LOBO NOTES

SERIES HISTORY

This will be the 21st meeting against the Wildcats and the 10th meeting in Tucson. The Lobos last played Arizona in Tucson in 2021. Of note, the last two meetings have ended with identical final scores of 77-60 with Arizona winning both times.

UNM's last win in the series was in 2009, an 81-61 win in Tucson.

RELIABLE HOOKS

Destinee Hooks has scored in double figures in all nine games and led the Lobos in scoring in four games, scoring 20 or more points in three. Hooks led the Lobos with a game-high 22 points at Colorado and followed that up with a game-high 20 points against North Carolina A&T. NC A&T was the eighth time scoring 20-plus points at UNM. In the game against UT Martin, Hooks scored a game-high 15 points and scored a game- and season-high 24 points against Texas Tech.

Hooks went off for 12 points in the second quarter against the Buffs, using a personal 7-0 run in the first 2:03 of the quarter to give UNM a 19-18 lead, and went 5-7 from the floor and 2-3 from three-point range. The Lobo guard continued to pace the Lobos with six points in the third quarter. In addition to leading the team in points, she also led with seven rebounds (four offensive).

Against North Carolina A&T, Hooks scored eight of her 20 points in the second quarter on an 8-0 personal run that included four layups. Hooks also recorded her second steal of the game that led to an Alyssa Hargrove three with four seconds left that gave UNM a 32-26 lead at the break to close a 7-0 UNM run in the final 1:20 (which started with her layup).

Through nine games of the season, Hooks is averaging 15.9 points per game, shooting 44.1% from the floor. She's also averaging 4.4 rebounds per game, including a team-high 20 offensive rebounds.

Hooks is fourth in the conference in scoring, seventh in offensive rebounds per game (2.2), eighth in free-throw percentage (.706), ninth in field-goal percentage and is tied for 10th in three-pointers per game. Nationally, she is 71st in points (143), 76th in field goals (52) and 62nd in field goal attempts (118).

FAST START

The Lobos scored the first six points of the game against UT Martin and never trailed in the 77-45 win, continuing a trend of getting out to fast starts.

The Lobos also made four of their first five shots in the season opener against Northern Arizona with Nayli Padilla accounting for five points. At Colorado, CU scored the first six points of the game, but three-pointers from Destinee Hooks and Clarissa Craig tied the game and two free throws by Craig and a basket by Joana Magalhães continued the Lobo run for the 10-6 UNM lead.

Against New Orleans, the Lobos scored the first seven points, built a 15-4 lead within the first 4:29 with the lead growing to 21 at 27-6 behind a 9-0 run in a span of 1:11. A jumper from Hooks with 18 seconds left closed the quarter with UNM leading 37-12. The Lobos shot 72.2% in the first quarter on 13-18 shooting with five three-pointers. UNM scored 65 points in the first two quarters.

In the game against Chicago State, UNM closed the first quarter on a 6-0 run on three-pointers from Hooks and Cacia Antonio for the 20-12 lead through the first. The run continued into the second quarter with a Craig layup and Alyssa Hargrove basket to extend the lead to 12 less than a minute in, ultimately scoring the first 18 points of the quarter to grow the lead to 38-12. Chicago State's first points came at the 4:07 mark on a free throw. Of note, the 24-0 run between the first and second quarter marked the longest run for the Lobos this season. New Mexico outscored the Cougars 24-5 in the second quarter, holding CSU to 12.5% shooting in the second quarter while shooting 52.4%, and held the Cougars to 19.4 % in the half.

UNM is outscoring opponents 146-117 (+29) in the first quarter, 191-120 in the second quarter (+71) and 337-237 (+100) in the first 20 minutes.

WIN THE QUARTER

The Lobos have won the second quarter in seven games this season, scoring 20-plus points in six games (twice with 28 points, twice with 22 points, once with 24 and once with 20) and holding opponents to 16 points or fewer in six.

Further, UNM has outscored its opponent in the first quarter four times (NAU, UNO, UTM, CSU), the third quarter four times (UNO, NAU, NMSU, UTM) and the fourth quarter five times (NAU, AT, UTM, UC, CSU).

