LEADING OFF...

ALL-TIME SERIES

UNM is 51-81-1 against Texas Tech all-time and 20-54 against the Red Raiders in Lubbock. Tod Brown is 4-5 against TTU in his tenure at UNM.

The Lobos have won four of the last six meetings between the two teams, coming off back-to-back wins for the first time since 2015.

In 2024, UNM fell 8-11 in the two teams' first meeting in ABQ (3/5/2024) before thumping them on the road in Lubbock (17-3, 4/23/2024) to secure the season series split. They won their lone matchup with the Red Raiders in 2025 15-5 in eight innings (April 8).

UNM has won four of the last five meetings between the two teams in Albuquerque.

BIG MIDWEEK WIN IN THE DESERT

New Mexico Baseball earned a statement midweek win last Tuesday, taking down Arizona 6-3 at Hi Corbett Field for its first road win over the Wildcats since 2019 and first victory in the series since 2022.

The Lobos (14-7, 1-2 MW) totaled 11 hits and used a decisive four-run third inning to flip the game after Arizona (7-13, 1-2 Big 12) plated three runs in the second.

After falling behind 3-1, New Mexico responded immediately in the third, stringing together three hits and capitalizing on a passed ball to score four runs. RBI singles from Luke Mansy and Khalil Walker along with a sacrifice fly from Anthony Diaz highlighted the inning as the Lobos took a 5-3 lead they would not relinquish.

In the previous 203 meetings between the two programs since 1940, the Lobos had only won 16 times in Tucson. It's just the fifth road win over Arizona for the Lobos since 1997.

New Mexico added an insurance run in the fifth on Diaz's second sacrifice fly of the game - Diaz finished with two RBI despite not recording a hit.

At the plate, Gene Trujillo led the way with a 3-for-5 performance, while Mansy (2-for-4, two runs, RBI) and Walker (3-for-4, RBI) also turned in multi-hit efforts.

Out of the bullpen, LHP Samuel Jackson (1-0) delivered a pivotal outing, tossing three scoreless innings to stabilize the game after the early deficit and earn his first win as a Lobo. UNM's relief corps was dominant overall, combining for 7 1/3 innings of scoreless baseball to close it out and stifle the Wildcats' hopes of a comeback.

RHP Talor Grubbs secured the win with a scoreless ninth to earn his first save of the season.

BROWN KEEPS ON WINNING

UNM's huge offensive year also saw the Lobos match a program record with 91 homers and notch the second-highest team slugging (.574) and sixth-best on-base percentage (.425) in school history.

ASHBY'S BIG RETURN

After spending the 2024 season at Kansas and winning the NCAA D-II Championship with Tampa in 2025, Lenny Junior Ashby is once more a Lobo for his final year of collegiate eligibility. The Aruban outfielder was a two-time All-MW selection in his first two seasons at UNM in 2022 and 2023, batting for a .361 average across 105 appearances in that span to go with 36 doubles, 26 homers, 110 RBI and 88 runs scored.

In his four years of collegiate baseball, Ashby has batted .325 in 205 games, driving in 165 runs and scoring 145 more while hitting 51 doubles, four triples and 36 homers.

SUPER SENIORS ABOUND

UNM boasts six graduate seniors on this year's roster – OF Lenny Junior Ashby, RHP Josh Barnhouse, LHP Matthew Cornelius, OF Garrett Rede, LHP Matthew Romero and OF Khalil Walker – with Barnhouse, Cornelius, Romero and Walker all returning from last season. In total, the Lobos have 18 seniors on roster, the most Coach Tod Brown has had on a team in Albuquerque.

THE BULLPEN

- 2025 weekend starters RHP Ryan Castillo and RHP Cristian Mogen both look to headline the Lobos' staff after promising performances in starting roles last season.
- After racking up 10 saves last season, RHP Ty Cunningham (21 App., 5.91 ERA, 32 IP) will move into a more high-volume non-closing role this year -- high-leverage relievers Josh Barnhouse (28 App., 6.07 ERA, 43 IP) and Luke Wiseman (25 App., 4.45 ERA, 30.1) also project to work more innings in their final collegiate seasons after being reliable in 2025.
- RHP Talor Grubbs (East Carolina) and Logan Barnett (Dayton/Heartland CC) add two more physical arms with D1 experience.
- Lefties Matt Cornelius (8 App.) and Matthew Romero (12 App.) both return for a grad year to make it nine returning arms with multiple appearances last season.

