ROB BAREFORD

Head Coach

Rob Bareford joined the Lobo Family in July of 2024 as the head coach for the men's tennis program. Bareford previously won a pair of conference titles with Radford and later coached for two seasons with Montana State. Bareford brought with him a 62-37 career record (.626) to the Duke City through six years as a head coach at Radford (2018-22) and Montana State (2022-24).

Prior to UNM, Bareford had a two-year stint at Montana State in which nearly his entire first season was a wash as injuries knocked down the Bobcats to just three healthy bodies. After having most of the 2023 season canceled, he was able to get the Bobcats to bounce back with nine wins and a 4-4 record in Big Sky play in 2024. Overall the Bobcats had two singles players honored with All-Big Sky honors and one doubles team as well.

He spent four seasons at Radford, going 53-23 overall, a .697 winning percentage with a pair of NCAA Tournament Appearances and a pair of Big South tournament titles. After inheriting a Highlander program that was just 43-81 in the six previous seasons, Bareford led the Highlanders to winning seasons in all four seasons. After going 10-12 and winless in conference play the year prior to his arrival in 2018, Radford went 17-7 and 5-3 in Big South play in 2019, defeating No. 2-seed Campbell 4-2 in the Big South final for a conference title and a berth into the NCAA Tournament, where Radford played No. 14 Tennessee in the opening round.

Radford seemed destined to a second straight NCAA Tournament, going 10-1 before having the 2020 season halted by the COVID pandemic.

After going 12-7 in 2021 and losing 4-3 in the Big South Championship, Bareford led the Highlanders to a 14-8 mark in 2022 and a second Big South title as Radford against downed Campbell, this time with the Camels as the one-seed, winning 4-3. Radford advanced to the NCAA Tournament, falling to No. 9 Wake Forest in the opening round.

Overall, at Radford, Bareford coached 26 ITA Scholar-Athletes and nine All-Big South singles players and five All-Big South doubles teams. Included in that is Demis Taramonlis, who was a three-time all-conference honoree in singles and doubles and was the 2022 Big South Player of the Year.

For three seasons, Bareford was officially the Director of Tennis, where he also served as the head coach of the women's team at Radford for three seasons, going 27-25 overall from 2020-22.

NCAA NOTES

SEMIFINALISTS: For the first time in UNM's history, the Lobos had a doubles team win three straight matches during the 1998 NCAA Championships. Pepe Caballero and Jeff Williams beat doubles teams that were ranked No. 1, Steve Baldas and John Roddick of Georgia, No. 8, David McNamara and Julius Robberts of Middle Tennessee St., and No. 13, Louie Pranic and Gareth Williams of Tulsa, in Athens, Ga. The Lobo duo lost in the semifinal round, earning All-America status.

REGIONAL WINNERS: The Lobos accomplished a first during the 1995-96 season. The format for the NCAA Championships changed in 1994. Unless a team is ranked in the top-eight, they must compete in a regional tournament. The Lobos went to Provo, Utah, for the Region VII Championships and beat two quality programs in Boise State and South Alabama. Unfortunately, the reward was a first round match against the No. 1 seed, the UCLA Bruins, in Athens, Georgia.
