- 36:30 and never trailed at Pepperdine
- 39:21 and never trailed against Tarleton State
- 32:47 and led after each quarter against New Mexico State

In 2022-23, the Lobos were 18-4 on the season when leading after the first quarter and 18-4 overall when leading at the half. When leading at the end of the third quarter, the Lobos were 19-4 overall last season. This season, UNM is 7-1 when leading after the first quarter, 8-0 when leading at the half and 7-0 when leading after the third quarter.

SHARE THE BALL

The Lobos have finished with their two highest assist totals of the season in the last two games, with a season-high 20 in the game against Hampton and 19 in the game against Western New Mexico.

UNM assisted on 20 of the 23 made baskets (87.0%) and 19 of the 25 made baskets (76.0%), respectively, and also assisted on 19 of its 27 made baskets (70.4%) against Mississippi Valley State.

On the season, the Lobos have assisted on 54.0% of made baskets and averaging 13.0 assists per game.

HOT HANDS

Against Texas Southern, Vianè Cumber took over in the fourth quarter, scoring 13 of her game-high 22 points in the final 10 minutes, going 5-7 from the floor and 3-4 from three-point range.

The Texas A&M-Commerce game followed a similar storyline in that Nyah Wilson took over in the fourth quarter to score 15 of her career-high 22 points on 6-8 shooting. Wilson opened fourth with a driving layup and the Lobos continued to rely on the junior with Wilson making three consecutive layups as well as a three-pointer to tie the game at 63. Wilson ultimately scored the first 11 points of the fourth quarter for the Lobos, with her final points starting a 6-0 run that gave UNM a 69-65 lead.

Against Eastern Illinois, Paula Reus finished with a career-high 25 points, 17 of which came in the third and fourth quarters. She scored 10 points in the fourth quarter on 4-5 shooting and two three-pointers. In the overtime period, Cumber scored seven points, including the go-ahead basket with 32 seconds remaining and two free throws with seven seconds on the clock.

Wilson scored nine of her 13 points, Reus scored 10 of her 15 points and Augmon scored seven of her 10 points in the final two quarters against New Mexico State.

DEFENSE DELIVERS

Five times this season the Lobos have held their opponents to single digits in a quarter, four times in the first quarter. In addition, UNM has held an opponent to under 20 points in the first two quarters three times this season.

In the win at Pepperdine, the Lobos held the Waves to four points in first quarter and without a point up until the 1:09 mark. Further, UNM held the Waves to 18 points in the first 20 minutes, with the last time that the Lobos held a team below 20 points in the first half was against Louisiana-Monroe on Nov. 27, 2021 (17 points). Pepperdine missed its first eight shots of the game and UNM forced two shot clock violations in that timespan. The Lobos were able to further expand their lead to 16 in the second quarter in part to a 6-0 Lobo run and holding Pepperdine to a 3:06 scoring drought. In the fourth quarter, Pepperdine scored its first points with 6:54 left in the game.

Against Tarleton State, the Lobos held the Texans to five points in the third quarter, outscoring them 20-5. UNM scored the first eight points of the quarter, ultimately going on a 10-1 run through the first 6:05. UNM later scored 10-straight points in a span of 1:55 for its best run of the game to build its largest lead of the contest at 53-31, taking a 53-33 lead into the final 10 minutes.

In the game against New Mexico State, the Lobos held the Aggies to six points in the first quarter and to 19 points in the first 20 minutes. It was the second time this season that the Lobos have held an opponent to under 20 points in the first half. The Lobos held the Aggies scoreless for the final 3:48 of the first quarter and for 4:24 in the second quarter.

Against Mississippi Valley State, the Lobos held MVSU to under 15 points in all four quarters with two quarters of 11 points, 13 points in the first quarter and 10 points in the fourth quarter.

In the game against Hampton, UNM scored the first 12 points of the game while holding the Lady Pirates scoreless for the first 5:24. The Lobos led 18-2 with 3:40 remaining with Hampton's final points of the quarter coming at the 2:22 mark. UNM led 21-7 through the first 10 minutes.

