She picked up where she left off at Wyoming with 19 points against the Cowgirls after shooting 7-for-12 from the floor with two three-pointers.

HISTORY MADE IN LOGAN

The Lobo women's basketball team put on a three-point clinic on Jan. 6 against Utah State, setting a program record with 21 made three-pointers in a 98-83 victory.

The previous record was 18, made against Illinois in 2017, which the Lobos already surpassed in the third quarter.

In addition, the 21 three-pointers also broke the MW record of 20, that was achieved three times previously- by Colorado State in 2016, Wyoming in 2010 and BYU in 2001. Of those, only one was against a MW school, Wyoming against Air Force in 2010.

LaTascya Duff and Jaedyn De La Cerda hit seven three-pointers each with De La Cerda finishing with a game-high 27 points and Duff with 24 points. LaTora Duff made three, three-pointers, finishing with 13 points, Antonia Anderson made two three-pointers and Viané Cumber and Kath van Bennekorn each made a three. De La Cerda's seven tied her career high, while LaTascya's set a career high, besting the six that she made last year against Utah State. It also extended her three-point streak to 18 games and was her fourth game this season with 20-plus points.

Anderson made it officially the record with a three-pointer with 36 remaining in the third quarter, with the Lobos making seven three-pointers in the first, six in the second and six in the third quarter, shooting 66.7 percent in the second quarter and 60 percent from three in the third quarter.

LaTora also tallied a double-double with a career-high 14 assists to go with her 13 points for her second double-double of the season coming close to a triple-double with a team-high eight rebounds, and Anderson tied her season high with five blocks, the second time this season that the senior has blocked five shots in a game. It was also the third-straight game against the Aggies that the Lobos have neared the 100-point mark, scoring 93 points, 97 points and now 98 points in the last three meetings. In those three games, the Lobos made 15, 16 and 21 three-pointers.

BLOCK PARTY HOSTED BY AT AND SHAI

Shaiquel McGruder and Antonia Anderson lead not just the team but the MW, with 43 and 39 blocks, respectively, and average 1.4 (Anderson) and 1.5 (McGruder) per game. Anderson has twice recorded five blocks- against Houston Baptist and at Utah State- and has recorded a block in all but eight games with 10 games with multiple blocks.

There have been four games this season that a Lobo has recorded five blocks in a game, with Anderson blocking five against Houston Baptist and Utah State and McGruder against UTEP and San Diego State. McGruder had four in the game against the Spartans and both Anderson and McGruder had three against the Rams on Feb. 2.

In conference games, McGruder leads with 28 blocks (1.9 per game) with Anderson fourth at 19 (1.3 per game). The next closest MW player has 22 in conference games.

In addition, McGruder has had 11 games with multiple blocks and 19 games with at least one block. In conference, she has had a block in all but three games and six games with multiple blocks.

Anderson has 162 career blocks, ranking her second all-time in program history.

As a team, the Lobos lead the conference with 117 on the season and in blocks per game with 4.2 as well as in conference games (63, 4.2 per game).

WHILE WE'RE TALKING ABOUT DEFENSE

The Lobos have held 18 opponents to shooting 39.9% and below on the season, and are 16-1 when opponents shoot between 30.0%-39.9% and 8-0 in conference in those instances. In 11 games this season, UNM has finished with 10 or more steals in a game, three times recording 15 steals, and 24 games with multiple blocks, once recording 11 (Houston Baptist) and eight blocks (Utah State) in a game.

In addition, 12 times this season, the Lobos have held an opponent to single digits in a quarter. Three of those instances have happened in the last four games and five of those times have happened against conference opponents.

MILESTONE ACHIEVED

Jaedyn De La Cerda became the 23rd Lobo to reach the 1000-point milestone in the fourth quarter against Texas Tech on Nov. 28. She currently has 1030 points in her illustrious career.

The New Mexico native is not the only Lobo with milestones reached this season. Antonia Anderson recorded her 1000th-career point in the second quarter at Wyoming on a three-pointer, becoming the 17th player in program history to have 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and the 24th player to reach 1000 points in their career.

In addition, Anderson has played in 141 games at UNM, breaking the program record of 134 games set by Angela Hartill (2005-09) on Jan. 22.

