BY THE NUMBERS

13

The Red Raiders are 13-1-1 all-time in season opening matches under head coach Tom Stone. In fact Tech has won its last five season openers.

Tech got hot when it counted the most a season ago, as the Red Raiders closed the 2022 regular season on a seven-match unbeaten streak (5-0-2).

Highlighted by Ashleigh Williams (9G) and 2023 Big 12 All-Conference Preseason selection Hannah Anderson, Tom Stone returns 16 letter winners in 2023. The 16 returners also includes the return of Macy Blackburn who suffered a season ending injury against the Lobos a season ago. Blackburn appeared in just three games in 2022.

QUICK KICKS

- Tom Stone and the 2023 Red Raiders boast a unique roster dynamic in 2023, as the squad features a lot of experience as well as a good amount of youth. Tech's roster features 10 freshmen, five graduate students and four seniors.
- The 2023 Red Raiders will carry a bit of a comeback theme, as four players should either return or debut (following injury) Thursday night against UNM.
- Redshirt sophomore Kameron Kloza returns after missing the better part of the last two seasons with multiple knee injuries. The San Antonio native has yet to compete in Red Raider uniform since arriving in the 806 before the 2021 season.
- A former 6A Georgia State Player of the Year, Katie Leibel also is set to make her Tech debut on Thursday night. Leibel also missed her true freshman campaign in 2022, taking a redshirt year.
- The Red Raider front line will get a major boost this season as 2021 USA TODAY Texas Soccer Player of the Year and 2021 Dallas Morning News Girls Soccer Player of the Year Taylor Zdrojewski will make her much anticipated return to the lineup. Zdrojewski suffered a season-ending injury at Cal State Fullerton a year ago, missing the final 14 matches of the season.
- The fourth and final player healthy after suffering a season-ending injury in 2022 is Macy Blackburn. A 2021 Big 12 All-Freshman selection, Blackburn suffered her season-ending injury against the Lobos in the 1-1 draw in Lubbock (Aug. 25).
- HC Tom Stone boasts a rather impressive record in season openers as the HC at Texas Tech. Stone's squad is 12-1-1 all-time in the opening match of the season. The lone loss came in 2015 against USC.

SERIES NOTES // NEW MEXICO

- Tech and UNM meet for the second straight season after the two sides played to a 1-1 draw in Lubbock last Aug. 25
- The Red Raiders and Lobos are meeting in Albuquerque for the first time since the 2019 season, when the Lobos downed the Red Raiders 1-0.

THE BASICS

• The Red Raiders open the 2023 season on Thursday night when they head to New Mexico for an 8:30 (CT) start. Tech enters the season returning and featuring one of the most dynamic rosters in the Big 12 Conference. The Red Raiders were selected fifth in the Preseason poll and will be boosted by the return of 2022 First Team All-Big 12 selection Hannah Anderson and the return of Second Team All-Big 12 honoree Ashleigh Williams.

• The Red Raiders welcome 10 freshmen in 2023 and combined with three key transfers will make up the 13 newcomers on the roster this season. The freshman group is highlighted by the additions of Storie Sexton and Sam Courtwright. Both midyear additions, Sexton scored twice in the spring against ACU, while Courtwright has added singular goals against ACU and DU. The returner group also features a pair of key transfers, as Olivia Draguicevich (2021 Southland Player of the Year) from Northwestern State and Alex Kerr have joined the fold.

SCOUTING THE LOBOS

• Picked third in the Preseason Mountain West Poll UNM figures to be formidable once again in 2023. After going 7-3-9 in 2022 and winning the Regular Season Mountain West title, UNM will need to replace its two leading scorers from a season ago: Jadyn Edwards and Leilani Baker. Edwards scored eight goals and tallied four assists while Baker added seven goals and three helpers. The duo combined for 15 of UNM's 26 goals and 37 of the Lobos 73 points.

• The cupboard is far from bare for ninth year head coach Heather Dyche, as the Lobos return seven starts highlighted by keeper Alli Davis and defender Myah Isais. Davis ended the 2022 campaign on a 602 minute scoreless streak, after allowing just 13 goals in 19 matches played. Also returning for Dyche and Lobos is local product Zaria Katesigwa. A native of Albuquerque, Katesigwa scored three times in 2022, and is the Lobos leading returning scorer from a season ago.

WITH A WIN, TEXAS TECH WOULD...

- Win their season opener for the sixth straight season
- Improve to 13-1-1 under head coach Tom Stone in season openers

NOTABLES FROM LAST TIME OUT

- Texas Tech dominated the shots and the shots on goal during last Friday's friendly at Denver. Tech outshot the Pioneers 17-6 overall and had seven shots on goal compared to DU's two.
- Tech freshman Sam Courtwright continued to impress for the Red Raiders as the former FC Dallas Academy product tallied an assist on the game-winner before adding the insurance goal in the 82nd minute. Courtwright is no stranger to scoring goals despite not playing in a fall match yet. The freshman also scored in the spring match against ACU.
- 10 different Red Raider newcomers saw action on Friday in the 2-0 win over DU. Newcomers Alex Kerr (Vanderbilt) and Courtwright each earned the start, while Kate Liebel, Chloe Soto, Storie Sexton, Lauren Woodruff, Clara Whitten, Berkley Patterson, Skylar Hasse and Olivia Draguicevich all appeared off the bench. In total, 23 of the Red Raiders 29 players appeared against DU.

