous season's win totals at CSU, both overall and in Mountain West play.
- In 2019-20, the Rams had nine non-conference wins, bettering 2018-19's total of five. The squad also won 20 games overall, improving on 2018-19's total of 12.
- The five-game win streak during the 2020-21 season was the longest for CSU since the Rams won seven straight during 2016-17.
- In 2020-21, Medved led the Rams to their best conference record in program history with the 14-4 mark. The 14 wins were most CSU wins in any conference in history.
- The 11-game winning streak that was snapped earlier this season is also tied for the second longest in CSU history with Boyd Grant's 1988-89 squad. The 2014-15 team, led by Larry Eustachy, won 14 in a row.
- Medved now seventh in the CSU record book in coaching wins with 72 and is second in winning percentage. He is at 62.3 behind the late Boyd Grant (63.8%, 81-46).

Moby Arena Home Court Advantage

- CSU has a record of 582-241 (.707) record all-time at Moby Arena, including 33-6 the last 2+ years under Medved.
- 2019-20's 12-4 mark had to do with some significant differences in major categories in favor of the Rams, with similarities resulting in a 10-1 mark in 2020-21, tying for fifth-best single-season win percentage at Moby.
- This year's 11-1 record at home, follows a similar trend, and has secured a winning home record already.
- The Rams had their 13-game home winning streak snapped by UNLV on Jan. 28, a streak that dated back to last season. That is tied for the fourth-longest streak in arena history and tied for the sixth-longest home win streak in CSU history.

Moby Madness Is Back

- CSU has built a program which has earned the backing of the local community and students.
- For just the second time since the formation of the Mountain West in 1999-2000, the Rams have sold out three consecutive home games versus UNLV, San Diego State and Fresno State.
- In 2012-13, when head coach Niko Medved was an assistant at CSU, the Rams sold out three consecutive games and four total that season.
- Only one other time has CSU had 7,000+ fans for three consecutive games, as it happened in 2014-15.
- CSU is also on pace for one of its top attendance seasons in Moby Arena. Currently, the Rams are averaging 5,880 fans at home games, the top mark for the program since the formation of the Mountain West.

Challenging Schedule

- CSU has seven guaranteed opponents that played in postseason in 2020-21 on this year's schedule, combining for at least 10 games, with the Rams currently at 7-1 against those teams.
- Creighton, San Diego State, Oral Roberts and Utah State all competed in the NCAA Tournament.
- Boise State, Saint Mary's and Mississippi State were in the NIT with Colorado State.

Closing In On A Historic Mark (x4)

- Barring injuries, Colorado State could have four players reach the 1,000-point career mark during this season, as only 32 have now reached the mark for the Rams, the last prior to this year being J.D. Paige during the 2018-19 season.

- Junior David Roddy became #31 to reach the 1,000-point mark in his career in the first half of the Mississippi State game on Dec. 11, while junior Isaiah Stevens got to the benchmark in his next game against Air Force on Jan. 4.
- Shown are where the four players currently are in terms of career points and ranking on CSU's all-time scoring chart.
- Junior David Roddy - 1254 points (#12)
- Junior Isaiah Stevens - 1207 points (#16)
- Senior Kendle Moore - 970 points (#37)
- Senior Adam Thistlewood - 881 points (#50)

Valuing the Basketball

- The Rams have done a great job taking care of possessions and making the most of them.
- CSU is 12th nationally in fewest turnovers at 10.00 per game and 11th on assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.50.
- Junior Isaiah Stevens is 48th in the country at 4.9 assists per game and 7th in Division I with a 3.11 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Starters Get It Going

- CSU's starters getting the scoring going was big last year, as the Rams were 18-3 last year when that group scored at least 50 points.
- In the season-opening win over Oral Roberts, the starting group had 56 points, while the bench chipped in 53.
- This year CSU is 13-2 when the starters tally at least 50.

Second Half Surge

- The Rams are making their move in the second half of games this season.
- CSU is outscoring opponents by an average of 6.6 points per game in the second half, including six games with 50 or more in the final 20 minutes.
- CSU is shooting at a stellar 54.7 percent clip from the field, 38.0 percent from the arc and limiting opponents to 43.8 and 32.0, respectively. The Rams have forced 1.4 more turnovers, grabbed +0.7 rebounds a game in the second half and shot 78.7 percent at the charity stripe.

The Cardiac Rams

- The three biggest comebacks for wins in program history have come in the past three-plus years under head coach Niko Medved.
- The most recent was the USVI Paradise Jam championship game Nov. 22, when CSU trailed by 20 (44-24) to Northeastern with 17:15 to play. The Rams closed the game outscoring the Huskies, 47-17, to win the tournament title by 10. This was the second-most points trailed in a win.
- CSU's rally from 26 points down at No. 23 San Diego State on Jan. 2, 2021 made history as it is the largest comeback in both school and Mountain West history.
- The SDSU victory was the largest comeback win in Division I men's basketball last season and one of just five road comebacks of 26 points or more in a game between Division I opponents over the past 10 seasons, according to ESPN Stats & Information research.
- The previous largest comeback in CSU history occurred under Medved last season, as the Rams rallied from 19 down at Wyoming with 14:06 to play to earn a 77-70 win on Feb. 15, 2020.
- This year, the Rams have also come back from 13 down to Northern Colorado, 11 versus Mississippi State and 10 against Nevada for victories.

Defense Setting A Tone

- CSU has showed an improved defensive effort, which is highlighted in the stats, despite having the 31th club in the country in terms of experience entering the 2020-21 year.
- In 2020-21, the Rams were ranked in the top 75 nationally in scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, 3-point field goal percentage defense and defensive rebounds.
- This year, the Rams had at least five blocks in each of the first three games. This was the first time that CSU had three-straight contests with five or more rejections since 2006-07.
- The 42 points by San Jose State on Jan. 15 were the fewest by a CSU opponent since holding SJSU to 41 points at home on Jan. 17, 2015 and tied for the 17th lowest opponent total in program history.
- CSU has held opponents to 63 points or less in 10 games, including two at the Paradise Jam.

Hitting From Deep

- Last year's squad that ranked in the top 70 in the country in 3-point field goals made featured four of the most prolific 3-point shooters in school history (who are all back this year). This year's team is currently eighth nationally.
  - In the win over Creighton Nov. 21, CSU hit a school and Paradise Jam Tournament record 20 3-pointers. The mark is tied for the second most in Mountain West history.
  - Juniors Isaiah Stevens and John Tonje and seniors Kendle Moore and Adam Thistlewood are all in CSU's top-35 for 3-point field goal percentage.

Stevens Finalist For Cousy Award

- Junior guard Isaiah Stevens was named to the Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year Award Watch List, announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame Jan. 31. The Cousy Award now is down to the final 10 players to name the top point guard in the country.

