MILESTONES TO WATCH FOR

- Graduate WR Ainius Smith aims to continue his climb through the A&M record books in his return to the field after suffering a season-ending injury early last season ... Smith needs just two receiving touchdowns to move into the top five all-time as he enters the year with 17 scoring receptions.
- Already among the top 10 in A&M history, Smith looks to pass Jhamon Ausbon (2017-19) on the Aggies' all-time career receptions list as Ausbon totaled 147 in his career and Smith enters the year with 127 catches.
- Smith 93 yards away from breaking into the top 10 on the A&M all-time career receiving yards list with 1,612 to-date ... He is chasing Jamar Taylor's (2001-03) mark of 1,705 career yards.
- Smith is 30 punt return yards away from cracking the all-time top-10 list in the category, starting the season with 551 on 61 returns ... He also needs 288 yards to get his name on the career all-purpose yards list, with 2,804 entering the game..
- Junior Moose Muhammad III is on the verge of moving into the top 25 of A&M's all-time career receiving touchdowns list, in need of just one score through the air to join Speedy Noil (2014-16) and Jimmy Teal (1982-84) at 24 with nine career TD grabs.
- Senior DB Demani Richardson is just five tackles away from 250 for his career, entering the season with 245.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Graduate WR Ainius Smith has been called a "Swiss Army Knife" by head coach Jimbo Fisher because of his do-it-all ability on the field.
- Smith has recorded seven multi-touchdown games in his career, catching multiple TD passes in a game five times ... Against Sam Houston last season, Smith hauled in a 63-yard scoring pass to put the Aggies up 17 points at the half and extended the lead in the fourth quarter with a 43-yard TD grab.
- Dating back to the 2019 LSU game, Smith has caught a pass in 27 consecutive games.
- A true quadruple threat, Smith has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (384), receiver (1,612), punt returner (551) and kick returner (257) ... Among Aggies already in the 3,000-yard club, only six players even have stats in all four categories and just two -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- had 250+ in all four.
- In 2021, Smith became the third player in SEC history to rack up 1,000 receiving yards while also gaining 250+ yards as a rusher and returner (punt and kickoff) ... The others are Kentucky's Randall Cobb (2008-10) and LSU's Skyler Green (2002-05).

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION IS THE HOME OF TEXAS A&M ...

On August 20, 2020 the Texas A&M Board of Regents voted and approved the use of "Bryan-College Station" as the home of Texas A&M University. "Bryan-College Station" should be used to reference all sporting events, academic events, press releases, marketing collateral, letterhead, and other representations of Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System where a specific postal address is not required.

Aggieland has grown beyond the boundaries of any one municipality. College Station is known as the "Home of Texas A&M University", but the City of College Station and the City of Bryan have had an entwined history since the City of College Station was incorporated in 1938. Bryan and Texas A&M University's historical ties go back to 1871, when Bryan was incorporated and the Texas Legislature established the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas.

The former Bryan Air Force Base was operated as the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center for a quarter of a century before being designated as the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus in 1988, and the Texas A&M University Riverside Campus grew into the Texas A&M University Research Annex before transforming into the RELLIS Campus in 2016. The RELLIS Campus is home to Texas A&M University System entities including ten regional universities, the Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), the Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and the Texas A&M Transportation Institute (TTI). In 2007, the City of Bryan gifted more than 200 acres to the Texas A&M University Health Science Center.

Recognizing that over the past decade, Texas A&M University and the Texas A&M University System have expanded into the City of Bryan with seven Texas A&M University System colleges, ten Texas A&M University System universities and multiple Texas A&M University System state agencies on more than 2,200 acres with more than $1 billion in investment, the Board of Regents voted to recognize the long history and partnership between the City of Bryan, the City of College Station and both Texas A&M University and The Texas A&M University System.

- A&M's go-to on punt return, Smith finished the 2021 season 11th in the nation with an 11.3 yards-per-return average, good for third in the SEC ... He recorded the first special teams TD of his career on A&M's first possession of the game against South Carolina when he posted the sixth-longest punt return in SEC history, going 95 yards to the house.

