THE GAME: Penn State and Radford have never met. The Nittany Lions are 2-0 all-time vs. teams from the Big South Conference. Penn State will look to improve to 2-0 to start a season for the sixth-straight year. Penn State won its season opener for the seventh-straight season on Saturday downing Hartford, 70-55. The Lions started 4-0 last year.

FRESHMEN FREE: For the second straight season, Penn State will welcome all Penn State freshmen to experience Penn State basketball for free for one game.

HALL OF FAME TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT: Penn State will play in its first pre-season tournament since the 2009 Charleston Classic when it opens play in the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-off Tournament Monday. Penn State holds a 65-82 all-time record in in-season tournaments and has claimed 10 titles and 11 second place finishes. Eight teams will compete in the 2011 HOF tournament with Old Dominion (CAA), Penn State (Big Ten), Kentucky (SEC) and South Florida (Big East) hosting two games on campus sites and Vermont (America East), Long Island (Northeast), Marist (MAAC) and Radford (Big South) playing games at those sites. All eight teams will advance to games Saturday and Sunday at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. with two separate sessions and four games being played on each day. Penn State will play Kentucky on Saturday in first round action of Bracket 2 before facing either ODU or S. Florida (which play each other Saturday) on Sunday. Both of Penn State's games will appear on the ESPN3 on-line viewing platform.

LEWIS LEADS TEAM IN DEBUT: Freshman Trey Lewis, the runner-up for Ohio's "Mr. Basketball" award in 2011, was outstanding in his first collegiate game leading Penn State to a season-opening victory with a team-high 17 points on 3-of-6 shooting from three. Lewis also added four assists, two boards and two steals in the game in 31 minutes of action after starting the contest. Lewis scored 14 of his 17 points in the second half as Penn State pushed a 10-point halftime lead to as much as 26 and junior guard Tim Frazier spent much of the half on the bench with four fouls. Lewis scored 10-straight points hitting a pair of threes and two lay-ups beginning midway through the half to push Penn State's lead to 18. Lewis finished 7-of-13 from the floor.

CHAMBERS WINS PENN STATE DEBUT: Patrick Chambers won the first season opener of his career in his Penn State debut as the Lions downed Hartford 70-55 on Nov. 12. The 12th head coach in Penn State history, Chambers became just the second of the last six Nittany Lion coaches to win his Penn State debut joining Jerry Dunn (1996) and Bruce Parkhill (1983). Coaches Ed DeChellis (2003), Dick Harter (1978) and John Bach (1968) all fell in their debuts. Eight of Penn State's 12 head coaches have won their debut, including the Lions' first coach Burke Hermann in 1916. Chambers had been 0-2 in season opening games – having lost a pair of road season opening contests in his two seasons as head coach at Boston University.

STEALING: Penn State posted 15 steals in its season opening win vs. Hartford, the most for a Lion team since logging 18 in a 2001 NCAA Tournament victory over North Carolina. Penn State forced Hartford into 26 turnovers, the second most-ever in the Bryce Jordan Center and the most since Nicholls State had 27 in 2005. Tim Frazier (5) and Cammeron Woodyard (4) both posted career highs in steals to lead six Lions who logged a steal.

TICKETS: Nittany Lion Basketball single-game tickets can be purchased by calling 1-800-NITTANY, visiting GoPSUsports.com or through Ticketmaster. Single-game tickets are $18 for the lower bowl and $15 for upper level tickets for adults. Youth tickets (18 and under) are $7 for the lower bowl and $5 for upper level seating, while Penn State student tickets (University Park or branch campus) are $5.

LAST TIME OUT

PENN STATE'S LAST GAME SUMMARY

Penn State 70, Hartford 55 Nov. 12, Season Opener

Freshman Trey Lewis led Penn State with 17 points, 14 in the second half, in his first career game as the Lions extended a 10-point halftime lead (32-22) to as much as 26 with 2:21 to play. Tim Frazier added 16 points and Cammeron Woodyard posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4). Frazier's career-best five steals led a 15 steal effort for the Lions, the most by a PSU team since 2001, and helped cause 26 Hartford turnovers, the most for a PSU opponent since 2005. Penn State shot just 36 percent but turned 17 offensive rebounds into a 20-2 edge in second chance points and got 20 more shots (64-44) than Hartford, which was led by 12 points from Wes Cole.