Colorado State Policy on Injury Reports

Due to circumstances surrounding the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Colorado State University has developed a policy regarding the release of injury information.

CSU student-athletes have the right to hold all injury information, except body part and playing status, confidential and private. As a standard operating procedure, coaches, athletic communications staff, and other athletic department personnel should refrain from sharing specific injury information with the media. However, in certain occasions, injury information could be released at the discretion of the athletic communications department after authorization is obtained from the student-athlete.

It is the policy of the CSU athletic training staff to not address the media unless it is absolutely necessary. Therefore, inquiries by the media regarding medical situations should be addressed to the Athletic Communications office.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

GAME 24 - AT NEW MEXICO

- Not on the original watch list, Stevens has been a leader for the Rams this season. As of Jan. 30, Stevens was among the leaders in the nation in several categories, including sixth with a 3.25 assist-to-turnover ratio, 15th in free throw percentage at 89.8 and 37th in assists per game at 5.1. He ranks 11th in the Mountain West at 15.75 points per game, tops in free throw percentage, fifth in assists and tied for seventh through steals. In his last outing against UNLV, he had a career-high 35 points, including five three-pointers, eight rebounds and two assists.
- For his career, Stevens became the 32nd Ram to reach 1,000 career points and is currently 16th with 1,207. He is fourth in career assists with 408, second in assists average (4.9), fourth in minutes average (34.0), sixth in free throw percentage (85.6), 18th in 3-point field goal percentage (39.1) and 18th with 127 3-point field goals made.

Roddy Named To Watch Lists

- Junior David Roddy was again named to the Wooden Watch List Jan. 31, after first appearing on it on Jan. 5. He also was named to the Lute Olson Award Midseason Watch List Jan. 12 and previously the Karl Malone Award Watch List at the start of the year for the nation's top power forward, as he was also honored as a finalist on Feb. 3.
- A 2021 First-Team NABC All-District and All-Mountain West selection as well as a 2021-22 preseason All-MW pick, Roddy showed his development in his second year. As a sophomore, he increased both his scoring and rebounding averages, going from 11.4 points and 5.6 rebounds a game to a team-bests of 15.9 points and 9.4 rebounds. Those numbers were even better in MW play at 16.6 points and 9.9 rebounds per game, ranking, fourth and second, respectively, in the league.
- This year after missing part of the opener with an upper body injury, Roddy set career highs in scoring twice, including 30 points in the first round of the Paradise Jam against Bradley.
- Roddy had another career night against Creighton, Nov. 21, scoring 36 points with seven three-pointers to lead CSU to the Paradise Jam championship game.
- The junior was named Paradise Jam MVP after averaging 31.0 points per game in leading CSU to the title.
- Currently, Roddy ranks third in the Mountain West at 19.26 points per game and is sixth in rebounding at 7.74 boards per contest. He also ranks first in field goal percentage, 11th in assists per game, sixth in blocked shots and 11th in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Junior Class Continuing Impact

- The junior class of guards Isaiah Stevens and John Tonje, forward David Roddy and center Dischon Thomas are showing the continued growth in their third year of collegiate basketball.
- Last season, Roddy was first in scoring at 15.9 points per game and the top rebounder at 9.4 (2nd in MW), while Stevens was second in scoring at 15.3 points and first with 5.4 assists (No. 2 MW) per game. Roddy was a NABC First Team All-District, USBWA All-District, First Team All-MW pick while Stevens was named to the USBWA All-District squad as well as second team for the NABC All-District and Mountain West.
- In 2020-21, Tonje was fifth at 6.6 points per game (having averaged 3.6 as a freshman in 2019-20), while Thomas averaged 5.2 points and 3.1 boards a contest (up from 3.8 and 2.2 respectively).

FORT COLLINS, Colo. -- Playing in front of fans in Moby Arena for the first time in 619 days, Colorado State opened the season in impressive fashion, pulling away in the second half for a 109-80 win over 2021 NCAA Sweet 16-foe Oral Roberts Tuesday night. It was the 14th straight season-opening victory and 41st consecutive home opener win for the Rams.

For the 7,287 in attendance, they were treated to a game that was up-and-down the floor throughout, as CSU built a seven-point halftime lead, 50-43. Coming out in the second half with a pair of starters dealing with injuries, CSU had its lead dip briefly to six before an 18-6 run put the hosts up 70-52 with 13:42 to play, with the margin growing to as many 34 in the closing minutes.

For the game, CSU finished at 58.9 percent (43-of-73) from the field and 45.8 percent (11-of-24) from the three-point arc, while holding ORU to just 39.7 percent (31-of-78) from the floor and 30.0 percent (12-of-40) beyond the three-point line. The Rams won the battle of the boards, 45-36, and outscored the Golden Eagles 50-34 in the paint. CSU also had nine blocked shots, the most since the Rams had 10 at Auburn on Nov. 30, 2004.

CSU was led by junior John Tonje with a career-high 31 points on 10-of-14 from the floor and hitting all eight of his free throws. Junior Dischon Thomas came off the bench with his first college double-double of 16 points and a career-high 10 rebounds along with a career-best five assists. In his CSU debut, fifth-year Chandler Jacobs had 15 points, while junior Isaiah Stevens had 13 points and six assists in the win. Oral Roberts had four players also in double figures, led by preseason All-American Max Abmas with 20, but limited to just 8-of-22 from the field, including 1-of-9 on threes.

STAT OF THE GAME
• After committing turnovers on its first two possessions, CSU had just three the rest of the game for five, low under head coach Niko Medved and tied for ninth fewest for CSU in Moby Arena.

NOTES
• CSU now leads the overall series 4-1, including 3-0 in Moby Arena.
• This was CSU's 30th 100-point game in history, as the Rams improved to 30-0 in those contests, including 25-0 in Moby Arena.
• The 109 points are the most since CSU had 111 in a triple-overtime win versus Tulsa on Dec. 21, 2019 and tied for the fifth most in program history.
• Tonje surpassed his previous collegiate high of 15 points in the first half, finishing the opening 20 minutes with 18
• This was the first time under Medved a player had 30 or more points in a game and the first time in the program since Prentiss Nixon had 31 at Arkansas, Dec. 5, 2017.
• The 7,287 fans in attendance were the most since the home finale in the 2016-17 season against Wyoming
• 14 Rams saw action in the season opener

SAINT THOMAS, U.S. Virgin Islands - After a slow offensive start in the first half, Colorado State found a better rhythm offensively in the final 20 minutes and rallied for a 66-60 win in the opening round of the U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam Friday afternoon.