The Lobos have also held their opponent below 10 points in a quarter four times this season (five in the fourth quarter against NAU, five in the second quarter against Chicago State, four in the second quarter against NMSU and seven in the second quarter against UTM).

Three times, the Lobos have held their opponent below 20 points at the half: 15 points (New Mexico State), 17 points (Chicago State) and 18 points (UT Martin).

UNM is 4-0 when leading after the first quarter, 6-0 when leading at the half and 6-0 when leading after the third quarter.

NO THREES FOR YOU, BUT WE'LL TAKE THEM

UNM has held three opponents to under 20 percent from three-point range, including New Mexico State (14.3%), UT Martin (16.7%) and Cincinnati (18.8%). In addition, the Lobos have held Colorado and Chicago State to 20 percent with Chicago State making three, three-pointers and Colorado four. Opponents on average are making 5.1 three-pointers per game, going 46-162 (28.4%).

For the Lobos, they are making 8.8 per game and shooting 32.4%, led by Nayli Padilla with 22 made three-pointers (2.4 per game) and is shooting 40.7%. Laila Abdurraqib and Destinee Hooks have both made 15 (1.7 per game). Padilla is second in the MW in three-pointers made with Hooks and Abdurraqib tied for 10th. As a team, UNM is third in the MW in three-point percentage.

Nationally, UNM is 34th in three-pointers per game and 26th in three-point attempts per game (27.1).

STATEMENT WIN

A dominant second quarter by New Mexico in which the Lobos outscored New Mexico State 28-4 and held the Aggies scoreless for 7:18 in Sunday's contest led the way for a 77-45 Lobo road win.

The 45 points were the fewest points allowed by the Lobos in the series since allowing 44 in 2012, also in Las Cruces, and tied for the third-largest margin of victory in the series (32, also done in 2008 and 1979). However, it is the largest margin of victory by UNM in Las Cruces in the series.

Nayli Padilla led the Lobos for the second straight game with 14 points behind a career-high four three-pointers, and was one of three Lobos to reach double figures with Destinee Hooks and Cacia Antonio scoring 10 points each.

UNM finished with a season-high 10 three-pointers and shot a season-best 53.7% from the field and a season-best 45.5% from behind the arc.

The Lobos opened the second quarter on a 12-2 run that included an 8-0 run with three-pointers from Hargrove and Hooks to give the Lobos a 22-13 lead less than three minutes into the quarter. A Padilla three and layup by Antonio extended the run to 13-0 over a span of 3:45. UNM shot 68.8% in the quarter, holding NMSU to 12.5% shooting, making five three-pointers and shooting 71.4% from behind the arc.

The momentum continued in the third quarter as the Lobos stretched the lead to 36 at 57-21 at the 3:52 mark using a 14-0 run over a span of 2:45. Hooks started the run with a jumper, Antonio made a three-pointer, Hooks completed a three-point play, Abdurraqib made a three-pointer and Antonio closed the run with another three-pointer. The 36-point margin held through the end of the quarter with UNM outscoring the Aggies 23-10 and outshooting the Aggies 69.2% to 21.4%. Through the first three quarters, NMSU went 0-11 from three-point range with UNM making eight three-pointers on 15 attempts.

Between the second and third quarters, UNM outscored NMSU 51-14.

99 POINTS ON THE BOARD

The Lobos scored 99 points against New Orleans, shooting 52.2% in the game, including 68.6% in the first half.

Nayli Padilla led the Lobos in scoring with 17 points while coming off the bench, besting her career high from the last game against North Carolina A&T of 15 points, while tying her career high of three, three-pointers. Destinee Hooks finished with 16 points and Cacia Antonio and Drew Jordon each contributed 10 points.

As a whole, the bench accounted for 51 of UNM's total points and as a team, the Lobos tallied 21 assists on the 35 made field goals. At the line, the Lobos were an efficient 20-23, making their first eight free throws and behind the arc made nine three-pointers.

