Home Matches in Bold

New Mexico Volleyball opens a new era with the beginning of the 2026 season – the Lobos' first under new Head Coach Brian Hosfeld and their first time playing at The Pit - Powered by Nusenda since 1999 – when they take on Northern Arizona in an exhibition on Aug. 21.

With nine returners from last season, the Lobos look to get back to the MW Tournament for the first time since 2023 in a new-look conference that welcomes UTEP, Hawai'i and UC Davis. They'll also face a challenging nonconference slate that features four power-conference teams – their first time playing multiple power-conference foes since 2019.

Among those returners, eight started multiple matches last season:

- The Lobos are locked in at the libero spot with 2025 All-MW Honorable Mention selection Camila Canedo, who picked up the seventh-most digs in a single season in program history last year (485) while serving up 23 aces and dishing 109 assists.
- Setter Madeleine Miller also returns for her fourth season in ABQ – the Iowa native has dished out over 2,005 assists in her first three seasons (7.04/set), the last two as the primary six-rotation starting setter.
- Addison France, UNM's team leader in kills (282) and points (319.5) and a two-time MW Freshman of the Week in 2025 returns and will move to playing as an opposite after spending some time at setter in her first collegiate season.

• Third-year middle blockers Reagan Miller (122 kills, 87 total blocks, .315 hitting) and Zoe Leonard (147 kills, 91 total blocks) both look to hold things down at the net after taking significant steps forward in their first seasons as everyday starters in 2025.

• Seenane Brewer (117 kills, 116 digs, 11 aces) and Uliana Yastrub (62 kills, 67 digs, 15 aces) are poised for bigger roles on the outside after getting more opportunities in their sophomore seasons.

• Norwegian middle Liepa Lavickyte (85 career kills, 125 career blocks) returns from an injury-shortened 2025 season after leading the Lobos at the net in 2024.

UNM also welcomes seven newcomers to round out the roster, with six of them playing their first collegiate seasons:

- MB Campbell Hollister (Gilbert, Ariz.)
- DS/L Ella Joesting (Prior Lake, Minn.)
- OH Aylin Ravell (Bedford, Texas)
- OH Viena Moliis (Helsinki, Finland)
- S Angela Zhang (Beijing, China)
- OPP Adriana Kostadinovic (Lajkovac, Serbia)
- OH Mina Stanojevic (Mitrovica, Serbia)

AN ICONIC RETURN

The 2026 season will mark the first time Lobo Volleyball plays at the iconic Pit since 1996, when they averaged 1,026 people per game from 1996-1999.

The building ushered in a new era on February 26, 2026, when The University of New Mexico, UNM Sports Properties, and Nusenda Credit Union announced an historic 10-year partnership that provides an average annual value of $1.74 million in support of UNM Athletics. As part of the agreement, University Arena – The Pit officially was renamed The Pit - Powered by Nusenda, preserving the iconic identity of one of college basketball's most storied venues while recognizing Nusenda's longstanding investment in the University and the state.

A LOOK AT THE 2026 SCHEDULE

With a new-look league and a new format for conference matchups, this year's schedule promises to be a significant departure from previous slates.

All in all, UNM is set to play four power-conference opponents in the non-conference leading into Mountain West play, where the Lobos will face the same league opponent twice each week for the first time since 2020.

The Lobos officially open the regular season at home on Friday, Aug. 28, hosting California Baptist. New Mexico will then face Tulsa in Las Cruces on Sunday, Aug. 30 before heading to the Colorado Tournament for a Sept. 4 matchup with Northern Colorado and a Sept. 5 meeting at Colorado.

UNM returns home to face in-state rival New Mexico State on Monday, Sept. 7, then travels to Lincoln, Neb., for one of the toughest stretches of its nonconference schedule. The Lobos will face Nebraska on Thursday, Sept. 10 before taking on Georgia Tech on Friday, Sept. 11 and Baylor on Saturday, Sept. 12 as part of the Nebraska Tournament.