Last game, UNM scored the first eight points and held Western New Mexico without a point for the first 5:53, eventually building a 13-point lead of 17-4 behind a 7-0 run en route to a 19-9 score at the end of the first. The Mustangs scored 10 points in the second quarter for the third instance of holding opponents under 20 points in the first 20 minutes.

In addition to holding opponents to low point totals, the Lobos have also relied on defense to close out games. In the game against Texas A&M-Commerce, UNM held the Lions scoreless the final 1:41 and for the final 27 seconds as the Lions had the ball for the final shot. In the game against Eastern Illinois, the Lobos closed the game on a 7-0 run over the final 1:05 of overtime and got two pivotal stops with under 30 seconds.

CALL ON KOHL

Charlotte Kohl finished with a dominating stat line of a career-high 14 points, career-high 20 rebounds (10 offensive), career-high four blocks and an assist for her first double-double of the season and second of her career against Texas A&M-Commerce.

Kohl registered the double-double by halftime and became the first Lobo to have 20 rebounds in a game since Richelle van der Keijl had 20 against New Mexico State exactly seven years prior on Nov. 15, 2016. Prior to that, the last Lobo to collect 20 rebounds was Amanda Adamson against Texas Tech on Dec. 13, 2008.

Of note, five of her 10 offensive rebounds translated to 11 of UNM's 16 second-chance points, eight of which were scored by Kohl and the three-pointer she had the assist on.

Her 20 rebounds in a game are the most by a MW player this season.

She was named the Mountain West Player of the Week on Nov. 20 for the first weekly conference award in her collegiate career.

Kohl bested that performance against Mississippi Valley State with a career-high 16 points, matched her career high in rebounds with another 20 rebounds and set a career high in blocks with five. She was an efficient 7-9 from the floor and 2-2 from the free-throw line and recorded her double-double by half with 11 rebounds and 10 points.

MISSED V

Vianè Cumber returned in the last game against Western New Mexico after missing three and a half games due to injury.

Prior to her injury, Cumber was averaging 11.9 points per game, 5.1 rebounds per game, 0.9 steals per game with at least one steal in each of the last five games she appeared in, and 2.8 made three-pointers per game, all while playing 34.0 minutes per game.

UNM is averaging 67.0 ppg in games that Cumber has played in and 58.7 points per game in the games that Cumber missed.

THE CUMBER EFFECT

After Vianè Cumber entered the starting lineup against Colorado State on Jan. 26 last season, the Lobo scored double figures in nine of the games including four of the last five. The New Mexico native made six three-pointers and finished with 20 points in the last game of the season at Washington, her second game with 20 or more points last season.

Cumber picked right up in the first game of the 2023-24 season, tying her career high with 22 points that included four three-pointers. It was her 12th career game making four or more three-pointers.

Cumber has scored in double figures in four games this year with nine in two, leading the Lobos in scoring twice.

She added three more three-pointers at Pepperdine, three again against Tarleton, a career-best eight against Montana State and two against

GAME 13: NEW MEXICO AT GONZAGA

Eastern Illinois.

While she didn't make a three against New Mexico State, following a three against Eastern Illinois, she had 14-straight games with at least one, and has made a three in 40 games.

In her career, she's had 30 games with multiple threes and had 18 games making three or more three-pointers.

Further, Cumber has scored in double figures 23 times and 20 or more points four times (two times came this year).

V FOR THREE

Viané Cumber scored a game- and career-high 24 points behind a career-high eight three-pointers against Montana State, knocking down her first three three-point attempts for her fourth time this season and for the 18th time in her career with three or more three-pointers in a game. Cumber made five three-pointers in the first quarter alone.

Her eight three-pointers tied for the third-most in a game in program history and was the seventh time a player historically has made eight or more three-pointers in a game.

WILSON'S WORLD

Nyah Wilson has made quite the first impression in her first season as a Lobo, finishing in double figures in seven games, with 20 or more points in three games, and setting several career highs.

In her first true game as a Lobo, Wilson finished with 20 points, four rebounds, three assists and a steal. The Dallas, Texas, native went 5-8 from the floor, a perfect 4-4 from behind the arc and nearly perfect at the free-throw line going 6-7. Her 20 points set a then-career high, as did her five made field goals, her four made three-pointers and four attempts.