The 99 points are the most points scored by a MW team this season to date with the 35 made field goals and 21 assists both tied for the second most.

CLOSE THE DOOR

The Lobos trailed 57-53 with 6:16 left in the fourth quarter against North Carolina A&T and went on a 10-0 run behind two free throws by Destinee Hooks, back-to-back three-pointers by Nayli Padilla and a layup by Alyssa Hargrove in 1:49.

When the Aggies pulled within two at 64-62 with 2:27 left, a layup by Jessie Joaquim off of a Padilla assist and a Joana Magalhães steal and layup immediately following kept the Lobos in front. Two free throws by Hargrove with 17 seconds left allowed UNM to build a seven-point lead at 70-63 and each team made one free throw with Padilla making the final free throw for the final score.

Padilla scored eight points in the fourth quarter, going 2-4 from three-point range and added two free throws. As a team, UNM outscored A&T 21-16.

In addition, the Lobos closed the season opener against Northern Arizona on a 10-1 run in the final 5:40 and held the Lumberjacks to five points in the fourth quarter to pull away for the 77-59 victory.

ART OF THE STEAL

The Lobos are averaging a conference-best 11.7 steals per game behind five games with double-digit steals: 19 against Chicago State, 18 against New Orleans, 16 against North Carolina A&T, 14 against Northern Arizona and 10 against New Mexico State.

UNM was credited with 14 steals against Northern Arizona with six players recording at least one steal, three players with multiple steals and two players setting career highs in steals. Nayli Padilla finished with three steals and Joana Magalhães registered a career-high six steals. Magalhães' steals were the most by a MW player in the first two days of the season.

Against A&T, UNM recorded 11 steals in the first 20 minutes (six in the first quarter, five in the second), finishing with 16 in the game. Six players had at least one steal with five with multiple steals. Against Chicago State, Padilla was credited with a career-high four steals with six players recording multiple steals (Drew Jordon and Cacia Antonio with three each, Alyssa Hargrove, Tyler Jones and Magalhães with two each). Of UNM's 19 steals, nine came in the third quarter.

In the first three games, Magalhães was credited with six steals twice. The sophomore is averaging 2.2 steals per game and is 84th in the NCAA in steals (20). Her season high last season was four, which she did twice, and finished the season with 44 steals.

Hargrove had a career-best seven steals in the game against New Orleans with UNM creating a season-best 18 steals as a team. The seven steals are tied for the 23rd most in a game by a DI player this season. Jordon was credited with three and Laila Abdurraqib and Jones each had two. UNM had 13 steals in the first two quarters with seven in the first quarter (Hargrove had three).

Hargrove sits at 174 steals and 55 blocks for her college career. The only other active DI players with at least 170 steals and 50 blocks are LSU's Flau'Jae Johnson, TCU's Maddie Scherr, UCLA's Charlissee Leger-Walker and Howard's Nile Miller.

Additionally, Hargrove has recorded a steal in seven games with six games with multiple steals.

As a team, UNM is 44th in the NCAA in steals per game and leads the MW in steals per game.

For comparison, UNM reached double-digit steals in 11 games last season, with the season high of 15, and averaged 7.9 steals per game.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE OPPORTUNITY

Nayli Padilla started the first three games of the season after starting one game last season and made the most of her increased minutes.

In the three games, the sophomore averaged 10.7 points per game with 4.7 rebounds per game, 1.7 steals per game and 2.0 assists per game in 33.8 minutes per game. For comparison, last season she averaged 3.7 points per game, 2.2 rebounds per game, 1.6 assists per game and 0.6 steals per game in 25 games.

Padilla scored nine points with five rebounds, four assists and three steals in the season opener. In the game against North Carolina A&T, she scored a then-career-high 15 points, the second-most points by a Lobo in the game, with a then-career-high three, three-pointers.

The Spaniard scored eight of her points in the fourth quarter, with a three-pointer that gave UNM a 58-57 lead and another three-pointer 37 seconds later to put UNM up by four. When the Aggies were within two at 64-62, Padilla drove to the basket and dished it off to Jessie Joaquim for the layup and added a free throw with five seconds left for the final point. She also added two steals, four rebounds, two assists and block in the win.