This was a tight game throughout, as neither team led by more than eight the entire way through in this very physical battle. CSU shot just 24.0 percent (6-of-25) from the floor in the first half as the two teams were tied at 18 before a 9-3 closing run gave Bradley a 27-21 halftime lead.

The second half started with the Rams working the ball inside to junior David Roddy, as he scored the first two baskets to cut the margin to two. The teams then exchanged baskets that put Bradley up 37-32 at the first media timeout. From there Roddy scored six of the next eight points in an 8-0 run that put CSU up for good at 40-37 with 12:10 remaining. The Braves got within a single point on two other occasions, but a 9-2 run over 2:00 gave CSU its biggest lead of the game at 52-44 with eight minutes to go.

Roddy finished with a career-high 30 points, 23 of those coming in the second half, along with a game-high nine rebounds. Junior John Tonje came off the bench with 13 points, while junior Dischon Thomas added 11 points and six rebounds, including three key offensive rebounds in the final minutes. Bradley also had three in double figures, led by Terry Roberts with 24.

STAT OF THE GAME

After just having two points in the paint in the first half, the Rams got the ball inside effectively in the second half, tallying 22 points in the lane.

NOTES

- This was the first-ever meeting between CSU and Bradley, while head coach Niko Medved improved to 3-1 in his career against the Braves. This was just CSU's fourth win in 31 games when scoring less than 70 points under Medved, but its 34th win in 43 times when holding an opponent under 70. The Rams are now 48-20 under Medved when shooting more free throws than the opponent and Junior Isaiah Stevens handed out a team season-best seven assists in the win.

SAINT THOMAS, USVI - Colorado State drained a school and U.S. Virgin Islands Paradise Jam record 20 three-pointers and advanced to the finals of the tournament with a 95-81 victory over Creighton Sunday night.

The Rams led for the majority of the first half after junior David Roddy connected on a three-pointer to give CSU a 3-1 lead in the opening minute. CSU had as much as a seven-point lead in the opening 20 minutes but 9-2 Creighton run knotted the game at 33 with 1:43 remaining in the first. Colorado State then used a pair of triples from junior Dischon Thomas and a three at the intermission buzzer from Roddy to finish off a 9-3 run to end the half and give CSU a 42-36 lead at the break.

The second half with another three from Thomas, but the Bluejays went on a 14-2 run over less than three minutes to retake the lead at 50-47 with 16:36 remaining. After each team put two more on the board, the Rams took the lead for good on a three-pointer from freshman Jalen Lake in the right corner. CU answered with a basket, but the long distance shooting continued to stay hot for the Rams, as junior Isaiah Stevens and David Roddy hit on back-to-back possessions to spur a 17-4 run over 3:20 to make it a 72-58 CSU advantage midway through the final 20. CSU maintained a double-digit lead throughout the remainder of the half, building it to as much as 18 on a Roddy dunk in the final two minutes before the final 14-point margin.

Colorado State finished at 53.0 percent (35-of-66) from the floor overall but an even more staggering 56.8 percent (20-of-34) behind the three-point arc. Creighton was 55.0 percent (33-of-60) from the field, but just 31.8 percent (7-of-22) on threes. The Bluejays won the battle of the boards, 37-26, but CSU went plus-four on turnovers (13-9) and turned that into a 14-8 advantage.

Roddy finished with his second consecutive game with a career high, finishing with 36 points, including a career-best seven three pointers, along with three rebounds and three assists. Thomas also had career highs of 21 points and five three-pointers made. Junior Isaiah Stevens handled the ball effectively with a double-double of 17 points, 11 assists and 16 turnovers. Creighton had four in double figures, led by Arthur Kaluma with no turnovers.

STAT OF THE GAME

The 20 three-pointers made surpassed the previous record of 19 set Jan. 15, 2020 against New Mexico and also broke the Paradise Jam record of 17, previously held by Hofstra against South Carolina on Nov. 22, 2015.

NOTES

- The Rams improved to 2-3 overall against Creighton and 3-4 against current Big East Conference members. Head coach Niko Medved improved to 1-1 against current Big East Conference schools. CSU is 5-0 for the first time since 2015-16 when the team finished 18-16 overall. The Rams moved to the championship game of a true three-game tournament for the first time since 2014-15, when CSU won the GCI Great Alaska Shootout. Roddy's 36 points tied for 11th most in school history for a single game and are the most points by a Ram since Gian Clavelli tallied 37 in a win at San Diego State on Jan. 28, 2017. It was also tied for the sixth most ever in a Paradise Jam game. Stevens' double-double was the four points-assist effort in his career and 19th in school history. He ranks second in that form of double-double and the 11 assists was one off his career high

SAINT THOMAS, U.S. Virgin Islands - After being 20 points down with 17 minutes to play, Colorado State put together the second-largest comeback in school history and defeated Northeastern, 71-61.

Trailing by 16 at the intermission, CSU fell behind 18 when head coach Niko Medved drew a technical foul. The Huskies converted both free throws and went up 20 at 44-24 with 17:15 to go. From there, the Rams went with full-court pressure and changed the dynamic of the game, starting with a driving layup by junior David Roddy. The Rams went on a 10-1 run over the next 4:43 to get the margin down to 10 and made it single digits on a great interior move by sophomore James Moors.

The CSU defense continued to force tough shots and turnovers while attacking on the lane on the offensive end. The Rams eventually took their first lead since the 16:14 mark of the first half on a pair of free throws by Roddy with 7:41 to play, putting CSU up 49-48. The game was again tied at 50 and then junior Isaiah Stevens scored the next four points and senior Kendle Moore added a fast-break three to make it 57-50 at the final media timeout. Colorado State then converted its late possessions to pull away and earn the win, ending the game outscoring NU 47:17 over the final 17 minutes.

In the first half, the Rams could not find a rhythm offensively against a stingy Northeastern defense, as CSU was held to just 8-of-25 from the floor and 1-of-11 from the three. The Huskies put together a 12-0 run midway through the first half to build their lead up to 19 before going into the break leading 36-20.

Colorado State finished the game at 46.0 percent (23-of-60) from the floor, including a stellar 60.0 percent (15-of-25) in the second half. The Rams struggled from the three-point arc at 4-of-19, but converted on 77.8 percent (21-of-27) at the free throw line. Northeastern finished at 39.3 percent (22-of-56) from the field, being held to just 29.2 percent (7-of-24) in the final 20 minutes. After trailing the board battle by 14 at one point, CSU ended up down just two at 33-31. The Rams' bench also made an impact, outscoring Northeastern, 19-0.

CSU was led by the tournament's MVP Roddy with 27 points on 10-of-13 shooting along with a team-best seven rebounds. Stevens was also named to the All-Tournament Team after tallying 13 points, three rebounds and eight assists in the title game. Northeastern had three players in double digits, led by Jahmyl Telfort's 18 points.

