Lobo Pride - We support an atmosphere that embraces school spirit, honors tradition, and develops Lobos for Life!

2023 Media Policies

New Mexico Media Junket
In the fall, the New Mexico Media Luncheons are Tuesday, and the time alters based on when practice and where other sports are in its seasons, but generally they are anywhere from noon to 1 p.m. Coach Danny Gonzales is available after the other fall sport coaches. Audio and video clips are available from the UNM communications office, and also at www.golobos.com. The press conferences are also streamed on GoLobos.com by LoboTV. Please note that the Mountain West no longer conducts a football coaches teleconference. The junket is on the third floor of the Tow Diehm Football Complex.

Danny Gonzales Interview Opportunities
Coach Gonzales is available after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday during game week. After road games, Coach Gonzales will be available via ZOOM (links will be sent to participating media).

New Mexico Player Interview Opportunities
All player interviews must be arranged through the UNM athletics communications office. In the fall, the main time for interviews is after practice. Interviews are generally on Tuesday and Wednesday, and Wednesday is the last day for player interviews. For lengthier interviews, please call the communications office to arrange a better time that is more conducive to the interview. Generally, players are not off-limits unless they have done something that would cause them to well, be off limits. If interviews are needed on Monday, those can be arranged as long as the student-athletes aren't in class and we know ahead of time. Our goal is to get you the interviews that you need, not to say no, so please, ask and we will try to make it happen.

Postgame: The UNM locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the weight room in the Tow Diehm football building and outside the locker room for road games. UNM communications will have coach Gonzales and two players address the media, and other players that are needed for one-on-ones may be requested. The student-athletes will be available after the press conferences for one-on-one opportunities. For road games, we will have ZOOM press conferences. UNM media that isn't in the stadium, ZOOM links will be sent day of the game.

Wireless in the Press Box
The press box at University Stadium is fully equipped for wireless connections. Access is free, but those wanting access need their own internal or external wireless cards. Phone lines are available. The new wifi installed in 2019 has worked great and the password is located on the name cards in the press box. If you have been to University Stadium and logged into the press box wifi previously, well, the password hasn't changed because I'm 53 years old and can't read the small little writing to figure out how to change it.

www.collegepressbox.com
CollegePressBox.com gives the media one-stop access to updated contact information, media guides, game books, photos, quotes, links and more for each of the league's schools and the Mountain West office. Log-in information will be provided by the MW office to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Live Stats
The University of New Mexico will utilize StatBroadcast in 2023, and Geoff Grammer may once again rejoice. Media members for any game (home/road/neutral/The Moon) can go to www.golobos.com/fbstats.

Ticket Information
- online at www.golobos.com/tickets
- by calling 925-5858 or toll-free at 800-955-HOWL.
- Lobo Ticket Office inside the Pit at the NW corner of University & Cesar Chavez boulevards from 8:30-5 Monday-Friday
- UNM Bookstore (Bookstore Ticket Office is closed on Mondays) For more information call the New Mexico Athletics Ticket Office at (505) 925-5626 or 1-800-955-HOWL (4695). Call (505) 925-5500 for group tickets and ask to speak to a customer service representative.

On Game Day, the northeast box office at University Stadium opens four hours prior to kickoff, and the Lobo Ticket Office at University Arena opens three hours before game time. The northwest University Stadium box office opens 90 minutes before kickoff.

Lobo Talk & The Lobo Coaches Show
In the fall, host Robert Portnoy and coach Danny Gonzales discuss UNM football at Lobo Talk on Thursdays. The show airs from 7-8 p.m. from Salt Yard East. Fans can call 866-350-4309 to ask coach Gonzales a question. Also in the fall, the Lobo Coaches Show will be produced by LoboTV, with distribution channels to be announced, but it's almost always Wednesday at 10 p.m. on My50.

Game Credentials
Regular UNM media will receive game credentials prior to the start of the season. Media members with season credentials will also serves as a parking pass for the Baseball East lot across from the stadium (the one-year experiment of Baseball South for 2019 was mercifully ended)

Visiting team media should request single-game credentials through their team's media relations office. Media passes work as parking passes for the Baseball South lots.

Media members not associated directly with a team can email requests via our media request link, which is located near the top of the football page on GoLobos.com.

For media members picking up credentials at will call without parking passes, it is located in the Northeast corner of the stadium by Gate 7 or 8. With parking passes credentials will be located at the University Drive entrance to the Baseball South lot with the parking attendant. This should allow you to get your credential without having to wait in line or deal with parking on the north side of the stadium.

Parking
Media parking is located across and just south of the stadium off University Drive. Media members can park in the Baseball East lot which is located next to University Drive. The Baseball East lot entrance is off University Drive south directly across from the Stadium West lot entrance, and it's the driveway between Santa Ana Star Field and the Davalos Practice Center.

Visiting Radio
The visiting radio booth is located on the fourth level of the main press box, next to the main media area.

The University of New Mexico

Founded in 1889 as New Mexico's flagship institution, The University of New Mexico now occupies nearly 800 acres near old Route 66 in the heart of Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of more than 500,000 people. From the magnificent mesas to the west, past the banks of the historic Rio Grande to the Sandia Mountains to the east, Albuquerque is a blend of culture and cuisine, styles and stories, people, pursuits and panoramas.

Offering a distinctive campus environment with a Pueblo Revival architectural theme, the campus buildings echo nearby Pueblo Indian villages. The nationally recognized campus arboretum and the popular duck pond offer an outstanding botanical experience in the midst of one of New Mexico's great public open spaces.

The People

As a Hispanic-Serving Institution, the University represents a cross-section of cultures and backgrounds. In fall of 2022, 21,982 students, attended main campus with another 6,000+ students at branch campuses and education centers.

UNM boasts an outstanding faculty that includes a Nobel Laureate, two MacArthur Fellows, 35 Fulbright scholars and several members of national academies. Faculty publish in many professional journals including Scientific American and The New England Journal of Medicine and Nature. UNM professors have been quoted in Newsweek, the Los Angeles Times, Business Week, People Magazine, Parade Magazine, U.S. News and World Report, and The New Yorker, among others. They have shared their expertise on CNN, the Today Show, Good Morning America, Nova National Geographic and other news shows.

UNM employs more than 20,000 people statewide, including employees of University Hospital. It has more than 159,000 active alumni, with Lobos in every state and more than 1,400 alumni outside the U.S. More than half of UNM's alumni choose to remain in New Mexico.

The Places

The University has branch campuses in Gallup, Los Alamos, Taos and Valencia County, as well as the extension UNM Health Sciences Rio Rancho Campus. UNM offers bachelor and graduate degree completion programs throughout the state via Extended Learning and has education centers located at the four branch campus locations as well as in Santa Fe, Farmington, and at Kirtland Air Force Base. UNM's libraries, museums, galleries and performance spaces are a rich cultural resources for the state. Home to the Lobos and contenders in the Mountain West, UNM athletics draw fans from all over. University Arena or "The Pit" is one of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings. In fact, The Pit was ranked 5th by the Travel Channel as one of the best college basketball venues.

The Programs

UNM is a place where cutting-edge research and creative endeavors flourish. UNM research injects millions of dollars into New Mexico's economy, funds new advancements in healthcare, and augments teaching – giving students valuable hands-on training in state-of-the art laboratories.

The Health Sciences Center is the state's largest integrated health care treatment, research and education organization. U.S. News and World Report's 2018 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools" ranks the UNM School of Medicine 20th in primary care and 72nd in research. Additionally, in health disciplines, UNM's nursing-midwifery program is ranked seventh. UNM School of Law is ranked 88th, while ranking 14th in clinical training. UNM College of Fine Arts is ranked 48th, with its photography program ranked fifth in the nation. The engineering program is ranked 83rd nationally, with electrical engineering coming in at 75th, and Chemical Engineering ranking at 72nd.

UNM is one of only a dozen Hispanic-Serving Institution in the U.S. that are also classified by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education as a R1: Doctoral Universities with very high research activity.

Among the University's outstanding research units are the Center for Advanced Research Computing, Cancer Center, New Mexico Engineering Research Institute, Center for High Technology Materials, Design Planning Assistance Center, Innovation Academy and the Mind Research Network.

UNM Traditions-The Lobo Nickname

A number of legends have arisen over the years as to how The University of New Mexico got "Lobo" as its official nickname. When the university began playing football in 1892, the team was simply referred to as "The University Boys" or "Varsities" to distinguish themselves from the prep school kids.

The student body, at least as early as 1917, began to seriously explore the possibilities for both a mascot and a new name for the student newspaper, which was then called simply the "U.N.M. Weekly." Several names for the paper were suggested, including The Rattler, the Sand Devil, the Ki-yo-te and the Cherry and Silver. However, there was no single name that struck a responsive chord among the students and when school opened in the Fall of 1920 the U.N.M. Weekly was still there.

On Sept. 22, 1920, sophomore George S. Bryan, editor of the U.N.M. Weekly and football team student manager, was present at a Student Council meeting for the purpose of suggesting that the University teams be given a mascot name as at that time many universities had them. Bryan suggested Lobo, the Spanish word for wolf, as the nickname. The name was enthusiastically received. The Oct. 1 issue of the student paper said, "The Lobo is respected for his cunning, feared for his prowess, and is the leader of the pack. It is the ideal name for the Varsity boys who go forth to battle for the glory of the school. All together now; fifteen rahs for the LOBOS."

The University of New Mexico

From that beginning, the Lobo nickname has remained with The University of New Mexico for 100 years.

UNM Traditions - The Lobo Mascot

After "Lobo" was adopted as the school's nickname in 1920, it was not long thereafter that a real Lobo became the mascot.

Bruno Dieckmann, class of 1902, and by 1920 a successful Albuquerque insurance and real estate agent, acquired the first Lobo for the University at his own expense. At the time he was treasurer of the Athletic Association and "one of the most admired men in town."

Elsie Ruth Chant, class of 1923, recalled, "All of the girls on campus wanted to be seen with him. He was an accomplished concert violinist as well as being a successful businessman, and he was rich. He drove a Stutz Bearcat convertible around town and all of the girls would compete to get rides with him. Sometimes he had five or six girls in the car, and when he finally got married, he left broken hearts all over campus. Anyway, he either caught it himself or he paid to have a wolf captured in the Mount Taylor area. The wolf was brought into the school and a student by the name of Bowman would take it on a leash to the football practice area."

Apparently, a government trapper named Jim Young caught a wolf pup on the Floyd Lee Ranch near Mount Taylor in western part of the state. The cub became the responsibility of the cheerleaders and it appeared in harness at every football game. However, in the late 20s, a child teased the wolf and the child was bitten at one of the games. UNM officials were forced to dispose of the wolf, as one historian put it, "for fear other ill-bred brats might become tempted to play with the wolf and bring a damage suit."

A live wolf has really never been a part of the athletics scene since. In the early 1960s a human mascot named "Lobo Louie" was created. A second mascot, "Lobo Lucy" was created in the early 1980s. Both are now members of the school's cheerleading squad.

UNM Traditions - Cherry and Silver

The most common origin of New Mexico's school colors dates back over 100 years. Apparently, the school colors in the early 1890s were black and gold. Ms. Harriet Jenness, a faculty member who taught drawing, delsarte (drama), penmanship and music, suggested a change in school colors because black and gold did not give a true feeling of New Mexico. She suggested the crimson evening glow of the majestic Sandia mountains to the east. The silver came from when students and faculty took picnics in the Sandias and noted the Rio Grande looked like a silver ribbon winding through the valley below. Her ideas were enthusiastically adopted by the faculty and staff. The crimson was later changed to cherry, the color of a Sandia sunset. Miss Jenness died in 1895, two years before the colors were adopted as "official." From 1973-79, turquoise was integrated into the official school colors, at least, for the athletics teams. The football team wore turquoise jerseys at home during those years. Cherry and silver returned as the predominant colors in 1980.

UNM Traditions - The Alma Mater

The Alma Mater (in Latin means "Nourishing" or "Dear Mother") was a source of contention at UNM in 1947. The original Alma Mater was set to the tune of "Annie Lyle," which was an unpopular tune with the student body for a long period of time. The student body voted in a general election to change the Alma Mater and found Glee Club Director Craig Summers to oblige. Actually Mr. Summers and his father wrote the present Alma Mater three years before and called it "The New Mexico Hymn."

New Mexico, New Mexico
We sing to honor thee.
This golden haze of college days
Will live in memory.
This praise we sing will ever ring
With truth and loyalty New Mexico, your fame we know
Will last eternally.

UNM Traditions - The Fight Song

The UNM fight Song was written in 1930. The music to the Fight Song was written by Dean Lena Clauve, who served the University for 32 years as a professor of music education and as the Dean of Women. Dr. George St. Clair, professor in the English Department, wrote the lyrics.

Hail to thee, New Mexico,
Thy loyal sons are we. Marching down the field we go,
Fighting for thee.
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Now we pledge our faith to thee,
Never shall we fail.
Fighting ever, yielding never.
HAIL! HAIL! HAIL!

Center for Student-Athlete Success

Mission
The Lobo Center for Student-Athlete Success, in conjunction with the University of New Mexico, provides support services for prospective, current, as well as former student-athletes in an effort to increase academic and personal success. Student athletes are encouraged to develop personal responsibility, intelligent decision making, and leadership skills through the provision of educational experiences both inside and outside of the classroom. The Lobo Center also celebrates the academic and civic achievements by our student-athletes.

Services Offered
Study Hall
The study halls are sport specific and designed to accommodate each athletic team in a structured and professional academic setting. The atmosphere is intended to foster an environment that is conducive to learning and group facilitation.

Each team study hall is staffed and monitored by at least one study hall monitor. The study hall monitors are proficient in a myriad of subjects and provide assistance to the student-athletes when needed

Athletic Computer Labs
The athletic computer lab is an academic aid to student-athletes, and its primary purpose is to facilitate the scholastic pursuits of student athletes at the University of New Mexico.

Laptop Computers
Laptop computers are available to all student-athletes on a first come, first serve basis. The laptops are for student-athletes to use when they are on the road traveling for competition.

Learning Strategist
The Center also has an in-house Learning Strategist devoted to providing support to student-athletes who have been diagnosed with a learning disability as well as those who need additional instruction in specific content areas and general study skills. The Learning Strategist also provides workshops that address study skills and time management. Individual appointments can be made as needed as well as class specific reviews can be coordinated.

Books on Loan
A benefit of being a student-athlete on scholarship is an in-house bookroom where student-athletes can get their textbooks for their classes. Our bookroom administrator can look up student's class schedules to determine the necessary textbooks, which eliminates the time-consuming tasks of going to the bookstore to research the books for each class and then standing in long lines to purchase them!

Academic Monitoring
Student-athlete progress is monitored by the Student Support Staff, housed in the Lobo Center. Three times a semester instructors will provide feedback on student-athletes academic progress. Progress forms are sent at the 4th, 8th, and 12th week during the academic semester. The information provided in these forms are forwarded to coaches and used to help student-athletes with their academic progression.

Academic Advisement
Each student-athlete at UNM is required to meet with their athletic academic advisor at least once a semester for class registration advisement. Once a major is declared, the student-athlete is required to meet their assigned major advisor at least once per semester and then return a completed pre-enrollment form to their assigned athletic advisor. An athletic academic advisor is always available to answer any and all questions.

University 101
University 101 is a three (3) credit hour course that is designed to help freshmen student-athletes successfully transition into life and learning at the university. This course provides freshman student-athletes with a special orientation to the university community, the UNM athletics program, and the NCAA rules and regulations. Although the course does not fulfill core curriculum requirements, it is applicable towards elective credit. Furthermore, it is required for all incoming freshmen scholarship student-athletes.

University Stadium

Entering its 62nd season, University Stadium is the home of the New Mexico Lobos. The stadium complex has seen plenty of upgrades over previous seasons, including a new athletic performance center in the Tow Diehm Football Building, the largest scoreboard and video board in the Mountain West, and a new synthetic playing surface installed in 2021. The latest addition is the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center, which will be located inside the south end of the stadium.

The stadium opened its gates Sept. 17, 1960, when UNM hosted the National University of Mexico. The Lobos thumped their foreign visitors, 77-6, UNM's biggest margin of victory at University Stadium.

Prior to 1960, UNM played its home games at Zimmerman Field (1938-59) and University Field (1892-1937), where Ortega Hall, the Humanities building and Woodward Hall presently stand.

DIRECTIONS

Located on the southeast corner of Avenida Cesar Chavez and University Boulevard, University Stadium can be easily accessed by exiting off I-25, just south of the Big-I, at Avenida Cesar Chavez. Head east on Avenida Cesar Chavez. After crossing University Boulevard, University Stadium is located on the right.

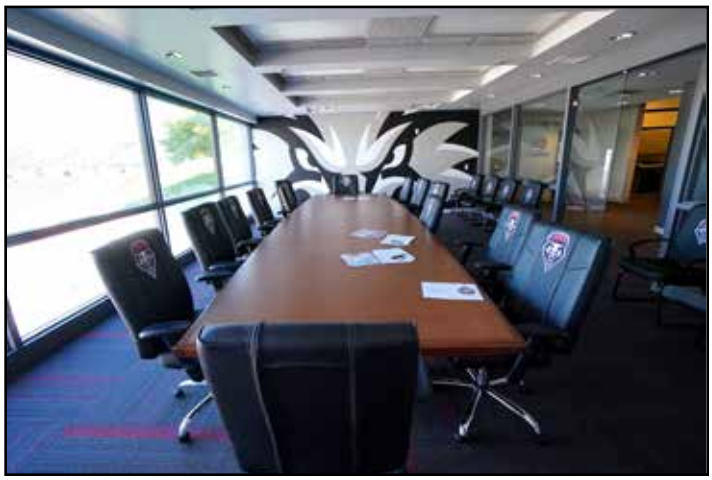
L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility

Lobo Football is housed in the L.F. "Tow" Diehm Football Facility, a large all-emcompassing building in the south end of University Stadium. Named for former trainer Tow Diehm and completed in 1995, the facility houses UNM's locker room, athletic performance center, training room and medical areas, team offices and meeting rooms, and a hospitality area. On game days, the third floor hospitality area serves as a premium seating area on the U.S. Bank Club Level, with indoor and outdoor seating, climate control, carving stations and a full bar.

The facility is named in honor of Tow Diehm, who did as much for Lobo athletics as anyone. He came to UNM in 1957 to serve as the school's athletics trainer, a position he would hold for 31 years. It was during that time that Diehm treated and befriended thousands of student-athletes. In 1988, he was elevated to associate athletics director where he began lobbying efforts with the state legislature to help fund a desperately needed athletics training facility.

His endless to trips to Santa Fe resulted in the construction of the magnificent facility that now bears his name. Diehm was also instrumental in prompting legislators to pass a tuition waiver bill for out-of-state student-athletes, which provides a huge savings to all of the state's four-year institutions. Although he officially semi-retired in 1992, Diehm continued to work the legislature on behalf of UNM until his death in 1998



New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center broke ground in the spring of 2022 and opened in April of 2023. The 11,312-square foot facility (9,774 on the weight training floor and 1,538 on the cardio mezzanine) allows for all Lobo athletic teams to have a new space in which to continue athletic performance training.

The new facility is located in the South End Zone of University Stadium, and its construction was easy to document as its progress was very visible during the 2022 football season on television during games broadcast on CBS Sports Network and FS1 and FS2.

"I'm grateful for our continued partnership with New Mexico Mutual," said Vice President/Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez. "The investment into our student-athletes by a local company will allow for the very best for all our student-athletes. As we continue to strive for championships, both in the Mountain West and nationally, the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center will be a key piece towards realizing those goals."

Nuñez added, "I want to sincerely thank New Mexico Mutual President & CEO Kellie Mixon for her strong and continued support of Lobo Athletics, as well as Norm Becker, former CEO when this project was taking root."

