

Join us to help improve the lives of disabled children and their families by becoming our next Family Worker

Job Title: Family Worker

Hours: 16 hours per week

Location: Kirkcaldy, Fife

Salary: £12,563 per annum (£15.10 per hour (full-time annual equivalent £29,052))

JOB PURPOSE

The Yard is an award-winning charity that runs adventure play services for children with disabilities and/or additional support needs and their families. We offer creative and inclusive adventure play experiences alongside wraparound support for the whole family. We believe in fostering communities of friendship and peer support without judgement. Since we opened in 1986, our services have grown significantly, but we will always retain our holistic approach and ethos of child-centred and child-led play services.

We are looking for individual who has a strong understanding of the needs of families, who have children with a disability or additional support needs, either through professional or personal experience. You should be able to provide information and emotional and practical support to families with children with a wide range of support needs. You will have strong skills in building relationships with people and be able to empower parents and carers to understand and access the support available from external services. You should also be able to create a sense of community that will enable peer support for families that require this support.

If successful, the candidate can expect a non-hierarchical, supportive and understanding work environment, where the team is highly passionate and committed to our mission. Personal development is encouraged and supported, and regular training is provided. We are an accredited living wage employer and offer a wide range of benefits.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

Reports to Deputy Manager

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

The role of the Family Worker is to provide practical and emotional support to families who attend The Yard:

- Ensure that families have access to up-to-date information regarding accessible inclusive opportunities and signpost to appropriate local, national and digital support
- Be a reliable and trustworthy point of contact for families using The Yard services who need additional support
- Provide structured and unstructured support sessions to enable families to benefit from the knowledge and experience of other parents and carers with lived experience
- Support the development of processes to help The Yard to understand the needs of the families using the service

Scotland Yard Adventure Centre (known as The Yard) is a registered Scottish Charity SC002538 and Private Limited Company registered in Scotland 101671.

- Work closely with the Deputy Manager to ensure that families' needs are being addressed and identify appropriate ways to meet the support needs of families
- Work in partnership with internal and external partners to deliver structured support sessions to meet the identified needs of parents and carers within the service
- Engage with the parents and carers of children and young people to support the use of their voice in the development of services and act as a point of contact for feedback from families
- Undertake relevant and appropriate recording to evidence support offered to a family
- Where appropriate liaise with external organisations to refer families for additional support e.g. advocacy
- Ensure that support is underpinned by our safeguarding policy and that people receive support that is trauma informed
- When working with families effectively maintain a high degree of confidentiality in accordance with the Data Protection Act
- Ensure that you continue to develop your knowledge and skills by undertaking regular training and other learning opportunities
- Disclose any changes in your circumstances, including any convictions or cautions that would alter the terms of employment, and of the PVG Scheme