THE LINEUP

- A pair of two-time All-MW outfielders stand out in UNM's new-look lineup -- two-time MW batting champion Khalil Walker (.396 career avg.) and the returning Lenny Junior Ashby (.325 career avg.).
- The lefty power bat Ashby (26 HR, 110 career RBI at UNM) looks to replace the production of Regional POTY Jordy Oriach after he transferred to Georgia in the offseason.
- The Lobos also get back Albuquerque native Akili Carris for his senior season after a productive 2025 that saw him hit a career-high .345 on the season and drive in 44 runs -- he's started at third base in 71 games over the last two seasons.
- Luke Mansy (.353 average in 2025) returns after

EARLY RETURNS

Walker Named Preseason All-MW; Lobo Baseball Tabbed Fourth in Coaches' Poll:

- New Mexico Baseball's Khalil Walker was named to the Mountain West All-Conference Preseason Team and the Lobos were picked to finish fourth in the Preseason Coaches' Poll released Wednesday ahead of the 2026 baseball season.
- Ahead of UNM's 36 points in the preseason poll, 2025 MW Regular Season Champions Nevada were tabbed as the team to beat with 60 points and five first-place votes ahead of 2025 MW Tournament Champs Fresno State with 55 points and three first-place votes. New member Grand Canyon clocked in at third with 47 points and one first-place vote.
- The Lobos have outperformed their preseason rank in each of the last three seasons. Before the 2023 season, UNM was picked to finish seventh and ultimately finished fifth; in 2024, they were voted fifth and closed out the regular season one game out of sharing a regular-season championship with Air Force. Last season, they were also picked fourth and finished third in the conference standings.

D1 Baseball on New Mexico in the Mountain West Race:

- "Five starters return to a batting order that led the country in hitting with a crisp .337 team average, and five key arms on the mound who were all used a ton of innings and in high-leverage situations also come back. Obviously, the Lobos will lean on some newcomers to fill in the holes, but the staff feels like they are deeper on the mound with more velocity and with more pitchers who can pound the strike zone. That alone will put a few more check marks in the win column."
- "The offense will have some bats to compete with but Brown sees the biggest question mark for this team being the fact that they won't have the thump at the plate like they have in recent seasons ... A big win in the offseason was getting the return of top hitter and two-time All-MWC center fielder Khalil Walker, who led the team and was 17th nationally with a .399 average. He also posted five triples and four home runs and has the speed to run down gap shots in the grass. Also staying loyal to the program is third baseman Akili Carris, a three-year starter who hit .341-13-55 with a 1.033 OPS last season. Fellow senior Karsen Waslefsky also comes back after hitting .298-5-31 and is a high-level defensive glove at shortstop and a leader for the infield. He'll team with second baseman Luke Mansy, another senior, to make a solid double-play duo. Mansy was a part-time starter last spring but still managed to post a .353 batting average and led the team with a .478 on-base percentage. Behind the plate, Brodey Williams is back after starting 32 games a year ago and hitting .282."
- "Among the newcomers who will help the offense plug along will be first baseman Aidan Kuni, a lefthanded bat from Hawaii who has the athleticism to play any position in the infield. Lenny Ashby is an interesting story. The 5-foot-7, 210-pound fireplug graduated high school in Aruba in 2018 and started his career at Odessa College in 2020 and 2021 before playing for UNM in 2022 and 2023, hitting .342 and .381 in those two seasons, respectively and earning All-Mountain West honors both years ... Finally, junior college transfer Anthony Diaz will take over in right field and is a 'Gold Glove-type of outfielder' according to the staff."
- Pitching-wise, the Lobos had a team ERA of 8.08 last season ... But the potential is there for marked improvement, as the staff sees this year's corps to be deeper and with more arms that can pound the strike zone ... The top three pitchers from the 2025 roster return in righthanded seniors Ty Cunningham (2-2, 5.91, 10 saves), who is slated to move from the closer's role into the Sunday starter spot, Luke Wiseman (4-0, 4.45, 1 save), who should come close to his 25 appearances of last season and Tommy White (2-0, 4.69, 1 save), who will be a key to the bullpen hopes again.
- The Friday and Saturday starter roles look like they'll be handled by sophomore righthander Christian Mogen (2-1, 8.18, 7 starts), who showed better flashes this past fall, including high spin rates on his offspeed offerings, which induced more swing-and-miss, and fellow righty Ryan Castillo (4-4, 8.65, 9 starts), who had the highest velocity on the staff this past fall at a blistering 98 mph ... The closer role looks to be held by incoming transfer righthander Talor Grubbs from East Carolina ... Although he still has yet to put it together at the Division I level, he showed flashes this fall with his low-90s fastball and effective offspeed stuff.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