STAT OF THE GAME

The Rams outscored the Huskies, 20-8, in the paint in the second half.

NOTES

- The 20-point deficit was the second-most overcome in a win by CSU, trailing only last year's 26-point rally at #23 San Diego State. CSU improved to 2-0 all-time against Northeastern and 4-2 against current Colonial Athletic Association schools. Colorado State is now 6-4 in three-game, neutral-site tournament championship games and picked up their 20th in-season tournament championship overall. In earning the tournament's Most Valuable Player honor, in his three games Roddy averaged 31.0 points, 6.7 rebounds and 1.7 assists per game while shooting 70.2 percent (33-of-47) from the floor, 53.3 percent (8-of-15) on threes and 82.6 percent (19-of-23) from the charity stripe. It was Roddy's 10th career game of 20 or more points (CSU is 9-1 in those contests).

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State again put together a second-half rally with a combination of solid shooting and key defensive stops to defeat a spirited Northern Colorado squad, 88-79, Saturday afternoon in Moby Arena.

The visitors started out the game hot and led the majority of the first half behind a barrage of three pointers. After the early exchange of baskets, UNC built a 17-7 lead in the first six minutes of the contest. CSU came back and tied the game at 25 and eventually took the lead on junior David Roddy's three-pointer to make it 28-25 with 7:34 left in the first half. The Rams' lead grew to as many as nine at 36-30. However, Northern Colorado closed the first half on an 11-2 run, finishing by connecting with 11-of-20 three-point attempts in the opening 20 minutes but led by just three at the intermission, 41-38.

UNC continued to build on its late momentum with a 14-4 run to open the second half and take its biggest lead of the game at 55-42 with 15:34 to play. CSU chipped away and got it down to five, but the Bears went on a 7-0 run to make it 69-57 with just under 11 minutes remaining. From there, the Rams got aggressive and went on a 14-2 surge to tie it at 71 with 6:05 left. UNC hit a three to go back up on the next possession, but CSU's defense stepped up from that point on, finishing the contest on a 17-5 run, including hitting eight of nine from the charity stripe in the last three minutes to earn the victory.

Colorado State finished the game at 58.8 percent (30-of-51) from the floor and 52.9 percent (9-of-17) from the arc. UNC was 46.4 percent (26-of-56) from the field and hit 18 threes, going 48.6 percent (18-of-37). The Rams were excellent at the free throw line, hitting 86.4 percent (19-of-22), while the Bears were just 64.3 percent (9-of-14). CSU took the board battle, 29-27, while committing just six turnovers as compared to UNC's nine.

The Rams were led by juniors John Tonje and Isaiah Stevens with 20 points apiece, with 14 of Tonje's coming in the second half and Stevens adding six assists. Junior Dischon Thomas had 13 points, while Roddy added 12 points and 10 rebounds. Graduate Chandler Jacobs came off the bench to chip in nine points, five rebounds and a steal. Northern Colorado had three in double digits, led by Brodie Hume with 30 points.

STAT OF THE GAME

- The Rams got a major contribution from the bench, as that group tallied 39 points for the game, 25 of them in the decisive second half.

NOTES

- CSU now leads the overall series, 70-36, including 51-12 in Fort Collins. Head coach Niko Medved evened his record against the Bears to 1-1.
- The only other time CSU was 7-0 at this point was in 2014-15, when the Rams were a school record 14-0 to start the season but ended up in the NIT.
- The 13-point deficit overcome is tied for the 20th biggest comeback in school history and is the 69th time (since tracking was available) that CSU has won after trailing by 10 or more points.
- The seven-game win streak is tied for the 11th longest in school history.
- Colorado State is now 33-4 under Medved when scoring 80+ points and
- For Roddy, this was the 17th double-double and double-digit rebound game of his career (CSU is 15-2 in those). He now is tied for 10th with Bob Rule, with Andy Ogide just ahead in ninth at 18.
- This was Stevens 12th 20-plus point game of his career, while it was the second for Tonje, both this season.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State started strong and took care of business against Little Rock, 86-55, Wednesday night in Moby Arena. The Rams remained one of the remaining undefeated teams in Division I, improving to 8-0 on the year, while the Trojans dropped to 4-4.

After an exchange of early leads made it 5-4 Little Rock, the Rams pulled away with a 22-2 run over the next 10 minutes to make it 26-7 CSU with just under seven minutes remaining in the first half. The lead grew to as many as 25 in the opening period, with Colorado State taking a 43-20 advantage into the break. The lead was maintained and expanded in the second half, growing to as many as 36 in the late stages.

Colorado State again proved effective on the offensive end, hitting 55.9 percent (33-of-59) of its field goal attempts, including going 25-of-36 on two pointers. Little Rock was held to just 38.5 percent (20-of-52) overall and 23.1 percent (3-of-13) on threes. The Rams hit all 12 free throw attempts and won the boards, 32-28.

CSU had four players in double figures, led by junior Isaiah Stevens' double-double of 12 points and a school record-tying 12 assists, with no turnovers. Seniors Kendle Moore and Adam Thistlewood each contributed 11, while junior John Tonje came off the bench with 10 points. Little Rock had a pair of players in double digits, paced by Isaiah Palermo's 16 points.

STAT OF THE GAME

- Colorado State forced an opponent season-high 18 turnovers on the night.

NOTES

- This was CSU's win in three tries against Little Rock all-time, while the Rams improved to 14-5 all-time (11-2 at home) against current Sun Belt Conference schools.
- The 8-0 record is just the second time in program history the Rams have started undefeated at this point in the year, matching the 2014-15 Rams who won their first 14 games.
- Stevens' double-double was the fifth point-assist double-double of his career and 19th in program history.
- Stevens also moved up to seventh on the CSU career assist list with 355, passing Matt Barnett (1994-98) with 352.
- Colorado State is now 34-4 under Medved when scoring 80+ points in a game.
- Roddy and Stevens are closing in on the 1,000-point mark in their CSU careers, as Roddy is now at 977 and Stevens has 972. This was Stevens 12th 20-plus point game of his career, while it was the second for Tonje, both this season.

FORT WORTH, Texas - For the third time this season, Colorado State rallied from a double-digit deficit and pulled out the win, this time 66-63 over Mississippi State in the opener of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Classic Saturday afternoon in Fort Worth. With the thrilling victory, the Rams continued their season-opening win streak and improved to 10-0 (one of seven undefeated teams nationally), while the Bulldogs slipped to 6-3 overall.