OUTLET PASSES

- After one game, Tim Frazier leads the Big Ten in steals and ranks second in assists. Frazier led Penn State in both categories last season with 35 steals and 173 assists. He needs six assists for 15th all-time on the Penn State career charts.
- Penn State posted its seventh-straight season opening win Saturday with a victory over Hartford.
- Penn State started two freshmen, Trey Lewis and Ross Travis, in the season opener.
- Freshman Trey Lewis led the Lions with 17 points on 3-of-6 from three in his collegiate debut.
- Senior Cam Woodyard posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4) in the season opener.
- Penn State logged 15 steals and caused 26 turnovers in the season opener, the most steals for a PSU team since 2001 and the most turnovers by a PSU opponent since 2005. Tim Frazier (5) and Cam Woodyard (4) both posted career highs in steals.
- Penn State has a 157-73 record in games vs. teams from outside of the Big Ten Conference since joining the Big Ten in the 1992-93 season.
- Penn State holds a 65-82 all-time record at in-season tournaments and has claimed 10 titles and 11 second place finishes.
- Chambers, 40, is the youngest coach in the Big Ten edging out Purdue's Matt Painter by about three months. Both coaches were born in 1970 - Painter on Aug. 27 and Chambers on Dec. 13.
- Juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver are expected to step to the forefront as scoring options for Penn State after averaging 6.3 and 2.3 ppg, respectively, last season.
- Penn State welcomed 6-8, forward Brandon Taylor (Tabernacle, N.J.) on the first day of the NCAA Early Signing Period. He joins transfer D.J. Newbill as Chambers' first two additions to the Lions.
- Penn State graduated players that accounted for 80% of the scoring and nearly 70% of the rebounding from last year's NCAA Tournament team.
- Five senior graduates from the 2010-11 team accounted for 432 career starts and 581 career games played. Among them was all-time leading scorer Talor Battle who posted 2,213 points on his career and led the Lions in scoring each of the past four seasons.
- Tim Frazier leads all returners having started 44 career games (33 of 34 games last year) and played in every game in the last three seasons.
- Penn State returns five players with experience in a Penn State uniform (Frazier, Sasa Borovnjak, Jermaine Marshall, Billy Oliver and Cammeron Woodyard).
- Jermaine Marshall returned to practice Nov. 10.

SCOUTING RADFORD: The Highlanders opened the season with victories over Delaware (58-54) and Shenandoah (79-50) at home on Friday and Saturday, respectively. Guards Jareal Smith and R.J. Price led Radford with 13 points each in the season-opener while forward Johnathan Edwards paced the Highlanders with 16 in the win over Shenandoah. Edwards, a transfer from Tyler JC, leads the team averaging 13.0 ppg and 7.5 rpg, but is just 11-of-22 from the foul line. Price is 6-of-12 from three on the year. Radford is averaging 68.5 ppg and 44.0 rpg after two contests while shooting 41 percent from the floor. Led by first-year coach Mike Jones, Radford returns three starters and seven lettermen from a team that went 5-24 last year 2-16 in the Big South. Ten underclassmen fill the roster, including six freshman. The Highlanders' top two scorers from last year return led by 6-3 sophomore guard Jareal Smith (9.6 ppg last year).

SENIOR SUCCESS: Penn State's lone senior, Cammeron Woodyard, has spent his first three seasons playing an average of just 8.7 minutes per game (including a high of 10.4 mpg last year) and has never averaged more than the 2.2 ppg he posted in 24 contests as a freshman. He showed that may all change this year when he posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4) in 27 minutes of action off the bench in Penn State's season opening victory over Hartford. This despite missing the first two weeks of practice after having minor surgery on his left knee. Woodyard hit 4-of-7 from three in the contest and tied for the team lead in rebounding.

FIVE GAMES IN NINE DAYS: Penn State gets the 2011-12 season started with a flurry of games. Penn State will play its first five games of the season in nine days, including four as part of the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament starting next week. Penn State will play its first two games in that tournament at home on Monday (vs. Radford) and Wednesday (vs. Long Island) before departing Friday for games at Mohegan Sun Arena in Connecticut on Saturday (vs. Kentucky) and Sunday (vs. South Florida or Old Dominion). Penn State could potentially face three teams (Long Island, Kentucky and Old Dominion) that played in the 2011 NCAA Tournament during that stretch.