Head Coach Mike Bradbury also achieved a milestone this season, winning his 100th game at UNM against Grambling State on Nov. 30. Bradbury became just the second coach in program history to reach 100, joining only Don Flanagan.

MANAGING EXPECTATIONS

After winning the Mountain West regular season in 2020-21 for the first time since 2004-05, the Lobos were picked to finish second in the preseason MW poll with 251 points and seven first-place votes.

It is the second time in head coach Mike Bradbury's tenure that the Lobos have been picked to finish second, with the last time occurring in 2019-20 when the Lobos earned three first-place votes and 280 points.

New Mexico finished above UNLV with the Rebels at 232 points and three first-place votes, and fourth-place Colorado State with the Rams earning 207 points and one first-place vote.

State and Colorado State with one each, San Diego State with two, UNLV at three, UNM with seven and Fresno State the preseason favorite with 13 first-place votes and 269 points.

In addition, senior Antonia Anderson was selected to the MW preseason all-conference team, one of five players to earn the distinction. For Anderson, the Cibola, Texas native is coming off of a campaign in which she averaged 12.1 points per game, 6.2 rebounds per game, 1.9 assists per game, 1.0 steals per game and 1.0 blocks per game and scored 10-plus points in 13 games with a career-high 29 points in the victory over UNLV on Jan. 17. Anderson led the team in rebounds and rebounds per game, was second in made field goals and blocked shots and third in total points.

In MW contests, she averaged 12.6 points per game and a team-high 6.6 rebounds per game, as well as led the conference in field-goal percentage with 49 percent. Further, Anderson was eighth in blocks per game at 1.07 and ranked in the top 15 in scoring, rebounding, field-goal percentage, blocked shots and defensive rebounds, resulting in her first all-conference honor in being named to the Mountain West all-conference team.

PRIDE OF NEW MEXICO

The Lobos have two New Mexico natives on the 2021-22 roster with freshman Viané Cumber and senior Jaedyn De La Cerda. In addition to being from New Mexico, the duo has something else in common: New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year distinctions.

Cumber was named the 2019-20 and 2021-21 New Mexico Gatorade Girls Basketball Player of the Year after averaging 26.5 points, 9.3 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.5 steals her senior season and 22.4 points, 10.6 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 3.3 steals as a junior at Sandia High School in Albuquerque. Out of Roswell, N.M. and Roswell High School, De La Cerda earned the 2016-17 New Mexico Gatorade Player of the Year.

MIKE BRADBURY
RECORD AT UNM: 115-62 (6TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: 293-179 (15TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY :

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 20+ wins in three seasons including 2021-22, and .500 or better in five
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, 2021; only the second coach in program history to reach 100

Mike Bradbury enters his sixth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous five seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 94-55 (.631) overall record. Twice in his tenure, in 2017-18 and 2018-19, the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark and totaled 49 victories over that time. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury are the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

In his most recent season at the helm of the Lobos, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

After dropping a one-possession game to Auburn in the preseason WNIT, the 2018-19 Lobos ripped off 11-straight wins to tie the program record and were on the cusp of cracking the national top-25 rankings as well by receiving votes from the WBCA during that stretch. Bradbury would also receive an individual plaudit from the WBCA last season as he was named as one of 13 finalists for the 2019 United States Marine Corps/WBCA National Coach of the Year Award. Impressively, Bradbury was the only coach from a non-Power 5 conference to be a finalist.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaia Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burleson and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burleson being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 11 times during his tenure.

In year two under Bradbury the Lobos had a breakout season, especially offensively as they ended the 2017-18 season averaging 80.4 points per game while also posting an impressive +9.7 scoring margin. Both marks led the Mountain West and the point-per-game total was 16th-best in NCAA DI last season.

A significant reason for the jump in offensive production was the fact that the Lobos were one of the most potent three-point shooting threats in the country. For the season, the Lobos attempted the eighth-most overall trifectas in DI hoisting 932 long distance shots. Successful 34% of the time, the Lobos made the 11th most 3's burying 319.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years- a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years. At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 29 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury has had 27 winning seasons.
