2024-25 Coaching Capsules

VICKY MAES

Head Coach

Vicky Maes joined the Lobo family in 2018 as an assistant coach and was quickly named the interim head coach in 2018-19 before earning the position full-time after the season. She came to UNM after serving as the head coach of the University of Arizona women's tennis team for the previous 17 years.

She was hired in August of 2018 to serve as the assistant coach for the Lobo women's tennis team after originally intending to serve as a volunteer assistant. Instead, she took over as the interim head coach, leading the team to a 12-9 overall record and a 3-1 record in the Mountain Division, tying for the division title.

The 2024 season saw the Lobos set a school record for winning percentage at 19-3, an .864 mark, including a season-opening 10 match winning streak. The Lobos went 8-1 in Mountain West play, winning the programs first Mountain West regular season title. Maes was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year and three players earned All-Mountain West honors. Additionally, three players during the season earned Mountain West Player of the Week honors.

The 2023 season saw the Lobos go 10-10 on the season, with the highlights a 4-3 win over No. 58 Fresno State and a 4-3 road win over No. 64 Northern Arizona. The Lobos had three All-Mountain West performers in a season in which UNM

The 2022 season saw UNM finish 11-11 overall, including a six-match winning streak in the early portion of the season. The Lobos had an All-Conference performers in Yue Lin "Polly" Chen for 2022 as well.

In 2021, Maes led UNM to an 8-9 record that belies how good a coaching job it was. UNM did not have a fall season, and only returned to practice in February, about a week before UNM's first match of the season. Despite that, and despite having several newcomers in the lineup and losing a good chunk of her rotation due as pandemic transfers, UNM opened at 7-2 on the season before injury and illness took its toll on the lineup. UNM had three players earn All-Mountain West honors after the season.

What has really been Maes' calling card with the Lobos is the academic prowess of the team, turning in four consecutive semesters of at least a 3.9 grade point average. The fall of 2020, a season that saw UNM not compete due to COVID restrictions, saw the program turn in a 4.03 GPA, the highest single-semester GPA by any Lobo program in school history.

Prior to coming to UNM, Maes spent 17 years as the head coach of the University of Arizona, from 2001-2018. With the Wildcats, she led the squad to eight NCAA tournament appearances over her 17 years. She also developed four NCAA All-Americans and seven all-conference performers and her players qualified for postseason competition every year. All in all, she was with the Wildcat family for 24 years, starting in 1994 as a student-athlete, then moving on as a community service coordinator for the C.A.T.S. Life Skills program and finally accepting her coaching role.

As a tennis player for the University of Arizona, Maes was the squad's No. 1 singles and doubles player throughout her entire career. She was named the Pac-10 Conference Player of the Year in 1996, as well as being tabbed a four-time first team All-Pac-10 selection. Maes was named to the Pac-10 All-Decade team in 1998, was the 1996 Arizona Women's Sports Foundation College Athlete of the Year, a four-time All-American (1995-98) and the nation's top-ranked player in 1996 and 1997. Additionally, Maes was a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection and a GTE Academic All-America choice in 1996. In 1998, she was a finalist for the NCAA's Great Eight award and won the Ruby Award, which recognizes UA's top female student-athlete in the field of athletics, academics and personal development. For her efforts, Maes was inducted into the University of Arizona's Hall of Fame in 2003.

YUE LIN "POLLY" CHEN

Assistant Coach

Yue Lin "Polly" Chen begins her third season as an assistant coach after a five-year career in which she was a five-time letterwinner for the program.

With UNM, Chen will assist with on-the-court coaching, scheduling and academics. She was an All-Mountain West performer as well as a five-time Mountain West All-Academic selection. She was named the 2024 ITA Mountain West Assistant Coach of the Year.

Chen, who played from 2017-22, went 61-44 in singles and 47-45 in doubles, giving her 108 combined victories. She had a double 20-win season in 2018-19, going 22-7 in singles and 20-12 in doubles.

NCAA NOTES

HIGHLIGHTS: In 1984, two years after the start of the tennis program at UNM, Leanne Palmisano became the first Lobo singles player to compete at the NCAA Individual Championships. In 1997, Ana Friganovic became the first freshman and the second UNM player to compete in singles at the NCAA Championships. She is the only player in UNM women's tennis history to compete at the NCAA Championships in all of her four years. She was also the first player to compete in both the singles and doubles NCAA Championships in one year (1999). Beginning in 2004, Maja Kovacek competed in both singles and doubles at the NCAA Championships for three straight years. She received her second All-America honors in doubles in 2006. In 2004, Maja Kovacek and Sandy Lukowski became UNM's first women's tennis All-Americans by advancing to the semifinals. In 2006, Maja Kovacek and Iva Gersic became the second duo in UNM women's tennis history to receive All-America honors and achieved a career high #2 national ranking during the season.