With its emphasis on physical fitness, the NMMCTC aligns with New Mexico Mutual's commitment to the health and well-being of all New Mexicans, as well as its focus on New Mexico's workforce. The grand opening was marked by a ribbon-cutting ceremony and tours of the new space, which more than doubles UNM's current athletic performance space. The NMMCTC houses all new athletic performance equipment, from free weights and stations to a full cardio area.

While the facility is housed in the Football End Zone Club, the NMMCTC is large enough that all Lobo teams will be utilizing the facility, including multiple teams at the same time. The facility will also allow UNM's medical and athletic training staff to utilize the latest technology in both injury prevention and injury rehabilitation.

The New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center is UNM's first new facility since the construction of the McKinnon Family Tennis Stadium, which opened in time for the 2014-15 tennis season and the R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard Baseball Clubhouse, which opened in 2016. The last update to UNM's athletic performance facilities occurred in August of 2014 when UNM's weight room inside of the Tow Diehm Football Complex was renovated.

Athletic Performance Center

The 2014 season saw the debut of perhaps one of the most important pieces in the facility puzzle for the University of New Mexico football team. The new Athletic Performance Center for Football opened for business in August of 2014, giving the Lobo football team a state of the art athletic performance and training center for year-round dedicated use.

The New Mexico football team never had the chance to see the center being constructed, as it was locked away from the players and prying eyes. The team got to see the facility for the first time after the completion of fall camp in Ruidoso, and the team was stunned at what they saw. Along with brand new flooring and branding with the Lobo shield everywhere, racks and racks of dumbbells, machines, and every other piece of strength equipment you can imagine was there at their disposal (including a 40-yard turf sprinting area). Every single thing brand new, gleaming and sparkling under all-new lighting as well.

"There was so much energy going through my body as soon as I walked through the door," said then-captain LaMar Bratton, one of the first players through the door to the new facility. "When I came here as a freshman, I could never imagine a weight room like it is now." The Athletic Performance Center reveal video made the national rounds on sites like SI.com and FootballScoop.com, and it remained the most viewed UNM football video for the program for four years.

The new Athletic Performance Center for Football is one of many major facility upgrade for the program, joining the FieldTurf installation in 2021, the Mountain West's largest scoreboard at the time in 2013 and a state-of-the-art sound system for the stadium in 2015 and refurbishing the office space, including all meeting rooms, in Tow Diehm in 2017. The 2018 season saw a refurbished locker room, the first locker room renovation in over 30 years.

For Lobo Football, getting bigger, stronger and faster is a definitive goal of head coach Danny Gonzales, and Lobo football can take that to another level with the equipment and facility at the teams' disposal.

"Having a weight room that is a major conference quality weight room will allow for our athletic performance team to really work properly with our student-athletes," said Gonzales. "We have so many machines and such a large area at our disposal that we can really cater to the needs of our different positional needs. when you pair what we already have had with the New Mexico Mutual Champions Training Center, Lobo Athletics has some of the best facilities not just in the west, but anywhere at our level."

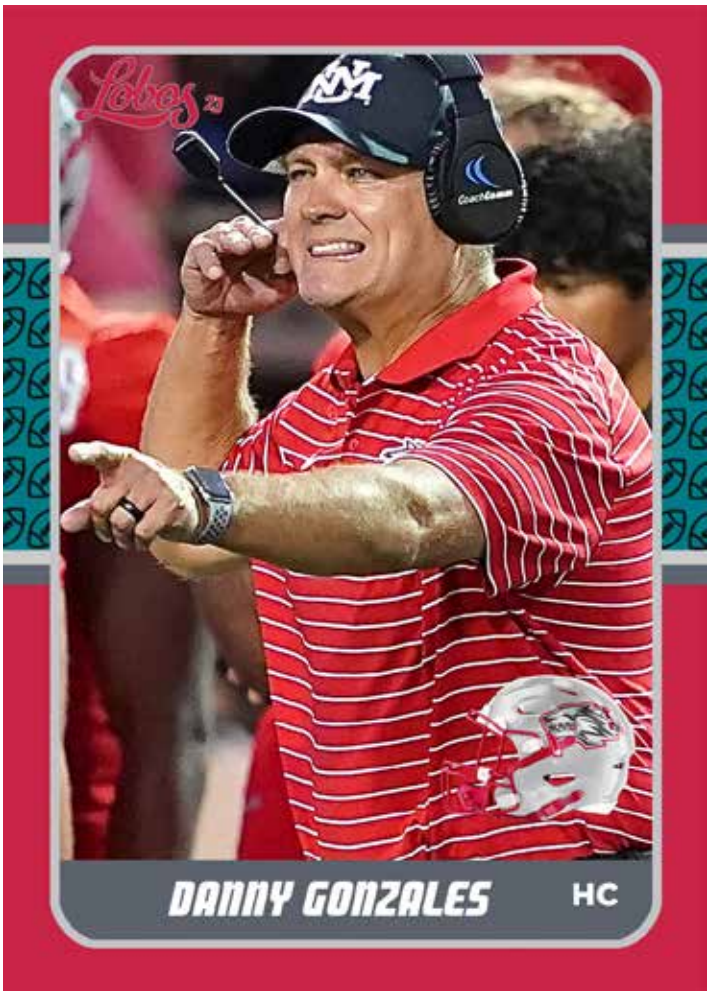
Danny Gonzales
Head Coach

4th season as head coach
14th season at New Mexico
New Mexico, 1999
Albuquerque, N.M.
@LoboCoachGonz

Danny Gonzales, a native of Albuquerque who played football at Valley High School before playing for UNM and then serving as an assistant coach, has come home.

Gonzales, who has taken part in bowl games in 14 of the past 17seasons, enters his fourth season as the head coach of The University of New Mexico. Gonzales was hired on December 17, 2019. The announcement was made by Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez at halftime of a Lobo men's basketball game, and then he was formally introduced at a press conference the next day in The Pit.

The new Lobo head coach is certainly familiar with UNM, as a player, staff member and as a Lobo assistant coach, as well as through his time coaching against UNM. He joined his mentor and former coach Rocky Long as Lobo football players returning to coach their alma mater. In a 2006 article in the Albuquerque Journal, Long predicted that Gonzales would one day be the head coach of the Lobos.



In 2022, the Lobos once again lowered its total defense yards per game number, and the program has now cut off 125.5 yards per game from when Gonzales arrived. Last year UNM had a top-30 passing defense, with the program allowing just 202.8 yards per game through the air, finishing 30th, and that comes after inheriting the worst passing defensive team in the nation from 2019. The passing yardage total is the lowest for UNM in 15 years, since the Lobos allowed 197.4 yards per game in 2007.

UNM finished in the top 50 in total defense for the season straight year, and its the first time that UNM has finished in the top 50 in back-to-back years since 2007-08. The Lobo defense also finished in the top 35 in third down defense and in the top 25 in defensive first downs. The Lobos finished the season with eight All-Mountain West picks, tying for the most in the past 10 seasons, and three Second Team picks, the second most in the last 10 years. Additionally, UNM had it's first positional Freshman All-American in A.J. Haulcy for the first time since 2014.

In 2021, Gonzales for the second straight season increased UNM's win total, including a win in his inaugural matchup with New Mexico State, winning 34-25. The Lobo defense made huge strides in 2021 as Gonzales works to get UNM back to the Lobo defenses of the 2000s. The Lobos ranked 44th overall in total defense, a 57-spot improvement from 2020.

Overall, UNM allowed 363.1 yards per game, and that was the lowest total in 13 seasons, since the 2008 team allowed 335.8 yards per game. UNM ranked 44th overall, and the 2008 team ranked 45th. The 2021 teams' ranking was the best since 2007, when UNM ranked 13th in total defense at 319.9 yards per game.

The Lobos rushing defense stood at 143.2 yards per game, better than a 20-yard per game improvement from 2020, and it was the best rushing defense since 2008 when UNM ranked 26th at 122.3 yards per game. Passing-wise, UNM allowed just 219.8 passing yards per game to rank 54th, an incredible adjustment from 2019 when the passing defense allowed 321.4 yards per game and ranked 130th (last) in the FBS. It was UNM's best passing defense since 2010 when the unit ranked 53rd at 218.8 yards per game.

The 2021 season also saw UNM deal with adversity that most teams have never seen, losing so many quarterbacks during the year that the Lobos were forced to start a graduate manager at quarterback in the final game of the season.

Gonzales' first season in 2020 was like no other in the history of college football, and while sometimes that type of sentence can be hyperbole … it's not. Gonzales, without a full spring season and coaching a team that spent what little time in the preseason practicing in groups of five or 10, was also faced with no home games in 2020 due to the global COVID-19 pandemic and the state of

New Mexico health order that wouldn't allow for games. Gonzales was able to lead his team through the 2021 season, going 2-5 overall and in the Mountain West. Those two wins, despite the odds stacked against the Lobos, equaled the number of Mountain West wins over the previous three seasons combined.

The 2020 season saw UNM go through four starting quarterbacks, and a fifth who was injured prior to the start of the season. Gonzales proved his coaching mettle, utilizing 21 true freshmen during the season including a true freshman starting walk-on quarterback, just the third true freshman starting quarterback to start an FBS game since 2013. Gonzales also coached Lobo Football's first national award winner as Teton Saltes was named the winner of the Wuerffel Trophy for athletic, academics and community service.

The Lobos quickly established a reputation as a team that never takes plays off and has a hard-hitting, hard-nosed defense. He was rated an "A" hire for UNM by several preseason publiciations.

Gonzales came to UNM after spending the past two seasons at Arizona State as defensive coordinator, and the previous seven before that as safeties coach and defensive coordinator at San Diego State. In 2018, he was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the most outstanding assistant coach in college football.

Gonzales came to UNM as a walk-on safety and punter after playing for the Valley Vikings. Gonzales lettered three times with the Lobos and was the 1998 winner of the Chuck Cummings Memorial Award, which is given for morale and spirit, and was the Lobo Club First Team Award winner for unselfish devotion to the team. At UNM, Gonzales played under Dennis Franchione and the aforementioned Long. Gonzales was a part of UNM's 1997 WAC division championship team that went 9-4 and played in the 1997 Insight.com Bowl against Arizona.

After his playing career, he served as a graduate assistant for Long, helping UNM start a school-record seven consecutive bowl eligible seasons from 2001-07. In 2003, Gonzales moved over a few offices to become video coordinator, a role he held from 2003-05. From 2006-08, he coached safeties and special teams, and he was a part of the coaching staff for UNM's 2007 squad that went 9-4 and won the New Mexico Bowl 23-0 over the Colin Kaepernick-led Nevada Wolf Pack. That win ended a 46-year bowl victory drought for the university.

Under Gonzales' watch in 2007, former walk-on placekicker John Sullivan became UNM's third consensus All-America selection, hitting a school-record 29 field goals. Sullivan did that despite a torn ACL. Sullivan was just one of many specialists that excelled under the tutelage of Gonzales, a former punter and defensive back. In addition, placekicker Kenny Byrd was a first team All-MW pick, punter Jordan Scott was honorable mention, and kicker James Aho was named a Freshman All-America.

Future NFL draft picks Glover Quin (Houston Texans) and Quincy Black (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) also earned all-conference honors at safety under Gonzales.

Overall, Lobo safeties had 55 pass breakups over the 2007-08 seasons, and the 2007 New Mexico squad ranked 13th nationally in total defense, 14th in scoring defense and 20th in passing defense.

In 2018 and 2019, Gonzales served on Herm Edwards' staff at Arizona State, where the Sun Devils have made it to back-to-back bowls and won two straight Territorial Cup games over Arizona.

In his first season in Tempe, Gonzales oversaw a Sun Devil defense that allowed the fewest points (332) since the 2012 season. ASU held nine of its opponents under 30 points, including seven consecutive games to start the season. ASU was one of seven teams to accomplish this, a feat that has only been done five times at the school in the Pac-10/12 era.

Despite having one of the nation's youngest defenses, Gonzales managed to significantly improve that side of the ball. Sun Devil freshmen (true or redshirt) combined for 3,300+ snaps on defense in 2018. Comparatively, freshmen combined for just 918 total defensive snaps played in 2017 and 1,035 in 2016.

Under Gonzales' tutelage, Merlin Robertson was named the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year after becoming the first Sun Devil freshman to lead the team in tackles since Jason Shivers in 2001. Aashari Crosswell also earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention for a campaign in which he led ASU in interceptions (four) and pass breakups (nine) and was seventh in the nation with 127 yards on interception returns.

During the regular season, ASU held opponents to just 3.5 points per fourth quarter, the fifth-lowest total in FBS. For comparison, the defense ranked 112th, 124th, and 121st in the same category over the past three seasons. Additionally, ASU allowed just 4.9 points per first quarter in the regular season, moving its national rank from 82nd in 2017 to 36th nationally in 2018. The Sun Devils allowed 25.1 points per game in the regular season, good for 49th nationally compared with 103rd (32.8 ppg) in 2017.

ASU finished the regular season tied for 20th nationally in fewest passing plays over 40 yards allowed, giving up just five. ASU ranked 90th in the category in 2017, allowing 12 such plays and 127th in 2016, allowing 22 passing plays over 40 yards allowed. Additionally, the Sun Devils finished 60th in the regular season allowing 5.63 yards per play this year, moving up over 50 spots from the team's 111th place finish in the category in 2017 (6.33 yards per play). ASU had finished 109th or worse in the category in three consecutive seasons prior to the current campaign.

In 2019, it was more of the same as the Sun Devils ranked 22nd in rushing defense, and 19th in yards per carry against at just 3.40 yards per carry. The Sun Devils once again lowered their points allowed per game to 23.1 (41st) from 25.5 (50th) in 2018. Prior to Gonzales' arrival, Arizona State allowed 32.8 points in 2017 (103rd), 39.8 points in 2016 (123rd), and 33.5 points in 2015 (99th).

Furthermore, in 2019 the Sun Devils picked up 22 takeaways (13 fumbles and nine interceptions), good for a tie for 18th in the FBS. The Sun Devil defense continued to limit big plays, ranking tied for 14th nationally with just eight plays of 40 yards or more against them. The Sun Devils allowed just one rush of 30 yards or more (tying for third nationally) and none of 40 yards or more (one of five teams to make that claim).

The two years with Arizona State followed a seven-year stint from 2011-17 under Long at San Diego State, the first six as safeties coach and the final as defensive coordinator.

The Aztecs made seven straight bowls with Gonzales on staff, winning three Mountain West titles and three division titles along the way. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2017, the Aztecs went 10-3, the program's third straight double-digit win season, and the team played in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl. That year, the Aztecs ranked 21st nationally in scoring defense (20.2 points per game) and 11th nationally in total defense (314.8 yards per game). The Aztecs that year allowed the fewest plays of 10 yards or more (101) of any team in the FBS.

It was a season that saw the Aztecs pick up a pair of Pac-12 wins, defeating Stanford 20-17 and Arizona State 30-20. Four Aztecs were named All-Mountain West on defense and his defensive charges picked up three Mountain West Player of the Week awards.

From 2011-16, Gonzales served as the safeties coach, coming to the Aztecs when Long was named head coach for the 2011 season.

From 2011-16, SDSU's 100 interceptions were the third-most in the country, while its 14 interceptions returned for a touchdown were tied for the fifth-most over that span. The Aztecs' 49 interceptions in 2015 and 2016 were the most in a two-year span in FBS play since Boston College had 51 in the 2007 and 2008 campaigns. SDSU led the country in interceptions (26) in 2016.

In 2015, the Aztecs finished among the top 10 in the four main defensive categories, including a tie for second with 23 interceptions, fifth in total defense (287.3), seventh in scoring defense (16.4) and rushing defense (108.7) and 10th in passing defense (178.6).

SDSU produced one of the best defensive efforts in school history in 2014, finishing in the top 20 nationally in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense (13th) and total defense (16th).

Gonzales coached Nat Berhe and Eric Pinkins, both of whom were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Berhe was a fifth-round selection of the New York Giants, while Pinkins went in the sixth round to the defending Super Bowl champion Seattle Seahawks.

Under Gonzales' guidance, Berhe became the first Aztec safety in the Mountain West era (since 1999) to garner all-conference accolades three years in a row. Berhe, who landed on the 2013 preseason watch lists for the Jim Thorpe Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy, capped a brilliant collegiate career with first-team All-MW honors after leading the team with a career-high 99 tackles, including 60 solo stops.

As a team in 2012, the Aztec defense topped the MWC in rushing defense with 133.5 yards per game. SDSU also showed dramatic improvement in that statistic at the national level, climbing from the 78th spot in 2011 to the 28th position in 2012.

Gonzales was part of a staff that saw the Aztec defense finish 2011 with the No. 1 conference ranking in sacks (2.23/g), tackles for loss (6.54/g), interceptions (15) and turnovers gained (28).

Gonzales has a pair of degrees from The University of New Mexico, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration and general management in 1998 and a master's degree in physical education and recreation in 2002. Danny and his wife Sandra have four children: Cole, Jake, Chloe and Abby.

Bryant Vincent
Off. Coord./QBs

1st season at New Mexico
West Alabama, 1998
Glasgow, Ky.
@BryantVincent44

Bryant Vincent joined the Lobo family in December of 2022 of serves as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He came to UNM after spending the previous five seasons with UAB as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2022 he led UAB to a 7-6 season and a win in the 2022 Bahamas Bowl as UAB's interim head coach.

Vincent was named the interim head coach for the Blazers on June 27 of 2022 upon the retirement of Bill Clark. In that season, the Blazers went 7-6 overall, finishing off the season in style with a 24-20 win over Miami of Ohio in the HomeTown Lenders Bahamas Bowl.

The 2022 Blazers scored 30.1 points per game and ranked 33rd in total offense at 438.2 yards per game, a figure that would rank eighth in Lobo history over 124 seasons. Additionally, the Blazers this past season totaled 5,697 yards of offense. UNM's best yardage total in history was 5,664 yards in 1994.

The Blazers ranked in the top five in scoring offense within Conference USA in five of his six seasons with the program as the offensive coordinator, and in his time with UAB, the offense broke over 20 school records.

Since 2018, Vincent helped lead the Blazers to two Conference USA Championships and two bowl game victories. UAB has been the winningest team in Conference USA since returning to the playing field and collected 42 wins since Vincent returned as OC. The Blazers won the 2018 CUSA title game 27-25 over Middle Tennessee State, winning on the road, and the 2020 CUSA title game, that one 22-13 over Marshall, again on the road.

UAB also made it to the 2019 championship game as champions of their division. Since the reinstatement of the program in 2017, Vincent coached in five bowls games, qualifying for six. UAB won the 2018 Boca Raton Bowl 37-13 over Northern Illinois, the 2021 Independence Bowl 31-28 over BYU and this year's Bahamas Bowl. UAB also played in the 2017 Bahamas Bowl against Ohio and the 2019 New Orleans Bowl against Appalachian State, and the team qualified for the 2020 Gasparilla Bowl against South Carolina, but that game was canceled.

Coaching Staff

With Vincent at offensive coordinator, the Blazers set FBS-program records for wins in 2018, going 11-3. Vincent never had a losing season with Blazers, going 7-6 as head coach and going 48-27 overall in his six years with UAB. The 2018 Blazers had the best offensive season in program history which resulted in 21 school records, including the aforementioned 11-3 overall record and winning the program's first Conference USA title and bowl game.

Among the school records that fell in 2018 included total points (418), total touchdowns (53), rushing touchdowns (32), total yards (5,680) and rushing yards (2,818). Additionally, UAB set the single game school record for total yards (668) and rushing yards (419) in a 52-3 victory over UTSA on Nov. 3, 2018.

Vincent spent six years in two different stints with South Alabama. He served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of South Alabama from 2015-17. He also worked for the Jags from 2011-13 as an assistant coach before joining UAB in 2014.