- The Lobos' 51-game slate features 35 home matchups at Lobo Baseball Field – the most in a single season since the facility's opening – and a 30-game Mountain West schedule as the league expands to nine teams for the first time.
- Should the Lobos stand among the top six teams in the Mountain West standings upon the conclusion of that weekend, they'll earn a berth to the expanded MWC Baseball Championships May 20-23, hosted in Mesa, Ariz. for the second year in a row. The winner earns the conference's automatic berth into the NCAA Championships.

ESTABLISHED HITTING

UNM holds the nation's 2nd-ranked batting average since 2016, a .309 clip in the last 10 seasons. The Lobos were NCAA D1 batting champs in 2025 with a .337 team average.

2026 LOBOS ROSTER

UNM's 2026 roster includes 18 returning players with 18 newcomers – the Lobos return seven position players who appeared in at least 25 games in 2025 while losing seven. – Of the Lobos' newcomers, three are freshmen and 15 are transfers – nine transfers are from junior colleges and six from four-year institutions. – 29 players are upperclassmen – 18 seniors and 11 juniors – the most seniors Brown has had on a roster in his time at UNM.

PROGRAM-BUILDING RESUME

- In his first five seasons as head coach at North Dakota State, Brown's teams improved their winning percentage in each season, going from 15-30 (.333) in his first season in 2008 to 40-20 (.667) in 2012 and finishing each of the next nine seasons above .400. The Bison reached the Summit League tournament eight times in that span, advancing to NCAA Regionals in 2014 and 2021.
- Brown coached the Bison to 40-win seasons in 2012 and 2021.
- In Brown's first four years at UNM, the Lobos have improved similarly, winning more games and posting a higher win percentage in each of the last three seasons. They went 21-33 (.389) in 2022, 26-25 (.510) in 2023, 26-25 (.510) in 2024 and 30-23 (.566) in 2025.
- In 18 seasons as a Head Coach, Brown has finished the season above .400 15 times and above .500 nine times – the only three seasons in which he's finished below .400 were his first two years in Fargo (2008, 2009) and his first season in Albuquerque (2022).

2025 REVIEW / 2026 PREVIEW

The Lobos improved their overall record for the third year in a row in 2025 en route to their second Mountain West Tournament appearance in a row, going 30-23 and 17-13 in Mountain West play. UNM wrapped up the season ranked among the nation's most productive offensive teams, finishing as NCAA statistical champions in both batting average (.337) and doubles per game (2.79) while also ranking among the Top 20 in the nation in slugging (3rd, 0.574), scoring (8th, 9.2), OBP (13th, 0.425) and homers per game (16th, 1.75).

Heading into Head Coach Tod Brown's fifth year at the helm, the Lobos return three players that batted above .300 last season in starting roles and a total of nine upperclassmen pitching returners – eight of which with eight or more appearances last season – that combined for 217 innings of work. Grand Canyon joined the Mountain West for the 2025-26 academic year, expanding the league to nine baseball-playing teams for the first time in conference history. Next year's Mountain West will also field nine teams despite realignment changes, with departing Fresno State, San Diego State and Washington State replaced by newcomers Hawaii, UC Davis and Utah Tech (affiliate).

LOBO BASEBALL FIELD · ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

Lobo Baseball Field has become one of the toughest places for opponents to play in college baseball as The University of New Mexico baseball team is 216-122-2 (.642) through the 2025 season since returning to its former location on March 24, 2013 after nine seasons at Isotopes Park.

For decades the home of UNM baseball was known as Lobo Field, but thanks to a 10-year, $1 million naming rights gift from Tamaya Enterprises, Lobo Field was rechristened Santa Ana Star Field on Dec. 11, 2015. The field is now known as Lobo Baseball Field again beginning with the 2026 season.

That was the second major announcement regarding the facility in a three-week span in 2015 as on Nov. 20, the UNM Board of Regents approved construction for the $2.3 million R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard Clubhouse.