MOOSE STEPPING UP

- With the Aggies looking for a spark at wide receiver after the loss of senior leader Ainias Smith to injury last season, junior WR Moose Muhammad III stepped up and consistently produced for the Aggies.
- In his second career start at Mississippi State, Muhammad led the Aggies with 119 receiving yards on six receptions, also grabbing his first TD catch of the 2022 season.
- He registered the second 100-yard game of his career, racking up 112 yards on eight catches, including a 3-yard touchdown reception, against Ole Miss.
- On the season, Muhammad's 61.0 receiving yards per game in 2022 were good for 11th among SEC receivers.
- Muhammad also stepped in Smith's role at punt returner against MSU, with 22 yards on a pair of returns, including a 20-yarder.
- He is the son of longtime NFL wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad II, who enjoyed a 14-year professional career with the Carolina Panthers and Chicago Bears from 1996-2009. He was a two-time Pro Bowler and earned first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2004 when he led the NFL with 1,405 yards and 16 receiving TDs on 93 catches.

STEWART MAKES IMPACT

- Sophomore WR Evan Stewart has become a favorite target for Aggie quarterbacks and made an immediate impact in his debut season.
- Stewart ranked eighth among all SEC receivers, averaging 64.9 yards per game last season, which led all FBS freshmen nationally ... He was also tied for 10th overall and led all freshmen in the league with 53 receptions.
- As a newcomer, he registered two 100-yards games, catching eight passes for 106 yards at Alabama and eclipsing the century mark with 120 yards on eight receptions against Florida.
- Stewart scored the first touchdown of this career on a 10-yard grab to put the Aggies on the board in the win over No. 10 Arkansas.
- A highly-touted recruit in A&M's top 2022 signing class, Stewart was an Under Armour All-American that was also a track standout ... He earned top-two finishes at the Texas 5A state championships in the long jump and triple jump, while also helping his 4x400m and 4x200m relay teams to medal finishes.

MAROON GOONS

- The Texas A&M offensive line returns great experience from last season ... Led by graduate Layden Robinson, who has been a staple at right guard over the last two seasons, the Aggies return three of five starters from a year ago.
- Robinson is in his third year as a starter after helping clear the way for one of the top running back tandems in the nation in 2021 and a 1,000-yard rusher last season ... He was a key reserve in 2020 when A&M became the first school in the last 10 years to lead the SEC in sacks allowed (0.7), tackles for loss allowed (3.8) and yards per carry (5.45) in the same season.
- Robinson is joined by two-year starter Reuben Fatheree II, who started all 12 games at right tackle in 2022, and sophomore Trey Zuhn III, who missed just one start in his debut season after securing the job at left tackle.
- Sophomore Bryce Foster aims to make his return after missing much of last season due to illness and injury ... Foster had an impressive debut season for the Aggies in 2021, earning the starting job at center.

- In 2022, the Maroon Goons cleared the way for current Miami Dolphin, De'Von Achane, who racked up 1,000 yards on the ground in his final season and rushed for over 100 yards five times on the year, including a 215-yard, two-touchdown game in the win over No. 6 LSU.
- Sophomore Kam Dewberry will add great experience on the line after logging five starts and playing in seven games as a freshman.

SEASONED SECONDARY

- A&M boasts a seasoned secondary that returns great experience from a year ago, led by fifth-year starter Demani Richardson who has started a team-best 43 games ... Juniors Jardin Gilbert and Tyreek Chappell each made double-digit starts in 2022, while sophomores Bryce Anderson, Jared Kerr and Jacoby Mathews all appeared in 10-or-more games.
- The A&M defense finished the 2022 season with the No. 1 passing defense in the nation as it gave up just 156.2 yards through the air, including an average of 5.7 yards per pass which ranked fourth nationally ... The Aggies also boasted a top-25 scoring defense, which was fourth among SEC teams, allowing 21.2 points per game.
- Richardson, who led the Maroon & White with 73 total tackles, was tied for 11th in the SEC with 49 solo takedowns last season, while Gilbert was tied for eighth in the SEC with a pair of picks and Chappell's eight pass breakups tied him for 10th among league players.
- Richardson and Chappell teamed up against Arkansas for the Aggies' first defensive touchdown of the season after Chappell scooped up a loose fumble and later handed it off to Richardson, who took it 82 yards to the house.
- Under Coach Fisher, the Aggies have limited their opponent to less than 100 passing yards on eight occasions with three of those coming in 2022 ... A&M started the season giving up just 91 yards through the air as it shut out Sam Houston and later allowed just 60 yards at Auburn and 55 against UMass.

