

Youth and Family Development Worker

Broomhill Hyndland Parish Church, Glasgow

Hours: 15 hours per week

Salary is based on the scale £29500 pro rata. Initially £11700 per annum,

We have an exciting new job opportunity. We are seeking a part-time Youth and Family Development Worker to support young people and their families, encouraging them to connect, and stay connected with our church community.

This post is for a 4-year period, initially part-time but with a view to increasing the hours per week where appropriate. The nature of the work will require some week-end and evening work.

The ideal candidate will:

- Have experience of working with young people
- Be an experienced communicator in differing situations
- Be self-motivated and passionate about working with young people and their families
- Be able to work with a wide range of volunteers and form lasting connections and build community engagement
- Have self-confidence and enthusiasm
- Forward thinking and eager

Applicants must have a live Church connection. The post holder will be subject to necessary membership of the Disclosure Scotland PVG Scheme.