Vincent helped guide the Jaguars to the 2016 Nova Home Loans Arizona Bowl led by record setting quarterback Dallas Davis. In Vincent's offense, Davis threw for the most yards in school history (2,706) and his 2,951 total yards of offense are second most in program history.

Prior to coaching in the college ranks, Vincent was a very successful high school coach who compiled an overall head coaching record of 49-16 and won a State Championship at Spanish Fort in 2010. In his one season at Greenville High School in 2006, he was 10-3 overall and was named the 5A State Coach of the Year.

Vincent and his wife Holli have two sons, Brady and Bret.

Troy Reffett

Defensive Coord./CBs

9th season at New Mexico

UTEP, 1990
Cynthiana, Kentucky
@CoachReffett

Troy Reffett joined The University of New Mexico in 2020 as cornerbacks coach, his second stint with the university after previously serving on staff from 2004-08. Reffett came to the Duke City from the University of North Texas, where he was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach. In 2023, he was promoted to serve as defensive coordinator.

The 2022 Lobo corner room saw several true freshmen break into the lineup, but still turn in a terrific campaign. Leader Donte Martin had six PBUs to move into a tie for fifth place on the career list, and both her and A.J. Odums picked off passes on the season. Despite starting two true freshmen and playing three at times, the corners helped UNM to its lowest defensive passing yardage output in 15 years.

In 2020, the Lobo cornerback situation featured six different starters over the seven games, but UNM's passing defense might have been the most improved from the start of the season to the end. The Lobos over the last half of the season allowed just 187.5 yards per game in the air, and that total would have ranked 16th nationally.

Reffett joined the Mean Green ahead of the 2016 season as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach He was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2017 season.

In 2019, the Mean Green allowed just 410 yards per game, the second-best mark for the program in the previous five seasons. His defense also recorded 30.0 sacks and 74.0 tackles for loss. Three players were named to the All-Conference USA honorable mention squad, and a fourth was named honorable mention by Pro Football Focus.

In 2018, Reffett's defense took a major step forward, holding opponents to 10.8 points per game less than in 2017 (24.2 ppg). The defense played a key role in helping the Mean Green to their second straight nine-win season and third consecutive bowl appearance. UNT intercepted 18 passes, which ranked fifth in all of FBS (18) and forced 22 turnovers (third in Conference USA). The Mean Green also ranked fourth in the league in defensive third-down percentage, holding opponents to just a 35.0 percent success rate.

Cornerbacks Nate Brooks (6) and Kemon Hall (5) were each in the top-10 nationally in total interceptions and Hall ranked third in FBS in passes defended (1.7 per game). Linebacker E.J. Ejiya (121 tackles, 25.0 tackles for loss, 9.0 sacks, a fumble recovery, forced fumble and 11 quarterback hurries), Hall (48 tackles, five interceptions, 14 pass break-ups) and defensive end LaDarius Hamilton (33 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks and three quarterback hurries) were all named First Team All-Conference USA. Ejiya ranked third in the country in tackles for loss.

Brooks (67 tackles, six interceptions, 10 pass break-ups, a fumble recovery, forced fumbles and 4.0 tackles for loss) was a second team selection, while linebacker Brandon Garner (68 tackles, 18.0 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks, a fumble recovery and nine quarterback hurries) and safety Khairi Muhammad (67 tackles, four interceptions, five pass break-ups, a forced fumble, fumble recovery and 1.5 tackles for loss) were each named honorable mention selections by the conference.

In 2017, Reffett's first as the defensive coordinator, North Texas won nine games and reached the Conference USA Championship Game and the R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Ejiya (team-high 109 tackles, 12.0 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks) and safety Kishawn McClain (96 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, a forced fumble and fumble recovery) were each named All-Conference USA honorable mention selections. Linebacker Joe Ozougwu was also named to the league's all-freshman team.

In his first season in Denton, Reffett helped to oversee a defense that held opponents to 8.7 points per game fewer than the 2015 team. That turnaround in scoring defense was the 13th-best mark in the country. Reffett also coached second-team All-Conference USA safety Kishawn McClain, who led the Mean Green in tackles (91) and intercepted a career-high three passes.

He joined the Mean Green coaching staff after spending one season with Memphis as the cornerbacks coach.

At Memphis in 2015 the Tigers had 12 interceptions en route to a 9-4 season and a berth in the Birmingham Bowl. Prior to joining the Tigers, Reffett spend six years with ULM.

In his final season at ULM, Reffett's defense ranked among the top-20 nationally in passing yards allowed (189.9 ypg/14th), third-down conversion defense (0.326/11th) quarterback sacks (3.00 pg/13th) and tackles for lost yardage (7.5 pg/10th).

All told, Louisiana-Monroe ranked in the top four in the Sun Belt Conference in 10 defensive team statistical categories. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt in total defense, allowing 373.3 yards per game. ULM also led the SBC in third down percentage defense, quarterback sacks and tackles for loss. The team's 26.3 points allowed per game ranked second in the SBC. ULM had two players named to the All-Sun Belt Conference First Team Defense at the conclusion of the 2014 season.

In addition to serving as ULM's defensive coordinator, Reffett coached the Warhawks' corners since the team's appearance in the 2012 AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl.

In 73 games in charge of the defense, Reffett's defense forced 123 turnovers and had at least one in 67 of 73 games. The Warhawks' attacking defense also recorded 135 quarterback sacks and 364 tackles for loss during Reffett's tenure. The 2014 squad had 36 quarterback sacks and 90 tackles for lost yardage.

Louisiana-Monroe's defense led the Sun Belt and ranked 25th nationally in red zone defense (.767) in 2013. The unit also ranked second in the Sun Belt and 10th in NCAA in fourth down conversion percentage defense (.333). Against Texas State, senior safety Isaiah Newson became just the fourth player in FBS history to return two interceptions for touchdowns of 70 yards or more during the 2013 season. ULM had a player at each level of the defense earn All-Sun Belt Conference honors.

Under Reffett's direction, the 2012 Warhawk defense led the Sun Belt in interceptions (16) and ranked 20th in the NCAA. Meanwhile, ULM finished third in the conference and 39th nationally in rushing defense (142.2 ypg). The squad also finished third in the Sun Belt and 33rd nationally in turnover margin (.540). The Warhawk defense held four opponents, including No. 8 Arkansas, below 100 rushing yards during the season. Three Warhawks earned All-Sun Belt honors after the team's record setting season in 2012.

In 2011, the Warhawk defense finished ranked number one in the Sun Belt in both rushing defense (100.0 ypg) and total defense (326.2 ypg). The 100.0 rushing yards per game was a new Sun Belt record and it marked the third season in a row that ULM led the conference in rush defense. The club finished tied for third in the conference in sacks with 28. In the final NCAA rankings the Warhawk defense finished eighth in rushing defense and 21st in total defense (326.2 ypg). The squad also finished 47th in total sacks (2.08 per game). A total of four defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors.

In Reffett's first season in charge of the Warhawk defense, the unit was the best in the Sun Belt Conference against the run (110.1 ypg) and the second best in total defense (347.0). The Warhawks were the third-best scoring defense in the league allowing 27.3 points per game –an improvement of nearly four points per game from 2008. The Warhawks finished 20th in the NCAA against the run just one season after ranking 112th – the Reffett-led defense allowed 102.6 fewer yards per game on the ground in 2009 compared to 2008.

ULM posted the NCAA's second best defensive turnaround from 2008 to 2009 as it improved by 97.7 yards of total defense between the two seasons – only Kansas State (139.2 yards) had a better turnaround. Reffett was one of just 34 coaches in the country to be on the final nomination list for the Frank Broyles Award which is presented to the top assistant coach in the NCAA as five of his defensive players earned All-Sun Belt honors. Linebacker Cardia Jackson was named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year after breaking the league's career tackles record.

Reffett's second season saw a trio of all-conference selections and another solid defensive campaign. The Warhawks led the Sun Belt for the second straight year against the run (159.1) and ranked second overall (378.3), taking out a pair of games against BCS Bowl participants (Auburn & Arkansas) the Warhawks allowed just 353.6 yards per game.

Coaching Staff

Reffett spent five seasons at New Mexico beginning in 2004 where he coached the Lobos cornerbacks — he was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2008 season. He mentored DeAndre Wright and Glover Quin and the pair earned first team All-MWC honors in the final two seasons under Reffett's guidance. Quin was a fourth round selection by the Houston Texans in the 2009 NFL Draft and Wright was a sixth round selection by the New York Giants in the same draft. In addition to Jackson and Morgan, Reffett has worked with David Terrell, who was taken in the seventh round of the 1998 NFL Draft by Washington, as well as Michael Hicks and Crance Clemons, free agent signees by Dallas and Detroit, respectively.

In his first season as the Lobos' defensive coordinator, New Mexico ranked 26th nationally in rush defense and in the top 50 in both total defense and scoring defense. His 2004 cornerback tandem was possibly one the best in school history. Brandon Payne was a second team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after leading the nation in passes defended (23) and tying for the league lead with six interceptions. Payne also set a school record with 17 pass deflections.

Reffett coached 14 seasons at UTEP, including 2002 and 2003 as the Miners' defensive coordinator under head coach Gary Nord. In Reffett's first year as defensive coordinator (2002), D.J. Walker led the Western Athletic Conference in stops and ranked sixth in the country in solo tackles. UTEP ranked first in the WAC and 21st in the nation in pass defense in 2001 as opponents completed a league-low 49.6 percent of their passes. After graduating from UTEP with a bachelor's degree in education in 1990, Reffett immediately joined the UTEP coaching staff as a graduate assistant.

Reffett came to UTEP in 1985 as a walk-on and two years later, as a junior he helped the Miners to a 10-2 record, including an Independence Bowl berth. His playing career at UTEP was highlighted by academic and athletic superlatives. As a junior and senior he was named a WAC Scholar Athlete and to the WAC All-Academic team, and was recognized as the team's Defensive Back of the Year.

He and his wife, Molly, have a son, Ty Christopher, and a daughter, Camille Kay.

Jamie Christian
Spec. Teams Coord.

4th season at New Mexico
Central Washington, 1999
Milpitas, Calif.
@CoachJChristian

Jamie Christian joined The University of New Mexico as special teams coordinator in January of 2020. He also assists along the offense as needed, and in 2022, he coached UNM's running backs. He came to the university after a three season stint at fellow Mountain West foe Fresno State.

Lobo running backs were solid in 2022, with Nate Jones earning Team MVP honors after leading the team with 544 yards and a 4.6 yards per carry average. Additionally, true freshman Christian Washington was second with 310 yards.

Washington was one of two Lobo special teamers to earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Washington was named as a kickoff returner after averaging 26.7 yards per return with a 100-yard touchdown. Punter Aaron Rodriguez averaged 44.2 yards per punt as he led the nation in total punts for the second straight year.

In 2021, Lobo special teams once again excelled. UNM returned a punt for a touchdown for just the second time in the last 22 seasons, and on the play,

Coaching Staff

UNM had seven freshmen on the field. Overall UNM finished the season ranked No. 17 in punt returns and No. 21 in kickoff returns.

In his first season with the Lobos in 2020, special teams improved across the board. The Lobos went from the worst team in the league in 2019 in extra point percentage to first. UNM also excelled on its coverage units, allowing the third-fewest punt return yards in the league after residing in the bottom half in 2019. The Lobos kickoff coverage unit also improved from 11th to fourth.

In 2019 with Fresno State, he oversaw another solid position group as Fresno State finished tied for second in the Mountain West in rushing touchdowns, and under his tutelage, Ronnie Rivers tied for the Mountain West lead in rushing touchdowns with 13. Rivers also finished fifth in the league in rushing yards per game. On special teams, Fresno State led the Mountain West in punt return average, and the Bulldogs blocked a pair of kicks as well.

In 2018 the Bulldogs gained more than 2,000 yards on the ground, marking the first back-to-back seasons of 2,000 yards rushing since the 2008-09 seasons. The 'Dogs registered 2,161 yards rushing aided by four different ball carriers producing 250 or more yards apiece. Despite missing three games and starting just seven due to a spring football injury, sophomore Ronnie Rivers led the team with 743 yards and 10 touchdowns, which included a breakout performance in the Las Vegas Bowl that earned him MVP honors. Rivers accounted for the fourth-most all-purpose yards in school history with 286 in the contest, 212 of those being rushing yards.

With his top three running backs entering his first season being two true freshmen and one true sophomore, Christian helped the Bulldogs eclipse the 2,000-yard rushing mark for the first time since 2014. True freshmen Jordan Mims and Ronnie Rivers accounted for 1,082 yards and 11 touchdowns in 10 starts to help pile up a team total of 2,170 yards.

Previous to Fresno State, Christian spent two seasons as the running backs coach at UNLV. In his time there the Rebels rushing offense dramatically improved from ranking 102nd (129.2 yards/game) in the FBS before he arrived, to 36th (193.7 yards/game) in his first year, and 15th (241.5 yards/game) in 2016.

Christian arrived in Las Vegas after serving as the special teams coordinator and inside receivers and tight ends coach at Houston.

In Christian's final season at UH before the Tom Herman regime took over, the Cougars had a passing offense that produced 230.2 yards per game and was led by Fresno native (Washington Union HS) Deontay Greenberry, who was named a second-team All-American Athletic Conference wide receiver in 2014.

Greenberry led the team with 841 yards receiving, with the next closest teammate trailing him by 302 yards. He left the program with the ninth-most receiving yards in school history (2,612) and eighth on the all-time list for career receptions (201).

In 2013, Christian's special teams at UH earned three honors from the American Athletic Conference as freshman Demarcus Ayers was named the league's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year and was named to the American's first-team while Richie Leone was named second-team.

Christian's other unit, inside receivers, received postseason accolades in 2013 as well. Greenberry was named to the American's first-team as he led the league with an average of 100.2 receiving yards per game and was second with 11 receiving touchdowns. Greenberry was second in the American with five 100-yard games.

Noted as a strong recruiter with ties to California, Houston and Louisiana, he was named to Rivals' top recruiters list in 2013.

Before joining the Cougars in 2012, Christian spent five seasons coaching the special teams, running backs, tight ends and inside receivers at Arizona State of the Pac-12 Conference, including mentoring 2007 Lou Groza Award winner Thomas Weber. Christian also tutored ASU's Gerell Robinson, one of college football's top pass-catchers in 2011, making 77 receptions for 1,397 yards and seven scores.

Prior to his time at Arizona State, Christian spent five seasons with Dennis Erickson (his uncle) at the University of Idaho (2006), the San Francisco 49ers (2003, 2004) and at Oregon State (2000, 2001). Christian has also coached at Northern Arizona (2002) and at Sacramento State (2005).

Christian was a fullback at Fresno State (1991-93) before transferring to Central Washington to finish out his collegiate career as a running back. In Christian's sophomore season in 1992, Jeff Tedford arrived to Fresno State as a first-year assistant coach. Christian switched to running back as a senior at Central Washington and was its leader in rushing yards and touchdowns and helped lead the Wildcats to the 1995 NAIA National Championship.

Cam Blankenship
Offensive Line

1st season at New Mexico
UAB, 2016
Alexander City, Ala.
@Coach_Cam71

Cam Blankenship joined the Lobo family in January, 2023 and he serves as offensive line coach. Blankenship came to UNM from UAB, where he served as the offensive line coach where he served in the same capacity.

Overall, Blankenship assisted with UAB in a variety of capacities since 2016, originally as an assistant strength coach. Blankenship had been a part of three bowl wins and two championships since the program was revived for the 2017 season. The 50 games won from 2017-22 was the most of any team in Conference USA during that span.

A former player from 2012-14 at UAB and then at South Alabama for his final season in 2015, he coached an offensive line in 2022 that averaged over 200 yards a game for a third straight year, checking in at 235.6 yards. The O-Line has been a strength at UAB with Blankenship, as the O-Line led the nation in 2020 with just four sacks allowed (over nine games).

A native of Alexander City, Ala., Blankenship has assisted in the development of the offensive line since 2016 which has produced 11 All-Conference USA players, highlighted by two-time First Team All-Conference USA selection Colby Ragland.

Last season in 2021, the Blazers produced five All-Conference USA players: Ragland, Matthew Trehern, Kadeem Telfort, Andrew Smith Jr. and Trey Bedosky. This unit blocked for DeWayne McBride who ran for 1,371 yards and 13 touchdowns. His 1,371 rushing yards were the fourth most in a single season at UAB and his 13 touchdowns were the second most.

Overall, UAB has averaged over 200 rushing yards per game each of his last three years and UAB's offensive line ranked fourth nationally in 2020 after allowing just four sacks all season long.

Blankenship and his wife Laura have one son, Freddie.

Jerome Haywood
Defensive Line

4th season at New Mexico
San Diego State, 2002
Los Angeles, Calif.
@JHaywoodUNM

Jerome Haywood joined The University of New Mexico in February of 2020. He came to UNM from San Diego State, where he spent two years on the staff under Rocky Long as a defensive quality control coach and assistant on-campus Recruiting Coordinator.

In the 2022 season, the Lobos defensive line saw six different starters, but the line still racked up 161 tackles, 27 TFLs and 12.5 sacks.

In 2021, the Lobo defensive line was superb. Headed up by Joey Noble, who ended up in a minicamp with the Saints, the Lobo line accounted for 16.5 sacks and 35.5 tackles for loss. Noble himself racked up 18.5 TFLs, placing him fourth in the country and putting him 10th on the all-time UNM list. It was the most by a Lobo since the NCAA started to account for half-tackles for loss in 2003.

The Lobo defensive line under Haywood also excelled in 2020, with Joey Noble earning Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors. The Lobos defensive line helped UNM sack Fresno State quarterbacks eight times in the season finale. The Lobos recorded 14 sacks in its seven games, an average of 2.0 per game.

With the Aztecs, he helped break down game film and handled a variety of tasks with the Aztecs defense. Prior to his time on staff with San Diego State, Haywood served as the athletic director for the San Diego Center for Children Academy for six years.

That followed a successful eight-year career in the Canadian Football League with the Ottawa Renegades (2002-05), the Montreal Alouettes (2006, 2009), the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2007-08) and the Edmonton Eskimos (2009).

With Ottawa, he started 64 of 72 games, and was twice named the CFL's defensive lineman of the week. He played on a pair of Eastern Conference title winning teams in 2006 and 2007.

Haywood starred as a defensive tackle at San Diego State, where he was a three-time second team All-Mountain West selection. In 1998, he was named the WAC Pacific Division Freshman of the Year.

Haywood graduated from SDSU in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. He and his wife Talia have four children.

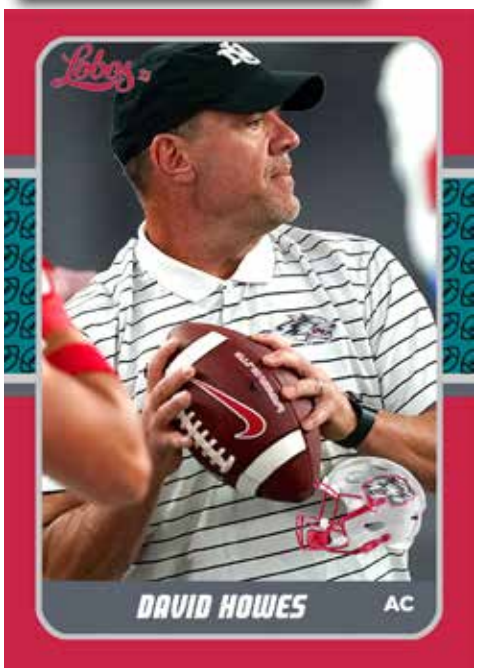
David Howes
Safeties

4th season at New Mexico
New Mexico, 1997
Albuquerque, N.M.
@DavidHowes5



David Howes joined The University of New Mexico staff in January of 2020 after a stellar prep coaching career that saw him teach in the Duke City and surrounding areas for 25 years. He serves as safeties coach at UNM.