New Mexico closes nonconference play in California, facing Saint Mary's on Thursday, Sept. 17 before taking on Fresno State on Friday, Sept. 18 in Moraga.

The Lobos' Mountain West slate begins the following week with back-to-back road matches at Hawaii on Sept. 25 and 26 — the first meetings between the programs as Mountain West opponents.

UNM opens its conference home schedule against Nevada on Oct. 2 and 4, followed by road matches at UC Davis on Oct. 8 and 10. The Lobos then split a week with travel partner UTEP, playing in El Paso on Oct. 15 before hosting the Miners on Oct. 17.

New Mexico will host four straight matches from Oct. 23-31, welcoming San Jose State for Alumni Weekend on Oct. 23 and 25 before hosting Grand Canyon on Oct. 29 and 31. The Lobos then head on the road for back-to-back series at Air Force on Nov. 5 and 7 and UNLV on Nov. 12 and 14. The regular season closes at home against Wyoming on Nov. 18 and 19, with the finale serving as Senior Day.

HOSFELD AT THE HELM

In his first head coaching job since he transformed Baylor into an NCAA Tournament team from 1996-2004, Brian Hosfeld brings more than three decades of success across the collegiate, international and club levels to the Land of Enchantment. Most recently, he helped Wichita State compile an 81-46 record over four seasons as the Shockers' associate head coach, highlighted by an AAC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024. Hosfeld previously became Baylor's winningest head coach with 129 victories, leading the Bears to their first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history. His championship pedigree also includes a 1993 national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and three consecutive Big 12 championships as an assistant at Texas (2004-10). The Longhorns reached three straight NCAA Final Fours with Hosfeld on staff, including the 2009 national championship match, while posting a 186-33 record in that span. He also touts extensive USA Volleyball experience, including a silver medal at the World University Games.

MEET THE STAFF

Hosfeld has no shortage of experience on his first staff at UNM, with over 80 years of coaching and playing experience between Associate Head Coaches Jeremiah "Jeri" Estes and Patrick Sullivan and Assistant Coach Katie Keiper.

ESTES: Jeremiah Estes brings an extensive international background to Albuquerque after coaching championship programs across Europe, Asia and the United States. His career includes national titles in Switzerland, European Champions League success in Russia and an NCAA championship at Long Beach State, along with experience working with both the U.S. and Russian national teams. Estes has coached more than 40 Olympians and most recently helped Southern reach its first conference championship match in more than 25 years.

SULLIVAN: Patrick Sullivan brings experience from coaching stops at Bradley, Northern Iowa, Long Beach State and Golden West College, contributing in recruiting, scouting, player development and program operations. At Bradley, he helped the Braves' middle blockers make notable gains in offensive efficiency and blocking production within the Missouri Valley Conference, while his time at Golden West included a state championship as co-head coach. Sullivan also founded and directed Stealth Volleyball, where he developed and placed athletes across multiple NCAA levels, and has worked as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer.

KEIPER: Katie Keiper joins the Lobos after building more than 15 years of experience as a player and coach across the high school, club, collegiate and international levels. Most recently, she coached U17 and U18 teams with Great Plains Volleyball Club and led Eisenhower High School, earning Oklahoma Coaches Association Region 4 Coach of the Year honors in 2024. Her previous coaching stops include T3 VBC, 208 VBC, Gonzaga Preparatory School and College Prep Academy Volleyball Club. Keiper also brings an international edge after competing with the Lakenheath U.S. Air Force Women's Team in England, coaching the All-Air Force European Women's Team to gold and playing professionally on the UK Pro Beach Tour and with VLA Team Sakura.

2026 COACHING STAFF

BRIAN HOSFELD HEAD COACH

Brian Hosfeld became the 11th head volleyball coach at the University of New Mexico on Dec. 21, 2025.