She later bested that with 22 points on nine made field goals against Texas A&M-Commerce, scoring 15 points in the fourth quarter.

She added 16 points against Tarleton, setting a career high in rebounds (nine), made free throws (eight) and minutes played (33). She improved her career best in free throws, going 9-10 in the game against Georgia Tech and had a career-high 11 rebounds against Southern Utah, the first time with double-digit rebounds in her career.

On the season, she's scored 147 points and is tied for the team lead in points, and is tied for 12th in the MW in points per game (12.3) and seventh in free-throw percentage (.763). Wilson is ranked 46th in the NCAA in free throws (45) and 48th in free throw attempts (59).

STEAL THE SHOW

Aniyah Augmon was credited with 11 steals in the first week of the season, with eight at Pepperdine and three against Tarleton State and was a sign of things to come for the Lobo junior.

Her eight steals tied for the second most in a game by a Lobo in program history, with the last time it was done Feb. 8, 1998 by Tamika Stukes. Augmon had four steals in the first 20 minutes with three in the second quarter, which the four alone would have been a career high for the junior. She added two in the fourth quarter, including a steal and layup with 2:04 remaining in the game to make it 50-42 after Pepperdine closed within three at 45-42 with 2:37 to play.

She added two steals in the fourth quarter against Tarleton State 1:09 apart, with both resulting in fast-break points. She finished with six steals in the two games of the Cancun Challenge, two against Montana State and four against Georgia Tech.

Augmon has recorded multiple steals in seven games with three more against Eastern Illinois and Hampton and five against New Mexico State. She's had five or more steals in two games.

In her three years at UNM, she's had 19 games with multiple steals and 37 games with a steal. She currently is sixth in the MW in steals per game at 2.6 as well as 35th in steals (28) and 58th in steals per game in the NCAA.

It took her eight games to surpass her season total of steals from her freshman (24) and sophomore (23) seasons.

ALL ABOUT AUGMON

Beyond her career-high eight steals, Aniyah Augmon has scored in double figures in eight games this season, including a stretch of five consecutive games (16 against Texas A&M-Commerce, 11 against Montana State, 17 against Georgia Tech, 10 against Eastern Illinois and 10 against New Mexico State).

She showcased her all-around ability to take over a game at Pepperdine, leading the Lobos with 16 points, nine rebounds and three assists.

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 150-81 (8TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: 328-198 (17TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY:

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- 26 wins in 2021-22 tied for most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 20+ wins in four seasons, and .500 or better in six
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, 2021; only the second coach in program history to reach 100. Earned his 300th career win on Nov. 22, 2022 against Western N.M.

Mike Bradbury enters his eighth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous seven seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 141-78 (.644) and 77-45 (.631) in conference. Four times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19, 2021-22 and 2022-23) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. Further, the 25 wins in 2017-18 were tied for the second-most wins in program history. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury in 2017-18 and 2018-19 were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Additionally, Bradbury became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury as historically, UNM has finished either first or second in the conference in scoring offense in the last six years (four times first). In Bradbury's time at UNM, the Lobos have finished with 15 or made three-pointers 11 times and hold the top-five spots in three-pointers per game in program history.

In the most recent season, UNM finished 15th in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game at 8.5 per game, with 12 games with double-digit three-pointers. Of the 12 games, UNM made 18 (against South Carolina State) and three games with 16 (twice against Utah State and at Fresno State).

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 13 All-Mountain West performers with Cherise Beynon, Jayla Everett, Jaisa Nunn, Aisia Robertson and Richelle van der Keijl joining De La Cerda, Duff, McGruder, Hurst and Anderson in making the All-Mountain West Team. Tesha Buck, Mykiel Burlison and Nike McClure have also earned MW recognition with Buck being the 2017-18 Newcomer of the Year, Burlison being named to the All-Freshman team in 2016-17 and McClure landing on the All-Defensive team in 2018-19.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury has coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Buck in 2017-18 and Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in Duff (2020-21).
