NEW HOME STADIUM

UH began playing its home games on-campus at the retrofitted Clarence T.C. Ching Athletics Complex in 2021. The stadium increased capacity to approximately 15,000 this season. Previously, Hawai'i played its home games at Aloha Stadium, which was shuttered at the conclusion of the 2020 season. UH had an all-time record of 211-145-4 in 46 seasons at Aloha Stadium.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Contact the UH Sports Media Relations Office to arrange player or coach interviews at least 24 hours in advance. Players and coaches will be available for interviews after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday. Every effort will be made to accommodate interview requests but players will not be asked to miss class, study hall, practices, or medical treatment.

MEDICAL POLICY

The UH Sports Media Relations Office abides by federal law pertaining to the releasing of injury information. We will not disseminate any information about a student-athletes' injury without written consent. The only information given to the media will be if a student-athlete is "probable," "questionable," or "doubtful" to play. However, the student-athlete may release information about his/her injury.

WE ARE THE "RAINBOW WARRIORS"

Hawai'i's men's team nickname is the "Rainbow Warriors" while the women's teams are referred to as "Rainbow Wahine." The word "Wahine" (pronounced wah-HEE-nay) means woman in the Hawaiian language. The rainbow has been part of the nickname since 1923 and Warriors were first adopted in 1974.

WHAT'S AN 'OKINA?

What's that punctuation mark in the word Hawai'i? In the Hawaiian language, it's called an 'okina, which translated literally in English means separator. Phonetically it is referred to as a glottal stop, similar to the sound that would be made in the English oh-oh. The 'okina is actually a letter in the Hawaiian language and typed out looks like a backwards, inverted apostrophe. The practice of the UH Sports Media Relations office is to use the 'okina in all Hawaiian words in which they occur.

POST-GAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Head coach Timmy Chang and select players will be available in a post-game press conference following the 10-minute cooling-off period in the Lecture Hall.

NOTE: Per Mountain West policy, player classifications were advanced following the 2020 season, although they did not affect eligibility. Those who wish to take advantage of their extra year will be listed as a senior again after their original eligibility would have been exhausted. Freshmen who played in four games or less in 2020 did not have their class standings advanced.
^ - indicates 2023 super senior