UNM safeties turned in tremendous seasons in 2022, despite injuries decimating the group at times. Safety Jerrick Reed led the team with 11 pass breakups in earning Mountain West Honorable Mention honors as he added 94 tackles, good for second on the team. True freshman A.J. Haulcy took over for the injured Tavian Combs, and all he did was earn a spot on every freshman All-America team there is, recording 87 tackles in also earning Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Haulcy was also a two-time Mountain West Freshman of the Week.

The Lobo safety crew was once again stellar in 2021, Ronald Wilson, Jr. turned into a valuable starter and led all Mountain West freshmen in interceptions and passes broken up and true sophomore Tavian Combs and senior Jerrick Reed II both earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors. Reed, Combs and Wilson finished first, second and fourth on the squad in tackles, accounting for five of the teams' nine interceptions on the year.

In 2020 despite having to use six different starters including a true freshman at Lobo back, Lobo safeties turned in a terrific campaign. Safeties accounted to 83% of all Lobo interceptions in 2020, and just the safeties recorded more interceptions than the entire team did in 2019. Jerrick Reed was named First Team All-MW and he finished tied for eighth nationally in interceptions. Reed was named First Team All-Mountain West in 2020, and preseason All-Mountain West in 2021 and he was named to the 2021 preseason Jim Thorpe Award Watch List.

Howes won a pair of state titles as the head coach of the Rio Rancho Rams, going undefeated in both 2014 and 2016, 13-0 each season. In 2014, his Rams entered the 6A playoffs as the top seed, and they rolled, taking out Las Cruces 41-23 in the quarterfinals and then Eldorado 64-43 in the semifinals. Rio Rancho then defeated Mayfield 33-31 for the school's first state football title.

Two years later, Rio Rancho did it again under Howes, going 13-0. His squad once again hit the 6A bracket as the top seed, and this time Howes' Rams were absolutely dominant. They won 48-0 over Onate in the quarterfinals and 35-7 over Monzano in the semifinals. In the championship game, Rio Rancho cruised to a 39-17 over Las Cruces for a second undefeated season in three years.

In 2019, Howes nearly won a third championship, advancing all the way to the championship game out of the No. 4 seed line, taking down No. 1 Volcano Vista in the semifinals before losing by eight in the finals.

Howes in his 11 years with Rio Rancho led the team to a 90-41 record as a head coach. Prior to being elevated to the head coaching position, he served as an assistant coach from 2003-08 at Rio Rancho. That following assistant coaching stints at Cibola High School (2000-02) and West Mesa High School (1994-99).

Heath Ridenour

Running Backs

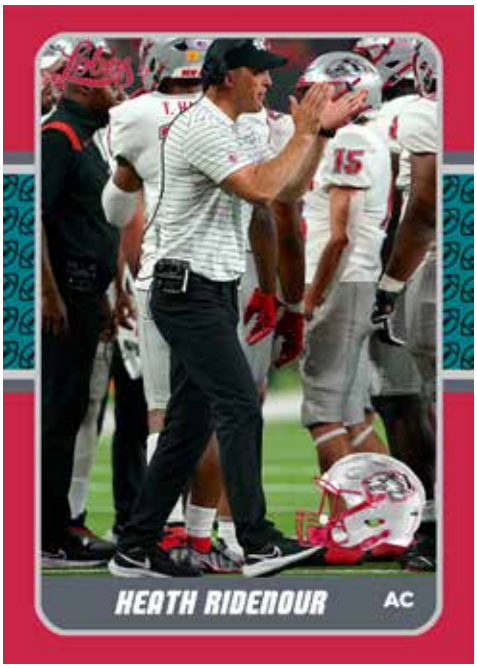
2nd season at New Mexico

Eastern New Mexico, 2002

Lovington, N.M.

@Coach_Ridenour

Heath Ridenour joined Lobo Football in January of 2022, and he serves as the running backs coach after starting his Lobo coaching career coaching quarterbacks in 2022. He came to UNM from the New Mexico high school ranks were he served as the head coach of the Cleveland Storm, winning three state titles including the 2019 and 2021. He also spent the back half of the 2022 as the interim offensive coordinator.



Ridenour got the most out of UNM's quarterback room as the Lobos threw for 1,259 yards and completed 53.7 percent of its passes. Miles Kendrick flourished in his six games back from a career-threatening injury, completing a team-leading 58.7 percent of his passes.

The hiring of Ridenour brought a second highly successful New Mexico high school coach into the fold as Ridenour joins his David Howes on staff. Howes was the head coach of the rival Rio Rancho Rams. Between the two, they won five of the last seven Class 6A titles, including two head-to-head matchups, both won by Cleveland (2015 and 2019).

A former collegiate quarterback in-state at Eastern New Mexico, Ridenour's Storm squads were well known for their offensive propensity. In his 10 seasons at the head coach of Cleveland, Ridenour's teams went 96-18 (an .842 clip), including an eye-popping 73-7 over the last seven years. Six times his teams have averaged over 40 points per game, and four times the Storm led the state in scoring offense, including the past three years.

His last squad in 2021 went a perfect 13-0 on the way to Cleveland's fourth championship, averaging 46.2 points per game. His 2015 perfect team also went 13-0 and averaged 49.6 points per game, setting the state record. Along with his three 6A state titles, Cleveland was district champions five times, and Ridenour is a five-time district coach of the year (2013, 2015, 2017, 2018, 2021). He was also named the 2015 Coach of the Year for all sports and all levels by the New Mexico Sports Hall of Fame.

Before moving into the head coaching slot, Ridenour was Cleveland's offensive coordinator in 2010 and 2011, going 22-2, winning two district titles and winning the 2011 state title with a 13-0 season. He also has served as an assistant at Clovis (2005-09), winning five district titles and finishing as the state runner-up twice. He also spent one year (2004) at Portales High School.

He played collegiately at Eastern New Mexico where he was a three-year starter at quarterback. Along with earning ENMU MVP honors in 2002, he was the Lone Star Conference and Division II National Player of the Week in 2002. A three-time All-Conference pick and a two-time team captain, Ridenour holds the Greyhounds' single-game rushing record with 294 yards. He also played basketball there from 1999-00. In 2022 he was inducted into the ENMU Hall of Honor.

A native of Lovington, New Mexico, he and his wife Erica have three children, Brooklynn 12, Kinley 10 and Cooper 7.

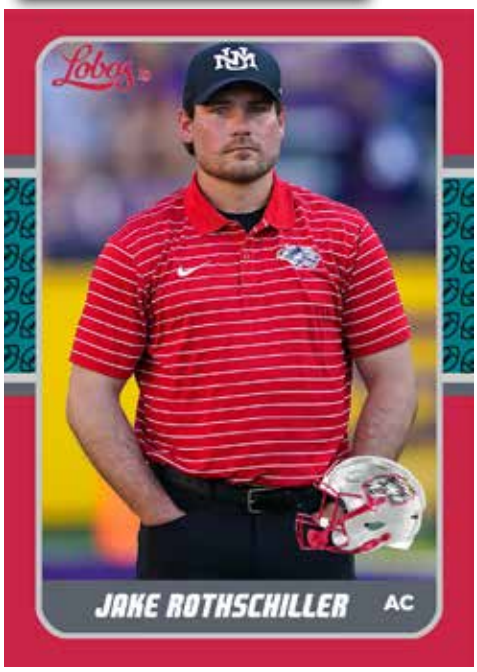
Jake Rothschiller
Linebacker

2nd season at New Mexico
New Mexico, 2018
Westlake Village, Calif.
@JRothschillerNM



Jake Rothschiller was promoted to the full-time staff in January of 2022, and he currently serves as linebackers coach. He originally joined UNM's staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2018 after a four-year career as a safety.

The Lobo linebackering corps were the heart and soul of the defense in 2022. Cody Moon became the first Lobo in eight years to break the 100-tackle mark, reaching 105 despite only nine starts. Moon also led the team in TFLs and sacks and the Lobo linebacking crew combined for 325 tackles. Dion Hunter and Reco Hannah finished fourth and fifth respectively on the team with 69 and 67 tackles, and Hannah had a pick-six against UTEP.

Rothschiller joined the Lobos in 2014 as a walk-on and redshirted. He eventually worked his way into a starting position as a safety. He was named both defensive and team MVP in 2017, winning both the Colonel H.J. Golightly Award and the Bill Brannin Award. He also served as a captain that year, voted on by his teammates. His 91-yard interception return for a touchdown in the 2017 opener garnered him Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week honors.

He served as a graduate assistant for the past four seasons, a natural extension for a player that everyone from the coaching staff to even media referred to as a "coach on the field". Handling the linebackers will not be new to Rothschiller. Since 2020, he has worked hand-in-hand with Long, coaching the linebackers and breaking down film.

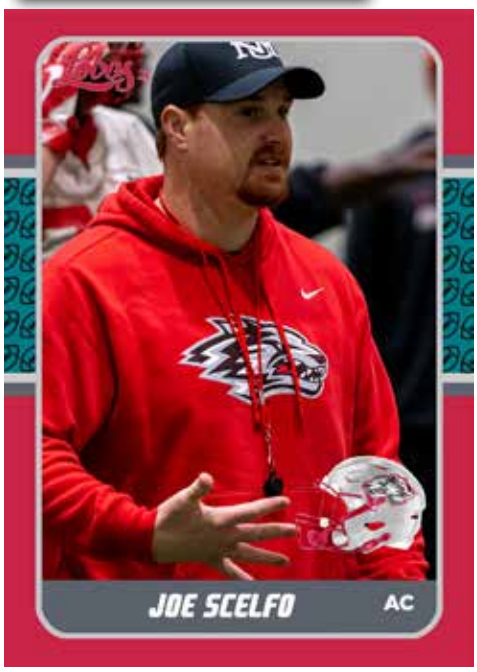
Joe Scelfo
Tight Ends
1st season at New Mexico
N.C. State, 2016
Bogart, Ga.
@jscelfo66



Joe Scelfo joined the Lobo family in January of 2023 and he serves as tight ends coach. Scelfo comes to UNM from Gardner-Webb, where he served as the offensive line coach.

Scelfo spent the past season at Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, North Carolina, serving as run-game coordinator and offensive line coach. Scelfo helped guide the Bulldogs into the FCS Playoffs in 2022, advancing to the second round. Last year Gardner-Webb averaged 32.2 points per game and rushed for 2,323 yards on the year, including a 1,000-yard rusher. Gardner-Webb posted its top scoring season since 2005. Center Gabriel Thompson and tackle Clayton Frady each earned All-Big South honors in 2022.

Scelfo spent 2020 and 2021 coaching the guards and centers at nationally-ranked Southeast Louisiana.

During his time in Hammond, La., the Lions ranked among the national leaders in total offense, ranking second in 2019 (484.8 ypg) and seventh in 2020-21 (508.6 ypg). Southeastern Louisiana also boasted the nation's No. 2 passing offense in both seasons and in the top-10 nationally both seasons in first down offense and scoring offense.

In 2020-2021, Scelfo's interior line helped power an offense that converted 51.9 percent on third down (6th nationally) and ranked No. 9 in red zone offense (92.9%). The unit also protected the nation's top quarterback, as Cole Kelley won the 2021 Walter Payton Award as the top offensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision.

Two of his charges earned All-Southland honors following the 2021 season. The Lions finished the spring sprint ranked No. 20 in the final STATS FCS national poll. In 2019, Scelfo mentored All-Southland selection Jarius Gooch.

Scelfo's first coaching spot came at NC State, where he served as a graduate assistant in 2018. He played for the Wolfpack as a graduate transfer center in 2016, starting all 13 games. Scelfo led the team with 51 knockdown blocks and was named the Wolfpack's Most Valuable Offensive Lineman.

Scelfo previously played college football at South Alabama, where he was named first-team All-Sun Belt in 2015. He started all 49 games during his career with the Jaguars and Wolfpack. He signed as a free agent with the NFL Houston Texans following his playing career. The Bogart, Ga., native was an All-State selection at North Oconee High and was rated as the nation's No. 12 center prospect. He is the son of former Tulane head coach Chris Scelfo – a veteran of the profession with more than 30 years in the college and pro ranks.

Scelfo earned his undergraduate degree from South Alabama in 2016.

Cornelius Williams
Receivers

1st season at New Mexico
South Alabama, 2016
Bogart, Ga.
@CoachCWill

Cornelius Williams joined the Lobo family in January 2023 as serves as wide receivers coach.

Williams came to UNM from the University of Alabama, where he spent the 2022 season as an offensive analyst under Nick Saban. The Crimson Tide finished ranked No. 5 in the final CFP Poll, going 11-2 and winning the Allstate Sugar Bowl 45-20 over Kansas State. The Crimson Tide averaged 41.1 points per game in 2022 and 477.1 yards of offense per game. Prior to Alabama and a stop to coach receivers at Auburn, Williams spent six seasons with his alma mater Troy as receivers coach, the last two also serving as passing game coordinator.

During his time at Troy, Williams' receivers earned 14 All-Sun Belt honors. In 2020, Troy's passing attack was 21st nationally in passing yards per game (290.2) and Kaylon Geiger was 30th nationally with 752 receiving yards. In 2019, outside receivers Reggie Todd and Khalil McClain combined for 83 receptions, 12 touchdowns and 1228 yards. As a unit, the receivers topped the 100-yard mark 11 different times to shatter the Troy school record that previously stood at seven games.

As an offense, the Trojans topped the 500-yard mark in total offense on six different occasions to tie the program's DI record and scored 35-plus points eight times; the second-most in program history and fourth-most in Sun Belt Conference history. The Trojans finished ninth nationally in passing offense (313.2), 25th in scoring offense (33.8) and 18th in total offense (456.3).

Receiver Emanuel Thompson led the Sun Belt with 80 receptions in 2016 — the second most in a season in Troy history — and finished third with 820 receiving yards. Deondre Douglas, who would earn three All-Sun Belt honors in his career, tied for third with 60 catches and 740 yards.

In 2018, Dameon Willis finished with the second most receiving yards in a game in school history after a 10-catch, 213-yard performance against Louisiana and ranked ninth nationally with seven catches of 40-plus yards despite missing a pair of games.

Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory in the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt Conference history and the best win-improvement in the country. In 2017, Troy set a school FBS record for wins as the Trojans finished the season 11-2 with a Sun Belt championship, New Orleans Bowl title and a victory at No. 22 LSU.

Williams was a four-year letterman for the Trojans from 2006-09 and helped lead Troy to a combined 26-3 Sun Belt Conference record. He finished his Trojan career with 63 receptions for 764 yards and seven touchdowns.

Williams has also served as the receivers coach at UAB (2014) and Jacksonville State (2013). UAB averaged 33.2 points and 431.8 yards of total offense in Williams' lone season coaching the Blazers. Both totals were good for fourth in the offense-heavy Conference USA and wide receiver J.J. Nelson was a fifth

David Fox
Director of Operations

12th season at New Mexico
Drake, 1989
Garden City, Kan.

David Fox joined the Lobo Family in February of 2023 as the new Director of Football Operations, taking over for long-time director Gavin Bevis.

Fox comes back to the Duke City after spending the 2022 season with Washington State in the same capacity. Prior to that, he was at Nevada for four seasons as the Director of Operations.

Fox was an academic coordinator at UNM from 1997-2007, where he oversaw the continuing eligibility for the Lobos' football and women's basketball programs. In conjunction with his academic duties, Fox also was the game management coordinator from 1998-2006. He worked as liaison to tournament officials for the 2000 NCAA Men's Basketball West Regional and the 2002 NCAA Men's Basketball First/Second Rounds. Fox coordinated MW referees during football and men's basketball games and also assisted with a variety of game day responsibilities during football home contests. His previous two years were as a graduate assistant on Francione's staff, helping with quarterbacks and receivers.

He also spent two years in the commercial real estate industry in Albuquerque, and he was the media relations director for the 2007 New Mexico Bowl, coordinating press conferences and the press box on game day, along with handling a variety of scouting needs for NFL executives and serving as a liaison for the Mountain West and the West Athletic Conferences.

As the director of operations, Fox will work with the head coach on travel arrangements, training table, budgets and press season planning. He will also play a key role in serving as a liaison with main campus, representing the interests of Lobo Football.

Fox brings with him eight previous years of experience as a director. Along with Washington State and Nevada, Fox was the director of operations at Tulane for three years, handling a variety of similar functions.

A native of Garden City, Kan., Fox earned his associate of arts degree from Garden City Community College in 1988 and completed his bachelor of arts degree in biology from Drake in 1990. He received his master's of science degree in higher education from Drake in 1994.

As a student-athlete at Drake, he was a two-year letterwinner for the Bulldogs from 1988-89 and was voted the most valuable defensive back by his teammates in 1989. Fox also excelled in the classroom, receiving the Drake Academic/Athletic Excellence Award in both seasons. He transferred to Drake after spending two seasons on the GCCC football team in 1986-87. He eventually broke into collegiate coaching with Drake as a G.A. in 1990 before being hired full-time in 1992.

@UNMLoboEquip

Jacque May is one of the longest tenured members of the UNM athletics department, having joined The University of New Mexico family in August of 1999, originally as a student assistant equipment manager. She currently oversees the entire equipment operation for the department, assisting with the large operation of Lobo Football.

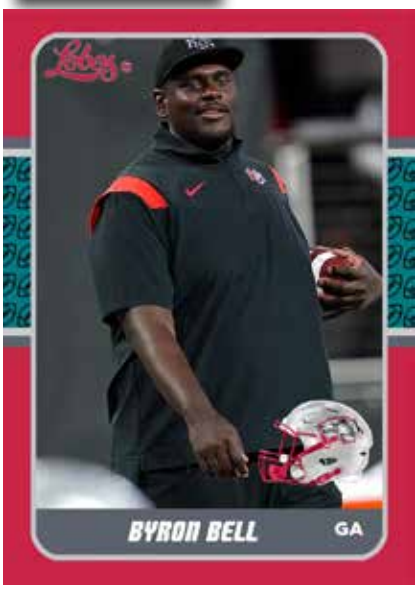
May was able to apprentice under former UNM equipment manager and legendary figure Rudy Garcia, who was UNM's equipment manager for over 37 years.

May, who has served in her current role as Director of Equipment Operations since 2006, handles all matters pertaining to equipment, from uniform purchases to budgeting for the department. She also works closely with UNM's financial department and upper-level administration in handling how UNM's marks are presented.

She and her staff not only handle UNM's games and practice uniforms, but coaching apparel and working with UNM's online partners for fan gear and merchandise.

May is a native of Doniphan, Kansas, and she and her husband Eric have a dog named Huck.

Byron Bell
Offensive G.A.
2nd year at New Mexico
New Mexico, 2021
Greenville, Texas



Byron Bell rejoined the Lobo family in 2022 as currently serves as a graduate assistant with the offense.

Bell works with UNM's offensive line, handling practice planning, film breakdown and on-the-field coaching. He also aids with statistical analysis and film preparation.

Bell was a terrific undergraduate player with the Lobos, earning three letters and starting 36 games and playing in 37, winning the Outstanding Lineman Award in 2010.

Bell went undrafted out of UNM, but carved out a productive eight-year NFL career, playing for Carolina, Tennessee, Dallas and Green Bay. Overall, he played in 102 NFL games, starting 83.

After leaving UNM in 2010 after his junior season, he came back after his playing career and earned his degree in liberal arts in 2021.

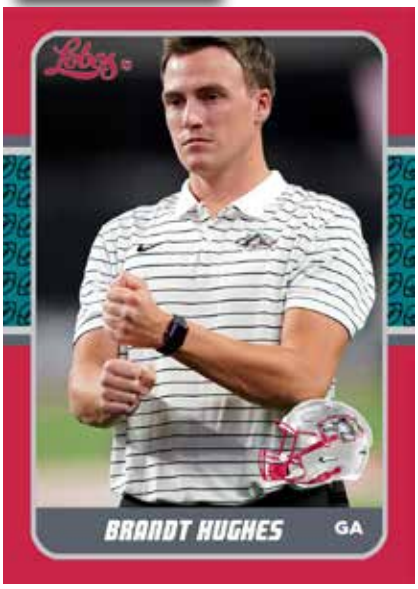
Chico, Calif.