“This has been a long process, but I want to thank the Hubbards, Scott Grady and his family, our administration, Vice President for Athletics Paul Krebs, and everyone on main campus that helped this project,” UNM head coach Ray Birmingham said. “I could go on for hours thanking people because so many have helped make this possible.”

Lobo Baseball Field received a major upgrade that started before the 2013 season. It received a FieldTurf playing surface, upgraded scoreboard, dugouts, bullpens, and bleachers as a part of the first phase of the Lobo Baseball Field renovation. Further renovations and phases will enhance the concessions areas, the fan plaza between Lobo Baseball Field and the softball field, the press box and the bleachers. Lights were installed in the fall of 2013.

“We have lights because of (former Lobo) Dee Dennis and a bunch of guys who chipped in to help me and Dee do this,” Birmingham said. “This is Lobo Field. This is

(the state of) New Mexico’s baseball field, at least that’s how I feel about it. ... There will not only be Lobo games on here, but there will also be state championship games here. We hope to bring in some great big tournaments over the years to this city and let our kids experience the world. We think New Mexico kids can get the rest of the experiences that the rest of the country has, then they will grow faster and realize they’re as good as anybody.”

While now-ABCA Hall of Famer Rich Alday was UNM’s head coach, his son Ambrose passed away at age 16 in 1995 from can-their best winning percentage in a full season since 2017 (.510), finishing fifth in the Mountain West standings (26-25, 13-17 MW) and leading the league in a variety of categories including team batting average (.328), runs (441), RBI (411), triples (24), home runs (87), slugging % (.559) and on-base % (.406). UNM also improved from a 9.06 ERA as a team in Brown's first season to a 5.95 ERA — the program's lowest in a single season since 2016 — while averaging only 3.20 walks per nine innings, its fewest since 2014. Following the completion of that season, RHP Isaac Gallegos became the first UNM player coached by Brown to be selected in the MLB Draft, going in the 16th Round to the Atlanta Braves.

Tod Brown was named the 12th Lobo Baseball Head Coach on June 17, 2021. In his first four seasons at the helm at UNM, the Lobos have improved in overall wins and win percentage in each of the last three seasons and made back-to-back trips to the Mountain West Tournament for the first time since 2017.

2025

In 2025, the Lobos maintained the momentum from a big step forward the previous season, cracking 30 wins for the first time since 2017 for their third year in a row with an improvement in total wins and win percentage (.566). They also qualified for the MW Tournament again, securing back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 2017. The last time UNM increased its winning percentage over three consecutive seasons was 2012-2014.

The Lobos finished third in the MW standings with six All-MW first and second team selections — the most since 2013. They ranked among the best offensive teams in the nation, matching a program record with 93 home runs and ranking No. 1 in the nation (NCAAD-I) upon the conclusion of the regular season in:

- Team Batting Average (.339)
- Total Doubles (148)
- Doubles Per Game (2.85)

UNM also ranked among the Top 20 in the nation in:

- Batting Average (2nd, 0.337)
- Home Runs Per Game (16th, 1.75)
- Doubles Per Game (1st, 2.79)
- Slugging Percentage (3rd, 0.574)
- On Base Percentage (14th, 0.425)
- Scoring (7th, 9.2)

The Lobos led the league in batting average and on-base percentage for a third season in a row — something UNM had only done once prior from 2012-2014.

Along with the single-season record in homers, UNM's 2025 offense ranked among the Top 10 single-season statistical performances in program history in RBI (#6), OBP (#6), Slugging (#2), Total Bases (#6) and Doubles (#9).

UNM wrapped up the season with the most home wins (19) since 2017 and best home win % (19-8, .704) in a season with 15 or more home games since 2016.

2024

At the conclusion of the 2024 regular season, UNM ranked No. 8 in the nation in batting average (.319), No. 15 in the nation in double plays (51) and No. 17 in doubles per game (2.24). The Lobos led the MW in nearly every offensive category that season, with a slugging percentage of .515 that tied for the 10th-best in program history (No. 35 in the nation) and an on-base percentage of .421 that was also 10th-best in program history and No. 15 in the nation.

Jake Holland was named MW Co-Player of the Year and ABCA All-Region Second Team following the season, with four Lobos making the All-MW team (most since 2017) and UNM taking home eight MW weekly awards (most since 2013).