The Rams trailed by as many as 11 in the first half and took a brief lead late before going into the halftime break down 29-27. Colorado State started the second half on a 6-2 surge to take a 33-31 lead less than two minutes in, but MSU went on a 10-0 run to go up 42-33 with 15:09 to play. The Bulldogs stayed in front for the next 10 minutes, including being up 57-49 with 6:16 remaining. From there, CSU went on 17-2 run, going back in front for good with 3:57 to go on a layup by junior David Roddy, making it 60-59. Back-to-back triples from junior Isaiah Stevens and senior Kendle Moore gave the Rams their biggest lead of the game at 66-59 and the team held on late with several key stops and rebounds to earn the win.

For the game, Colorado State shot 47.2 percent (25-of-53) from the floor, including 42.3 percent (11-of-26) on threes. Mississippi State was 33.9 percent (21-of-62) overall and 25.0 percent (7-of-28) beyond the arc. The Bulldogs had a slight advantage on the glass, 34-33.

CSU was led by Roddy with 19 points and seven rebounds, while Moore finished with 13 points and Stevens had eight points and 10 assists. Junior Dischon Thomas was strong on the glass for the Rams, grabbing 10 boards in the contest. MSU had four players in double digits, led by Garrison Brooks with 15.

STAT OF THE GAME Colorado State's defense clamped down in the second half, limiting Mississippi State to just 10-of-35 (28.6 percent) from the floor and 2-of-13 (15.4 percent) on threes.

NOTES CSU is now 2-0 all-time against Mississippi State and 11-8 overall and 4-1 at neutral sites against current Southeastern Conference teams. This was the third time this season the Rams have come from behind by more than 10 points to earn a win. Roddy became the 31st Ram ever to reach the 1,000-point mark in his career, and is currently 29th at 1015 career points. This was the 54th time Roddy has scored in double figures (CSU is 42-12 in those games), while it was the 36th 5+ assist game for Stevens (CSU is 30-6 in those contests). This was the sixth time in the last eight games that CSU has held the opponent to 63 points or less.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Coming off a 24-day break due to both internal and opponent COVID pauses, No. 20 Colorado State battled a depleted but feisty Air Force squad and came away with a 67-59 home victory in its Mountain West home opener Tuesday night in Moby Arena. With the win, the Rams continued their season-opening win streak and improved to 11-0 and 1-0 in the league, while the Falcons slipped to 8-5 and 1-1 in the conference.

Air Force grabbed the early lead and led the majority of the opening 20 minutes. CSU used a 14-0 run midway through the first half to go from a five-point deficit to a 30-21 lead with 2:40 to play and went into the break with a 33-28 lead. CSU never relinquished the lead in the second half, though the Falcons did tie it at 48 with 10:58 to play. However, the Rams made the plays down the stretch in the closing minutes to seal the victory.

Colorado State finished the game hitting a season-low 40.4 percent (23-of-57) from the floor and 30.4 percent (7-of-23) beyond the arc. Air Force was 52.3 percent (23-of-44) on field goal attempts and 47.6 percent (10-of-21) on threes. CSU won the battle of the boards decisively, 33-23 and forced 14 Air Force turnovers while only giving up six.

CSU had all 10 players who saw action in the score column, led by junior guard Isaiah Stevens' 15 points. Junior forward David Roddy had his fourth double-double of the year with 13 points and a game-high 12 rebounds. Air Force had four players in double-figures, led by Ethan Taylor with 19.

NOTES Colorado State holds a very definitive 85-33 advantage in the series, including 46-11 at home. CSU has won the last seven meetings and 19 of the last 21. The Rams are now 7-0 when leading at the break and 13-5 when ranked in the top 25 of the Associated Press poll. This game marked the fourth straight game and fifth in the last six that CSU held its opponent to 63 points or less. Stevens became the 32nd Ram in history to reach the 1,000-point mark in his career, earning the feat with a steal and layup in the first half. For Roddy, it was the 18th double-double of his CSU career, tying for ninth in CSU record books with Andy Ogide (2007-11).

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - In its first true road game of the year, No. 20 Colorado State could not get consistency on offense and lost at defending Mountain West champion San Diego State, 79-49, Saturday afternoon. The Rams suffered their first loss of the year and fell to 11-1 overall and 1-1 in league play, while the Aztecs improved to 10-3 and 2-0 in conference action.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair, with the host Aztecs taking a four-point halftime lead as the teams combined for 31 free throw attempts in the opening 20 minutes. San Diego State built the margin to 13 in the early going of the second half, including an 10-0 run over 3:16, as CSU scored just two points in the first six minutes. The SDSU lead continued to grow throughout the half, increasing to as many as 30 in the final minutes as CSU did not score in the last 5:24.

CSU shot 27.9 percent (12-of-43) from the floor, including 5-of-21 in the second half. The Rams were also only 3-of-20 from the three-point arc. San Diego State was 48.3 percent (28-of-58) from the field, 47.1 percent (8-of-17) on threes and won the battle of the boards, 38-21.

The Rams had just two players in double figures, as juniors David Roddy and Isaiah Stevens combined to score 36 of the 49 points for CSU. SDSU had five with 10 or more, as Matt Bradley led all scorers with 26 points.

STAT OF THE GAME Against one of the top defenses in the country, CSU was unable to find the effectiveness on offense, shooting a season-low from the field.

NOTES This is a tight series, with San Diego State holding a 47-42 edge, including 29-14 in San Diego and 43-39 in league play. The loss snapped CSU's 11-game winning streak to open the year, which is tied for the second-longest winning streak in program history.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. – In a classic Mountain West battle, Colorado State made the key plays down the stretch and knocked down late free throws to earn a 77-72 home win over Utah State Wednesday evening. With the victory, the Rams improved to 12-1 on the year and 2-1 in the league, while the Aggies fell to 10-6 and 1-2 in conference play.

This was a game that neither team could salt away, as the largest run by either squad was an 8-0 surge by CSU. The Rams led by nine at the break, but this was one destined to come down to the final eight minutes. Colorado State led by five at 60-55 with 6:20 to go, but Utah State came back with their biggest run of the game, a 7-0 capped off by a Justin Bean jumper, to take their first and only lead of the second half at 62-60 with 4:37 remaining. However, junior David Roddy had an answer on the next possession with a straight-away three as the shot clock wound down to put CSU up for good.

Colorado State finished the game at 46.3 percent (25-of-54) from the floor and 37.0 percent (10-of-27) from the arc. Utah State was 45.5 percent (25-of-55) from the field but limited to just 22.2 percent (4-of-18) on threes. The Rams hit 85.0 percent (17-of-20) at the free throw line and rallied late on the boards, finishing with a 32-31 lead.