Hosfeld arrives in Albuquerque after a four-year stint as Associate Head Coach at Wichita State with over three decades of coaching experience under his belt. During Hosfeld's tenure in Wichita, the Shockers accumulated an 81-46 (.638) record, winning an AAC Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2024. He also departed Baylor as the winningest head coach in school history in addition to winning a national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and reaching the Final Four three times as an assistant at Texas.

"I'm honored and excited to represent the University of New Mexico as the next head coach of women's volleyball," Hosfeld said. "The opportunity to build alongside our student-athletes—developing them on and off the court—is what excites me most.

"UNM is a special place with good history, and I can't wait to begin this journey with the Lobo family."

Hosfeld began his coaching career at Long Beach State in 1993, winning the national championship in his first season with the 49ers – that season, the 49ers went 32-2, only dropping two sets in their entire NCAA Tournament run.

After three seasons at Long Beach, he was chosen to lead the Baylor program in 1996, departing eight years later as the winningest coach in program history with 129 victories to his name. Under Hosfeld's leadership, Baylor reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history in 1999, going on to qualify again in 2001.

Following his tenure in Waco, Hosfeld joined the staff at Texas in 2004, working primarily with the Longhorns defense and middle blockers. He helped formulate one of the most productive defensive units in the nation, with the Longhorns winning three consecutive Big 12 titles and reaching the Final Four in 2008, 2009 and 2010 – UT advanced to the national championship match in 2009. With Hosfeld on staff, Texas posted an overall record of 186-33, winning at an .849 clip.

Hosfeld has also coached at the international level, leading the 2005 USA Volleyball A2 junior national team and USA Volleyball to a silver medal at the 1997 World University Games in Sicily, Italy. Prior to his work with that team, Hosfeld served as USA Volleyball's director of the World University and National Team tryouts at the Olympic Training Center.

Hosfeld's most recent collegiate coaching experience before heading to Wichita came as an interim assistant coach at Utah, where he spent the 2011 season before transitioning full-time to club volleyball. He helped found nationally-recognized Magnum Volleyball in 1986 and worked with Austin Juniors, Club Red, Arizona East Valley, Spiral and Catalyst before taking over as director of T3 in Coeur d'Alene, where he spent the previous decade before making his return to collegiate volleyball in 2022.

JEREMIAH "JERI" ESTES

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jeremiah (Jeri) Estes joined the Lobo Volleyball Coaching Staff in February of 2026.

Internationally, Estes is widely regarded as one of the most accomplished coaches in the sport, having helped lead championship programs in three different countries. His global résumé includes two Swiss League national championships as head coach at Volero Zurich (2005, 2006), an NCAA National Championship at Long Beach State as part of the first undefeated title team in NCAA history, and multiple European Champions League titles during his tenure with Uralochka in Russia—one of the most successful professional volleyball clubs in the world.

Estes has also coached or advised USA Volleyball's National and Olympic Teams, Russia's National and Olympic Teams, and numerous professional clubs across Europe and Asia, with international accolades that include a Gold Medal with the USA Men's National Team at the 2023 Pan American Games, a silver medal at the Athens Olympic Games with Russia, and multiple FIVB World Grand Prix gold medals.

Estes' footprint extends to the international club volleyball scene as well – he has served as head coach for Volero Zurich (Switzerland), Azeryol Baku (Azerbaijan), Dinamo Moscow (Russia) and Tianjin (China) among others. While at Volero Zurich, he led the club to back-to-back Swiss League championships, Swiss Cup titles, and a remarkable 74-match winning streak. Over the course of his career, Estes has coached and trained more than 40 Olympians worldwide.

Estes arrives in Albuquerque following a highly successful stint as Associate Head Coach at Southern University, where he helped guide the program to its most successful season in more than a decade. Under his leadership, Southern advanced to its first conference championship final in over 25 years and produced two All-SWAC selections for the first time since 2016.