CHAMBERS' FORMER BU TEAM PICKED TO WIN AMERICA EAST: The America East Conference coaches voted Boston University as the favorite to repeat as league champion in 2011-12 with six of eight possible first-place votes and 62 points in a pre-season poll. Patrick Chambers led BU to a 21-14 record last season as the Terriers captured their first league title and made their first NCAA appearance since 2002. First-year BU head coach Joe Jones inherited a squad that lost the conference's reigning Player-of-the-Year, John Holland, but returns four starters from last season.

20th BIG TEN SEASON: Penn State will open its 20th season of Big Ten Conference play with a pair of road games at Michigan (Dec. 29) and at Northwestern (Jan. 1). It marks the second straight season Penn State will open the Big Ten with a pair of road games (winning at Indiana and falling at Michigan last year) and the third straight season opening the Big Ten with a road game (falling at Minnesota in 2009-10). Penn State posted a 9-9 mark during the Big Ten regular season last year to finish in a tie for fourth place. The nine wins marked the fifth time Penn State posted a .500 or better record in Big Ten play and tied for Penn State's third best Big Ten record ever. It marked the second time in the last three seasons Penn State finished fourth in the Big Ten regular season. Penn State's best Big Ten finish came in 1996 as the Lions went 12-6 to finish second in the conference.

PENN STATE VS. THE NON-CON: Penn State posted a 7-5 record vs. non-conference teams last year, including a 66-64 loss to Temple in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State has a 157-73 record in games vs. teams from outside of the Big Ten Conference since joining the Big Ten in the 1992-93 season. The Lions posted a best-ever 16-2 record vs. non-conference teams during the 2008-09 season, which included a run to the 2009 NIT title.

CHAMBERS ERA BEGINS: Patrick Chambers was introduced as the 12th head coach in Nittany Lion basketball history on Monday, June 6, shortly after the departure of Penn State alumnus and eight-year head coach Ed DeChellis for the Navy head job in late May. Chambers' introduction took place in front of more than 300 fans and supporters described a "less an introduction than a passionate call to arms," by local media. Chambers wasted little time connecting with the Penn State fan base far and wide. He ordered a pair of golf carts and began making spur-of-the-moment trips around the Penn State campus distributing t-shirts and his infectious energy. He visited amusement parks, pep rallies, student groups, classes, threw out the first pitch for the State College Spikes and even donned a Penn State football jersey and helmet to fire up the famed "Paternoville" student campout just prior to the clash of Joe Paterno's football team with Alabama. He was seemingly everywhere in his first four months on the job, most importantly the recruiting trail, and showed no signs of slowing down.

CHAMBERS BIG TEN'S YOUNGEST HEAD COACH: Patrick Chambers begins his first season at Penn State as the youngest head coach in the Big Ten. Chambers and Purdue head coach Matt Painter are the only two Big Ten head coaches born in the 1970's. Chambers, born Dec. 13, 1970, is 108 days younger than Painter, in his seventh season as head coach at Purdue, who was born on Aug. 27, 1970.

OLIVER TWIST: After missing his first two seasons as a Nittany Lion due to concussions and chronic exercise induced headaches and taking a total of 76 shots last year, his first full healthy season, Billy Oliver will step into a much more integral offensive role in his junior campaign and fourth season in the program. That was clearly evident in the Lions' exhibition game win as Oliver hit 4-of-8 from three and 6-of-11 from the floor to score 16 points. Oliver enters the season as a career 23.9 percent shooter from three having hit 11-of-46 career three-point attempts. However, his confidence has soared during off-season and pre-season practices spent getting numerous shot opportunities and constant encouragement to shoot from the coaching staff. Oliver posted a career-best 10 points on six shots in the Lions' season-opening win vs. Lehigh last year, but only reached that career-high shot total twice more the rest of the year.