After finishing just a game out of first place in the Mountain West standings, the Lobos returned to the Mountain West Tournament for the first time since 2017, with their season ending in San Diego, Calif. after falling to San Jose State and eventual tournament champion Fresno State. In total, they won 28 games, making it back-to-back years over .500.

2023

In Brown's second season at the helm, the Lobos posted

The 2023 Lobos ranked in the Top 10 in the country in a variety of team statistical categories:

- No. 3 in Batting Average (.329)
- No. 9 in Double Plays per Game (0.94)
- No. 5 in Doubles Per Game (2.45)
- No. 10 in Runs per Game (8.60)
- No. 4 in Slugging Percentage (.560)
- No. 5 in Triples (24) and Triples per Game (0.47)
- No. 10 in Walks Allowed per Nine Innings (3.20)

Following the 2023 season, the Lobos also got three All-MW selections — first baseman Reed Spenrath was a first-team selection, while third baseman Dylan Ditzenberger and left fielder Lenny Junior Ashby were second-team selections. Ditzenberger went on to be named a CSC Academic All-American for his efforts on the field and in the classroom. Both UNM teams that Brown has coached (2022, 2023) have earned the ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award for their academic accomplishments.

2022

In the 2022 season — Brown's first season in Albuquerque — UNM went 21-33 and finished sixth in the MW standings, with Lenny Junior Ashby and Jeffrey David named to the All-MW Second Team.

PRIOR TO UNM

Brown came to New Mexico after a successful 14 years and 341 wins with North Dakota State, where he currently sits as the second-winningest coach in program history and is the all-time leader in wins per season (24.4). In 2021, Brown led the Bison to the 2021 NCAA Tournament, winning its first Division I postseason game 6-1 over Mountain West opponent Nevada. In the same season, NDSU broke a school record with 20 Summit League victories, besting the previous record of 19 set by his 2017 team, and posted an overall record of 42-19. The Bison also led the nation with 25 road wins and set new school records in strikeouts (474) and putouts (1,567) in a single season.

Brown is no stranger to winning as he owns the two highest single season win totals in NDSU history (42 wins in 2021, 40 wins in 2012), and the only two 40+ win seasons by the program. Brown also owns three of the top-five single-season win totals in NDSU history. Under Brown's leadership, NDSU has played in five Summit League championship games, winning it outright in 2021 and 2014, and qualified for the league's baseball championship eight out of the last 11 years.

Brown took the helm of NDSU in 2008 and turned around a program that had faced three consecutive losing seasons, posting just 38 wins from 2005-07. In 2012, NDSU won a then-school-record 40 games, including an 8-2 win over a No. 5-ranked Arizona team that went on to win the 2012 College World Series. North Dakota State had a school-record .973 fielding percentage and posted a team ERA of 3.38, which was the program's lowest ERA in 37 years.

In 2016, the Bison posted a 29-25 overall record and set a new record for home wins at Newman Outdoor Field with 17 victories. In addition, North Dakota State set a new single season record in saves (17). NDSU defeated No. 19-ranked Minnesota on April 26 in Fargo, marking the second-ever win over an NCAA Division I top-25 opponent.

In the Summit League, Brown has coached two Summit League Players of the Year, one Summit League Newcomer of the Year, 46 All-Summit League selections, 22 Summit League Players of the Week, and 30 Summit League Pitchers of the Week. Under his leadership, Brown has also led players to two Collegiate Baseball Freshmen All-America selections and two College Baseball National Players of the Week.

During his tenure at NDSU, Brown has had three NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Winners, one Senior CLASS Award All-America, one CoSIDA Academic All-America Athlete of the Year, nine CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, 11 CoSIDA Academic All-District selections, one Summit League Scholar-Athlete of the Year, 16 Summit League Academic All-League selections, and was twice honored by NCAA with Public Recognition for perfect APR scores (2012-13 and 2015-16).

The Tucson, Ariz. native, was a left-handed pitcher for the Arizona Wildcats from 1990-94, leading the team in 1992 to a Pac-10 Championship. In 1993 he won six games and saved eight, setting a record with 35 appearances as Arizona fell one game short of the College World Series.

Brown then made a career out of coaching college ball in the northern tier of the country. He came to NDSU after eight seasons in Ohio as the pitching coach and recruting coordinator for Bowling Green State University.