While she now comes off the bench, her production remained as she led the Lobos in scoring against New Orleans (with 17 points), at New Mexico State (14 points) and against Cincinnati (with a career-high 19 points behind a career-best seven made field goals and career-best five three-pointers). She added a season-high six rebounds and tallied three assists against the Aggies. Padilla went 4-5 from three-point range against NMSU and has made three or more three-pointers in five games. She also created a career-best four steals against Chicago State and has recorded at least a steal in six games with four games with multiple steals.

Padilla is second in the MW in three-pointers per game (2.4) and nationally, the Lobo is 50th in three-pointers (22), 83rd in three-point percentage (40.7) and 91st in three-pointers per game.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Seven Lobos registered their first minutes at UNM in the season opener against Northern Arizona and made an impact with their minutes.

After sitting out last year due to injury, Clarissa Craig led the Lobos in scoring with 16 points, going 4-4 from the floor and 8-9 from the free-throw line, which included 4-4 in the fourth quarter. Her 16 points tied her career high as did her eight made free throws.

Freshman Laila Abdurraqib went 3-4 from behind the arc and added three assists, and fellow freshman Kaia Foster led the team with six rebounds. Emma Najjuma went 3-3 with three rebounds. Abdurraqib's three, three-pointers were tied for the most by a MW player in the first two days and her 75.0% shooting from three-point range the best in that span.

GAME 10: NEW MEXICO vs ARIZONA

Newcomers accounted for 19 of UNM's 21 bench points.

At Colorado, Abdurraqib again led the Lobos off the bench with nine points and was the second leading scorer for the Lobos. The freshman was also second in rebounds with six rebounds, added a steal and accounted for half of UNM's bench points. Abdurraqib also led the Lobo bench with six points against Texas Tech, the fourth time this season leading the bench.

Newcomers have scored 190 points on the season (28.9% of the total points), led by Antonio at 66, and have led in rebounds in six games. On the boards, the newcomers have recorded 151 rebounds, 40.7% of the team total, with Emma Najjuma and Jessie Joaquim tied for the team lead of 40 rebounds (four players are tied at 40).

Abdurraqib is tied for 10th in the MW in made three-pointers per game (1.7) and scored a season-high 11 points against UT Martin. Joaquim is tied for 18th in the MW in rebounds per game (5.0).

FIRST AWARD OF THE SEASON

Tyler Jones was selected the Old Trapper Mountain West Freshman of the Week as announced on Nov. 17.

Jones earned the honor after a season-high six points, season-high three rebounds and season- and game-high four assists at New Mexico State, in which she also registered two steals to tie her season high in UNM's win against the Aggies and played a season-high 22 minutes.

In addition, she scored four points, was credited with two steals, two rebounds and two assists in the win against New Orleans.

On the week, the Memphis, Tennessee native averaged 5.0 points per game, 2.5 rebounds per game, 2.0 steals per game and 3.0 assists per game in 20.5 minutes per game.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Destinee Hooks was selected to the Preseason All-Mountain West Team and the Lobos were picked to finish fifth in the Mountain West Preseason Poll.

UNM received two first-place votes and finished with 207 points, one of three teams to receive multiple first-place votes and one of six teams to receive a first-place vote. UNLV was picked as the preseason favorite with 19 first-place votes and 281 points with San Diego State second with 240 points and received three first-place votes. Colorado State was picked third with 236 points and one first-place vote and Boise State narrowly edged out the Lobos for the fourth spot in the order of finish with 210 points and received one first-place vote.

The separation between fifth and sixth was 13 points with Wyoming projected to finish sixth with new conference opponent Grand Canyon picked seventh with one first-place vote and 177 points. Air Force (132 points), Fresno State (95 points), Nevada (92 points), Utah State (54 points) and San José State (44 points) rounded out the order of finish.

For Hooks, the Lobo was one of 10 players selected for the preseason team, and comes after she earned Mountain West Honorable Mention following her first season as a Lobo.