At the NCAA Division I level, Estes has served in prominent roles at Long Beach State, UC Santa Barbara, and East Carolina, including being part of Long Beach State's historic undefeated NCAA National Championship season, the first in NCAA history. During his tenure at Long Beach State, the program recorded two Final Four appearances, five NCAA Tournament berths, three conference championships, and four top-10 national finishes.

In addition to his collegiate and international accomplishments, Estes has made a significant impact at the grassroots level as founder and owner of The Volleyball Factory and co-founder of Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Estes attended Mid-Pacific Institute, where he was a letterman in volleyball and basketball. He received his bachelor's degree from Long Beach State University, where he was a member of the Men's Volleyball team and competed for the Track & Field squad in the decathlon and the 400 meters. He and his wife Evgeniya (Artamonova) Estes – the only six-time indoor women's volleyball Olympian in the world for the Russian women's Olympic team – have three children, Jette, Jeyvin and Jerren.

PATRICK SULLIVAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Patrick Sullivan joined the program as Associate Head Coach in March of 2026.

Sullivan's coaching background includes but is not limited to experience at the NCAA Division I level with Bradley University and the University of Northern Iowa, as well as Long Beach State and Golden West College. Across these roles, he has contributed to conference success, postseason appearances, and a state championship as a Co-Head Coach, while supporting all aspects of program operations, including recruiting, scouting, player development, and academic achievement. At Bradley, Coach Sullivan played a key role in developing the team's middle blockers, contributing to significant improvements in offensive efficiency and blocking performance within the Missouri Valley Conference.

In addition to collegiate coaching, Coach Sullivan has extensive experience in club and developmental volleyball. As the founder and director of Stealth Volleyball, he established and led a competitive club program that successfully placed athletes at the collegiate level across NCAA divisions. Coach Sullivan has also served as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer, working with athletes ranging from youth to Division I prospects, while providing guidance throughout the recruiting process.

A former NCAA National Champion at Long Beach State, Coach Sullivan competed at the highest level of collegiate volleyball and was part of multiple NCAA Championship finalist teams. His playing experience also includes national-level competition, highlighted by multiple USA Volleyball Open National Championships with Team ASICS/Paul Mitchell. In recognition of these accomplishments, Coach Sullivan was inducted into the Madera Sports Hall of Fame (Second Class) and is a member of Long Beach State's Volleyball Wall of Fame and Hall of Fame as part of an NCAA Championship team.

Coach Sullivan has remained actively engaged in the volleyball community through media and outreach efforts, including serving as the creator and host of the "Set The Pipe!!" podcast and contributing as a color commentator for collegiate broadcasts.

KATIE KEIPER

ASSISTANT COACH / DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Katie Keiper joined the Lobo family in January of 2026.

Keiper joins New Mexico following a successful coaching career at the high school and club levels, most recently serving as a head coach for Great Plains Volleyball Club, working with U17 and U18 teams since December 2023. She also served as head coach at Eisenhower High School (Lawton, Okla.) from 2024 through 2025, earning 2024 Oklahoma Coaches Association Region 4 Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to her time in Oklahoma, Keiper coached extensively in the Pacific Northwest, including stints with T3 VBC and 208 VBC, where she served as a head coach for U14 and U15 teams and an assistant coach at the U15 and U16 levels. She also coached at Gonzaga Preparatory School and College Prep Academy Volleyball Club while contributing to the sport as a regional referee for the Evergreen Region Volleyball Association.

Keiper's resume includes a unique blend of collegiate, international, and professional experience – she spent time at Northern Arizona University before transferring to the University of Colorado Colorado Springs, where she completed her collegiate playing career. In total, Keiper has over 15 years of experience as both a player and a coach.

Internationally, Keiper competed from 2017–2020 with the Lakenheath U.S. Air Force Women's Team based out of England, earning three first-place finishes across competitions in Germany and England. Additionally serving as coach of the All-Air Force European Women's Team, Keiper took home gold at the Aircom Tournament in 2020.

