NEW MEXICO NOTES

Fresh off a pair of victories that extended the Lobos' home win streak to six matches, New Mexico Volleyball hosts Grand Canyon (11-10, 5-5 MW) at The Pit - Powered by Nusenda on Thursday (6:30 p.m.) and Saturday (1 p.m.)

New Mexico is tied for second place in the league standings heading into the sixth week of conference play after a pair of four-set victories over San Jose State last weekend. The Lobos will need to stay in the Top Four in the Mountain West over the next eight conference matches to earn their first trip to the conference tournament since 2023.

With seven wins in their last eight matches, the Lobos are one of just two teams still unbeaten at home in conference play along with Hawai'i (18-3, 10-0 MW).

Both matchups with the Lopes will be available to stream via MW+, with live stats for both matches available via GoLobos.com/VBStats. Follow @UNMLoboVB on IG, X and Facebook for match updates and coverage, promotional information, behind-the-scenes content and more.

ALL-TIME SERIES

New Mexico trails Grand Canyon 2-3 in the all-time series dating back to 1981. The teams split their first two meetings as Mountain West opponents last season, with each winning on its home court. After falling in straight sets in Phoenix on Oct. 11, the Lobos rebounded with a four-set victory in Albuquerque on Oct. 18 (21-25, 25-13, 25-17, 30-28), snapping a three-match skid against the Lopes. UNM won the inaugural meeting in 1981 before GCU claimed five-set victories at neutral sites in 2018 and 2019. The Lobos are 1-0 at home, 0-1 on the road and 1-2 at neutral sites against GCU.

THE TURNAROUND CONTINUES

UNM has followed a seven-match losing streak by winning seven of its last eight matches and extending its home winning streak to six. After sweeping two-match series against Nevada and UC Davis and splitting with UTEP, the Lobos added back-to-back four-set wins over San Jose State last weekend to improve to 7-3 in Mountain West play and 6-1 at home. UNM has won 21 of 31 sets during the turnaround after taking just one of 22 sets during the skid, putting the Lobos in contention for their first MW Tournament appearance since 2023.

UNM's hitting percentage has climbed from .129 during the losing streak to .258 over the last eight matches, with kills increasing from 9.95 to 13.52 per set and assists rising from 9.45 to 12.74. Defensively, UNM has held opponents to .191 hitting during the turnaround, down from .268, while reducing opponents' kills from 14.86 to 12.39 per set. The Lobos have outdug opponents 15.42–12.42 per set during the eight-match stretch after being outdug 16.64–13.14 during the skid.

REAGAN HEATING UP

Reagan Miller has taken on a larger offensive role for the Lobos in 2026, totaling 163 kills in 67 sets after finishing last season with 122. Her production has climbed from 1.36 to 2.43 kills per set — an increase of nearly 79 percent — while she has already surpassed last year's kill total by 41. Miller is hitting .320 across 19 starts and ranks third on the team in kills and points (196).

Miller delivered her eighth double-digit kill performance of the season in Sunday's four-set win over San Jose State, tying for the team lead with 14 kills on .417 hitting and adding three blocks. She has reached double figures while hitting at least .400 five times this season, highlighted by a career-high 15 kills without an error on 22 swings (.682) against Northern Colorado and another 15-kill performance on .650 hitting against New Mexico State.

Miller also leads UNM with 48 total blocks and 18 solo stops, averaging 0.72 blocks and 2.93 points per set. She established career highs with 31 attacks and five solo blocks against Fresno State on Sept. 18, finishing with 13 kills and six total blocks. Her contributions at the net have included seven blocks across the two road wins over UC Davis and five more during last weekend's sweep of San Jose State.

MADS KNOCKING ON THE DOOR OF HISTORY

Last weekend, Madeleine Miller moved into No. 9 in UNM history with 2,694 career assists, passing Sarah Kwasigroch (2,634, 2005–08) during the Lobos' series against San Jose State. Miller has 689 assists in 74 sets this season after producing a career-high 984 last year and 854 as a sophomore. She ranked among the Mountain West's top 10 in assists per set in each of those seasons.

Miller earned MW Offensive Player of the Week honors after totaling 102 assists across the two four-set victories over the Spartans, leading the conference at 12.75 assists per set for the week. She paired 47 assists with 10 digs in Friday's opener for her fifth double-double of the season before distributing a season-high 55 assists Sunday. Those performances were the league's two highest assist totals in four-set matches that week, with Sunday's total ranking second across matches of any length.