DEPTH ON THE D-LINE

- After entering the 2022 season with little experience but an abundance of talent on the defensive line, the group has remained intact for the 2023 season and has a full season of experience together under its belt.
- Senior McKinnley Jackson and juniors Fadil Diggs and Shemar Turner were all in their first year as starters last season ... The trio of upperclassmen combined to total 15.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks as each started at least eight games to help A&M boast the No. 1 passing defense in the nation and a top-25 scoring defense.
- Jackson came into his own last season, having a breakout game against Ole Miss as he racked up 12 tackles, including a solo sack for a loss of 9 yards.
- Diggs' season was cut short due to injury, but he made the most of the time he had on the field ... Diggs showed out at Alabama making six tackles, 3.0 for loss, while taking down the quarterback on two occasions and forcing two fumbles.
- In their debut seasons in 2022, Shemar Stewart, LT Overton and Walter Nolen made an immediate impact as each Aggie appeared in at least 11 of the team's 12 games and made the start on three-or-more occasions.
- Junior Isaiah Raikes and sophomore Albert Regis will also provide the A&M defensive line with depth and great experience after Raikes logged three starts and appeared in all 12 games last season, while Regis started the Miami game and saw the field in 11 games as a redshirt freshman.

AINIAS SMITH

WR • GR-4L • MISSOURI CITY, TEXAS [FORT BEND DULLES]

- Graduate WR Ainiias Smith returns for his fifth season and has been one of the most versatile contributors on offense and special teams throughout his career.
- A triple-threat, Smith has been an important part of A&M's return teams throughout his career and arrived in Aggieland as a wide receiver, but moved to running back prior to the 2019 Texas Bowl, serving in that role through 2020. He returned to receiver in 2021, but serves as a threat to the opposition, being able to line up at a number of different positions.
- Smith has recorded a reception in 27 consecutive games, dating back to the 2019 LSU game. Over that span, he has registered 10 games with five-or-more catches and seven with at least 70 receiving yards.
- Smith started the 2022 season with a statement, racking up a career-high 164 receiving yards and adding two 40-plus yard touchdown grabs. His pair of aerial scores marked the seventh multi-touchdown game of his career and his fifth multi-receiving TD game.
- Smith is currently in a tie for seventh on A&M's all-time list with recent Texas A&M Hall of Fame inductee and Super Bowl Champion Mike Evans with 17 career TD grabs.
- Throughout his career he has handled the punt return duties where he has averaged 8.9 yards per return with one touchdown. In 2021, he ranked third in the SEC and 11th nationally at 11.3 yards per return. As a freshman, he was the kickoff return specialist.
- Smith currently ranks 11th all-time at A&M in career punt return yards with 551.
- Smith needs 196 all-purpose yards to become the 19th player in school history to reach the 3,000-yard plateau in career yards.
- He has gained more than 250 yards as a rusher (384), receiver (1,612), punt returner (551) and kick returner (257). Among Aggies already in the 3,000-yard club, only six players even have stats in all four categories and just two -- Dante Hall and Larry Stegent -- had 250+ in all four.
- Smith led the team in total touchdowns (10) in 2020, becoming the first Aggie to average a touchdown per game for an entire season since Trayveon Williams in 2018.
- Smith was not unfamiliar with the SEC prior to committing to Texas A&M, as his brother Maurice Smith was a cornerback at Alabama before transferring after graduation to Georgia. Maurice played four seasons in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins, Washington Football Team, Cincinnati Bengals and Tennessee Titans.

No. 24 Aggies Register 17-9 Victory Over No. 13 Miami

The 24th-ranked Texas A&M football team upset No. 13 Miami, 17-9, Saturday night in front of 107,245 fans, the third-largest crowd in Kyle Field history. The win marked the seventh victory over an Associated Press top-15 team under fifth-year head coach Jimbo Fisher.

With the game deadlocked at 3-3 midway through the first quarter, the Aggies (2-1) capitalized on a fumble by Miami (2-1) punt returner Tyrique Stevenson to take a 10-3 lead. After taking over possession at the 28, the three-play drive was capped off by a 1-yard LJ Johnson Jr. touchdown, the first of his career.

The Aggies tacked on to their lead in the third quarter as they marched 76 yards down the field on four plays. Max Johnson connected with De'Von Achane on a 25-yard pass to give A&M a 17-3 advantage.

The defense was led by Jaylon Jones, who notched a career-high nine tackles while Bryce Anderson, who entered the game with two tackles on the year, and Antonio Johnson tallied eight tackles each. Albert Regis registered a field goal block, the first by the Aggies since 2019.

No. 23 Aggies Rally to Defeat No. 10 Arkansas

The No. 23 Texas A&M football team scored 23 unanswered points to take down No. 10 Arkansas, 23-21.