Brandt Hughes has been a part of the Lobo Family since 2019, but this is his first official season with the coaching staff, serving as a graduate assistant with the offense.

Hughes works move around with UNM's quarterbacks and receivers, handling practice planning, film breakdown and on-the-field coaching. He also aids with statistical analysis and film preparation.

Hughes was named the starting quarterback as a junior college transfer in 2019, and threw for 218 yards in his only half with the Lobos. He suffered an injury in the opening half of the season against Incarnate Word, and that injury led to the end of his playing career.

Hughes joined the staff as a student assistant after his playing career was over, working with UNM's offense and helping out wherever he could, mostly serving as a bridge between UNM's quarterback room and the coaching staff.

He graduated with a degree in business administration and management from the Anderson School of Business at UNM in 2021.

DeAndre Wright
Defensive G.A.
1st year at New Mexico
New Mexico, 1986
Washington, D.C.

DeAndre Wright, a former Lobo great who was a Freshman All-American, has officially rejoined the Lobo Family as a graduate assistant coach, working with the Lobo defense. Wright has served as a volunteer assistant for the past few years, working with the program's corners and safeties

Wright will be handling practice planning, film breakdown and on-the-field coaching. He also aids with statistical analysis and film preparation.

Wright was named Freshman All-America by the FWAA in 2005, he was a three-time All-Mountain West selection, earning second team honors in 2006 and 2008 and first team honors in 2007. He was also a finalist in 2008 for both the Nagurski Award and the Thorpe Award.

He started the final 41 games of his career, and he started 43 of the 48 games that he played in. At the time of his career at UNM ending, he was sixth in school history with 25 passes broken up, and he finished with 10 interceptions, 159 tackles, and 10.5 tackles for loss. He also was a superb return man, leading the Mountain West in kickoff return average at 25.9 yards per return in 2006.

He eventually was drafted by the New York Giants in 2009. He also played with Minnesota Vikings and the Cleveland Browns.

He later played indoor football with both the New Mexico Stars and the Duke City Gladiators.

He graduated with a degree in liberal arts in 2008 from New Mexico. Wright's young son Cameron is a regular at Lobo practices, helping with equipment, chasing down footballs and cheering on the players.

Joey Noble

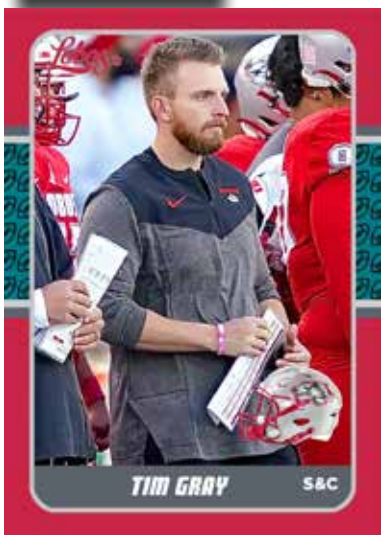
San Diego State, 2019
San Diego, Calif.



Tim Gray joined the Lobo Family in February of 2022 and he serves as an assistant director of athletic performance. He works with the football and baseball programs.

Gray came to UNM from a 10-month stint as a graduate assistant with Houston Baptist where he worked with a variety of programs, including the football team. He also spent time with the Los Angeles Chargers as an intern in the equipment area.

Gray is well known to several members of the coaching staff, having spent nearly four years at San Diego State University including two and a half years working in the strength and conditioning area, working with football, swimming and diving, track & field, cross country and men's golf. He is certified by USA Weightlifting and he is a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Gray earned his bachelor's in kinesiology in 2019 from San Diego State.

Conner Cain
Asst. Dir. of Ath. Performance
1st year at New Mexico
Washington State, 2021
Folsom, Calif.

Conner Cain joined the Lobo Family in the January of 2023 and he serves as assistant director of athletic performance, working with Lobo Football.

Cain handles many tasks with Lobo Football, including working with UNM's rehabbing and injured players.

He came to UNM from Baylor, where he spent nearly a year with the Bear football program as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. There he led the data tracking for the football team and he directed the internship program as well.

No stranger to the Mountain West, Cain spent a year and a half with the Aggies of Utah State as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach, working with olympic sports and football. He was the lead for Utah State softball, men's tennis and men's golf, as well as assisting with football. He also led data entry for football using InBody body composition technology.

Cain got his coaching career started in the strength and conditioning departments Kansas and Wyoming. At Kansas, he served a four-month internship with the Jayhawk football team, and that came on the heels of a 13-month post playing career internship with the Wyoming Cowboys. After a four-year playing career with Wyoming where he played defensive line and served as a team captain his senior year, Cain aided in the complete strength and conditioning program at Wyoming. He also tracked and recorded training data using Polar Team Pro GPS technology and he oversaw weight room maintenance, including daily sanitation and inventory checks.

Cain graduated with a master's of science in sports management in 2022 from Utah State and a bacherlor's of arts in history from Wyoming in 2019.

Jalen Harvey
Dir. of Player Development
1st year at New Mexico
Arizona State, 2019
EL Cerrito, Calif.
@IamJalenHarvey

Jalen Harvey joined the Lobo family in July of 2022 and he serves as the director of player development. Harvey comes to UNM after previously serving an internship with the program and a solid playing career at Arizona State.

As Director of Player Development, Harvey will serve as a liaison for the 100+ members of the Lobo Football team, working with onboarding players into the program, and helping new members of the team to adjust to collegiate athletics.

Harvey will also serve as a central figure for the team to the various constituents around UNM's campus and the Albuquerque community, and he will handle many aspects of player relations, including helping veteran players as they transition from seniors to alums.

Harvey was well known to Gonzales having most recently served as an intern within the program for the spring of 2022, holding down a variety of administrative tasks from preparing game footage for the coaching staff to coding and logging plays into various computerized data and spreadsheets.

A former Scholar Baller at Arizona State, Harvey played defensive back and receiver with the Sun Devils from 2014 through the 2019 season. A terrific offensive player over his first four seasons (establishing career-highs of 33 catches and 558 yards as a junior), Harvey moved to the defensive side of the ball as a senior, playing safety. There, he finished second on the team in tackles with 70, despite missing three games. He earned the ASU Darren Woodson Outstanding Secondary honor after his senior season.

His work on both sides of the ball as a player, along with his history of giving back to the community as a student-athlete should serve him well in the role of director of player development. As ASU he volunteered his time, serving at schools, churches and hospitals as a part of ASU's community outreach program, and he served a 240-hour internship with two Boys & Girls Clubs as a mentor and coach.

All told, he played in 38 games for the Sun Devils. He graduated twice from the university, earning a bachelor's in interdisciplinary studies in 2019 and a master's in liberal arts in 2020.

Frank Mercogliano
Asst. A.D/Communications
14th year at New Mexico
UNC Pembroke, 1992
Massapequa, N.Y.
@fmmercogliano

Frank Mercogliano joined UNM Athletics in August of 2010 as the Assistant Athletic Director of Communications, and he oversees the entire communications office for the Lobos. He became the primary football contact in 2014 for Lobo football after spending four years publicizing UNM's nationally-ranked men's basketball program. He currently also oversees publicity for men's and women's tennis.

In 2021, Mercogliano led a communications staff that earned the department's first FWAA Super 11 Award for the top 11 FBS communications offices. It was UNM's first press box citation of any kind in 33 years.

As a member of the Lobo staff, Mercogliano has been invited to speak several times at CoSIDA/NACDA conventions on a variety of topics from student-athlete interview techniques to work-life balance to a 2019 panel on crisis communications. He has taken part in several hiring searches and works closely with the university's Marketing and Communications to coordinate many of UNM's releases and news items. He also oversees all press conferences and major announcements.

He came to Albuquerque after a 12-year stint at Idaho State University where he was the Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations. At Idaho State he handled all aspects of media relations for football, men's basketball, and softball, as well as academic honors. He also oversaw all departmental publications as well as the sports of soccer and softball. Ironically, the first football game he worked at Idaho State saw the Bengals travel to New Mexico, a 38-9 Lobo victory. While at Idaho State, Mercogliano has served as the Media Coordinator for several Big Sky Championships, and he has worked on the media operations staff for the 2005, 2009, and 2010 NCAA Men's Basketball West Regionals as well as the 2002 NCAA Women's Basketball West Regional, the 1999 NCAA Track and Field National Championships and the 2000 NCAA Gymnastics National Championships.

He has also served on the membership board of the Idaho State University Council of Professional Employees (COPE). In 2003 and 2007 he served as a panelist for the SID Town Meeting at the CoSIDA Convention, discussing current events in intercollegiate athletics as it relates to sports information. Mercogliano had spent the previous four years as the Director of Sports Information at Augusta State University, where he helped publicize the Jaguars in eight NCAA national tournament appearances. At ASU, Mercogliano was responsible for the publicity of 11 sports, 10 on the NCAA Division II level, and the Division I men's golf team, which made three national tournament appearances during his tenure.

He also served as the first full-time SID at Belmont Abbey College, where he also held the dual title of Carolinas Conference Media Relations Director. While there he also coached South Point High School's soccer team to a two-year record of 30-7-3. In 1993 he was named "Region X Coach of the Year", and was a runner-up for North Carolina Coach of the Year honors.

During his stay in Augusta, Mercogliano served as the official scorer and musical operations director for the Augusta GreenJackets, the Class A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Twice, Mercogliano was pressed into emergency service as an umpire for the South Atlantic League when the regular umpires became too ill to work. He also served as color analyst for Augusta State basketball as well as handling play-by-play duties for the WRDW Game of the Week in football, basketball and baseball. Mercogliano is a 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke, where he earned a degree in communications with an emphasis in public relations. In Albuquerque, he has continued on that path, serving as a play-by-play broadcaster for select internet broadcasts of Lobo soccer, baseball and softball. He also has served as an official scorer and datacaster for the Albuquerque Isotopes since 2011.

His wife Melissa graduated from Idaho State and currently teaches in the Rio Rancho school district. They have three daughters: Jessica, Kristina, and Angela. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in the summer of 2006 after earning a bachelor's degree in English with a P.R. and communications emphasis from UNC Pembroke (then Pembroke State) in 1992, where he was a four-year letterwinner in men's soccer as a goalkeeper.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico's defense was stellar, allowing just 118 yards of offense and only seven first downs, all of which came in the second half and the Lobos never let Maine get inside the 38-yard line as UNM pitched a 41-0 shutout in its season opener. The Lobo shutout was the first since a 66-0 win in the 2015 season opener against Mississippi Valley State.

While the defense was the story, the Lobos revamped offense was clicking all night. UNM put up six touchdowns on 12 possessions (not counting two end of half kneel-downs) and the Lobos totaled 437 yards with 267 yards on the ground and 170 through the air.

Miles Kendrick, starting his first game for UNM as a graduate transfer from Kansas, went 14-for-17 passing for those 170 yards with two touchdowns. He also added 40 yards rushing on 11 carries, and one would never know he suffered a broken leg in 2021.

After an opening quarter that saw Ronald Wilson turn in an interception on the first defensive play of the season and UNM allow just seven yards, the Lobos got themselves on the board in the second three straight drives. Sherod White, earning his first career start, earned a four-yard touchdown, breaking two tackles on the way to the end zone. Luke Wysong then finished off the next two drives, the first on a 13-yard run and the second on a 10-yard pass from Kendrick.

All the while, the Lobo defense was stymieing the Black Bears, who entered the game having won five of its last six and with a veteran offensive team. The Lobos didn't allow a first down in the opening half and just 44 yards, 22 of which came on one play.

In the second half, Maine picked up a few first downs, but UNM never let the Black Bears sniff anything close to the end zone. Reco Hannah picked up a fumble, his first career takeaway as part of a one and half sack night for him, but it was more a team effort. Five Lobos broke up passes and UNM had three sacks and five QB hurries as UNM harassed quarterback Joe Fagnano into a 12-for-27 day for 96 yards with an interception and a lost fumble and -23 yards rushing.

White made it 28-0 with a 3-yard run midway through the quarter, and after Hannah's fumble recovery, true freshman Jah'Mar Sanders scored on a 10-yard run on his first career play to make it 34-0.

Geordon Porter's 7-yard touchdown catch ended the scoring, and the night for Kendrick as well. From there, the only drama was would UNM's defense be able to maintain the shutout, and the Lobos were more than true to the task. Up 41-0 the Lobos turned in a quick three-and-out allowing just a yard. Maine had one more drive left in them and after moving the ball to near midfield, Fagnano threw incomplete with freshmen JD Roberts in his face, the last of UNM's five hurries.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Boise State held New Mexico's offense to just 123 yards and the Broncos blocked a punt for a touchdown for the third time in the last two meetings as the Broncos defeated the Lobos 31-14 at University Stadium.

The game was a defensive battle from the start, but a pair of long passes, one for 41 yards and one for 47 led to a pair of first half scores, one an 18-yard pass from Hank Bachmeier for Latrell Caples and the other a 48-yard Jonah Dalmas field goal.

That was all BSU got in the first half and UNM's defense was all over the field, limiting the Broncos to just 139 yards of offense and five first downs. The issue was BSU's defense was equal to the task. UNM drove into Boise State territory twice, once to the 41 that ended in a punt by Aaron Rodriguez and the other was a late drive to end the first half that ended in a 48-yard field goal that drifted just wide right.

Boise State coming out of the half couldn't muster too much, but their opening punt pushed UNM back inside their own 20, and the Broncos forced a punt. Rodriguez rolled right but BSU brought the house and got a piece of it and recovered the ball in the end zone to make it 17-0.

BSU made it 24-0 on the first play of the fourth quarter on a Bachmeier 3-yard screen pass to George Holani, but UNM got on the board on the next drive. On the first play after a 31-yard kickoff return by true freshman Christian Washington, Miles Kendrick hit Geordon Porter in stride for a nice 69-yard scoring strike. Luke Drzewiecki added the extra point and that made it 24-7.

UNM then stopped BSU when Ronald Wilson picked off Bachmeier at the 3-yard line, but UNM couldn't gain a first down and punted the ball away. Boise State took advantage of a short field and got another Bachmeier to Caples touchdown, this from four yards to make it 31-7. UNM answered right back as Christian Washington took the ensuing kickoff five yards deep and raced right up the middle for a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

That was as close as UNM would get, although UNM's defense got another stop and got the ball back with 4:09 to go at its own 26, but the Lobos went three-and-out, and the game was effectively over from there.

Game 3: 9/17/2022 Albuquerque, N.M. Att: 15,269

UTEP 10
New Mexico 27

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico got an early 22-yard touchdown from linebacker Reco Hannah on an interception return and the Lobo defense was stout all game with seven takeaways as the Lobos defeated UTEP 20-3 in a game that wasn't nearly as close as the final score would suggest. The seven takeaways were the most for UNM since getting seven on five interceptions and two fumbles in a 20-13 win over Memphis on November 22, 1986.

The Lobos also got a 3-yard touchdown from Sherod White in the second quarter and a pair of field goals in the first half, one from Luke Drzewiecki from 37 yards out and one from George Steinkamp from a career-best 51 yards away.

The Lobos were dominant in the first half, outgaining the Miners 217 to 76. The Lobos got on the board first when Miles Kendrick methodically moved UNM from its own 20 to the UTEP 18-yard line, and that led to a 37-yard field goal by Luke Drzewiecki, giving UNM a 3-0 lead. After UNM pinned UTEP at its 15 on the kickoff, Jerrick Reed II made back-to-back big plays. First, he knocked away short pass, and then he got his hand on a pass, deflecting it right to Reco Hannah. Hannah picked it off and raced untouched into the end zone for a 10-0 lead.

From there, UNM's defense kept it up. The defense held for a three-and-out, and then had to face a short field after a 34-yard punt return gave UTEP the ball at the Lobo 42. However, the Miners could only muster a 46-yard field goal.

The Lobos took a 17-3 lead on a picture-perfect 75-yard drive. Nate Jones converted a third down with a 21-yard run, and then he added 14 on the next play. Kendrick turned in a 22-yard run on the drive which was capped by a 3-yard Sherod White touchdown.

George Steinkamp's career-long 51-yarder at the end of the half gave UNM a 20-3 lead. It was coming out of half that the game turned, and it was turned in by a true freshman. Tyrin Smith caught a pass over the middle on the opening drive of the second half and raced to the corner of the end zone, being chased by A.J. Haulcy. Smith raced 76 yards and looked to have scored, but Haulcy, who gave chase for about 50 yards, karate chopped the ball out of Smith's hands, and it hit the pylon. Instead of a 76-yard touchdown and a 20-10 game, UNM got a touchback, and crused any momentum UTEP tried to gain out of the half.

UNM had chances to extend the lead but Drzewiecki hit the upright from 30 and missed wide right from 31. UTEP finally got in the end zone with 4:41 to go when Deion Hankins scored to make it 20-10. UNM recovered the ensuing onside kick and Nate Jones eventually punched the ball in from five yards out to clinch it.

Game 4: 9/24/2022 Baton Rouge, La. Att: 100,501

New Mexico 0
LSU 38

BATON ROUGE, La. --- LSU was able to hold UNM's offense at bay, and the Tigers were able to move the ball as LSU picked up a 38-0 win over New Mexico in Baton Rouge. The Tigers moved to 3-1 on the year and New Mexico fell to 2-2. UNM has a short week to get ready for UNLV in Las Vegas on Friday night in a game on CBS Sports Network.

The game stayed close in the opening half as LSU led just 10-0 for most of the half until a last-minute touchdown gave LSU a 17-0 lead at the break.

The Lobos had a few near misses on offense in the opening half, twice nearly converting third-and-longs, falling a yard short. LSU opened the game with a short field after a punt, going 57 yards in eight plays with Armoni Goodwin scoring from five yards out. Damian Ramos added a 31-yard field goal for a 10-0 lead.

UNM had a chance to cut into the lead when Jaden Hullaby and Miles Kendrick connected for a 38-yard pass play down to the LSU 43-yard line, but UNM couldn't get a first down and punted from the 38-yard line.

LSU made it 17-0 right before the half when it converted a fourth-and-inches from its own 37-yard line. The Tigers drove down the field and scored on third-and-goal from the 1-yard line when Armoni got his second to make it 17-0 at the break.

UNM got a stop to open the second half, getting a third and fourth down stop, giving the Lobos to ball near midfield, but UNM couldn't capitalize, punting the ball away. LSU got a pair of Noah Cain touchdowns on its next two drives to effectively put the game away, the last from 49 yards. UNM went three-and-out on all five of its second half drives.

While LSU outgained UNM 633-99, UNM ran just 33 offensive plays to LSU's 80, and UNM's defense wore down late in the game in combination with the 90-degree temperature.

Reco Hannah, Cody Moon and AJ Haulcy each had double-digit tackles.

Game 5: 9/30/2022
Las Vegas, Nev.
Att: 21,605

LAS VEGAS, Nev. --- UNLV scored 24 unanswered points after UNM zipped out to a 17-0 lead in the second quarter to take a 31-20 win at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. The Rebels moved to 4-1 on the season and 1-0 in the Mountain West's West Division while UNM fell to 2-3 and 0-2 overall in the Mountain Division. The Lobos now return home to face the Wyoming Cowboys on Saturday, October 8 at 5 p.m. on CBS Sports Network.