During this time, he recruited or helped develop eight players who have reached the major leagues, including former UNM pitching standout Jamie Vermilyea, who played for the Lobos from 2001-03. This list also includes Jay Flaa, who made his MLB debut this year, J.J. Hardy and pitcher Tim Wood from Sabino High School, in Tucson, Ariz., outfielder Shelley Duncan and pitchers Josh Pearce and Ben Diggins at the University of Arizona, and pitcher Burke Badenhop and outfielder Nolan Reimold from Bowling Green.

After two years as the pitching coach at Sabino High School in Tucson, Ariz., Brown began his collegiate coaching career in 1999 as a volunteer assistant for Arizona. He worked with pitchers and catchers and was the first-base coach for the Wildcats, who qualified for an NCAA regional.

Tod and his wife Janet have a son, Brooks, and a daughter, Blake.

MICHAEL LOPEZ

ASSOCIATE H.C. / PITCHING COACH

Michael Lopez joined the Lobos in the 2021-22 season as a pitching coach, earning a promotion to Associate Head Coach in July of 2025. Lopez joined the Lobo squad after spending two seasons as Head Coach of Howard College in Spring, Texas, bolstering a 48-19 overall record.

In 2025, Lopez' pitching staff struck out 394 batters in total for the second year in a row — the seventh-most in a single season in program history and most since 2019 — while racking up 15 saves, the third-most in program history and most since 2016. LHP Daxton Purser was named to the All-MW Second Team, becoming the first Lobo pitcher to earn all-league honors since Justin Armbruester in 2021.

In Lopez' third year in 2024, UNM's staff struck out 394 batters and collected 10 saves, also the most since 2019. They finished the season with the most wins (28) since 2017 with a No. 2 seed in the MW Tournament, finishing one game away from a regular season championship.

In the second season with Lopez coordinating UNM's pitching, the team's ERA improved from 9.06 to 5.95 — UNM's lowest since 2016. UNM pitchers under Lopez also posted their lowest WHIP (1.59) since 2015 and fewest walks per nine innings (3.20) since 2014 in the process, with RHP Isaac Gallegos selected in the 2023 MLB Draft following the season's completion.

Under Lopez, two Howard Hawks were named to the 2021 All-Region V Baseball Team, including pitcher Kris Anglin, who led the league in strikeouts (103). Howard's Ethan Coombes was second in the league in strikeouts, retiring 82 throughout the season. Prior to becoming the head coach of the Hawks, Lopez spent three years as an assistant coach under previous head coach, Rob Martinez.

During his time at Howard College, Lopez worked primarily with the pitchers and served as the recruiting coordinator. He has had over 40 players sign with Division I schools during his tenure, three players sign contracts with professional teams, and three players selected as NJCAA All-Americans.

Lopez originally came to Howard College after a one-year stint with a brand-new NAIA program, Marymount California University (MCU). During his one year at MCU, Lopez was named the associate head coach and helped with day-to-day recruiting.

In the first year of the program, Lopez helped the Mariners win the CAL PAC Conference Championship and reach the 2016 West Grouping Championship. Lopez had three players selected to the 2016 All-California Pacific Conference Team while also coaching the CAL PAC conference player of the year and the CAL PAC Freshman of the year.

Prior to coaching at Marymount California University, Lopez was the volunteer assistant coach for two seasons at the University of Arizona under head coach Andy Lopez. Lopez assisted with the pitchers during practices and helped run the bullpen during games. Off the field, his job consisted of preparing scouting reports on opposing teams, directing the Andy Lopez Baseball Camp, and assisting with recruiting.

Lopez's collegiate career in baseball includes four years (2009-2012) at the University of Arizona. Lopez was named captain of the 2012 team, which won the NCAA National Championship in Omaha, Nebraska. Lopez graduated from The University of Arizona in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in family studies.

MATT RISDON

ASSISTANT COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Matt Risdon joined the Lobo Family in 2022 as a volunteer assistant coach, and he currently serves recruiting coordinator and assistant coach. Risdon was previously at Lenoir-Rhyne University for three seasons. Risdon was a Division I catcher at Western Illinois for two seasons and served on the coaching staff for the Fighting Leathernecks from August 2015-July 2019. At UNM, he has been primarily responsible for coaching fielders and hitters. In 2023, Risdon-coached hitters posted UNM's highest team batting average since 2013 (.328) — good for best in the conference and No. 3 in NCAA D-I — while leading the MWC in OPS, hits, runs, triples, RBI and home runs.