Trailing 14-0 after the first quarter, De'Von Achane sparked A&M with a 63-yard rush on the first drive of the second quarter. Max Johnson connected with Evan Stewart in the end zone for the freshman receiver's first career touchdown.

With the Aggie defense backed into their own end zone, Chris Russell Jr. punched the ball loose from Arkansas' K.J. Jefferson at the 2-yard line and Tyreek Chappell scooped it up. Chappell ran the ball to the 18-yard line before a quick hand-off to Demani Richardson, who took it 82-yards to score.

The Aggies took their first lead as Johnson hit Donovan Green for a 26-yard strike, followed by Achane's 9-yard dash into the end zone. Randy Bond extended the lead to 23-14 with a 31-yard field goal before heading into the final stanza.

The Razorbacks immediately answered with a 13-play, 74-yard drive to make it 23-21, before taking one last shot at the lead, but nailed the top of the goal post to miss 42-yard field goal attempt.

No. 17 Aggies Fall to Mississippi State on the Road

The No. 17 Texas A&M football team rallied in the second half, but the comeback fell short as Mississippi State came away with a 42-24 decision.

After trailing by two scores at the half, Randy Bond put the Aggies on the board when he sent a 24-yard field goal through the uprights. Mississippi State answered with its third touchdown of the day, but the Aggies didn't back down. A&M responded with an 18-yard strike from Max Johnson to Moose Muhammad III to make it a 21-10 game late in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs extended their lead early in the fourth quarter before Haynes King scrambled from the 4-yard line to keep the Aggies within reach, 28-17.

LJ Johnson Jr. punched it in from the 1-yard line with 1:34 remaining, but Mississippi State had decided the game with back-to-back trips to the end zone before A&M's final score of the evening.

Texas A&amp;M Battles No. 1 Alabama to the Brink, Falls 24-20

Down a touchdown halfway through the first quarter, the Aggies evened the score following a 5-yard touchdown reception by Moose Muhammad III from Haynes King.

As Alabama threatened to take a two-score lead into the half, Fadil Diggs forced his second fumble of the night. The Maroon & White capitalized, as King found Evan Stewart for a 43-yard strike before connecting with Donovan Green on a 5-yard touchdown pass to knot things at 14. Texas A&M trailed, 17-14, as Alabama split the uprights for a 50-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the first half.

Randy Bond added a third quarter 41-yard field goal to bring the Aggies within seven, 24-17.

A&M found itself pressuring the Alabama defense in enemy territory with less than 10 minutes left in the fourth. A 46-yard field goal by Bond brought the Aggies within four with 3:32 left.

A&M forced Alabama to a three-and-out with 1:50 left and A&M drove nearly the length of the field before the final pass attempt of the game fell incomplete as the clock hit zero.

A&M Comeback Falls Short at South Carolina, 30-24

Late big plays on offense and two takeaways on defense weren't enough as Texas A&M's comeback fell short at South Carolina. Following a slow start to begin the game, Randy Bond connected on a career-long 51-yard field goal as Texas A&M trailed halfway through the first quarter, 17-3.

The Gamecocks threatened to extend their lead late in the first quarter, but Bryce Anderson ripped the ball out and the Aggies capitalized on the turnover with a successful 26-yard field goal by Bond to make it 17-6 with 13:30 left in the first half.

Haynes King connected with Max Wright for a 9-yard touchdown pass, and following a successful two-point completion from King to Evan Stewart, the Aggies cut the difference to 17-14 at the halfway point.

Texas A&M kept the pressure on as Fadil Diggs sacked the QB, causing a fumble that Anderson fell on to set up a De'Von Achane 15-yard scoring run to bring the Aggies within three, 24-21.

After a 28-yard field goal by Bond with 10 seconds remaining, the Aggies saw one last glimmer of hope with a successful onside kick recovery before the clock hit zero after two incomplete passes.

Aggies' Upset Bid Falls Short Against No. 15 Ole Miss, 31-28

Freshman Conner Weigman's four touchdown passes and 338 yards through the air in his first career start weren't enough as the Aggies fell to No. 15 Ole Miss, 31-28, Saturday night at Kyle Field. De'Von Achane added 138 rushing yards, while Moose Muhammad III racked up 112 yards receiving to eclipse the century mark in the same game for the second this season and highlight the Texas A&M's offensive efforts.

Texas A&M found the end zone early as Weigman registered his first career touchdown pass after connecting with Moose Muhammad III for a 3-yard strike. The Aggies continued to push the tempo, taking their first lead of the game with a one-handed, 15-yard touchdown catch by Evan Stewart, making it 14-7 in the first quarter.