She also played on the UK Pro Beach Tour from 2017–19, recording two first-place finishes in coed and women's doubles competition. Prior to joining Hosfeld's staff in Albuquerque, Keiper also played with VLA Team Sakura based out of Oklahoma City.

A graduate of UCCS, Keiper holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration.

LOBO ALL-AMERICANS

KAREN SAAVEDRA-WARNOCK • SETTER • 1985-88 • ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

Saavedra-Warnock was UNM volleyball's first All-American, being named second team All-America following a record-setting senior season in 1988. She still holds a number of program records including single-season assists (1,352) and single-match assists (82).

JADE MICHAELSEN • SETTER • 2007-10 • TUCSON, ARIZ.

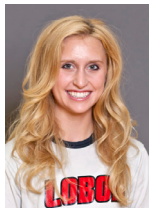

Michaelsen was an honorable mention All-America honoree her senior season (2010). She firmly planted herself into New Mexico's history books as the all-time career assists leader with 4,174 over four seasons. The former Lobo great also ranks fourth and seventh for single-season assists, recording 1,159 in 2009 and 1,087 as a senior.

MARIA GURRERI • OUTSIDE HITTER • 1987-90 • AMHERST, N.Y.

An atypical player and one of the Lobos' most explosive hitters, Gurreri completed an incredible career, capped with second team All-America honors her senior year in 1990. She ranks second in program history for career kills (1,473), career attempts (3,426) and career points (1,604.0).

LISA MEETER • OUTSIDE HITTER • 2007-10 • COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.

Meeter goes down as one of the most well-rounded players in UNM history. A four-year starter, she culminated her career with honorable mention All-America honors (2010). Meeter was the 2007 Mountain West Freshman of the Year and ranks in the top 10 of several career record categories including kills, attempts, digs, service aces and points.

PAULINE MANSER • SETTER/OH • 1988-91 • PERTH, AUSTRALIA

As New Mexico's only two-time first-team All-American (1991 and 1992), Manser is arguably the Lobos' most distinguished player. Her name is all over UNM history books including ranking first in career hitting efficiency (.372), third in points (1,502.5), fourth in career kills (1,229) and tied eighth for total blocks (299).

ALLISON BUCK • LIBERO • 2008-11 • CAMAS, WASH.

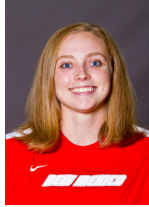

Buck had an exceptional senior season in which she broke New Mexico's single-season record for digs, with 561 and the program record for career digs, finishing with 1,630. An honorable mention All-American, Buck twice tied the program record for single-match digs as a senior, recording 36 vs. Delaware (Sept. 17), and Wyoming (Nov. 10). She was the Mountain West's Designated Libero in 2010 and 2011.

SHARON BROWNING • SETTER • 1989-92 • BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA

Browning dominated on defense and was a force to be reckoned with on offense. An all-around player, she is one of UNM's most decorated athletes. Browning earned second team All-America honors as a senior in 1992. She still ranks third in career history for digs (1,504) and fourth for assists (3,214).

ASHLEY RHOADES • MIDDLE BLOCKER • 2008-11 • RIO RANCHO, N.M.

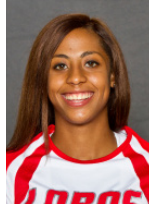

Rhoades was an All-America honorable mention and earned Mountain West All-Conference honors as a senior. A mobile, athletic and explosive player, she led UNM with 408 kills and led the MW in points/set (4.52) and kills/set (3.89). Rhoades also ranked 52nd and 61st in the nation in those categories. She's fourth in career block assists (259) and total blocks (329), and eighth in hitting efficiency (.277).

JEANNIE FAIRCHILD • OUTSIDE HITTER • 2006-08 • ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.