Against conference opponents in 2024-25, Hooks reached double figures in 15 games, averaging 14.2 points per game, with two games of 20 or more points, including 27 points against UNLV. In addition, Hooks led the Lobos in scoring in eight conference games and finished 11th in the conference in scoring and 10th in field goal percentage (.420). Defensively, Hooks recorded a steal in 10 games with multiple steals in six.

Of note, while the Lobos were picked fifth, in the last five years, UNM finished second three times, won the league once and tied for fourth last season. Only twice in Coach Bradbury's previous nine seasons has UNM finished lower than fifth.

NATIONALLY KNOWN

The Lobos are going national as their home game against Grand Canyon on Jan. 17 will be on FS1.

Being on national television is nothing new to the Lobos, as UNM was selected for two television games last season, at UNLV and against Colorado State, and at home against Air Force on New Year's Day in 2023.

MADE FOR TV

The Lobos will also have two nonconference games broadcast on Altitude Sports.

UNM's game against Texas Tech on Nov. 23 at 1 p.m. and against Houston on Dec. 13 at 7 p.m. will be broadcast on Altitude, the leading regional sports network in the Rockies. The announcement continues a partnership between UNM and the network, which includes four Lobo football games and nine men's basketball games airing on the network.

Josh Suchon and Lobo women's basketball alum Nikki Lobato will serve as the broadcast team for Altitude.

BIG 12 SCHEDULE

There's a common theme among the nonconference schedule this season and that's the presence of the Big 12 Conference.

Of UNM's 11 nonconference games, five opponents are from the Big 12. Colorado was the first team the Lobos faced in their second game of the season, and hosted Texas Tech on Nov. 23. UNM has three consecutive Big 12 opponents in Cincinnati on a neutral court in Naples, Florida on Nov. 29, Arizona (in Tucson on Dec. 7) and at home against Houston to close the nonconference schedule on Dec. 13.

RELYING ON THE RETURNERS

Heading into the season, the Lobos returned a core of six players, led by junior Destinee Hooks, senior Alyssa Hargrove and sophomore Joana Magalhães, with the trio starting in over 30 games last season.

Hooks is UNM's returning leading scorer, averaging 15.0 points per game, shooting 45.3% from the floor, and finished in double figures in 26 games with 20-plus points in six games, while starting in 31 games. Further, the Indiana native, who earned Mountain West Honorable Mention following her first year as a Lobo, recorded two double-doubles and finished third on the team in assists (58) and steals (28).

Hargrove started all 32 games in her first year as a Lobo, averaging 8.3 points per game, 3.7 rebounds per game, 2.2 steals per game and 0.9 blocks per game in 31.2 minutes per game. The Ohio native finished in double figures in 13 games and recorded her first double-double with 11 rebounds and 10 assists against Boise State, becoming the first Lobo to register an assist and rebound double-double since 2016. Strong on the defensive end, Hargrove recorded a steal in 28 games with 18 games with multiple steals and seven games with four or more steals, finishing second in the Mountain West in steals and steals per game and third in assists per game.

In her freshman season, Magalhães started 30 games and played in all 32, earning a spot on the Mountain West All-Freshman Team. The guard averaged 7.1 points per game, 3.9 rebounds per game, 2.5 assists per game, 1.4 steals per game and scored in double figures in 11 games with a season-high 20 points at Colorado State. Further, she had five or more assists in four games with a season-high six against Morehead State and recorded a steal in 22 games with multiple steals in 14 games.

UNM also returns Clarissa Craig, who sat out all of last year due to injury, and adds an inside presence for the Lobos after spending the previous three seasons at Cincinnati.

This season, Hooks leads the team in points (143, 15.9 ppg), Hargrove leads in assists (25) and Magalhães leads in steals (20). Hooks and Craig are tied for the team lead in rebounds at 40.

GLOBAL LOBOS

The Lobos bring an international flair to the roster with players representing three continents and six countries (Angola, Uganda, Portugal, Spain, Mozambique and the United States). Further, while from three different countries, four players speak Portuguese (Joana Magalhães, Cacia Antonio, Leonor Peixinho and Jessie Joaquim).