CSU had four players in double figures, led by Roddy with a game-high 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the floor along with six rebounds and a pair of assists. Junior Isaiah Stevens finished with 22 points and four assists, while senior Chandler Jacobs and freshman Jalen Lake each added 11. Jacobs finished the game with a career-high nine rebounds. Utah State also had four in double digits, led by Sean Bairstow with 20 points

STAT OF THE GAME

• Colorado State made all 10 free throw attempts in the final 1:04 of the game to keep the Aggies at bay and seal the win.

NOTES

- Utah State has a 60-41 lead, but CSU holds a 29-20 advantage in Fort Collins.
- Head coach Niko Medved improved to 21-8 at home against Mountain West opponents
- The Rams are now 8-0 when leading at the break this season and 8-0 when the starters tally at least 50
- Roddy is now at 1,069 points in his CSU career, moving into the top 20 overall at 20th (surpassing Gian Clavell), while Stevens moved up a tie for 24th at 1,050 points with J.J. Avila and Aaron Atkinson.
- Stevens also moved into fifth on CSU's career assists list at 375, surpassing CSU great Dorian Green (2009-13) at 373.

USAFA, Colo. - No. 23 Colorado State put together a solid performance on both ends of the floor and handily defeated in-state rival Air Force, 73-53, Saturday afternoon in Clune Arena.

Air Force played the pace they wanted for the early part of the game, keeping it close at 16-15 Rams. However, CSU's defense stepped up and the offense hit shots in the final 5:43 for a 15-2 run that pushed the lead to 14 at the intermission.

Colorado State finished the game hitting 57.4 percent (27-of-47) from the floor, including 35.3 percent (6-of-17) on threes. Air Force was held to just 33.3 percent (18-of-54) from the field and 34.6 percent (9-of-26) from the arc.

CSU had three players in double figures, led by junior guard Isaiah Stevens with 18 points on 8-of-10 from the floor. Junior forward David Roddy had a double-double with 14 points (5-of-6 from the field) and 10 rebounds.

STAT OF THE GAME

CSU shot a stellar 69.6 percent from the field (16-of-23) in the second half to pull away in the final stages

NOTES

- Colorado State holds a very definitive 86-33 advantage in the series, including 35-18 in Colorado Springs.
CSU has won the last eight meetings and 20 of the last 22, with the only losses in that time both occurring in the 2017-18 season.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - No. 22 Colorado State rallied from a 10-point deficit in the first half with a strong offense performance in the final 20 minutes to pull out a 77-66 Mountain West win over Nevada Tuesday night in Moby Arena.

Playing with a depleted lineup without third-leading scorer John Tonje and senior Adam Thistlewood, the Rams trailed for most of the first half, falling behind by as many as 10 before being down 34-27 at halftime.

The two teams went back and forth for the next 11 minutes, with nine ties and 11 lead changes overall, as neither team led by more than three in that span. With the game tied at 63 with 6:03 to play, CSU stepped up on both ends of the floor, held Nevada scoreless over 5:00 and took the game with a 12-0 run that put the Rams up for good at 75-63 with 1:03 to go and eventually finished the win off.

Colorado State finished the game shooting 49.1 percent (27-of-55) on field goal attempts, including 34.8 percent (8-of-23) on threes. The Rams connected on 68.0 percent (17-of-25) of its shots in the second half, including 44.4 percent (4-of-9) beyond the three-point line. Nevada was 47.1 percent (24-of-41) overall and 28.6 percent (8-of-28) from the arc.

Junior forward David Roddy led CSU with 18 points, eight rebounds, six assists and two steals, while junior guard Isaiah Stevens had 16 points and five rebounds. Graduate guard Chandler Jacobs added 14, while senior guard Kendle Moore chipped in nine, as seven Rams had six or more points on the night.

STAT OF THE GAME

Colorado State had its sixth 50+ point second half of the year, outscoring the Wolf Pack 50-32 in the final 20 minutes.

NOTES

- Nevada leads the series 16-11, but CSU has a 7-4 advantage in Fort Collins, including winning the last two meetings.
CSU continued its best start in program history at 16-1, a game ahead of the 2014-15 Rams.
Dating back to last season, the Rams have now won 13 in a row in Moby Arena, tied for the fourth longest streak in Moby history and tied for the sixth longest streak in program history.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - No. 22 Colorado State Rams could not stop a hot-shooting UNLV squad and fell for the first time at home this season, 88-74, Friday night in Moby Arena. Snapping their five-game winning streak, the Rams fell to 16-2 overall and 6-2 in the Mountain West, while the Runnin' Rebels improved to 12-9 and 4-4 in conference action.

UNLV grabbed the early lead and never let it go as CSU was down one at 13-11 with 11:27 to go in the first. However, UNLV got on an offensive roll, led by guard Bryce Hamilton going 7-of-9 from the field for a stretch, and build the lead to as many as 19 at 40-21 with 1:11 remaining in the opening 20 minutes. The teams exchanged some late baskets, and the Runnin' Rebels led 43-25 at the intermission.

CSU got an early run in the second half and forced a UNLV timeout at 48-35, but every time the Rams made a move, the Rebels had an answer. UNLV eventually stretched the margin to 22 midway in the second half, and the Rams were able to cut it to 11 late in the game, but could get no closer.

Colorado State finished the game at 43.1 percent (25-of-58) for the game and 40.9 percent (9-of-22) on threes. UNLV finished at 50.9 percent (28-of-55) for the game, including shooting a stellar 58.6 (17-of-29) from the field and 53.3 percent (8-of-15) beyond the arc in the first half.

Junior guard Isaiah Stevens finished with a career-high 32 points, including 4-of-6 on threes, and had six rebounds, while junior forward David Roddy was the only other Ram in double figures with 13. UNLV was led by Hamilton's career-high 42 points.

STAT OF THE GAME

UNLV made the first half stand up, shooting 58.6 percent from the field, 53.3 percent on threes and winning the boards 20-9 to build the 18-point halftime margin.

NOTES

- UNLV holds a significant 42-19 advantage overall and 17-14 in Fort Collins.
CSU has won nine of the last 12 meetings in Moby Arena and is 9-9 since February 2012 against UNLV.
The 43 points scored by UNLV in the first half was a season high for a CSU opponent.

LARAMIE, Wyo. – In another instant Border War classic, Colorado State and Wyoming battled through regulation and an extra five minutes to decide it, as the home Cowboys escaped with an 84-78 win in Laramie Monday night. With the loss, the Rams slipped to 16-3 and 6-3 in Mountain West action, while the hosts improved to 17-3 and 6-1 in the league.

Both teams had an 8-0 run in the opening 20 minutes and the largest lead of the first half was seven by either team as CSU took a slim 35-34 halftime lead. Nothing changed in the final 20 minutes of regulation, as both teams had chances in the final seconds to win the game, but finished 40 minutes in a 70-70 tie.