The Lobos' .974 fielding percentage in 2022 was the second-best in program history and best in the MWC, and their 48 double plays turned was the most in the conference.

The Lobos put up similar numbers in 2024 en route to their best MW finish (2nd) and first MW Tournament berth since 2017 — at the end of the season, UNM ranked No. 7 in NCAA D-I in Batting Average (.319) and No. 13 in On Base Percentage (.421) as well as No. 17 in Doubles Per Game (2.24), No. 31 in Slugging Percentage (.515), No. 25 in Scoring (8.4), leading the MW in nearly every offensive category. The Lobos posted a .968 fielding percentage while ranking No. 15 in the nation in Double Plays Per Game (0.94).

In 2022, Risdon helped Lenoir-Rhyne University to the best season in program history with a 46-13 overall record and a record 25 wins at home. The Bears would post a 19-game winning streak, the longest in program history, and were ranked as high as No. 11 in the nation. The Bears would capture just the third SAC Tournament title in program history and advanced to just the second NCAA Tournament appearance in team history. Risdon was the catching coach and assisted with hitting and recruiting. In 2022 the Bears broke multiple offensive records such as: home runs, runs, RBIs, walks, HBPs, hits, as well as many other team records. The Bears season was capped off with their senior catcher, Nick Clarno, signing with the Atlanta Braves.

Risdon began his coaching career as the Director of Baseball Operations with WIU in August 2015 and served in that role for one season before being named the program's graduate assistant. After finishing his Master in Sports Management in May 2017, Risdon earned the title of assistant coach and recruiting coordinator prior to the 2018 campaign. Risdon was primarily responsible for catchers and assisted with hitting and infielders while also serving as the third base coach. Risdon helped with defensive positioning and discussed hitting approach with players during game review. Risdon also helped with administrative duties such as: travel, team meals, fundraising, scouting, and monitoring student-athlete academic eligibility.

Risdon played in 40 career games for Western Illinois. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2015.

JUSTIN MITCHELL

ASSISTANT COACH: HITTING

Justin Mitchell joined the Lobo Family in August of 2023 and he serves as assistant coach. He coaches UNM's catchers as well as hitting for head coach Tod Brown.

In Mitchell's two years as the Lobos' hitting coach, UNM has led the league in batting average in both seasons and ranked among the nation's most productive offenses, matching a program record with 93 HR while posting the second-best slugging percentage (.574) and sixth-best OB% (.425) in school history.

In Mitchell's second season as the Lobos' hitting coach, UNM ranked among the best offensive teams in the nation, matching a program record with 93 home runs and ranking No. 1 in the nation (NCAA D-I) upon the conclusion of the regular season in:

- Team Batting Average (.337)
- Total Doubles (148)
- Doubles Per Game (2.85)

UNM also ranked among the Top 20 in the nation in:

- Doubles Per Game (1st, 2.79)
- Slugging Percentage (3rd, 0.574)

- On Base Percentage (14th, 0.425)
- Scoring (7th, 9.2)

The Lobos led the league in batting average and on-base percentage for a third season in a row – something UNM had only done once prior from 2012-2014.

Along with the single-season record in homers, UNM's 2025 offense ranked among the Top 10 single-season statistical performances in program history in RBI (#6), OBP (#6), Slugging (#2), Total Bases (#6) and Doubles (#9).

In his first season as UNM's hitting coach, the Lobos wrapped up the regular season as the MW's statistical leaders in batting average (.323), slugging % (.521) and on-base % (.426) as well as runs (448), hits (588), RBI (415), total bases (947) and walks (285). They ranked No. 8 in the nation in average at the conclusion of the season.

Mitchell spent the 2023 season as a graduate assistant coach at K-State under Pete Hughes. The 2023 Wildcats went 35-24 and advanced to the semifinals of the Big 12 Championship. His G.A. stint came after he played one season at K-State, hitting .308 with five homers and 22 RBIs over 52 games, playing catcher as a grad transfer. Mitchell played four seasons at Oklahoma, where he graduated. Over his time he played in 116 games, hitting .261 with two homers and 38 RBIs. He recorded 991 career putouts as a catcher.

He graduated from Oklahoma in 2022.