Miller has eight matches with at least 40 assists this season, including two with at least 50. She is averaging 9.31 assists per set overall and has increased that production to 10.61 during UNM's 7-1 stretch over its last eight matches. She has also contributed 141 digs, 69 kills on .298 hitting, 28 blocks and 18 service aces, ranking second on the team in aces.

With 306 more assists, Miller would become the eighth player in program history to reach 3,000. Reaching that milestone this season would require 995 assists, 11 more than her career-best season total.

the seventh-most in a single season in UNM history — Brazilian fifth-year libero Camila Canedo continues to anchor the Lobos' back row. An All-Mountain West honorable mention selection in 2025, she added 23 aces and 109 assists while leading the conference in total digs and digs per set (4.33).

Through 20 matches in 2026, Canedo leads the Lobos with 301 digs, averaging 4.07 per set. She has reached double figures in digs 16 times, including six matches with at least 20, highlighted by a season-high 27 at UC Davis on Oct. 8. She has recorded double-digit digs in seven consecutive matches.

Canedo earned MW Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time this season after collecting 45 digs across the two four-set victories over San Jose State, leading the conference in both total digs and digs per set (5.63) for the week. She finished with 21 digs Friday before adding 24 Sunday, the league's highest total in a four-set match that week. She also contributed seven assists as UNM outdug the Spartans 129-91 across the series.

Canedo has totaled 133 digs during the Lobos' 7-1 stretch over their last eight matches, averaging 4.29 per set. She has 68 assists and 17 service aces this season, ranking third on the team in aces at 0.23 per set. She has accumulated 786 digs in her two seasons at UNM, leaving her 214 shy of 1,000 as a Lobo.

ENERGY BUILDING AT THE PIT - POWERED BY NUSENDA

The 2026 season marks the first time the Lobos play at The Pit full-time since 1999. This fall, The Pit celebrates its 60th anniversary, with its first game played on Dec. 1, 1966.

2,544 fans were in attendance for UNM's home match vs. NMSU -- their highest-attended home match since 2016, when 4,473 fans were there for a matchup with Nebraska. Through two exhibitions and seven regular-season home matches, the Lobos are averaging 1,421 fans per match. UNM's total attendance through those nine matches (12,787) has already surpassed the entire 2025 season at the Johnson Center (8,711).

All four of the most-attended UNM Volleyball matches in program history took place at The Pit:

Opponent	Attendance	Date
1. Colorado State	7,008	10/31/92
2. Utah	6,152	10/20/90
3. TCU	5,114	10/5/96
4. Nebraska	4,473	9/10/16

The building ushered in a new era on February 26, 2026, when The University of New Mexico, UNM Sports Properties, and Nusenda Credit Union announced an historic 10-year partnership that provides an average annual value of $1.74 million in support of UNM Athletics. As part of the agreement, University Arena – The Pit officially was renamed The Pit - Powered by Nusenda, preserving the iconic identity of one of college basketball's most storied venues while recognizing Nusenda's longstanding investment in the University and the state.

A LOOK AT THE REMAINING SCHEDULE
After this weekend's matches, the Lobos hit the road for back-to-back series at Air Force on Nov. 5 and 7 and UNLV on Nov. 12 and 14.

The regular season closes at home against Wyoming on Nov. 18 and 19, with the finale serving as Senior Day.

HOSFELD AT THE HELM
In his first head coaching job since he transformed Baylor into an NCAA Tournament team from 1996-2004, Brian Hosfeld brings more than three decades of success across the collegiate, international and club levels to the Land of Enchantment. Most recently, he helped Wichita State compile an 81-46 record over four seasons as the Shockers' associate head coach, highlighted by an AAC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2024. Hosfeld previously became Baylor's winningest head coach with 129 victories, leading the Bears to their first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history. His championship pedigree also includes a 1993 national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and three consecutive Big 12 championships as an assistant at Texas (2004-10). The Longhorns reached three straight NCAA Final Fours with Hosfeld on staff, including the 2009 national championship match, while posting a 186-33 record in that span. He also touts extensive USA Volleyball experience, including a silver medal at the World University Games.

MEET THE STAFF
Hosfeld has no shortage of experience on his first staff at UNM, with over 80 years of coaching and playing experience between Associate Head Coaches Jeremiah "Jeri" Estes and Patrick Sullivan and Assistant Coach Katie Keiper.

ESTES: Jeremiah Estes brings an extensive international background to Albuquerque after coaching championship programs across Europe, Asia and the United States. His career includes national titles in Switzerland, European Champions League success in Russia and an NCAA championship at Long Beach State, along with experience working with both the U.S. and Russian national teams. Estes has coached more than 40 Olympians and most recently helped Southern reach its first conference championship match in more than 25 years.