Fairchild was a third-team All-American her senior season in addition to being named the 2008 Mountain West Co-Player of the Year. She ranks fourth in career history for kills (1,238) and holds spots No. 4 and 6 for single-season kills (477 in 2007 and 471 in 2008). Fairchild also earned first team Academic All-Region honors in 2008.

CHANTALE RIDDLE • RS HITTER • 2011-2014 • ROSWELL, N.M.

Riddle became UNM's first three-time All-America selection, earning honorable mention her senior season after breaking many records in the UNM record book and the Mountain West record book. Riddle leaves UNM holding the career kill record (1,623) and career points record (1,910). She also holds the Mountain West career kill record. Riddle earned third team All-America honors as a junior (2013) and honorable mention as a sophomore (2012), which goes down as the youngest Lobo volleyball player to earn those accolades. She set UNM's single-season record for points (599.0) in 2013 and ranks second for kills (515).

TAYLOR HADFIELD • OUTSIDE HITTER • 2007-10 • CORTE MADERA, CALIF.

Hadfield was an honorable mention All-American and a Mountain West All-Conference honoree as a junior in 2009. She led UNM in kills (292) that year. She was also named All-District and All-MW in 2010.

THE PIT - POWERED BY NUSENDA

The 2026 season will mark the first time Lobo Volleyball plays at the iconic Pit since 1996, when they averaged 1,026 people per game from 1996-1999.

The building ushered in a new era on February 26, 2026, when The University of New Mexico, UNM Sports Properties, and Nusenda Credit Union announced an historic 10-year partnership that provides an average annual value of $1.74 million in support of UNM Athletics. As part of the agreement, University Arena - The Pit officially was renamed The Pit - Powered by Nusenda, preserving the iconic identity of one of college basketball's most storied venues while recognizing Nusenda's longstanding investment in the University and the state.

UNM hosted the NCAA MBB Championship in 1983, won by North Carolina State over Houston; the 1968, '78, '92 and 2000 West Regional; the 1985 and 1996 West Region First and Second Rounds; and the 1988 McDonald's High School All-American basketball game. The NCAA Men's First and Second Rounds were here in 2002, followed by the Women's First and Second Rounds and the Midwest Regional in 2003. UNM hosted the women's first and second rounds in 2004, 2008, and 2011, followed by the men's Albuquerque Regional in 2005, the West Regional for the women's tournament in 2006, and the 2012 men's second and third rounds.

The Pit is built in a 37-foot hole on Albuquerque's southeast mesa. First the roof was constructed, then the hole was dug, and the arena was built. That all happened in 1966. Contractors set up the unique Behlen roof (338 by 300 feet), and then removed 55,000 cubic yards of earth. About 28,000 yards of concrete were poured during the initial construction, resulting in a seating capacity of 14,831. The cost was an incredibly economical $1.4 million.

Expansion was undertaken when it became apparent that fan interest was too great even for the original structure. The 1975 expansion cost nearly $2.2 million and involved extending a cantilevered deck above the existing facility. There were six rows in the deck, with a seating capacity of 2,300. Reserved standing-room-only spots increased The Pit's capacity to 18,018.

The Pit underwent a massive upgrade and expansion, completed in time for the 2010-11 season, including $60 million in improvements. Among the improvements were luxury suites and club-level seating, upgraded lower-bowl seating, two end-wall video boards, ribbon boards, a unique graphics package showcasing the history of Lobo basketball and UNM athletics, upgraded concessions areas, the new Lobo Den Store, and a remodeled concourse. The facility currently has a capacity of 15,411.

DIRECTIONS:

Johnson Center is located on the southern end of UNM's main campus, just off Central Avenue. Take the Central Avenue exit off of I-25 and head east on Central Avenue. Take a left on Yale and a right on to Redondo Road. Johnson Center will be on the left after the parking garage. There are two parking areas, the parking garage located in front of the Johnson Center and Lot A across the street (Redondo Road) from the Johnson Center.
