

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Women's Support Worker

The Support Worker role will work within the Housing First approach which provides permanent housing, along with ongoing assertive but flexible support, directly to homeless individuals. There is a focus on harm reduction and sustaining tenancies within the community.

These posts have been funded in recognition that women's experience of homelessness can differ from men and of the strong link between homelessness and violence against women.

Job purpose:

The purpose of the role is to provide creative permanent housing solutions, whilst providing trauma informed support in line with the Housing First principles:

- People have a right to a home
- Flexible support is provided for as long as is needed
- Housing and support are separated
- Individuals have choice and control
- An active engagement approach is used
- The service is based on people's strengths, goals and aspirations
- A harm reduction model is used

Reporting to: Team Senior

Key activities and responsibilities

1. Ensure high-quality, face-to-face support is delivered which emphasises service user choice and control and meets the needs of both women and funding bodies in terms of positive outcomes.
2. Ensure effective trauma-informed assessment, support planning, reviews and case management takes place in accordance with contractual time frames and relevant policies.
3. Carry out risk assessments, safety planning and checks as required.
4. To participate in ensuring Housing First provides safe and secure accommodation for service users, in accordance with legislation, established codes, customs and practices.

5. Work collaboratively with service users, ensuring the actions within support plans and other activities are addressed in a timely, professional, and appropriate manner.
6. Adopt a multi-agency approach to supporting women, including co-ordinating case conferences, and involving other support providers in assessments and reviews and ensuring effective outcomes for service users.
7. Ensure good communication with other staff and volunteers working with service users so they are aware of, and involved in, addressing the needs of women as defined by their support plans.
8. Use motivational interviewing as one of a broad range of trauma-informed approaches to working with people in order to achieve change and help clients maximise their potential.
9. Provide information and support on issues relating to domestic abuse to the wider Housing First services, supporting colleagues to respond to women experiencing domestic abuse through ongoing mentoring.
10. Take a lead in cases where specialist knowledge and expertise regarding domestic abuse is required.
11. Effectively signpost clients to external providers where their identified support needs cannot be met through in-house provision.
12. Attend agreed appropriate internal and external networks, forums and meetings in the specialist area including FWA team meetings.
13. Ensure service user input into service provision is maximised by co-ordinating a range of effective participation methods including, but not limited to, group work, meetings, surveys, and interviews.
14. In liaison with the management team, and where appropriate, ensure compliance with contractual monitoring outcomes.
15. Maintain accurate manual and computer-based client records (in accordance with data protection and FWA procedures).
16. Prepare reports, with the approval of the Team Senior, and liaise with others in the preparation of case reports and statistical reports, whilst maintaining all relevant records, including monitoring post support progress.
17. Work within and comply with organisational policies, procedures, legislation, and regulatory and funding bodies. Keep up to date with changes in legislation and relevant working practices and ensure national health and social care standards and SSSC requirements are strictly adhered to.

18. Ensure FWA Housing First service development is in partnership with service users and in line with both national and local strategy and make appropriate recommendations for improvements.
19. Promote the work of FWA in the local and wider community, helping to raise awareness of domestic abuse. Support the promotion of FWA's public and media profile, attending appropriate meetings and events on behalf of FWA as required.
20. Take a proactive role in promoting equality and anti-discriminatory practice throughout all aspects of the work.
21. Work within FWA organisational financial policies and guidelines. Assist with FWA fundraising as required.
22. Demonstrate reflective practice and a commitment to ongoing professional development, including maintaining an awareness of practice and professional qualifications in relation to Housing First and domestic abuse.
23. Where capacity allows, to provide support to women experiencing domestic abuse who are on FWA visiting support waiting list.
24. Perform other duties as reasonably required by the FWA management team.