SULLIVAN: Patrick Sullivan brings experience from coaching stops at Bradley, Northern Iowa, Long Beach State and Golden West College, contributing in recruiting, scouting, player development and program operations. At Bradley, he helped the Braves' middle blockers make notable gains in offensive efficiency and blocking production within the Missouri Valley Conference, while his time at Golden West included a state championship as co-head coach. Sullivan also founded and directed Stealth Volleyball, where he developed and placed athletes across multiple NCAA levels, and has worked as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer.

KEIPER: Katie Keiper joins the Lobos after building more than 15 years of experience as a player and coach across the high school, club, collegiate and international levels. Most recently, she coached U17 and U18 teams with Great Plains Volleyball Club and led Eisenhower High School, earning Oklahoma Coaches Association Region 4 Coach of the Year honors in 2024. Her previous coaching stops include T3 VBC, 208 VBC, Gonzaga Preparatory School and College Prep Academy Volleyball Club. Keiper also brings an international edge after competing with the Lakenheath U.S. Air Force Women's Team in England, coaching the All-Air Force European Women's Team to gold and playing professionally on the UK Pro Beach Tour and with VLA Team Sakura.

INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION
UNM's 16-player roster features seven different nationalities, with players hailing from the United States, Brazil, China, Finland, Norway, Serbia and Ukraine. Four of the Lobos' seven newcomers hail from outside the U.S.

Additionally, first-year outside Aylin Ravell (Bedford, Texas) was born in Mexico and competes for Mexico internationally.

NEW FACES IN THE MW
After Grand Canyon joined the Mountain West for volleyball last season, three new teams join the league in 2026 – UTEP, Hawai'i and UC Davis.

UNM is 35-8 against UTEP all-time but haven't faced the Miners since 2022, when they won in five sets. The Lobos have won eight in a row over UTEP.

The Lobos are 1-0 against UC Davis, with a three-set neutral-site sweep of the Aggies in 2005 as the lone meeting between the two teams.

They're 0-9 against Hawai'i in a series that dates back to 1982, last meeting over a decade ago in 2014 when they fell 3-1 in Honolulu.

BRIAN HOSFELD
HEAD COACH

Brian Hosfeld became the 11th head volleyball coach at the University of New Mexico on Dec. 21, 2025.

Hosfeld arrives in Albuquerque after a four-year stint as Associate Head Coach at Wichita State with over three decades of coaching experience under his belt. During Hosfeld' s tenure in Wichita, the Shockers accumulated an 81-46 (.638) record, winning an AAC Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2024. He also departed Baylor as the winningest head coach in school history in addition to winning a national title as an assistant at Long Beach State and reaching the Final Four three times as an assistant at Texas.

"I'm honored and excited to represent the University of New Mexico as the next head coach of women's volleyball," Hosfeld said. "The opportunity to build alongside our student-athletes—developing them on and off the court—is what excites me most.

"UNM is a special place with good history, and I can't wait to begin this journey with the Lobo family."

Hosfeld began his coaching career at Long Beach State in 1993, winning the national championship in his first season with the 49ers – that season, the 49ers went 32-2, only dropping two sets in their entire NCAA Tournament run.

After three seasons at Long Beach, he was chosen to lead the Baylor program in 1996, departing eight years later as the winningest coach in program history with 129 victories to his name. Under Hosfeld's leadership, Baylor reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history in 1999, going on to qualify again in 2001.

Following his tenure in Waco, Hosfeld joined the staff at Texas in 2004, working primarily with the Longhorns defense and middle blockers. He helped formulate one of the most productive defensive units in the nation, with the Longhorns winning three consecutive Big 12 titles and reaching the Final Four in 2008, 2009 and 2010 -- UT advanced to the national championship match in 2009. With Hosfeld on staff, Texas posted an overall record of 186-33, winning at an .849 clip.

Hosfeld has also coached at the international level, leading the 2005 USA Volleyball A2 junior national team and USA Volleyball to a silver medal at the 1997 World University Games in Sicily, Italy. Prior to his work with that team, Hosfeld served as USA Volleyball's director of the World University and National Team tryouts at the Olympic Training Center.