The Rebels took the lead in the opening moments of the fourth quarter when Aidan Robbins barreled in from three yards out to culminate an 80-yard drive that was benefited by a pair of UNM personal fouls. That touchdown drive came on the heels of a golden opportunity for UNM to take the lead again after having a 17-0 lead fall into a 17-17 tie, but George Steinkamp pulled a 38-yard field goal attempt wide left with 1:50 left in the third quarter. That was the end of a 64-yard, 10-play drive that saw UNM eat up 5:05 of the clock.

UNM got three points back when George Steinkamp hit his second field goal of the game, this from 36 yards out to cut the Rebel lead to 24-20 with 12:43 to go in the game. UNM had three chances to try and take the lead in the fourth quarter, but UNM went 3-and-out twice, and Miles Kendrick threw a pick-six interception by Cameron Oliver that was returned 21 yards for a clinching touchdown with just 28 seconds left.

The Lobos bolted out to a 14-0 lead on the strength of a long opening drive and a short field, both punctuated by Miles Kendrick touchdown runs. On the first drive of the game, UNM went 71 yards on nine plays with Kendrick scoring from eight yards out on a third-and-six play. After a UNM punt, UNM got the ball back when Ronald Wilson stripped Nick Williams on the very next play. The ball fell into the waiting arms of Jerrick Reed, who return it all the way to the UNLV 33-yard line.

From there, UNM punched it in again with Kendrick again scoring from eight yards out to make it 14-0.

From there, the second quarter was filled out field goals. George Steinkamp hit from 33 yards out to make it 17-0 before UNLV's Daniel Gutierrez hit from 41, 51 and 47 yards to make it 17-9 at the break.

UNM got a stop to open the second half, and Luke Wysong returned the ensuing punt 72 yards for a touchdown, but a holding penalty nullified that. UNM then went three-and-out and UNLV drove 76 yards in 12 plays with Doug Brumfield scoring from six yards out. Brumfield kept the drive alive, rushing for six yards on a fourth-and-two zone read keeper from the Lobo 38-yard line. A pass from Brumfield to Rocky White in the corner tied the game at 17-17.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- It was a familiar refrain for a second straight week as New Mexico bolted to a 14-0 first quarter lead, and then never got another score as Wyoming came back for a 27-14 win in front of 14,226 fans at University Stadium to drop UNM to 0-3 in the Mountain West and 2-4 overall. Wyoming moved to 2-1 in the league and 4-3 overall.

The Lobos travel for the Rio Grande Rivalry next week in Las Cruces against New Mexico State, which was idle.

New Mexico raced out to a 14-0 lead on the strength of back-to-back touchdown drives to open the game. The first drive opened the game and was a brilliant, going 75 yards over 16 plays with 7:08 burned off the clock. The drive featured the first fourth down conversion of the year as Nate Jones pushed the pile for two yards on a fourth-and-1 at the Wyoming 29-yard line.

The drive saw both Kendrick and Justin Holaday take snaps, with Kendrick converting a third-and-8 with a 9-yard pass to Bobby Wooden. Jaden Hullaby rushed for 10 yards to the two-yard line and Kendrick scored his team-high third touchdown of the season to make it 7-0. After a three-and-out, UNM set up shop at its own 33 and went 67 yards in six plays to make it 14-0.

Holaday started the drive with a 15-yard run, Nate Jones added 11 and Kendrick hit a big pass play, finding Andrew Erickson at the 10-yard line. Holaday then kept a ball on the option and bullied his way in for the 14-0 lead.

Wyoming got a score back when Andrew Peasley hit Treyton Welch from 47 yards out to make it 14-7 with 10:08 left in the half, and from there, it was a host of self-inflicted errors that did UNM in.

UNM was able to drive from its own 16 to the Wyoming 28 over the final 1:41, but George Steinkamp's 45-yard field goal clanged off the right upright and bounced across but in front of the crossbar to keep the score 14-7.

Wyoming tied it on the opening drive of the second half, when Peasley found Welch again, this time from 29 yards out. It looked like Reco Hannah and Cody Moon had him dead to rights but Hannah was spun around into Moon, and that gave Peasley enough time to hit Welch for the score.

From there, it was a series of mistakes that decided the game. First, Andrew Erickson muffed a punt at the UNM 15-yard line, and Wyoming converted that into a go-ahead field goal and a 17-14 lead. After UNM punted, the Lobos downed the ball early, stopping a rolling ball at the 10-yard line that would have rolled further, pinning Wyoming deep. Instead, Wyoming punted and Jer'Marius Lewis returned it 36 yards to a the Wyoming 12-yard line, but after UNM go the 3-yard line, a holding penalty pushed them back, and Steinkamp eventually attempted a 22-yard field goal to tie the game.

His kick was low, and Gavin Myers blocked it. After an exchange of punts Wyoming got back into field goal range in the strength of a 34-yard conversion on third-and-4, and John Hoyland banged in a 19-yard field goal to make it 20-14.

UNM went backwards on the next drive, but a Wyoming punt to the 1-yard line left UNM needing to go 99 yards over the final 2:50. They got 29 of them. Kendrick, who was sacked five times, scrambled for 18 yards to the 20, and then he hit a diving Christian Jourdain for 10 to the 30. After a sack, he threw a pass well short of Duece Jones, and for the second straight week a final drive to take the lead ended in a defensive pick-six, this from 38 yards for Cameron Stone.

Game 7: 10/15/2022
Las Cruces, N.M.
Att: 20,132

LAS CRUCES, N.M. --- It was another rough third quarter, and a key penalty that kept an Aggie drive alive proved critical and New Mexico State took the 112th edition of the Rio Grande Rivalry 21-9, its first win over UNM since a 30-28 win in Albuquerque in 2017.

The Lobos could only muster three field goals from freshman Luke Drzewiecki, and down 21-6, a 74-yard, 20 play drive that started at the UNM three after a penalty ended in just a field goal. Penalties were a key story of the game, as UNM had returned the kickoff from the endzone beyond the 30-yard line, but a block in the back at the 6-yard line meant UNM started at the 3.

Down 14-6 in the third quarter, UNM seemingly had the Aggies stopped on a 3rd-and-7 as Gavin Frakes' pass was going to be for no gain, but Justin Harris was flagged for a late hit to give NMSU a first down, and they turned that into a 2-yard rushing touchdown by Star Thomas.

UNM overall was flagged for 11 penalties for 64 yards, and NMSU picked up nine for 102. The Lobos, down 7-6 at the break, were outscored 14-0 in the third quarter, marking the sixth straight game UNM went scoreless in the third.

Offensively, the Lobos moved the ball a bit between the 20s, outgaining the Aggies 269-225, but every time UNM got momentum, a penalty seemingly hurt the drive. UNM also dealt with a slew of injuries in the game as leading receiver Geordon Porter missed the game with an injury, and starting center CJ James left the game in the second quarter, moving Isaak Gutierrez to center. UNM was already down one starter on the offensive line in Shancco Matautia, and then Gutierrez' replacement Zaccheus Williams also left with an injury.

UNM opened the game with the ball and went 61 yards in 11 plays, but a loss of six on a rishing play set UNM behind the chains, and the Lobos only got three yards on a third-and-long. That led to the first of Drzewiecki's three field goals and it was 3-0.

The Aggies got on the board after back-to-back penalties gave them first-and-goal at the Lobo 22, and Gavin Frakes hit Ahmonte Watkins for a 22-yard touchdown, and NMSU never trailed again.

Another promising Lobo drive stalled out inside the red zone when UNM suffered a false start on a 3rd-and-2, and the couldn't convert. Drzewiecki hit from 32 yards out to get UNM within a point, and it stayed that way into the halftime break.

The Lobos for the second straight week did not register a takeaway, marking exactly seven years since UNM's last win without registering a takeaway, October 15, 2015 when UNM beat Air Force 45-40 when neither team turned it over.

Game 8: 10/22/2022
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 14,667

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- New Mexico had plenty of chances, but three red zone trips produced three field goals, and Fresno State blew open a close game with a big play in the third quarter as the Bulldogs raced past UNM 41-9, handing the Lobos a fifth consecutive loss. The win moved Fresno State to 2-1 in the Mountain West's West division, while UNM dropped to 2-6 and 0-4, and must now win the last four in order to become bowl eligible.

The Lobos started Justin Holaday at quarterback, a change from Miles Kendrick, who started the first seven games. While UNM was able to extend the defense with long pass attempts, the Lobos never quite clicked on them, having two long balls go just off outstretched fingertips.

However, it was a case of UNM getting a few good opportunities and not being able to cash in with touchdowns. Down 3-0 in the first quarter, the Lobos were set up with great field position as Christian Washington returned a kickoff 63 yards to the Fresno State 20. It took UNM one play to get a first down as Holaday ran to the 19-yard line, but after a completion to Luke Wysong, a 5-yard loss meant a Luke Drzewiecki field goal attempt from 33 yards, which was good for a 3-3 tie.

Fresno State took the lead for good with a 75-yard drive that ended in a 2-yard Logan Fife touchdown run. After some punts, Unm got the ball back at midfield after a 38-yard punt return by Wysong. Washington opened with an 11-yard run, and he then converted a third-and-1 to move the chains. Holaday scrambled out of danger and raced 35 yards, diving for the pylonbut going out at the 2-yard line. With a chance to tie the game late in the first half, the offense fizzled. Washington was stopped for no gain, and then a designed run for Holaday saw him lose four yards. A sack on third down meant another Drzewiecki field goal, this from 24 yards.

Fresno State drove to end the half with a field goal and at the break, the Bulldogs led 13-6. UNM go the ball to open the half and immediately moved the ball on a 14-yard Nate Jones run. However, a third-and-9 became third-and-24 after a penalty, and UNM punted. On the first play after the punt, Fife hit Jalen Moreno-Cropper for a 75-yard touchdown, and it was 20-6.

The Bulldogs made it 27-6 on the next series with Fife faked everyone out on a keeper around the left side on third-and-2 for a 30-yard touchdown run.

UNM had another chance to get back in it when A.J. Haulcy, who had a career-best 24 tackles in the game, picked off Fife near midfield, returning the ball to the Fresno State 19. UNM couldn't get a first down, and Drzewiecki hit his third field goal, this from 29 yards, to make it 27-9. The Bulldogs tacked on two fourth quarter touchdowns as the Lobos never got anything going in the second half with just three first downs and 52 yards of offense.

10 New Mexico 27 Utah State

Game 9: 11/5/2022
Logan, Utah
Att: 14,154

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- In a game where New Mexico was at least the equal to Utah State on offense and on defense, Utah State's specials teams won them the game as the Aggies used a fake field goal for a touchdown to take a 14-10 lead on the way to a 27-10 win, handing UNM its sixth straight loss and dropping UNM to 2-7 overall and 0-5 in the Mountain West. Utah State moved to 4-5 overall and 3-2 in the Mountain West.

The loss eliminated UNM from bowl possibility.

The Lobos lost despite moving the ball well on offense, particularly on the ground as UNM broke the 200-yard mark on the ground for the first time since the season opener when UNM had 267 against Maine. However, UNM entered the fourth quarter down 17-10 and the strong wind, which should have been in UNM's favor in the fourth quarter, switched. Instead, UNM had to drive into a fierce wind, and a pouring rain to score, and it was not meant to be.

The Lobos held a 10-7 lead at the break, the third time this season in five Mountain West games that UNM led at halftime. Utah State got the ball first but a UNM made a pair of costly mistakes that allowed Utah State to go 88 yards for an opening second-half touchdown.

The first was a late hit by Cody Moon after UNM had forced a three-and-out to open the half. Instead of punting at the 10-yard line, it gave Utah State a first down. Then after stopping the Aggies on third down at the 6-yard line, the Aggies faked the field goal attempt with kicker Connor Coles running in from six-yard out.

It was that fake, along with a host of other special teams miscues and errors that led to UNM's downfall. The game opened with a mistake as Luke Wysong caught the opening kickoff and instead of immediately taking a knee, he moved laterally and inadvertently stepped into the field of play, forcing UNM to start the game at its own 1-yard line. UNM went three-and-out and a punt into a fierce wind went to just the Lobo 43-yard line. The Aggies scored on their second play when Cooper Legas hit Terrell Vaughn from 38 yards out. That was Utah State's only offensive touchdown of the game.

Utah State also got a field goal in the third quarter after Jer'Marius Lewis fumbled a punt that was going over his head. UNM also allowed a first down on a fake punt, although UNM held later in that drive.

New Mexico answered that opening score to take the lead into the half. Luke Drzewiecki hit a 31-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3, and then UNM put together a 74-yard touchdown drive, with Nate Jones scoring on a rush around the left side, just squeezing inside the pylon for a 10-7 lead. UNM had another long drive at the very end of the half, but Drzewiecki's 52-yard field goal was just wide to the right at the end of the half.

Down 20-10 late in the game, Utah State put an exclaimation point on the game. The Lobos had moved the ball into Utah State territory with just over three minutes to go, trying to set up an onside-kick. However, Holaday was sacked by AJ Vongphachanh, and Hunter Reynolds scooped the ball up and went 55 yards for the final score of the game.

The Lobos stay on the road, facing the Air Force Falcons at 1:32 pm on Saturday in Colorado Springs. The Falcons are coming off a 13-7 win over Army that clinched them their first Commander's in Chief Trophy since 2016.

3 New Mexico 35 Air Force

Game 10: 11/12/2022
Colorado Springs, Colo.
Att: 20,827

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. --- Air Force did what Air Force does, grinding out yards on the ground, scoring on its first two possession to win 35-3 over New Mexico in Colorado Springs. The win was Air Force's fifth straight in the series and 10th straight over UNM in Falcon Stadium.

Overall, New Mexico has now lost seven straight games.

The Falcons did what they do, rushing 70 times for 428 yards, and capitalizing twice on pass plays, one for a 33-yard touchdown. The 428 yards on the ground marked the 15th-most rushing yards ever allowed by UNM in a game. The Lobos threw for 128 yards, which was more than the last two games combined, but UNM picked up just 172 yards of total offense.

The Falcons opened the scoring on a third-and-four when quarterback Haaziq Daniels faked to his left, stopped and went right, and took advantage of a numbers matchup to go 65 yards for a score and the Falcon grabbed a 7-0 lead just 3:24 into the game. After a second straight three-and-out by the Lobo offense, the Falcons moved 84 yards in 15 plays, with John Elridge III scoring from 10 yards out to make it 14-0.

After Air Force's first two scores, UNM didn't give up a score, getting a pair of stops to go into the half down just 14-0. UNM held until the third quarter when Air Force completed a 33-yard touchdown pass to from Haaziq Daniels to David Cormier to make it 21-0. After UNM punted, the Lobos got a turnover as true freshman A.J. Haulcy recovered a fumble that was forced by Jerrick Reed II. UNM quarterback Justin Holaday hit Geordon Porter down the sideline for 31 yards to the Air Force 15, but UNM couldn't move further from there, settling for a 39-yard Luke Drzewiecki field goal.

Air Force then bobbled the ensuing kickoff but it was able to recover. UNM forced another fourth down attempt when the Falcons faced fourth-and3 from the Lobo 37, but Daniels bided his time and scampered 37 yards for a score and a 28-3 lead. A late score after UNM went for it deep within its own territory accounted for the final margin.

The Lobos had three players record double-digit tackles with Cody Moon getting 14 and Reco Hannah and Dion Hunter getting 12 each. A.J. Haulcy, whose fumble recovery led to UNM's lone score, had nine. Duece Jones led the offense with three catches for 49 yards.

Game 11: 11/18/2022
Albuquerque, N.M.
Att: 14,309

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- San Diego State used a few big chunk plays to take control late in the first half on the way to a 34-10 win over New Mexico, handing the Lobos an eighth straight loss. The Aztecs for the moment remained alive for a possible Mountain West title game berth.

The game was UNM's senior night game as the team honored 12 seniors prior to the game.

The Lobos were without starting quarterback Justin Holaday due to injury and turned to freshman C.J. Montes, who played well in his first extensive action of the season. Montes went 15-for-23 for 112 yards, all career-high numbers. He entered the game with one pass attempt on the season.

San Diego State jumped ahead 7-0 when Jalen Mayden found Mekhi Shaw who was all alone behind the defense for a 53-yard touchdown. The Lobos were able to answer, putting together a 74-yard touchdown drive. The key play on the drive was a career-long 51-yard run by Nate Jones. Montes ended the drive by pulling the ball on an option play and bolting in from five yards out for a game-tying score.

It stayed that way until the second quarter when another long pass play, this a 63-yard pass play that looked like it would be stopped for a short gain on third down, set up a 1-yard run by Jaylon Armstead to make it 14-7. The Aztecs then took advantage of a special teams bobble when Isaiah Perez's snap back to Aaron Rodriguez never made it back to him as one of the upbacks moved into the path of the snap. The Aztecs took over in UNM territory and scored to make it 21-7 when Mayden hit Shaw for a 30-yard touchdown.

UNM scored to end the half when the Lobos drove in a two-minute drill into field goal range and Luke Drzewiecki hit from 39 yards out.

SDSU scored on its opening drive of the second half as Kenan Christon went around the right end on fourth-and-1 and scored from 49 yards out for a 28-10 lead. Jack Browning's two second half field goals of 30 and 39 yards made it 34-10. The Lobos could never answer in the second half, picking up just one first down, and that came on a face mask penalty in the fourth quarter.

UNM now heads to Colorado State to take on the Rams in the season finale on Friday at 1:32 p.m. on CBS Sports Network.

Game 12: 11/25/2022
Fort Collins, Colo.
Att: 20,107

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State threw a second quarter touchdown pass, and that was basically all it needed as the Rams shutout New Mexico 17-0 in the final game of the season for both teams. The Lobos ended the season 2-10 with nine straight losses to end the season, while Colorado State finished at 3-9.

The game stayed scoreless through the first quarter as neither offense was able to penetrate the others' defense, but CSU broke through first. The key play was a scramble by quarterback Clay Millen, who somehow found Trey Horton for a first down inside UNM territory. Three plays later, Miller hit Justus Ross-Simmons for a 21-yard touchdown over pretty good coverage from Donte Martin for a 7-0 lead.

UNM had a chance to cut into that lead at the end of the half, as UNM drove to the CSU 29-yard line, but Luke Drzewiecki's 46-yard field goal attempt went wide left, keeping the score at 7-0.

UNM got a stop to open the half when OJ Bartley, who played both offense and defense in the game, forced a fumble that Cody Moon recovered for a turnover. UNM gained 19 yards quickly, but a personal foul pushed UNM back into its own territory, and the Lobos punted. That punt went to the 2-yard line, and after an exchange on punts, UNM turned it over with C.J. Montes was strip-sacked, leading to a 23-yard field goal by Michael Boyle in the dying moments of the third quarter.

UNM was not able to mount a fourth quarter comeback, as UNM had just three first downs in the second half along with 39 total yards. The Rams added a late touchdown on a 41-yard pass from Millen to Horton to complete the scoring.

Kasey Carrier was a durable back who excelled in the option game, even playing as an option quarterback at times due to injury. He owns the top two single-game marks for yards from scrimmage with 343 against Air Force and 291 against UTEP. Amazingly, three of the top five marks all-time in single-game yardage came against UTEP.

Among the top-10 best seasons for yards from scrimmage, DonTrell Moore has four of them, one for each season he played. Those four years equaled 5,830 total yards from scrimmage, the best mark all-time at UNM a number that might never again be approached by a Lobo.

Bowl History

1939 SUN BOWL
Jan. 2, 1939 • El Paso, Texas
Utah 26, New Mexico 0

Playing in its first bowl game, the New Mexico Lobos were shut out by the Utah Utes 26-0 in the 4th Annual Sun Bowl at Kidd Field in El Paso.

(Note: The remainder of this story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Paul Weeks and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Like a kite that had flown too high, New Mexico's far-famed "dipsy-doo" football circus blew up and out of control before 13,000 disappointed Sun Bowl fans with a powerful tribe of Utah Indians (as they were called at the time) pouring on a humiliating 26-0 defeat.