FRAZIER LOOKING TO SCORE: Tim Frazier finished fifth in the Big Ten last year averaging 5.1 assists per game while taking just 4.8 shot attempts per contest. Frazier has averaged just 4.6 shots per game while playing in every one of Penn State's 65 games over his first two seasons. That will change in his junior campaign as the previously pass-first point-guard will be looked toward as one of the Lions' most potent scoring options. Frazier went 6-of-16 from the floor for a team-high 19 points in Penn State's exhibition game win and had 16 points on 4-of-11 in limited action due to foul trouble in a season-opening victory over Hartford. He showed glimpses of his scoring ability in the Lions' run to the 2011 NCAA Tournament, including posting a career-high 22 points on a career most nine field goals and 13 field goal attempts vs. Michigan State in a Big Ten Tournament semifinal victory. Frazier followed that up with 15 points vs. Temple in the Lions' NCAA Tournament loss to the Owls. Frazier entered the season 20-56 on his career from three, having averaged just under one three-point attempt per game over his career. In Frazier's second career game at Penn State, he went a career best 4-of-5 from three for 19 points vs. Robert Morris, but has never taken more than three trey attempts in a game since.

STILL DISHIN': Despite a new emphasis on scoring, Tim Frazier led Penn State with seven assists in the Lions' exhibition win and six in the season opener and currently stands second in the Big Ten in assists per game. Entering the season, he ranked third among Big Ten returners in assists after posting an average of 5.1 per game last year. His 252 career assists are just six shy of breaking into the top 15 all-time in Penn State history, trailing Mike Walker's 258 (2005-08) in 15th place. Frazier's 173 assists last year rank as the fifth best season mark in Penn State history and he is on pace to rank among the top 10 all-time in assists at Penn State by the end of his junior season.

FRAZIER & OLIVER LEAD LIONS' EXHIBITION

WIN: Juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver paced the Nittany Lions with 19 and 16 points, respectively, in Penn State's 64-47 exhibition game victory over Slippery Rock last Saturday. However, what first-year head coach Patrick Chambers was more concerned with was the Lions' hustle and energy and he was pleased to see his Nittany Lions record 18 charted dives in the game. The Lions recorded 13 of those 18 dives in the second half as Penn State picked up the defensive intensity. Penn State recorded 13 steals in the game and caused 25 Slippery Rock turnovers helping the Lions pull-away to as much as a 21-point second half lead despite shooting just 40 percent from the floor and 7-of-26 from three. The Lions scored 24 points off turnovers, out-scored SRU 16-0 on second chance points, and got 18 more field goal attempts (57-39) in the game. Frazier added a team-high seven assists and six rebounds to his point total. Oliver hit 4-of-8 from three. Freshman guard Trey Lewis added 10 points, while fellow freshman Ross Travis led the team with eight rebounds and numerous hustle plays.

FRAZIER STEPS INTO LEADERSHIP ROLE: Junior guard Tim Frazier took his game to a higher level in Penn State's 2011 run to the NCAA Tournament as he averaged 10.0 ppg, 5.9 apg and 4.6 rpg over the final 11 games, including a career-best 22-point, eight-rebound, six-assist effort in the Lions' Big Ten Tournament semifinal win over Michigan State. With the graduation of four senior starters, Frazier is now the most experienced Nittany Lion having played in every game over the past two seasons and started 43.

CAPTAINS: Penn State named senior Cammeron Woodyard and juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver captains at the beginning of pre-season practice.

MARSHALL RETURNS TO PRACTICE: Sophomore guard Jermaine Marshall returned to practice on Thursday, Nov. 10 as he continued steps toward regaining full standing with the team. He will not dress for Saturday's season opening game. Marshall was suspended prior

GAME	POSITION					LINE-UP RECORD
HARTFORD	23	3	43	35	21	1-0

CHAMBERS' FIRST TEAM: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers will look to mesh seven Nittany Lion newcomers who could see action this year (including five true freshmen, a transfer and a redshirt freshman) with seven returners, five of which have previously seen action in a Penn State uniform. Just four returning players (Tim Frazier, Billy Oliver, Cammeron Woodyard and Jermaine Marshall) saw action last year. Redshirt sophomore Sasa Borovnjak will return after missing last year with a torn ACL. Penn State will look to replace nearly 80 percent of its scoring and 70 percent of its rebounding lost when five seniors graduated from a team that went 19-15 last year and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2001. Frazier leads the returners having started 43 career games and played in every game the last two years. Frazier averaged 6.3 points and 3.9 rebounds per game last year and ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 5.1 assists per game. Frazier was big in Penn State's run to the 2011 Big Ten Tournament championship game and NCAA Tournament as he averaged 10 points, 5.9 assists and 4.6 rebounds per game over the final 11 games of 2010-11.