Hosfeld's most recent collegiate coaching experience before heading to Wichita came as an interim assistant coach at Utah, where he spent the 2011 season before transitioning full-time to club volleyball. He helped found nationally-recognized Magnum Volleyball in 1986 and worked with Austin Juniors, Club Red, Arizona East Valley, Spiral and Catalyst before taking over as director of T3 in Coeur d'Alene, where he spent the previous decade before making his return to collegiate volleyball in 2022.

COACHES

JEREMIAH "JERI" ESTES
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jeremiah (Jeri) Estes joined the Lobo Volleyball Coaching Staff in February of 2026.

Internationally, Estes is widely regarded as one of the most accomplished coaches in the sport, having helped lead championship programs in three different countries. His global résumé includes two Swiss League national championships as head coach at Volero Zurich (2005, 2006), an NCAA National Championship at Long Beach State as part of the first undefeated title team in NCAA history, and multiple European Champions League titles during his tenure with Uralochka in Russia—one of the most successful professional volleyball clubs in the world.

Estes has also coached or advised USA Volleyball's National and Olympic Teams, Russia's National and Olympic Teams, and numerous professional clubs across Europe and Asia, with international accolades that include a Gold Medal with the USA Men's National Team at the 2023 Pan American Games, a silver medal at the Athens Olympic Games with Russia, and multiple FIVB World Grand Prix gold medals.

Estes' footprint extends to the international club volleyball scene as well – he has served as head coach for Volero Zurich (Switzerland), Azeryol Baku (Azerbaijan), Dinamo Moscow (Russia) and Tianjin (China) among others. While at Volero Zurich, he led the club to back-to-back Swiss League championships, Swiss Cup titles, and a remarkable 74-match winning streak. Over the course of his career, Estes has coached and trained more than 40 Olympians worldwide.

Estes arrives in Albuquerque following a highly successful stint as Associate Head Coach at Southern University, where he helped guide the program to its most successful season in more than a decade. Under his leadership, Southern advanced to its first conference championship final in over 25 years and produced two All-SWAC selections for the first time since 2016.

At the NCAA Division I level, Estes has served in prominent roles at Long Beach State, UC Santa Barbara, and East Carolina, including being part of Long Beach State's historic undefeated NCAA National Championship season, the first in NCAA history. During his tenure at Long Beach State, the program recorded two Final Four appearances, five NCAA Tournament berths, three conference championships, and four top-10 national finishes.

In addition to his collegiate and international accomplishments, Estes has made a significant impact at the grassroots level as founder and owner of The Volleyball Factory and co-founder of Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club.

A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Estes attended Mid-Pacific Institute, where he was a letterman in volleyball and basketball. He received his bachelor's degree from Long Beach State University, where he was a member of the Men's Volleyball team and competed for the Track & Field squad in the decathlon and the 400 meters. He and his wife Evgeniya (Artamonova) Estes – the only six-time indoor women's volleyball Olympian in the world for the Russian women's Olympic team – have three children, Jette, Jeyvin and Jerren.

PATRICK SULLIVAN
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Patrick Sullivan joined the program as Associate Head Coach in March of 2026.

Sullivan's coaching background includes but is not limited to experience at the NCAA Division I level with Bradley University and the University of Northern Iowa, as well as Long Beach State and Golden West College. Across these roles, he has contributed to conference success, postseason appearances, and a state championship as a Co-Head Coach, while supporting all aspects of program operations, including recruiting, scouting, player development, and academic achievement. At Bradley, Coach Sullivan played a key role in developing the team's middle blockers, contributing to significant improvements in offensive efficiency and blocking performance within the Missouri Valley Conference.

In addition to collegiate coaching, Coach Sullivan has extensive experience in club and developmental volleyball. As the founder and director of Stealth Volleyball, he established and led a competitive club program that successfully placed athletes at the collegiate level across NCAA divisions. Coach Sullivan has also served as a recruiting coordinator and private trainer, working with athletes ranging from youth to Division I prospects, while providing guidance throughout the recruiting process.

A former NCAA National Champion at Long Beach State, Coach Sullivan competed at the highest level of collegiate volleyball and was part of multiple NCAA Championship finalist teams. His playing experience also includes national-level competition, highlighted by multiple USA Volleyball Open National Championships with Team ASICS/Paul Mitchell. In recognition of these accomplishments, Coach Sullivan was inducted into the Madera Sports Hall of Fame (Second Class) and is a member of Long Beach State's Volleyball Wall of Fame and Hall of Fame as part of an NCAA Championship team.

Coach Sullivan has remained actively engaged in the volleyball community through media and outreach efforts, including serving as the creator and host of the "Set The Pipe!!" podcast and contributing as a color commentator for collegiate broadcasts.