A PROGRAM OF CONSISTENCY

A perennial bottom-dweller in the early 2000s, Texas Tech has evolved over the last 13 years into one of the top programs in both the Big 12 Conference and the national landscape of college soccer. Under the direction of head coach Tom Stone, Texas Tech has become a program of consistency – not just in winning and NCAA Tournament appearances, but in the production of players ready for the professional game upon the completion of their collegiate careers.

Currently, there are 11 Red Raider alumni playing professionally, the most of any Big 12 institution. These 11, spread across the globe, have all come in the past decade under the coaching of Stone and his staff. Two of Tech's classes have produced three pro players each: the 2018 and 2015 classes, the latter of which led the Red Raiders to the first Big 12 Championship in program history.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Finished in 2008, the John Walker Soccer Complex features a 1,500-seat grandstand designed to keep fans close to the action and includes a soccer house outfitted with team locker rooms, athletic training facilities, coaches' offices, the Red Raider lounge (a public lounge), a team lounge equipped with a state-of-the-art video system for film study, a team weight room and an Under Armour equipment room. Players enjoy a "boot room" located immediately inside the facility as a place dedicated to their footwear.

The $5 million facility underwent a massive facelift before the 2023 season, with the installation of a brand new natural grass surface. The $1 Million project began in late May and was completed in time for the Red Raiders home opener on Aug. 20 against New Mexico State. The project was made possible due to the Campaign for Fearless Champions and was funded through philanthropic giving and athletics department revenue.

Construction of the soccer complex began in 2006 with the soccer pitch installed in time for the 2008 season and the rest of the facility completed in time for the 2009 campaign. The John Walker Soccer Complex was designed by Parkhill Smith and Cooper, and features an iron entry gate emblazoned with the Double T. The gate, designed by Lars Stanley Metalworks of Austin is part of the university's award-winning public art collection. Lee Lewis Construction served as the contractor for the project.

John Walker is CEO and president of EnerVest Management Partners in Houston. He graduated from Texas Tech University in 1968 with a bachelor of business administration degree in finance.

The John Walker Soccer Complex was completed in September 2009 and was dedicated on Oct. 2, 2009, after he, his wife, Lisa, and their family contributed $2.25 million toward the project, earning the naming rights.

Also on the property is the Gerald Myers Indoor Soccer Facility, a 37,800 square foot soccer-specific, climate-controlled training facility which sits directly south of the playing field at the John Walker Soccer Complex. The facility has coaches offices as well as player meeting rooms.

LAST TIME OUT

Powered by a goal and an assist from freshman Sam Courtwright and a goal from defender Elise Anderson, the Texas Tech women's soccer team downed Denver 2-0 Friday afternoon in the lone exhibition match of the 2023 schedule.

In the 2-0-win, Tech outshot Denver 17-6, as 11 different Red Raiders recorded a shot in the friendly. Junior Kaitlyn Giametta came off the bench and was a strong presence offensively for Tech, recording a team-best four shots in just 39 minutes of action.

Fifth-year senior Madison White was strong as usual for Tech, recording a pair of saves to preserve the clean sheet.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

After a strong first 70 minutes didn't wield a goal, senior Elise Anderson quickly changed that, when she buried a perfect feed from classmate Giselle Kozarski into the upper right-hand corner of the net. The goal was originally set up by a strong run by the second goal scorer Courtwright.

With the lead, Tech did not settle, as Courtwright quickly doubled the Red Raider lead in the 81st minute.

Denver recorded a pair of strong chances to score on Friday, as the Pioneers hit the post on a shot in the 64th minute, while just moments later a Kiera Flanagan shot was turned away by a diving save from White.

In the friendly, nine newcomers saw action highlighted both Courtwright earning the start.

Friday's match also marked the return of 2021 All-Big 12 Freshman selection Macy Blackburn. Blackburn, who missed the final 16 matches of the season after suffering a knee injury, played in 67 minutes on Friday.

SCORING SUMMARY:

TECH: Anderson from Courtwright and Kozarski (71')

TECH: Courtwright (82')

TRANSFORMING A PROGRAM

On May 25, 2007, Tom Stone was named the fourth head coach in Texas Tech soccer history. Prior to his arrival at Texas Tech, the team had a record of 6-63-1 in Big 12 play and had gone 0-10-0 in conference four of the previous six seasons. In Stone's first year and half as coach, the team quickly matched that win total, going 6-5-1 in conference play. In 2010 - Stone's fourth year with the team - the Red Raiders went 11-8-1, marking the program's third-ever winning record and first in 15 seasons. Two years later, the Red Raiders made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history and beat North Texas, 2-0, in the program's debut in postseason play. They would lose to Florida State, 2-3, in double overtime in the second round.