CSU came out at the start of the overtime and scored the first basket on a drive by junior forward David Roddy, but the Rams could not get a two-possession lead. With the game tied at 76, Roddy was called for his fifth personal. Both teams scored baskets to tie the game at 76, but Wyoming hit their next two shots and CSU missed a pair of missed shots for the difference in the game.

Colorado State finished the game at 47.8 percent (32-of-67) from the field, but just 30.0 percent (6-of-20) on threes, including 2-of-9 in the second half and overtime. Wyoming was 52.8 percent (28-of-53) from the floor and 42.9 percent (9-of-21) beyond the arc. The Cowboys won the board battle, 35-29, and got to the free throw line 24 times as compared to 11 for the Rams.

Roddy finished with 23 points, five rebounds, two assists and three steals, while junior guard Isaiah Stevens had 17 points, three rebounds and five assists. Junior guard John Tonje was the only other Ram in double figures with 15 off the bench. Wyoming had four in double figures, led by Hunter Maldonado's 35 points.

STAT OF THE GAME
• The game was nip-and-tuck the entire time with 16 lead changes and 10 ties with neither team leading by more than seven in the 45 minutes.

NOTES
• In the most-contested rivalry in the Mountain West, Wyoming holds a 138-98 advantage overall, including 118-71 in conference action and 77-42 in Laramie.
• CSU has won eight of the last 12 meetings overall (5 of the last 7), including both in Laramie last year. Since 2016-17, CSU is 5-2 now in Arena-Auditorium against the Cowboys, with all decided by nine points or less.
• The Rams are now 45-50 in overtime games all-time, including 15-24 on the road. This was the first overtime game for CSU since the three-overtime win over Tulsa in 2019-20.
• Roddy moved up to No. 16 in the CSU scoring charts at 1,164 points, passing Cliff SiHegogg (1966-70) at 1,160.
• Stevens moved into 17th right behind Roddy with 1,162 points and is now fourth in career assists with 392.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. – In front of a second consecutive sellout crowd, junior forward David Roddy hit a running jumper with 6.3 seconds left to foil a San Diego State comeback and lift Colorado State to a 58-57 win in the annual Orange Out Friday night in Moby Arena. The Rams improved to 17-3 overall and more importantly 7-3 in the Mountain West, while the Aztecs dropped to 12-6 and 4-3 in the league.

The opening 20 minutes was a defensive battle on both ends of the floor, as CSU was just 8-of-23 from the floor but limited SDSU to just 6-of-28. The Rams led throughout the first half but only by as many as seven as they had a 23-18 halftime advantage.

Colorado State came out aggressive in the second half and built as much as a 20-point lead at 47-27 with 10:15 to play in the game. However, the defending Mountain West champions chipped away at the lead and got it down to 56-54 with 1:04 remaining. Lamont Butler hit a 3 with 13.9 seconds to give SDSU its only lead of the game. CSU quickly inbounced the ball and junior guard Isaiah Stevens hustled the ball up the court. A slight mishandle ended up in the hands of Roddy, who hit the running 13-footer to put the Rams back in the lead. The Aztecs had one last chance, but a strong defensive wall-up by redshirt-sophomore center James Moors made the difference in the final shot.

For the game, Colorado State finished at 40.8 percent (20-of-49) from the field, while San Diego State was limited to 30.2 percent (19-of-63) from the floor. Both teams hit 13 free throws and the Aztecs held a 43-31 advantage on the glass.

CSU was led by Roddy with 22 points, a game-high nine rebounds and four assists, while junior guard John Tonje tallied 16 points and Moors added a season-high 10 points and career-high eight rebounds. San Diego State was led by Matt Bradley, who was the only Aztec in double figures with 27.

STAT OF THE GAME
• CSU limited SDSU to just 30.2 percent from the floor, the Aztecs second-lowest field goal percentage on the year.

NOTES
• This is a tight series, with San Diego State holding a 47-43 edge, including 43-40 in league play. However, CSU holds a 27-14 advantage in Fort Collins.
• CSU is 10-2 in Orange Out games now, including 3-0 against the Aztecs (other wins 2013 and 2017).
• The Rams improved to 11-1 at home this year and 33-6 in the last three years under head coach Niko Medved.
• This was Roddy's eight 20+ point game of the year and 14th of his career and the 33rd time in his CSU time that he led the team in scoring (CSU is 26-7 in those games).

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - In the only regular-season meeting between the two teams, Colorado State used a strong second half and pulled away for a 65-50 Mountain West victory over visiting Fresno State Friday night. The Rams improved to a program-best tying 19-3 overall and 9-3 in the league, while the Bulldogs fell to 16-8 and 6-5 in the conference.

Trailing by three at 28-25 after the opening 20 minutes, Colorado State found its rhythm on both ends of the floor in the second half. The Rams came out and opened with an 10-2 run to grab the lead for good at 35-30. Fresno State did shrink the margin to one on two occasions, the last at 37-36, but CSU put together a 14-2 run to build a 13-point lead that never got below 10 the rest of the way.

Against one of the best defenses in the Mountain West, CSU finished at 51.9 percent (27-of-52) from the field, while limiting the Bulldogs to just 35.2 percent (19-of-54), including 18.5 percent (5-of-27) beyond the arc. Fresno State did win the boards, 37-26, but turned it over 12 times as compared to three for CSU.

CSU was led by junior forward David Roddy with 21 points, seven rebounds and a season-high eight assists. Junior guard Isaiah Stevens added 14 points, three boards and three assists, while redshirt-sophomore center James Moors and junior guard John Tonje chipped in 11 and 10, respectively. Fresno State was led by Orlando Robinson's game-high 24 points, but he was the only Bulldog in double figures.

STAT OF THE GAME

• CSU just committed three turnovers in the game, all in the first half, tying a Moby Arena record and outscored Fresno State 12-5 off turnovers.

NOTES

- Colorado State leads the overall series 24-18, but just 15-13 in conference matchups. However in Fort Collins, the Rams hold a decisive 18-3 advantage.
• CSU has won the last seven meetings overall between the two programs as well as the last five and 13 of the last 14 in Moby Arena.
• The game was the third consecutive sellout of Moby Arena this season. The only other time that has happened in CSU's Mountain West era is 2012-13, when it occurred from Feb. 2-23 (Wyoming, San Diego State, New Mexico)
• The Rams outscored the Bulldogs 40-24 in the paint.
• The 50 points for Fresno State tied a season low, as the Bulldogs had just 50 at Utah on Dec. 21, 2021.
• With the win, head coach Niko Medved moved into a tie for seventh on the all-time coaching chart with his 71st CSU win and into second in win percentage at 62.3%
• This was the 10th game this year that CSU has held an opponent to 63 or less and the second-lowest opponent total of the year.
• Moors 11 points is a season high and his sixth career double-digit scoring game.