The Utes matched their conservative style of the game as taught by Coach Ike Armstrong against the once-colorful attack of the Hilltoppers (as the Lobos were sometimes called) to claim gridiron superiority as Big Seven champions over the Lobos, co-champs of the Border league.

Never did New Mexico fall so miserably during the entire season as against the white-shirted tribe. Observers declared the team had conquered foes with power equal to the Utes, but there were no alibis for the Sun Bowl loss. It was on the same field that the Cherry and Silver met its first defeat of the season against Texas Mines (now UTEP).

Placed on equal ground before the fray, the two teams were as unevenly matched as a flyweight in the ring with a heavy. The Utes smashed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and followed it up with a 20-0 margin at the half. When New Mexico did not take advantage of breaks given them in the last periods, the Utes coasted in to another score, using two teams with equal results.

Though the bowl was not filled to capacity, more than 500 perched on the barren hills surrounding the field. The crowd stripped overcoats and concessionaires did a rush business in sun glasses because of the summery temperature. The tang of autumn football weather was entirely lacking.

1944 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1944 • El Paso, Texas
Southwestern 7, New Mexico 0

(Note: The following story was written by A.V. Gullette from the Associated Press and edited by UNM Media Relations.)

A final quarter forward pass, starring tailback R.W. MacGruder of San Marcos, gave Southwestern of Texas a 7-0 victory over the University of New Mexico in the 9th Annual Sun Bowl.

The 37-yard toss from fullback R.L. Cooper clicked after the underdog New Mexico Lobos had beaten back the highly-touted ground game of Southwestern's Pirates through three quarters and eight minutes of the final period. The Pirates took the ball at the start of the fourth quarter on the 13. A pass, MacGruder to Cooper, made 27 and the two backs hit the line for a first down and MacGruder broke loose for 22 yards to the New Mexico 19.

Here New Mexico held and taking the pigskin, punted to the 46. Cooper passed to Hollon, Pirate end, for a first down and then to MacGruder for the winning tally.

The Lobos threatened only twice, in the second and third periods, but could not get beyond the Southwestern 16.

The game started under cloudy skies, but the sun broke through in the second half and playing conditions were nearly ideal.

The vaunted Southwestern defense held the Lobos to just four first downs and 48 yards total offense.

1946 SUN BOWL
Jan. 1, 1946 • El Paso, Texas
New Mexico 34, Denver 24

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and Albuquerque Journal writer Clayton Byers. It was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

Don Rumley, a 19-year-old Navy reservist from Princeton, Ill., led New Mexico to a 34-24 victory over Denver University in the 11th Annual Sun Bowl. The 180-pound halfback passed for three touchdowns and rushed for another in the highest scoring game in the 11 years of this New Year's Day football event.

A crowd of 15,000 was on its feet throughout a 28-point fourth period in which New Mexico came from behind to capture its first bowl victory in three attempts. It was also the first victory for a Border Conference team in the El Paso game's history.

Denver, Big Seven champion, rolled up 10 points before New Mexico countered, and remained dangerous the last scoring its final touchdown with less than two minutes to play.

A 63-yard dash with an interception sent fullback Rudy Krall over with UNM's first score in the second period. Krall and Rumley engineered a 70-yard drive to set up the next score when Rumley scooted in from nine yards for a 13-10 Lobo lead.

Then, after a scoreless New Mexico third period, when Denver had regained the lead at 17-13, Rumley whipped out two aerials for touchdowns to sub end William Moseley and a third to Lavon McDonald.

One reason the Lobos were Sun Bowl champs is a story of gridiron heroism. It's about Fred Doar, UNM's star center, chief linebacker and kicker.

The 210-pound Navy trainee was on the bottom of a heap in the first play of the game. After that he played outstanding ball stopping Denver backs time after time. But teammates noticed their captain wasn't "talking it up" as usual. In fact, he was silent. X-rays after the game showed that Doar had broken his jaw in two places on the first play.

Blue skies and a blazing sun made it baseball weather for the game. Nearly 16,000 short-sleeved customers heard a minister intone a prayer dedicating this game to the nine members of the Lobos' 1939 Sun Bowl team who left the football field to die on the battle field during World War II.

1947 HARBOR BOWL
Jan. 1, 1947 -- San Diego, Calif.
New Mexico 13, Montana State 13

(Note: The following story was written by the Associated Press and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

The University of New Mexico Lobos came from behind to earn a 13-13 tie with Montana State College in the first San Diego Harbor Bowl before a crowd of 7,000.

Both teams displayed a flashy brand of football which kept the fans on edge throughout.

New Mexico opened the scoring soon after the game started when Hubert Hackett connected on a 26-yard pass to Lou Cullen. Hackett's place kick was wide.

Montana State surged back shortly after the second period started sparked by Neil Brooks 48-yard dash from scrimmage to paydirt. The placekick was blocked but Gene Bourdet picked up the ball and ran over for the extra point (allowed at this time).

Bill Nelson set the stage for the next score when he took Bourdet's short pass at midfield and streaked 42 yards down the sideline to the Lobo 8. After three plays netted just one yard, Bourdet passed to Ken Card on fourth down putting the Bobcats in front. The kick was again blocked.

The Lobos tied the count early in the fourth quarter as Cullen and quarterback Bryan Brock combined to engineer a 75-yard drive on the ground and through the air. Brock scored from two yards out cutting over tackle. Hackett's kick was good to knot the score.

The Lobos had a chance to win the game in the final minutes. UNM drove to the Montana State 12, however, Brock was thrown for a 12-yard loss. Hackett eventually tried a field goal from 35 yards out but failed.

1961 AVIATION BOWL
Dec. 9, 1961 -- Dayton, Ohio
New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

(Note: The following story was written by Albuquerque Journal Sports Editor Dan Russell and was edited by UNM Media Relations.)

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in both the first and third quarters to defeat Western Michigan, 28-12 in a chilled Aviation Bowl football game.

Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the contest to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

New Mexico drove for two touchdowns to open the game and to also open the second half. Then it capitalized on Western errors to add the two other touchdowns.

Two fumble recoveries in the first quarter helped set up the second touchdown of the game. Chuck Cummings intercepted a pass and streaked 43 yards for the final Lobo touchdown.

Quarterback Jim Cromartie plunged for three yards for New Mexico's first touchdown. Halfback Bobby Santiago picked up the second touchdown from 10 yards out, and Bobby Morgan also went over from the 10 for the third score.

Santiago, who suffered bruised ribs at the end of the first half and saw only limited action in the second half, was voted the top back of the game. Santiago gained a total of 86 yards and had a 60-yard touchdown run nullified by a clipping penalty. Cummings was voted the outstanding lineman.

"Our kids were really up," said UNM head coach Bill Weeks. "They came to play and they hit hard and executed well throughout. Santiago and Cummings were outstanding and I felt that Bobby Morgan had his best game of the year."

1997 INSIGHT.COM BOWL
Dec. 27, 1997 -- Tucson, Ariz.
Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

New Mexico would lose its first bowl game in 36 years, 20-14, on Arizona's home field. The Cats struck first, scoring on Kelvin Eafon's 15-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

UNM took almost no time in the second stanza to knot the score. Graham Leigh ran 17 yards for a first down, then tossed a 15-yard TD pass to senior Milton Thomas. Colby Cason's PAT tied the score at 7-7 and completed the eight-play 69-yard scoring drive.

On Arizona's next possession, quarterback Brady Batten threw for 51 yards and Trung Canidate ran for 13 more, including a three-yard touchdown, which allowed the Wildcats to reclaim the lead, 13-7. UA missed the PAT.

The Lobos marched right back down the field, reeling off a 14-play, 45-yard drive. UNM could not cash in on its possession, however, as Colby Cason missed a 37-yard field goal.

The second half began in a disastrous fashion for the Lobo offense, as it went three-and-out on its first possession, then Leigh threw two consecutive interceptions. The resiliency of the UNM defense was the only thing preventing Arizona from increasing its lead, as the Lobos forced the Wildcats to punt on each of their first two series.

After Leigh's second interception of the quarter - his third of the game - UA capitalized. Canidate rushed for 30 yards, culminating with Eafon's 1-yard TD. The score upped Arizona's lead to 20-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter.

Once again, UNM would not allow Arizona to keep its momentum. Leigh found Brian Messer for a 35-yard gain on the Lobos' first play from scrimmage. Two plays later, Leigh found Chris Shelton over the middle for an 18-yard gain to the Wildcat four. Leigh found paydirt on the next play, and with the five-play, 60-yard drive, New Mexico was right back in the game, trailing only 20-14.

New Mexico would get one more chance to stage a rally, taking over at the UA 48 with 5:31 remaining. On second-and-nine, Leigh dropped back and spotted Pascal Volz flashing across the middle downfield. His pass sailed just a bit, however, landing right in the arms of Wildcat DB Kelly Malveaux to seal it for the Cats.

Bowl History

2002 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 25, 2002 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
UCLA 27, New Mexico 13

The Lobo football team did more giving than receiving on Christmas Day, giving the UCLA Bruins three turnovers, which they turned into 17 points, as UCLA beat New Mexico 27-13 in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl.

Following a DonTrell Moore fumble, UCLA got on the board first with a Nate Fikse 49-yard field goal. UNM then took a 6-3 lead when senior cornerback Desmar Black picked off UCLA QB Drew Olson's pass in the flat and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown at the 8:20 mark of the first quarter. Junior kicker Katie Hnida then made her first career appearance, but had her extra point blocked. Already the first and only woman to dress for an NCAA Division I bowl game, Hnida became the first woman to make an appearance in an NCAA Div. I-A football game.

"I made the decision to let Katie (Hnida) kick the first extra point," head coach Rocky Long said. "She has been a vital part of this team all year, and I felt that she deserved the opportunity to make a play."

The Lobos' had a chance to increase their lead in the second quarter after driving to the UCLA 17, but Kenny Byrd's 34-yard FG attempt sailed wide right, ending a UNM streak of 19 straight scores in the red zone. Fikse connected on his second field goal from 39 yards out to knot the game at 6-6 with 6:21 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a questionable pass interference penalty on the Lobos in the end zone.

The UCLA special teams rose to the occasion when Craig Bragg took a punt back 74 yards early in the third to give the Bruins a 13-6 lead. More bad luck followed in the fourth quarter as QB Casey Kelly's throw bounced off the back of TE Zach Cresap into the waiting arms of Jarrad Page. Page returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to give UCLA a 20-6 advantage.

On the next Lobo possession, WR Joe Manning caught a pass from Kelly only to be stripped of the ball. New Mexico's third turnover of the game set up a 1-yard leap by freshman Tyler Ebell, handing the Bruins a 27-6 lead. Kelly found Manning in the back of the end zone for a touchdown that brought the Lobos to within 27-13, but New Mexico would get no closer.

Kelly finished with a season-high 237 yards. Moore, hobbled by a sprained right ankle late in the second quarter, was limited to 17 yards on 14 carries. The defense certainly did its part, holding the Bruins to a season-low 167 yards. UCLA only had to travel 76 yards for its three offensive scores, two field goals and a touchdown.

2003 LAS VEGAS BOWL
Dec. 24, 2003 -- Las Vegas, Nev.
Oregon State 55, New Mexico 14

Steven Jackson tied a bowl game record with five touchdowns, and Oregon State's defense overwhelmed mistake-plagued New Mexico in a 55-14 win. Jackson ran for 149 yards on 28 carries. He caught a 34-yard pass from Derek Anderson five minutes into the game and added touchdown runs of 3, 11, 6, and 1 yards.

Former NFL star Barry Sanders scored five touchdowns for Oklahoma State against Wyoming in the 1988 Holiday Bowl, and Sheldon Canley of San Jose State had five against Central Michigan in the 1990 California Bowl.

The Lobos' scores came on a 27-yard pass from Casey Kelly to Hank Baskett in the first quarter and Kole McKamey's 17-yard toss to Dwight Counter in the fourth.

Unable to run or pass against OSU's defense, the Lobos had only one first down in the first half and 21 total yards through the first three quarters. The stats also included 6 yards rushing, seven first downs and 127 total yards.

New Mexico got its second first down on a 46-yard pass from wide receiver Baskett to Counter with just more than 10 minutes left. DonTrell Moore, who led the Mountain West Conference with 1,438 yards this season, finished with 12 yards on 10 carries. His second-quarter fumble at the New Mexico 15 led to Jackson's third TD and second in a span of 1:39.

New Mexico had the fourth-best rushing defense in the country this season, but after gaining just 11 yards in the first quarter, Jackson found plenty of holes and scoring chances.

Oregon State scored on its first two possessions, with Jackson catching a 34-yard screen pass from Anderson on third-and-19 and Kirk Yliniemi booting a 21-yard field goal.

New Mexico kept the Beavers' touchdown drive going with an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty for celebrating too long and too loudly after stopping Jackson for a 2-yard loss on third down at the OSU 40. The Lobos then sacked Anderson for a 10-yard loss, but the Lobos were offsides on the play.

Both teams entertained the Christmas Eve crowd of 25,437 with first-half trick plays that produced a touchdown for the Beavers and set up New Mexico's first score.

The Beavers scored on the final play of the first quarter on a 42-yard flea flicker. Anderson handed off to Jackson, who tossed it back to the quarterback for a pass to Mike Hass, who had beaten cornerback Brandon Payne.

New Mexico used a pass from wide receiver Michael Brunker to backup quarterback McKamey to set up the Kelly-to-Baskett score.

2004 EMERALD BOWL
Dec. 30, 2004 -- San Francisco
Navy 34, New Mexico 19

Aaron Polanco ran for three touchdowns and passed for another, and Navy capped the academy's best season in 99 years with a 34-19 win over New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl.

Polanco scored on runs of 14, 1 and 27 yards and completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Corey Dryden, the longest of the season by Polanco and the first career score by Dryden. The Midshipmen's defense was impressive, too, despite the rain-soaked field at SBC Park.

The unit forced two first-half turnovers that led to TDs and staged a goal-line stand late in the third quarter. Then Navy kept the ball for the next 14 minutes, 26 seconds, and held New Mexico to only seven plays in the fourth quarter.

The Midshipmen (10-2) tied for the most wins in school history, last accomplished when Navy went 10-1-1 in 1905. It was a fitting end for the Mids, some of whom will head off to war in the coming year. Only two months ago, Navy's players dealt with the death of former teammate JP Blecksmith in a military operation in Fallujah, Iraq.

Polanco finished the season with 16 rushing touchdowns, a record by a quarterback this year. Temple's Walter Washington ran for 15. Polanco gained a Navy bowl record 133 yards on the ground for his fourth 100-yard rushing game and threw for 101 yards. He even caught a 17-yard pass from Frank Divis to set up his second TD - and his two receptions were the most by any Navy player.

New Mexico quarterback Kole McKamey had nearly as big a day after the Lobos (7-5) lost star tailback DonTrell Moore to a torn left ACL late in the first quarter.

McKamey threw for 207 yards and also rushed for 138, the first Lobos player to accomplish the feat since Graham Leigh in 1997. But McKamey threw two interceptions.

Moore, who has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of the past three seasons and came in averaging 108.3 yards per game, was carted off the field after catching a shovel pass and taking a hard hit from cornerback Vaughn Kelley that caused Moore to fumble with 3:52 left in the first quarter.

Linebacker Lane Jackson pounced on the ball for his first fumble recovery this year, and Polanco scored five plays later. Jackson also made an interception as time expired in the first half.

Navy built a 21-7 lead eight seconds into the second quarter on Polanco's 61-yard touchdown pass to Dryden.

The Lobos couldn't stop Navy's impressive triple-option offense. The Midshipmen snapped New Mexico's five-game winning streak and kept the Lobos from their first bowl victory in 43 years.

New Mexico lost in the Las Vegas Bowl the past two years and hasn't won a postseason game since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl. The Lobos had won 11 straight games when they scored first.

2006 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 23, 2006 -- Albuquerque
San Jose State 20, New Mexico 12

San Jose State linebacker Matt Castelo saw New Mexico halfback Rodney Ferguson hit the hole near the goal line and prepared for a collision.

"I saw the running back get the ball and it was like in slow motion," Castelo said. "I got down low and I think he tried jumping over me. Tried to put the ball out for a touchdown."

Ferguson never made it to the end zone.

Castelo hit Ferguson and his helmet knocked the ball out and right into fellow linebacker Damaja Jones' hands. In a season where San Jose State's defense carried the Spartans to their first bowl game in 16 years, Castelo and Jones teamed up for what may have been the biggest stop of the year.

Adam Tafralis threw three touchdown passes and San Jose State beat New Mexico 20-12 on Saturday in the inaugural New Mexico Bowl, extending the Lobos' postseason drought to 45 years.

One big pass play by Tafralis and that costly fumble by Ferguson — both in the first half — set the tone for the Spartans' first bowl win outside of California.

Jones returned Ferguson's fumble 57 yards to the New Mexico 37. Although the Spartans didn't score on that drive, they had the momentum for good.

"I saw Matt set him (Ferguson) up," Jones said. "He tried to jump over Matt and Matt put his helmet right on the ball. I was trying to get over the top and the ball fell right in my hands."

For the Spartans (9-4), the win provided a final highlight in a season in which they won more games than they had in the three previous seasons.

Tafralis, who was 11-of-18 for 209 yards, threw scoring passes of 36 and 24 yards to James Jones and 76 yards to John Broussard. The pass to Broussard on the first play of the second quarter — in which New Mexico's defense totally blew the coverage — got the Spartans' offense rolling.

New Mexico's only touchdown came with 15 seconds left in the game on a 15-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith. The rest of the Lobos' scoring consisted of a 40-yard field goal by Kenny Byrd with 1:11 left in the second quarter and a safety when San Jose State punter Waylon Prather stepped out of the end zone with 1:08 left.

Byrd's field goal was his 25th straight from 40 yards or closer and the first made field goal by New Mexico in 10 bowl appearances.

San Jose State struck first after the teams combined for seven punts in the first quarter.

Tafralis found Broussard 20 yards behind the nearest Lobo. Broussard caught the pass at the 35 and easily scored.

New Mexico came right back with a drive that started with DeAndre Wright's kickoff return to the San Jose State 40. Eight plays later the Lobos had a first-and-goal at the 1. The Spartans' defense toughened and on third-and-goal from the 2, Ferguson fumbled.

The Spartans made it 13-0 on Tafralis' 36-yard pass to James Jones with 3:59 left in the first half. James Jones caught the ball near the sideline at the New Mexico 16 and slipped out of the grasp of Wright. Matt Strubeck missed the extra point.

The Lobos' offense had 377 total yards but was stagnant most of the day. Neither freshman quarterback Donovan Porterie, who started, nor Nelson, who played in the second half, could sustain drives. What plays did work often were erased by holding penalties and three second-half fumbles, including one by wide receiver Travis Brown at the San Jose State 1 with just over 3 minutes left.

Ferguson, who led the Mountain West Conference in rushing this season, had 102 yards on 22 carries.

James Jones and Broussard each had 106 yards receiving, Jones with six catches and Broussard with four.

2007 NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 22, 2007 -- Albuquerque
New Mexico 23, Nevada 0

For coach Rocky Long, it was just the next game, another brick to continue building his program. For delighted New Mexico fans, it marked the end of a 46-year skid.

Paul Baker ran for 167 yards in his first start, and Donovan Porterie threw for career-high 354 yards and two touchdowns to help New Mexico beat Nevada 23-0 in the New Mexico Bowl. The Lobos (9-4) ended a 46-year span without a postseason victory and gave Long, the team's 10th-year coach, his first bowl win in five tries.

"It gets it off our back. We don't have to listen to it anymore," Long said. "But this program was good before we won today."

John Sullivan made field goals from 53, 39 and 37 yards, but give credit to New Mexico's defense, which delivered just the second shutout loss for Nevada under Hall of Fame coach Chris Ault.