In 2013, the Red Raiders made another appearance in the second round after recording a program-record 18 wins. In 2014, Stone's squad won 16 games and climbed as high as sixth in the national coaches' polls before advancing to the program's first-ever Sweet Sixteen. For the breakout campaign, he was named the NSCAA Central Region Coach of the Year. In 2015, the Red Raiders won their first-ever Big 12 Championship, defeating Kansas, 1-0. The year also saw Stone pick up his 100th win at the helm of the Red Raider program when the team beat South Florida, 2-1.

The Red Raiders went .500 the following two seasons - and missed the tournament altogether in 2017 - but came back to go 14-5-3 in 2018, beating a program-record four ranked opponents and leading the nation in shutouts with 14 in the process. In 2019, the squad nearly captured its first Big 12 regular season crown ever, coming just two points from the title while going 6-1-2 in conference.

PRIOR TO TECH

Stone's first coaching job was as a part-time assistant at the University of Denver in 1996 and as a volunteer assistant at Duke in 1997. Then, from 1997-2000, Stone coached girls' soccer for the Colorado Rush youth soccer club. Under his leadership, the team won 35 state cups, 12 regional championships and eight national championships. He left the Rush to coach professionally in the Women's United Soccer Association. He led the Atlanta Beat to the league's inaugural championship game, losing in overtime on penalty kicks to the Bay Area CyberRays. He also provided soccer commentary for Fox Sports, ESPN and CBS College Sports Network.

Stone returned to college coaching in 2006 when he was hired as an assistant for the Clemson Tigers. He spent one year there, helping the Tigers to an 11-8-4 record and an appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

A STORIED CAREER

After being named an All-American in high school, Stone played for Duke from 1984-1987. He was a three-time First Team All-ACC selection, picking up the honors his freshman, junior and senior seasons. Stone's breakout year came in 1986 as a junior when he tallied 16 goals - the second-most in a season in program history. He also assisted on four goals to bring his points total to 36, the ninth-most in program history.

It was this season he made history, where just a minute into the second half of the NCAA Championship game Stone went bar-down after receiving a pass from teammate Joey Valenti. The goal stood as the only one scored that day, giving the Blue Devils the 1-0 win over the Akron Zips and the school's first national championship in any sport. For the accomplishment, Stone and his 1986 team were inducted into the North Carolina Soccer Hall of Fame in January 2019.

Texas Tech and head soccer coach Tom Stone has announced the hiring of former Iowa associate head coach Blair Quinn as the team's new assistant coach on Feb. 23, 2023.

Quinn heads to Lubbock from Iowa, where he has spent the last four seasons as the associate head coach of the Hawkeyes. In his time in Iowa City, he served as the goalkeepers coach and led the program to two NCAA Tournament appearances and its first Big Ten title in school history.

In his first season with Iowa, Quinn led the squad to one of the best seasons in program history as the Hawkeyes garnered their highest ranking in program history checking in at No. 17. The squad posted nine straight wins and totaled 15 on the year. That same year, Iowa made its second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history.

Prior to his four seasons with the Hawkeyes, Quinn made stops at Houston, Arizona State, New Mexico State, Loyola Marymount and Saint Mary (Kansas).

While acting as an assistant coach at Houston, Quinn also assisted with the NWSL's Houston Dash. In his two seasons at Houston, the Cougars tallied 14 wins after only winning 12 games over the last four previous seasons.

During his two stints at Arizona State, the Sun Devils made three NCAA Tournament appearances, including his last stint during 2014-15. Prior to rejoining the Sun Devils, Quinn was the head coach at New Mexico State from 2011-13, and he guided the Aggies to a single-season record 10 wins and the program's first postseason victory in the WAC Tournament.

During his playing days, Quinn played professionally from 1997-2003. He started his professional career with the Tallahassee Scorpions of the Eastern Indoor Soccer League before playing with the Sacramento Knights of the Western Indoor Soccer League. Quinn was with the Kansas City Brass of the United Systems of Independent Soccer Leagues and Arizona Thunder (WISL), before he ended his playing career with the Kansas City Comets of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

During his college tenure, he was a three-year starter at Rockhurst University (NAIA) as a goalkeeper. Quinn garnered first-team NAIA All-America and second-team National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-America honors. During his final campaign as a senior, he led the Hawks to the NAIA Final Four and still holds Rockhurst records for shutouts in a season (15) and career (37).

Quinn earned a bachelor's degree in communications in 2005 from Rockhurst University. He also has earned several coaching licenses, including United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A" License, United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National Goalkeeping License and the NSCAA National Youth Diploma.