BOISE, Idaho - Colorado State battled for 45 minutes and found a way in the closing minute of overtime to pull out a 77-74 win at Mountain West-leading Boise State Sunday afternoon.

As two of the top teams in the Mountain West battled early, the first half was filled with runs, as CSU went on a 16-3 run but Boise State followed with a 17-0 run to retake the lead. Back-to-back scores on a layup by graduate Chandler Jacobs and a triple by junior forward David Roddy gave the Rams the lead again. The visitors closed the half on a 7-3 run and took a slim 39-37 lead into the halftime intermission.

The teams battled again at the start of the final 20 minutes. Boise State came out and took a lead, getting it to 61-54 with 9:26 to play. However, the Rams battled back with strong defense and an 8-0 run to take a lead at 62-61 with just under six minutes to play. CSU continued strong defense and it was 65-64 in the final minute. Jacobs grabbed a defensive rebound and was fouled with 38.2 seconds to play and hit both ends of the one-and-one to make it 67-64. Marcus Shaver Jr. hit a step back 30-footer to tie the game with 8.3 seconds remaining. CSU got the ball but couldn't get a shot off on a no call, BSU got a shot off after an inadvertent whistle but it missed and the game went to an extra five minutes.

CSU never trailed in the extra period as Jacobs scored six consecutive points in the overtime period, hitting two free throws and a pair of baskets as the game was tied at 69, 71 and 73. Jacobs grabbed a key offensive rebound in the final minute that ended with a Roddy tip-in to put the Rams up 75-73 with 29 seconds remaining. Boise State was fouled with six seconds remaining but Mladen Armus was only able to convert one of the two free throw attempts. Junior guard Isaiah Stevens grabbed the rebound, was fouled and converted his one-and-one to give the Rams a three-point lead. The Broncos had one last desperation three attempt from Shaver, but Roddy perfectly timed his block and swatted away the shot to seal the win.

Colorado State finished the game at 50.0 percent (29-of-58) from the floor and 30.8 percent (8-of-26) beyond the arc. Boise State was limited to 41.5 percent (27-of-65) on field goal attempts but hit 54.2 percent (13-of-24) on threes. The Rams hit all 11 free throw attempts while the Broncos were just 7-of-10 and held a slim 33-32 advantage on the boards.

For CSU, Roddy finished with 18 points, seven rebounds and three blocked shots, while Jacobs had a season-high 16 points and seven boards. Junior guard Isaiah Stevens was the other Ram in double figures with 14 points along with four rebounds, five assists and a pair of steals. Boise State had four in double figures, led by Max Rice and Shaver with 17 points each.

STAT OF THE GAME

• CSU's bench outscored Boise State 27-5 and the Rams led on points off turnovers 15-10.

NOTES

- Boise State leads the overall series 15-13, including 12-7 in conference action and 9-3 in Boise.
• CSU is now 46-60 in overtime games in its history, 36-41 in single overtime games (14-22 on the road) and head coach Niko Medved is 2-3 in overtime at CSU.
• This was the first overtime win for CSU since a triple-overtime victory over Tulsa on Dec. 21, 2019, a 111-104 victory (it was just the second overtime game since that contest).

NIKO MEDVED

Head Coach • Fourth Year at CSU • Minnesota (1997)

Niko Medved is starting his fourth year as the head coach of the Rams' men's basketball program in 2021-22. Medved, a Colorado State assistant coach from 2007-13, has continued to show his prowess in program improvement, having led his respective squads to increased win percentage over the previous season in each of his eight years as a leader. That includes all three seasons at CSU, resulting in a nine-win improvement over two years and an 20-8 record this in 2020-21 that earned him Mountain West Coach of the Year from the league's media and United States Basketball Writers Association District Coach of the Year honors.

In 2019-20, the Rams continued their upward trend under Medved and his staff, posting an eight-victory improvement over his first year with a 20-win season. The Rams were also headed to the postseason for the first time in three years prior to the season being halted for the worldwide pandemic. As part of that season, three Rams were recognized for their play on the court, including second-team All-MW pick and the league's all-time leading rebounder Nico Carvacho and the Mountain West Freshman of the Year and third-team All-MW guard Isaiah Stevens.

He previously served as the head coach at Drake University for one season where he guided the Bulldogs to their first postseason berth in six years. Prior to his appointment at Drake, he engineered considerable success as head coach at Furman from 2013-16.

As a Colorado State assistant coach for six years beginning in 2007 when former head coach Tim Miles took the reins of the Rams' program, Medved was instrumental in the rebuild of the program that saw it improve from seven wins in 2007-08 to five consecutive postseason berths, including NCAA tournament appearances in his final two seasons. As recruiting coordinator at CSU, Medved was responsible for recruiting many of the contributing players on the Rams' roster who helped return the program to prominence, a list that includes:

- two-time All-Mountain West selection and eventual Olympian Andy Ogide
- 2013 honorable mention AP All-American and first-team All-Mountain West Conference choice Colton Iverson
- second team All-MW pick Dorian Green
- third team all-league and two time all-defensive team selection Pierce Hornung
- 2012 first team All-MW guard Wes Eikmeier
- 2013 MW Sixth Man of the Year Daniel Bejarano

During his season at Drake, he engineered a 10-game improvement over the previous season, including 10 wins in the Missouri Valley Conference, the most in 10 years and just the 11th time the squad had won 10 or more league games in a season. The turnaround was the 17th best in the nation this year from a 7-24 record prior to his arrival. The postseason berth in the CIT was the first since 2012 and the His squad defeated Wake Forest during non-conference play., the program's second-ever win against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent. He also had a player named Missouri Valley Scholar-Athlete of the Week seven times during the season out of 11 opportunities and had four players named to MVC Scholar-Athlete teams.

In four seasons as head coach at Furman, Medved guided the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned him Southern Conference Coach of the Year honors and saw the program earn a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. Medved's team reached the semifinals of the CollegenInsider.com (CIT) postseason tournament in 2016-17, its second consecutive season in the CIT.

GAME 24 - AT NEW MEXICO

He spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Furman (1999-2006), including serving as the school's interim head coach in the spring of 2006. Furman registered winning seasons in each of Medved's last three years in Greenville and four of the final five seasons. He then spent one season (2006-07) as an assistant at the Minnesota under Dan Monson before joining Miles' first staff at CSU in 2007.

Medved began his coaching career at the University of Minnesota in 1992 as a student manager and assistant. He served as associate head coach at Macalester College from 1997-1999 and worked four years as an instructor at the prestigious Nike All-America camp. Medved earned his B.S. in kinesiology in 1997 and his master's in sport management in 1999, both from Minnesota.