Ole Miss answered with 17 points of its own before Weigman recorded his third touchdown pass of the night, hitting Noah Thomas with a 2-yard toss as the Aggies trailed, 24-21, in the fourth quarter.

After a quick Ole Miss answer, the Aggies drove the length of the field as Weigman found Achane on a 7-yard touchdown pass, his fourth of the game, to make it 31-28 with 1:25 left on the clock.

The Aggie defense forced a three-and-out on the ensuing drive, providing one last chance with :54 seconds remaining. The Maroon & White failed to convert on the final opportunity after turning it over on downs.

Aggies' Quick Start Not Enough in Loss to Florida, 41-24

De'Von Achane's three first half touchdowns were not enough for Texas A&M as the Aggies fell to Florida, 41-24, Saturday afternoon at Kyle Field.

Achane provided an early spark on Texas A&M's opening drive with a 65-yard rush that led to his 5-yard touchdown run, putting the Aggies on the board for a 7-3 lead.

The speedster found the end zone a second time after a 5-yard touchdown pass from Haynes King to give the Aggies their second lead late in the opening stanza, 14-10.

Following an exchange of field goals, Achane found the end zone for a third time, punching it in from 2 yards, giving A&M a 24-20 lead with a minute left in the first half.

The Aggies threatened numerous times in the second half before turnovers and 21 unanswered points by Florida ultimately stalled a Texas A&M comeback.

Aggies Drop Defensive Battle at Auburn, 13-10

Texas A&M was unable to take advantage of three forced turnovers as the Aggies lost Saturday night's game against the Auburn Tigers, 13-10, at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Demani Richardson and Edgerrin Cooper intercepted passes and McKinnley Jackson recovered a fumble as the Aggie defense kept the game in striking distance. Texas A&M held Auburn to 115 yards in the second half, including 41 in the fourth quarter.

The Aggies went on a late touchdown drive to cut the lead to 13-10 with 1:33 remaining, but the Maroon & White was unable to recover the onside kick. Auburn was able to run out the clock to seal the victory.

On its lone touchdown drive, Texas A&M traveled 80 yards on seven plays in the span of 1:24. The drive was capped off by Connor Weigman hitting Jalen Preston on a 17-yard TD pass. Amari Daniels keyed the drive with rushes of 17 and 38 yards.

The defense helped the Aggies break the scoring seal early in the fourth quarter. Cooper benefitted from Jackson batting an Ashford pass in the air, hauling in a fluttering ball for an interception at the Auburn 39-yard line. Texas A&M settled for a Randy Bond 48-yard field goal to trim the lead to 10-3 at the 10:48 mark.

Aggies Take Down No. 6 LSU, 38-23

De'Von Achane rushed for a career-high 215 yards to highlight the Texas A&M offense in a 38-23 upset of the No. 6 LSU Tigers.

LSU had an opportunity to cut the margin to one TD late in the fourth quarter, but Tyreek Chappell jarred the ball loose from Jaray Jenkins in the end zone on a 4th-and-15 passing play to keep the Aggies up by 15 points.

The Tigers tied the game at 17-17 on their first drive of the second half. The momentum appeared to swing in LSU's direction when the Aggies went 3-and-out on their next possession, but that was put to rest when Edgerrin Cooper forced a fumble and Demani Richardson went 27 yards on a scoop-and-score.

LSU's ensuing drive stalled out at the A&M 47-yard line and the Aggies made the most of it as Moose Muhammad III hauled in a one-handed TD reception on a 21-yard strike from Conner Weigman, inflating the cushion to 31-17.

Another circus catch by Muhammad, a 39-yard reception, keyed the Maroon & White's next scoring drive. Achane capped it off with his second TD run, stretching the Aggie advantage to 21 points with 7:46 left in the fourth quarter. LSU needed just 1:25 to score on its next drive, Emery's third TD run of the game, but an unsuccessful two-point play left the Bayou Bengals down 38-23 with 6:21 remaining.

Texas A&M scored on its first three drives to take a 17-10 lead into the intermission.

The Aggies' opening drive traveled 90 yards on 15 plays, capped off by Achane's first 10-yard TD run of the day. LSU responded with a clock-eating drive of its own, tying the game 7-7.

The teams swapped field goals on their next drives, before the Aggies reclaimed the lead with 1:10 remaining in the half when Weigman uncorked a 3-yard TD pass to Donovan Green. Weigman kept the 9-play, 72-yard drive alive with a 12-yard scamper on 3rd-and-12 from the LSU 45-yard line.