Antonio played for the Angola National Team, Peixinho played for Portugal over the summer and Emma Najjuma played for the Uganda National Team.

SHARE THE WEALTH

Eleven players scored in both exhibitions with two reaching double figures in the first exhibition and five in the second exhibition. Of UNM's 25 made baskets at UT Arlington, 18 were assisted, an improvement from the 15 assists on the 32 made baskets in the first exhibition.

Against NAU, 10 Lobos scored with three reaching double figures and 18 of the 28 made baskets were assisted.

In the game against New Orleans, UNM had 21 assists on 35 made field goals, and at New Mexico State, 10 different Lobos scored, assisting on 16 of the made field goals (55.2%). Ten Lobos again scored against UT Martin, with 15 of the made baskets assisted on (55.6%).

Alyssa Hargrove leads the team with 25 assists (2.8 per game) and is 10th in the conference in assists per game. As a team, UNM is tied for third in assists per game (14.0).

HOW MUCH DO YOU BENCH?

The bench proved to be a sign of strength for the Lobos in both exhibition games, with 33 points against Adams State coming from the bench and 26 points at UTA. Additionally, the bench combined for seven assists, five steals and 25 rebounds at UTA and six steals and 29 rebounds against ASU.

UNM got 21 points and 11 rebounds from the bench in the season opener and the bench scored 18 points at Colorado. Against New Orleans, UNM's bench accounted for 51 points (51.5%), with two players in double figures, 21 rebounds (51.2%), nine assists (42.9%) and nine steals (50.0%).

In the game at NMSU, the bench scored 36 of the 77 points (46.8%), with Nayli Padilla leading the team in scoring coming off the bench. The bench also accounted for 20 rebounds, six three-pointers and half of UNM's steals (five). Against UT Martin, the Lobo bench scored 25 points (32.5%), led by 11 from Abdurraqib, and registered 26 rebounds (46.4%) led by a game- and season-high 10 from Jessie Joaquim.

At the Florida Gulf Classic, the bench scored half of UNM's points against Chicago State, led by 16 from Drew Jordon and 11 from Padilla, and recorded 23 rebounds with Emma Najjuma leading the team with a game-high 10 rebounds. The bench was also credited with nine steals. In the second game against Cincinnati, UNM's bench accounted for 48.3% of the points, led by Padilla's game-high 19. Najjuma also added a game- and season-high 11 rebounds

On the season, the bench has scored 235 points, accounting for 35.8% of the points.

MIKE BRADBURY

RECORD AT UNM: 186-106 (10TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: 364-223 (19TH SEASON)

NOTEWORTHY:

- Named the sixth head coach in program history on March 31, 2016
- 26 wins in 2021-22 tied for most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 25 wins in 2017-18; tied for second-most wins in program history
- Led UNM to 20+ wins in five seasons, and .500 or better in seven
- Earned his 100th win at UNM on Nov. 30, 2021; only the second coach in program history to reach 100. Earned his 300th career win on Nov. 22, 2022 against Western N.M.

Mike Bradbury enters his ninth season as head coach for The University of New Mexico women's basketball team. In his previous eight seasons at the helm, Bradbury has guided the Lobos to a 162-89 (.645) and 89-51 (.636) in conference and became just the second coach in UNM history to win 100 games with a win over Grambling on Nov. 30, 2021.

Five times in his tenure (2017-18, 2018-19, 2021-22, 2022-23, 2023-24) the Lobos eclipsed the 20-win mark, with the Lobos tying the program record for most wins in a single season with 26 in 2021-22. Further, the 25 wins in 2017-18 were tied for the second-most wins in program history. The consecutive 20-plus win seasons under Bradbury in 2017-18 and 2018-19 were the first for the program since the 2007-08 – 2008-09 seasons.

Further, the last time the Lobos finished with 20-plus wins in three consecutive seasons was 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2008-09.

Of note, there are only three Mountain West teams that have won 20 games in each of the last three years (UNM, UNLV and CSU), and in the last four years, only two MW teams that have won 10 or more conference games all four years (UNM and UNLV).

