

2019 Football Traffic and Parking FAQ

- Why is Penn State creating traffic zones?
 - Desire to improve pedestrian and vehicle safety.
 - Ease congestion on the primary routes leading to stadium lots.
 - One-way pattern in-bound and out-bound.
 - Observations and feedback received.
 - High pedestrian intersections.
 - Simplify gameday parking map, permits and lot specific instructions
- If I have Yellow general season parking, how will this impact me?
 - Yellow general parking will now be referred to as general parking.
 - Fans who purchased Yellow season parking for the 2018 season will need to renew their parking permits and then select a specific general lot for the entire 2019 season.
 - The selection process for all general parking lots will take place after February 1, 2019.
 - The selection process will be in Nittany Lion Club point total order.
 - General parking will be offered in all four zones.
- Do I have to park in the same lot for every home game?
 - Yes, fans who have a paid general season parking permit and select their lot during the spring 2019 parking selection, will park in the same lot for all seven home games.
 - Three cash lots will be offered based on availability per game for fans who don't have a season general parking permit and choose to pay for parking as they arrive on game day. Parking purchased at the designated cash lot on game day will be $60.00, cash only.
- Do I have to enter and exit my zone via the same route?
 - Yes, with one-way traffic patterns in effect, all fans must enter and exit the zone via the established route.
- If I have season ADA parking, how am I impacted?
 - Season ADA parking will not be impacted. Atherton to Park Avenue will continue to be the access route. Sequence of filling season ADA parking lots will remain the same.
- If I purchase single game ADA parking, how am I impacted?
 - Single game ADA parking will be available in the Katz Building lot, accessed from Atherton to Park Ave. Single game ADA overflow will be in East Deck.
- If I have a numbered, reserved spot, how am I impacted?
 - The parking spot remains the same, however you may be accessing your lot from a different direction based on the zone. Your reserved lot will also have a different name.

 - Lot location remains the same.
 - Fans will enter and exit the lot via U.S. 322/I-99 to Park Ave.
 - The lot number is 32.
- If I have Orange RV, how am I impacted?
 - Lot location remains the same.
 - Fans will enter and exit their lot from the north via Fox Hollow Road/Toftrees.
 - The lot number is 21.
- If I have Blue preferred (car or RV), how am I impacted?
 - Lot location remains the same.
 - Fans will enter and exit the lot from the south via Route 26/College Avenue to Porter Road or University Drive to Dauer Road
 - The lot number is 43 (RV) or 44 (car)
- Will University Drive still be open up to 45 minutes prior to parking lots opening?
 - University Drive will be open 45 minutes prior to the lots opening.
- If I have Brown preferred, how am I impacted?
 - Lot location remains the same.
 - Fans will enter and exit the lot from the west via Atherton Street to Park Avenue
 - The lot number is 13.
- If I select a lot on the west side of the stadium, can I park with my friends in a lot on the east side of the stadium for one game?
 - There will not be space due to the lots being pre-sold and assigned.
- If I have a reserved or preferred pass, can I park down in a general lot within my zone?
 - There will not be space due to all lots being pre-sold and assigned.
- Will all of the zones be staffed with traffic attendants after the game so egress is smoother?
 - Traffic attendants will be on hand for post-game outbound traffic.
- What will happen if I try to access the wrong zone?
 - Fans will be redirected to the appropriate zone by traffic personnel, prior to entering the primary routes in the stadium traffic pattern.
- What if I forget my pass and arrive without one?
 - Traffic personnel will direct fans to one of the 3 gameday cash lots, if space is available. Parking purchased at the lot on game day will be $60.00.
- Can I exchange my permit for one in another zone for one game?
 - Permits will not be exchanged.
- If my zone is closed due to weather, where will I park?
 - The lot numbering system will improve communication on where fans can park should there be any lot closures.
 - Foul Weather parking plans will be communicated in advance via www.gopsusports.com/gameday and Penn State Athletics social media accounts.
- Will the East Deck still accept General permits?
 - General permits will not be accepted at East Deck, which will be the location for single game ADA overflow.
- Where will Family Friendly parking be in 2019?
 - The Family Friendly lot will be accessed from University Drive northbound, turning west onto Hastings Road and the lot will be on the right. Family Friendly will be a paved lot within walking distance to Beaver Stadium. There will not be an accompanying general pass so if fans have season Family Friendly parking, this is the only lot where they will be permitted to park for 2019 with a Family Friendly permit.

- Is Lot 46 now a reserved lot?
Yes, this will be reserved lot in 2019.
- If I do not purchase parking in advance of gameday and arrive on campus without a pass what will happen?
 - Fans will be directed to cash lots in one of the 3 zones based on availability. Parking purchased at the lot on game day will be $60.00.
- If I have reserved or preferred parking, how do I request a change in my location for 2019?
 - Renew the existing pass in your account for 2019 and make the appropriate NLC payment by February 1, 2019.
 - Fans can request an upgrade/change in writing as part of their on-line renewal.
 - Contact 1-800-NITTANY or the Nittany Lion Club prior to February 1st to request an upgrade. A detailed note will be added to fan accounts.
 - Upgrade requests will be filled after February 1st in point total order based on availability.
- If I am a season ticket holder and I did not have season parking in 2018, what are my options for 2019?
 - Please check back with the customer relations or athletic ticketing staff after February 1, 2019 for additional information.