The Wolf Pack (6-7) hadn't gone scoreless since losing 10-0 to Weber State on Sept. 27, 1980, a span of 329 games -- the longest current streak in college football and the second longest in history. It's the first time Nevada was shut out since moving to Division I-A in 1992.

"It's certainly a compliment to their defense," Ault said. "They played a great game. At the other end of the spectrum, we played as poorly on offense as we've played in a long time."

It was New Mexico's first bowl victory since beating Western Michigan 28-12 in the 1961 Aviation Bowl at Dayton, Ohio. The Lobos also notched a nine-win season for just the fourth time in school history.

"I'm very proud of our team," Long said. "I thought they were as focused as they've been all year long for any game."

Bowl History

New Mexico's defenders pestered redshirt freshman quarterback Colin Kaepernick all afternoon and made Nevada's "Pistol" offense look more like a pop-gun. The Wolf Pack averaged 36.2 points and 488.9 yards during the season. Nevada had logged 23 scoring plays that covered at least 25 yards -- second only to Oklahoma's 25 big-play TDs.

This time, Nevada had 210 total yards, with only 73 yards rushing. On a chilly day, with the temperature at kickoff 34 degrees, Kaepernick finished 13-of-31 for 137 yards. He had 10 carries for 40 yards rushing.

"Everybody was locked in," linebacker Brett Madsen said. "They have a really explosive offense. The quarterback can really run. We knew we had to contain the quarterback, and he didn't do much with his legs."

Madsen, despite not starting, was selected the defensive player of the game after recording two sacks, two tackles for lost yardage and four total tackles. But he agreed the award could have gone to any New Mexico defender.

Baker made the most of his chance. He moved into the starting lineup this week when Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico's leading rusher over the past two seasons, was ruled academically ineligible.

"My team believed in me and that was enough," Baker said. "I knew I could get it done."

The Wolf Pack blocked two field goals, Sullivan missed another 43-yard try and the Lobos failed to score after having first-and-goal at the 4 late in the third quarter. But Nevada just couldn't take advantage.

"We didn't do a good job with any consistency on the run game or the pass game," Ault said. "Colin Kaepernick didn't have a chance to get into type of rhythm. We just shot ourselves in the foot."

Despite the cool weather, Porterie had no trouble warming up. He threw a short slant pass on the third play from scrimmage to Marcus Smith, who raced to the end zone for a 66-yard scoring play. Later in the period, Brown got behind the Nevada defense and Porterie found him on a 39-yard TD pass.

2015 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL
Dec. 19, 2015 -- Albuquerque
Arizona 45, New Mexico 37

It was nearly one of the greatest comebacks in school history. Nearly. In the end, the Lobos whittled an 18-point second half deficit down to five, and then with a chance to go for the tie threw an interception as the Arizona Wildcats defeated New Mexico 45-37 in a highly entertaining 10th Annual Gildan New Mexico Bowl in front of a crowd of 30,289.

Both teams combined for 1,025 yards of offense, with UNM gaining 333 on the ground and 189 in the air. Arizona was about the opposite with 174 on the ground and 329 via the air. Things looked bleak when Lamar Jordan threw an interception on a play starting at his own 1-yard line that led to a short touchdown run and a 42-24 Wildcat lead with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Jordan, who played well with 135 yards rushing and a 110 yards passing, got UNM back in it with his third rushing touchdown to make it 42-31.

Jason Sanders then hit a perfect surprise onside kick that Donnie Duncan recovered for New Mexico. Jordan got hurt on the drive, leaving the game for good, and Austin Apodaca came in and scored his first career rushing touchdown on an option keeper to make it 42-37. The Lobos went for two and missed the conversion.

UNM got the break it needed on a missed field goal, but UNM turned the ball over on downs. On second-and-3 at the Wildcat 18, DaVonte' Neal broke up a pass intended for Carlos Wiggins, and then Chris Davis fumbled an option pitch for a loss of seven yards. On fourth-and-13 in no-man's land, UNM went for it but Apodaca was sacked. That led to a field goal and a 45-37 lead for Arizona, with one last chance for UNM.

Taking over at the 26 with 1:29 and no timeouts, UNM picked up two first downs to get to the Arizona 36, but there was just 35 seconds left. Looking for a big hitter, Apodaca was pressured and his pass missed Dameon Gamblin and fell into the waiting arms of Cam Denson for a game ending interception.

UNM opened the scoring with a 37-yard Zack Rogers field goal, but Arizona used a couple of long passes to go up 14-3. Jordan had his first rushing touchdown of the day to cut into that lead, but Arizona answered on an Anu Solomon run.

UNM scored an unlikely touchdown on a 92-yard pass from Jordan to Delane Hart-Johnson, the second-longest in UNM history and the fourth-longest in bowl history. Hart-Johnson outraced his brother Will Parks to the pylon for the score.

However, Arizona scored just before, and just after halftime to boost the lead to 18, setting the stage for UNM's near-comeback.

UNM Administration

GARNETT S. STOKES PRESIDENT

Garnett S. Stokes was installed as the 23rd president of The University of New Mexico on May 12, 2018. She is the first woman to hold the post in the university's history.

A tireless advocate for a transformative student experience, an empowered faculty, and a campus culture of continuous improvement, Stokes brings to New Mexico's premiere R1 university more than four decades of experience and enthusiasm—as well as the unflagging energy needed to ensure The University of New Mexico thrives as a great place to work, live, and learn.

Shortly after taking office in 2018, Stokes journeyed on an unprecedented statewide "listening tour," covering 4,300 miles as she travelled through all 33 of New Mexico's diverse counties. Her meetings with thousands of New Mexicans—hearing their stories, and learning of their hopes and expectations—helped frame her immediate presidential priorities of promoting campus safety, supporting student veterans, and advancing the University's mission of world-class research. Stokes continues to hold regular office hours, routinely engaging with faculty, staff, and students for their input and commentary.

Throughout her distinguished career as an educator and leader, Stokes has been praised for her commitment to building outstanding leadership teams dedicated to student success. At UNM, she continues in this tradition, hiring diverse and talented leaders from across the nation to fill key roles at the university, including the Executive Vice President for Health Sciences, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, Vice President for Enrollment and Management, and Vice President for Equity and Inclusion.

Under Stokes's leadership, UNM has embarked on a journey of academic excellence, self-reflection, and collaborative problem-solving to identify effective ways to make the University of New Mexico a better and more engaging place to learn, work, and live. Since her arrival, UNM has received the Carnegie Community Engagement Classification, a designation that indicates institutional commitment to community engagement, and one of only 119 institutions to earn such a designation. UNM is also among the highest number of Fulbright awardees in the country.

As president, Stokes has worked tirelessly to seamlessly coordinate UNM's core missions of conducting top-tier research, compassionate and quality health care and health services, and providing access to a quality education for one of the most diverse student populations in the nation. She has made it a priority to promote and support collaborative efforts of the UNM community that benefit the entire State of New Mexico. In collaboration with the Board of Regents, she continues to strengthen relationships with key stakeholders to advance UNM's mission.

In February 2019, Stokes announced the UNM Grand Challenges, calling on researchers across disciplines to address problems of global, national and regional significance. After receiving proposals from research teams across UNM's campuses, Stokes chose to focus on three key areas as part of the newly-established UNM Grand Challenges: Sustainable Water Resources, Successful Aging, and Substance Use Disorders. She charged researchers with developing goals that enable multiple paths towards solutions and that are relevant across varied disciplines and communities. Since 2019, Grand Challenges teams have generated more than $20 million in funding, and continue to implement education and community outreach events and initiatives to improve lives around the State of New Mexico.

Prior to her arrival at UNM, Stokes served as interim chancellor, provost and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Missouri, and was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs and interim president at Florida State University. She has also been a faculty member, chair of the department of psychology, and dean of the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Georgia

A first-generation college graduate, Stokes earned her B.A. in psychology from Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee, and M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Georgia in industrial/organizational psychology. For nearly three decades, she served as a professor in the psychology department at the University of Georgia, including seven years as dean of UGA's Franklin College of Arts and Sciences.

Her husband, Dr. Jeff Younggren, is a forensic psychologist and a retired Colonel in the U.S. Army. They have two children and four grandchildren. President Stokes and Dr. Younggren reside on campus at University House.

EDDIE NUÑEZ ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Eddie Nuñez was named to the top post in athletics on August 31, 2017. Nuñez is UNM's 13th Athletic Director, dating back to 1911. His title was officially changed to Vice President/Director of Athletics in the fall of 2021.

"My number one priority at UNM is always going to be the student-athlete and making sure their experience offers the support and resources they need to achieve great things on and off the field of play. We are going to bring passion, transparency and energy to everything we do here."

In his first five years in the AD's chair, Nuñez has presided over plenty of success stories, starting with a National Championship in Cross Country in 2017. Over his five years, UNM has totaled 34 NCAA Tournament appearances and 15 Mountain West titles. Among the 322 All-Conference performers have been 30 conference Athletes of the Year and 11 conference Coach of the Year awards. Academically, UNM's 1,031 Mountain West All-Academic selections and 728 Mountain West Scholar-Athletes are the highest total among all Mountain West schools over that time frame.

In 2021-22, the Lobos were able to successfully navigate through COVID-19 issues which limited certain aspects of UNM's athletic operation. Despite various roadblocks, UNM won three conference titles including back-to-back women's soccer titles. Nuñez also hired new coaches for Lobo Men's Basketball and baseball, invigorating the fan bases of both programs. UNM's student-athletes again posted a top-5 semester GPA, and the Lobos against had two student-athletes named CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

In 2020-21, despite the hardships associated with COVID-19, the Lobos led the Mountain West with six championships, winning in women's basketball, women's soccer, women's cross country, women's golf, men's golf and men's tennis. Those six championships tied for the most for any Group of 5 institution in 2020-21. Nuñez expertly led a department that had three major programs in football, men's basketball and women's basketball need to shift its base of operations out of state. Despite that, UNM once again had several program records for GPA, including the best two-year GPA in the history of UNM Athletics. Nuñez was also named to the LEAD1 Board of Directors.

For his work throughout the 2020-21 season, Nuñez became just the third person in the history of the Mountain West to be honored with the Commissioner's Award, becoming the first recipient in 14 years.

The 2019-20 academic year was one of great success as UNM's student-athletes set a host of records for grade point averages. Additionally, three programs were honored by the NCAA for APR public recognition, women's golf was the top academic program in the nation for a season straight year, and UNM led the Mountain West is scholar-athletes for an eighth straight year. With a 3.74 GPA, the department set the GPA record for a second-straight semester.

The 2018-19 academic year saw four teams (women's soccer, women's cross country, men's golf and men's tennis) win Mountain West titles, and UNM picked up a national runner-up finish in women's cross country and its highest finish, fifth, in women's indoor track & field. The department also had a pair of individual national champions and five CoSIDA/Google Cloud Academic All-America selections.

The 2017-18, his first at New Mexico, saw the department win its third NCAA title in the long rich history of UNM athletics as the women's cross country team won its second title in three seasons. The department also saw 14 top-five GPAs spread out amongst its programs, and UNM's first-ever individual national champion in women's cross country.

Throughout it all, academic success has defined his tenure. Since becoming AD, 10 of UNM's 14 programs have set program GPA records, and 13 of 14 have turned in at least two top-5 semester GPAs. Additionally, GPA records for male, female and all student-athletes have been set twice. In the 2017-18 academic year, the Lobos had 65 degrees conferred to student-athletes, in 2018-19, 93 earned degrees and in 2019-20, 63 walked across the stage, including during a highly successful virtual graduation ceremony that had hundreds of live viewers. UNM also ran its streak of leading the Mountain West in Scholar-Athletes to eight straight years.

He has also made his mark on the department in many areas. Nuñez has hired new coaches in women's volleyball, women's tennis, swimming and diving and he brought back former Lobo and Albuquerque native Danny Gonzales back home to UNM to lead the football program. His most recent hire was bringing in former Big Ten Coach of the Year Richard Pitino to lead the men's basketball program.

Under Nuñez, UNM has also entered exciting new partnerships with PlayFly Sports (formerly OutFront Sports), rebranding UNM's external marketing arm as New Mexico Sports Properties. UNM has also has new partnerships with Paciolan (earning their "Newcomer of the Year" Award), Athlete Network, Licensing – Affinity, Merchandise, and a three-year comprehensive partnership with UNM Hospital and Health Sciences to provide medical assistance and mental health services for Lobo student-athletes.

Nuñez also extended the department's longstanding partnership with Nike to continue as the official outfitter of the university's athletic programs.

He has also led the restructuring of the Lobo Club to streamline, align and enhance the fundraising efforts towards UNM athletics. This new restructuring has been instrumental in improving donations, increasing Lobo Club membership, improving customer service and reestablishing trust with donors and supporters. These efforts have helped increase funding for the mental health and wellness of our student-athletes and established three new endowments for the long-term success of the athletic department and the support of our student-athletes, including specific endowments for men's basketball and football. During Nunez's tenure, the Lobo Club Champions Council has continued to grow in members and in financial support.

Nuñez has played an important role nationally as a leader in the field of college athletics. In January of 2021, he was appointed to the LEAD1 Executive Committee and Board of Directors, and organization that represents the athletics directors, programs and student-athletes of the 130 member universities of the Football Bowl Subdivision. That followed his August of 2020 appointment to the 30-person Lead1 Working Group for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in College Sports. That working group explores initiatives to strengthen senior leadership pipelines, expand professional development opportunities, influence legislation that supports underrepresented populations and recommend strategies of accountability.

He also currently serves on the Executive Board for the New Mexico Bowl and he has over his time at UNM served on a variety of committees with the Mountain West, including serving on the Mountain West Executive Board.

For 14 years, starting in 2003, Nuñez served in a variety of high-level administrative capacities at LSU, one of the nation's top athletic departments. He also has served as the department's liaison with LSU Sports Properties, the Tiger Athletic Foundation and University Licensing and Brand Management.

While he held seven positions and titles at LSU, the department continually flourished. Under his guidance, LSU experienced of $400 million in facility renovations and construction, and Nuñez led the renegotiations of a 10-year multi-media rights agreement with Outfront Media Sports.

Additionally, he oversaw the planning and management of the LSU Athletics Strategic Plan, Marketing and Promotions, Athletic Communications, Social and Digital Media, Creative Services, Video/Network Broadcast Services and all capital projects.

While he has made his mark collegiately at LSU, Nuñez began his career as a collegiate administrator at Vanderbilt University, where he was the Director of Game and Event Management. Additionally, he assisted in construction and planning of numerous facility upgrades.

A former college athlete, Nuñez played four years of basketball, starting at Miami-Dade Community College before transferring to the University of Florida, playing for Billy Donovan. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant under Donovan at Florida before being named an administrative assistant at Marquette in the men's basketball program.

A native of Miami, Florida, Nuñez received his Associate Degree in arts and architecture from Miami-Dade Community College, his Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management and Master's Degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida. He is married to the former Jane Hess and the couple are proud parents of two daughters, Elizabeth and Anna.

MEDIA

The University of New Mexico football team gets extensive media coverage on a daily basis from the Albuquerque Journal, Daily Lobo, numerous radio outlets, including flagship station 770 KKOB-AM, and three network television stations covering the beat.

LOBOS ON THE RADIO

Every New Mexico game is broadcast over the 18-station Lobo Radio Network, spearheaded by flagship 770 KKOB-AM, at 50,000 watts one of the largest stations in America in terms of geographical penetration. KKOB is also simulcast on 94.5 FM, because it really is better on the FM. Fans outside of KKOB's listening audience can also receive the games over the Internet at www.GoLobos.com with UNM's free audio stream.

In addition to 770 KKOB, the Lobos can also be heard state-wide on the Lobo Radio Network. The Lobo Radio Network currently consists of 18 stations in New Mexico, including:

New Mexico Athletic Communications Wins First Super-11 Award in 2021

Three first-time winners, including The University of New Mexico, and eight previous ones comprise the 13th Annual Super 11 Awards, which the Football Writers Association of America rewards annually to the best performing sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The awards announced this week are for the 2021 season.

In addition, the FWAA presented a Super 11 Coach of the Year Award to Boston College Coach Jeff Hafley who granted outstanding access to his program during the 2021 season. He is the fourth head coach to win this award, which began with the 2018 season.

The award for New Mexico is its first Super 11 Award, and it is the first time that the Lobo communications office has been honored for press operations in football since 1988 under former director Greg Remington.

"It's a big honor and recognition for the entire external staff at UNM," said Assistant A.D. for Communications Frank Mercogliano, who oversees football communications. "This reflects Coach Gonzales and how he runs his program. He runs a very open program with tremendous access, which makes our jobs on the external team easy."

The Lobo communications team for 2021 was Frank Mercogliano, Steve Kirkland, Allison Weiss and Alma Solis, and the external team also consisted of Stanley Frazier, Chase Christiansen, Drew Patterson, Jonathan Tibbetts and Corie Apodaca. Joe Thuente served as the Associate A.D. for Marketing and Communications and oversaw the entire external team.

This year's winners were deemed to have had excellent accessibility during the week of the game and after the game – with a program's players, coaches and assistant coaches.

FWAA members provided input during the season and made comments in an FWAA Awards survey after the 2021 season. In addition, SID press boxes were judged on how well they were run and maintained in terms of neutrality, pool reporters and noise level that could affect a media person's ability to do his or her job. In recent years, the availability of nearby press parking has become a plus.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 25th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 24 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Changes in the NCAA governance structure set the table for another Conference first, when two members of the MW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) were included in the June 2014 meeting of the Mountain West Board of Directors. New Mexico track and field athlete Kendall Spencer, the national chair of the 2014-15 NCAA Division I Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and Air Force Academy volleyball player Emma Dridge joined the BOD members in this historic meeting to advance the discussion on student-athlete involvement in the NCAA and MW governance structure. For the last nine academic years, MW student-athletes have participated in monthly membership calls and have joined MW administrators in the annual Joint Council Spring Meetings in Arizona.

The Mountain West is well-represented within the NCAA governance structure, including individuals who were appointed to serve on committees tasked with managing the day-to-day business of Division I athletics. Kendall Spencer, the former chair of the DI Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and a UNM track & field athlete, was the first student-athlete in the history of the organization to serve on the Division I Board.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the only conference to have the same member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV's Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The eight presidents then hired the league's first commissioner, Craig Thompson, on Oct. 15, 1998. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Then Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2023 season, the MW has eight (8) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), six (6) primary bowl positions with the Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl,

Hawai'i Bowl and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - and one (1) secondary position.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

On Dec. 31, 2022, Thompson retired after nearly 24 years at the helm of the MW, and Gloria Nevarez was named the league's second Commissioner, beginning her post on Jan. 1, 2023.

ACADEMIC CONSORTIUM

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide educational assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,000 student-athletes each year. Over the past 24 years, 43 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, and since the league's inception in 1999, an additional 48 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars (Jessica Mellinger, Wyoming, and Delavane Diaz, Brittany Morreale and Rebecca Esselstein, Air Force).

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC is comprised of 24 members (22 student-athlete representatives, the MW representative to the Division I National SAAC and one faculty athletics representative). The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent groups or committees related to the student-athlete experience. Since the inclusion of two SAAC members at the June 2014 meeting of the MW Board of Directors, the Conference maintains its commitment to the participation of student-athletes in its governance structure, which is consistent with the Mountain West's focus on enhancing the student-athlete experience.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 1,718 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 24 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 234 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 24 years, capturing five team national championships in women's cross country and producing 52 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, women's diving, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have earned 121 bowl bids under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 94 postseason bids in men's basketball, with seven Sweet 16 appearances and one runner-up finish (San Diego State; 2022-23), as well as three NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 84 postseason slots, including 40 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 48 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 37 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Mountain West men's golf has sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals in each of the 23 years the postseason was held (canceled in 2020 due to COVID-19 pandemic), while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 17 of the last 23 years.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The Mountain West has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the MW implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.