The Lobos have sustained success under Bradbury as historically, UNM has finished either first or second in the conference in scoring offense in six of the last seven years (four times first). In Bradbury's time at UNM, the Lobos have finished with 15 or made three-pointers 11 times and hold the top-five spots in three-pointers per game in program history.

During the most recent season, the Lobos were among the most consistent defensive teams in the country, ranking 14th in defensive rebounds per game and 10th in the fewest fouls per game. On an individual level, the Lobos garnered several awards with five Mountain West Player of the Week selections, the most since the 2018-19 season, as well as earning MW Newcomer of the Year (Nyiah Wilson), MW Defensive Player of the Year (Aniyah Augmon), two All-Mountain West Team selections in Augmon and Wilson, an All-Defensive Team selection for Augmon and a MW Coach of the Year selection for Bradbury.

Wilson became the seventh Lobo to earn Newcomer of the Year and the fourth under Bradbury, with the last one back in 2018-19. Augmon became only the second Lobo to win Defensive Player of the Year, joining Porche Torrance who won in 2011-12. The selection marked the first Coach of the Year award for Bradbury and the third for a New Mexico coach.

In his time at UNM, Bradbury has coached 19 All-Mountain West performers, six on the All-Defensive Team and three on the All-Newcomer/Freshman Team.

In terms of major individual awards, Bradbury coached the league's Newcomer of the Year each of his first three seasons in charge of the Lobos with Richelle van der Keijl earning the award in 2016-17, Tesha Buck in 2017-18 and Aisia Robertson in 2018-19. Additionally, Bradbury has coached the MW Player of the Year in Jaisa Nunn (2018-19) and the Freshman of the Year in Jayla Everett (2018-19) as well as Sixth Person of the Year in LaTascya Duff (2020-21).

Further, a Lobo has been named Mountain West Player of the Week 20 times during his tenure, with four named Freshman of the Week.

In the 2022-23 season, UNM finished 15th in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game at 8.5 per game, with 12 games with double-digit three-pointers. Of the 12 games, UNM made 18 (against South Carolina State) and three games with 16 (twice against Utah State and at Fresno State).

During the 2021-22 season, the program established several program records. UNM set the program record in made three-pointers (346), a program-best 171 made three-pointers in conference season, as well as a program-record 596 assists on the season and 292 in conference games. In addition, the Lobos made a program-high 523 field goals in conference and scored the most points in conference in program history with 1,413 points. On Jan. 6 at Utah State, the Lobos set the program record and the MW record in made three-pointers in a game with 21, and three games later made 19 three-pointers for the second most in a game in program history. The Lobos also went on a nine-game win streak, the second longest in program history.

New Mexico ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in made three-pointers (third), made three-pointers per game (fifth, 9.6 per game) and in assists (10th). In total, UNM ranked in the top 30 in nine categories, including scoring offense (14th, 76.7 points per game), assists per game (16th, 16.6 per game), assist/turnover ratio (18th, 1.21), field-goal percentage (19th, 45.1 percent), blocked shots (25th, 147) and three-point field-goal percentage (30th, 35.1 percent).

UNM added six postseason Mountain West honors with a conference-high three all-conference players in Antonia Anderson, Shaiquel McGruder and Jaedyn De La Cerda, an honorable mention in LaTora Duff, an all-defensive player in McGruder and an all-freshman in Paula Reus. The Lobos have had 12 conference selections in the last two seasons.

Further, five Lobos finished the 2021-22 season averaging double figures in points per game.

In the 2020-21 season, Bradbury led the Lobos to a Mountain West regular season championship, the first outright in program history and the first regular season title since the 2004-05 season. In addition, the Lobos were selected for the WNIT for the third time in four years.