"HOOPS MADNESS" ROCKS REC HALL: It was a a fabulous night in Rec Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 2 when the Nittany Lion and Lady Lion basketball teams hosted "Hoops Madness" with a special performance by top selling rap artist Fabulous. The Brooklyn-born Fabulous has twice been nominated for a Grammy and has sold more than three million albums with numerous chart topping hits since his debut release in 2001. The venerable former home of Penn State basketball once again shook with hoops hysteria as a large crowd turned out to see New Nittany Lion coach Patrick Chambers and the 2011-12 Nittany Lions and fifth-year Lady Lion coach Coquese Washington and a 2011-12 Lady Lion teams introduced. Fans were treated to numerous contests, highlight videos, a slam-dunk contest and one fan in attendance was given a chance to make a half court shot to win $10,000. Nittany Lion guard Tim Frazier and Lady Lion Maggie Lucas helped instruct the contestant and made back-to-back half court shots on their first attempts to electrify the crowd.

CHAMBERS HITS THE GROUND RUNNING: Coach Chambers wasted no time in getting to know his first Penn State team as he logged 10,500 miles in his first eight days on the job traveling from coast-to-coast to visit current Penn State players and incoming freshmen and their families. Chambers traveled from Massachusetts to California, Minnesota to Texas as he met with every player except Sasa Borovnjak who was at home in Serbia.

2011 EARLY SIGNEE

Penn State signed one player in the 2011 NCAA Early Signing Period that began Nov. 9

BRANDON TAYLOR

6-8, 235, F, Tabernacle, N.J., Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.)

“Brandon is a great kid who comes from a great family and is serious about his academics and getting his degree. Basketball wise, he is a terrific player who can post-up, shoot threes, has a very high basketball IQ and has a Big Ten ready body. He will make an immediate impact in our program.”

– Patrick Chambers

Taylor helped lead his AAU squad, Team Philly, to several tournament titles over the summer and saw his stock rise as he diversified his game and excelled in several head-to-head battles with other high Division I recruits. His size and strength on the block as well as his ability to stretch defenses on the perimeter and score off the dribble or from the three-point line were on display. He is described as a “prototypical mismatch problem” with “the physical tools and basketball skills to score both inside and out” by ESPN.com. Dave Telep of ESPN.com added, “Penn State has itself a legitimate scoring option on its way to Happy Valley.”

Taylor helped Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.) to a 2010 New Jersey Non-Public B State Championship with a victory over perennial powerhouse St. Anthony and an eventual championship crown in the NJSIAA (all classes) Tournament of Champions as a sophomore. He averaged 11.7 points per game last year as a junior at Trenton Catholic as he helped lead the team to a 19-6 record. The Iron Mikes fell in the semifinals of the NJSIAA Non-Public South B Tournament in a two-point game in which Taylor recorded 14 points and had 15 rebounds. He posted a season high 25 points earlier in the year in a victory over West Windsor South.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. The Nittany Lions achieved that goal in their exhibition game recording 18 "dives," 13 of which came in the second half. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor.

BJC GETS NEW SCOREBOARD: Penn State partnered with ANC Sports Enterprises to place a new state-of-the-art center hung scoreboard in the Bryce Jordan Center. The board, weighing approximately 22,000 pounds, features high-definition quality visuals across approximately half a million pixels. The new scoreboard, which was installed in October, features four Mitsubishi Electric 10mm Diamond Vision video screens each measuring approximately 12' high x 16' wide and two 16mm Diamond Vision ribbon displays, one on top of the video screens and one at the bottom of the structure. The new center-hung system will include over 1100 square feet of dynamic video capabilities which will provide real-time statistics, team logos, crowd prompts, animated team introductions, student athlete videos and live footage of events at the arena.

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

FAMILIAR FOES IN 2011-12: Penn State will face four teams on the 2011-12 season that head coach Patrick Chambers faced last year while leading Boston University. The Nittany Lions will begin the Chambers' Era by facing a very familiar foe in Hartford at the Bryce Jordan Center. Chambers and BU posted a 2-1 mark in three meetings vs. Hartford last year posting victories of 61-50 and 55-49 later in the year after falling, 59-55, in the initial meeting. Chambers went 5-1 in six meetings with Hartford while at BU. The Lions will also face 2011 NCAA Final Four participant Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Tip-off Classic. Chambers and BU fell to Kentucky, 91-57, last year in Lexington. BU also downed Cornell (66-61) and Saint Joseph's (85-79), which appear on the Lions' 2011-12 schedule.