The Lobos produced one of the most prolific offenses not only in the conference, but in the country, finishing among the top 25 in several categories. Among them, UNM finished fourth in the NCAA in made three-pointers per game (10.2), sixth in assist-turnover ratio (1.40), ninth in scoring offense (81.2 points per game), 14th in fewest turnovers per game (12.0) and assists per game (16.8) and 22nd in scoring margin (12.7). The Lobos led the Mountain West in scoring offense, scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, assist-turnover ratio and made three-pointers as well as second in field-goal percentage and steals per game.

UNM set a program record in scoring with 120 points against Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and in the process, made 17 three-pointers, falling just one short of tying the program record. Further, the Lobos registered 90-plus points in five games and 80-plus points in 11 of the 20 games on the season.

Four Lobos finished the 2020-21 season averaging double figures in points per game with six players finishing in double figures in scoring in two games (the only times it has been accomplished in program history), five players in five games and four in seven games.

As a result of UNM's successful season, five players were named to the All-Mountain West Team with LaTascya Duff also earning the superlative of Sixth Person of the Year. Duff was just the second Lobo to win the sixth person award. Making the all-conference team for the first time were Duff, Jaedyn De La Cerda and Antonia Anderson, as well as Shaiquel McGruder earning all-defensive and Ahlise Hurst earning the honorable mention distinction.

In his third year at the helm, Bradbury continued to put his mark on the program while also continuing to bring Lobo women's basketball back to national prominence. Overall, Bradbury's 2018-19 team went 24-7 and earned a bid to the WNIT for a second-straight season. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 – 2009-10 seasons that the program made consecutive trips to the postseason.

Prior to coming to Albuquerque, Bradbury built a successful nine year run as a Division-I head coach with stops at Morehead State (Morehead, Ky.) and Wright State (Dayton, Ohio). Most recently with the Raiders, Bradbury led his squad to five 20-win seasons, including each of his final three seasons. During that time, Wright State has amassed a 75-28 record, the best amongst the 13 Division I programs in the state of Ohio.

Overall at Wright State, Bradbury had five winning seasons, all of which were 20-plus win seasons, in six years – a feat made all the more remarkable as Wright State had just one winning season in the previous 22 before his arrival. In the previous 37 seasons of women's basketball at Wright State, the Raider program had tallied 20 wins just once before Bradbury led the team to 20 wins in five of his six seasons.

His most prominent three-year run at Wright State started in 2013-14, when the Raiders won a school-record 26 games on the way to a 26-9 season and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. That season saw the Raiders finish second in the Horizon League and win its first Horizon League Tournament. It also featured the program's first road win at perennial league power Wisconsin-Green Bay. Kim Demmings was named the Horizon League Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, and it marked the first time in school history the program had a pair of first team All-Conference selections.

He followed up that by earning Horizon League Coach of the Year in 2014-15 after a 25-9 season that saw his squad lose its Horizon League Preseason Player of the Year less than two minutes into the season opener. The Raiders just missed a second straight NCAA Tournament appearance, falling in overtime in the conference championship game. The team did make its first appearance in the Women's NIT as the league's automatic qualifier, and in 2015-16, the team made it back-to-back WNIT appearances after a 24-11 season, earning the program's first at-large bid.

Those three seasons are the three winningest seasons in the history of Wright State women's basketball.

In his first two seasons at Wright State, he led the team to a 20-13 campaign and a 21-13 mark and berths in the Women's Basketball Invitational, the first NCAA Division I postseason berths for the program. Overall, Bradbury has coached three Horizon League Players of the Year (all in his last three seasons), six first-team All-Horizon League players, three second-team members and four All-Freshman team members.

Prior to his time at Wright State, Bradbury was the head coach at Morehead State where he led the Division I program to a 50-44 mark in three seasons, including a watershed 22-11 season, which was the second-most wins in Morehead State history and the most wins by the Eagles in the previous 38 years.

At Morehead State he coached one Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year, along with one first-team All-OVC pick (two seasons) and three second-team All-OVC picks.

Bradbury also spent time as an assistant coach at Xavier (2002-06), Cincinnati (1996-02), VCU (1995-96), East Tennessee State (1994-95) and Chattanooga (1991-94). In his 30 seasons as an assistant and as a head coach, Bradbury's teams have finished below .500 only three times.