HEAD COACH
1ST SEASON
PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY, '94

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Led Boston University to the 2011 NCAA Tournament – the program's first NCAA berth since 2002.
- Led BU to the 2011 America East Tournament Title.
- Posted back-to-back 21-win seasons at BU – the only coach in BU history to earn 20 wins in each of his first two seasons and the fastest to earn a conference championship.
- 42-28 record in two seasons as head coach at BU, leading the Terriers into the post-season both years.
- Associate head coach at Villanova's during the Wildcats 2009 NCAA Final Four run.
- Five seasons on Villanova staff under Jay Wright – helped lead the Wildcats to a 126-45 record (.737), five NCAA Tournament appearances, four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, a school record 30 wins in 2008-09, won at least 22 games every year.
- Instrumental in building Villanova's 2009 recruiting class which was ranked No. 3 in the nation by ESPN.com.
- Four players coached at Villanova played in the NBA.
- Recruited four McDonald's All-Americans to Villanova.

NOTABLE

- The youngest of 12 siblings (nine boys, three girls)
- The youngest coach in the Big Ten.
- Three siblings are Penn State graduates
- Worked for 10 years in family printing business in Philadelphia.
- Played for 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Herb Magee at Philadelphia University. Magee, also known as "The Shot Doctor," is college basketball's all-time victories leader (922).
- Began his career at Philadelphia U. as a walk-on and went on to become the school's all-time leader in assists.
- Played for legendary Philadelphia coach Dan Dougherty at Episcopal Academy. Dougherty posted 621 victories at Episcopal, the most of any high school coach in Philadelphia history.

"Penn State and Pat Chambers are a perfect match - class, pride and integrity. Pat is a talented coach and an outstanding recruiter.

I watched him interact with people and I just liked him, liked his energy. I remember seeing him come in from work and into practice in his shirt and tie (at Episcopal). I remember thinking, 'Man, this guy's rushing in from work, coming on the court, bringing energy.' I just really like his passion. As soon as we got him in here, I could tell he was gonna be outstanding. Very detailed, very organized, a relentless worker and a lot of passion."

- Jay Wright, Villanova Head Basketball Coach

"It was clear right away he had a little something extra you don't find in a lot of guys. He wasn't a scoring threat at all. But, I had scorers. But, his ability to lead and defend and do all the things on and off the court that coaches need made me fall in love with the kid. Once he got the job, he never relinquished it."

- Herb Magee, Philadelphia University Head Basketball Coach, NCAA All-time Victories Leader 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee

"He was selling for the family business and doing well. But, I just had that feeling he would make a great coach. He was one of those people who love the game so much and know the game so well. He had that Philly ability to recognize situations and know what people should be doing and know what to do with the ball and that intense desire to win. I loved the way he interacted with the players. He's quick to jump on them if they're not doing everything exactly the right way. There are no short-cuts with him."

- Dan Dougherty, Former Episcopal Academy Head Coach

"Pat Chambers has been fortunate enough to play for and work for some of the most successful coaches in the Philadelphia area – long-time coach Dan Dougherty at celebrated Episcopal Academy, Naismith Hall of Fame coach Herb Magee from Philadelphia University and 2008 NABC National Coach of the Year Jay Wright from Villanova.

- Dick "Hoops" Weiss, New York Daily News

"It's hard to imagine Penn State finding a more promising coach and better fit than Patrick Chambers. It certainly helps that he worked for one of the best, classiest coaches in Jay Wright, but Patrick showed in his two years at BU that he could stand on his own as a coach. Penn State has every reason to be thrilled about its basketball future."

- Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News/Big Ten Network

"Before I joined ESPN.com, I worked in Philadelphia and watched Chambers tutor alongside Villanova coach Jay Wright. His passion for basketball and his eagerness was so overwhelming that more than one person asked, 'Is this guy for real?' The implication being that Chambers' personality might be somewhat disingenuous. It is not. It is who he is.

- Dana O'Neil, ESPN.com

"Chambers to Penn State' is bigger news in Philadelphia than just a Philly guy getting a job – and relevant right now, not just in the winter – because every Division I coach in Philadelphia knows Chambers is at Penn State...Chambers can walk into any gym in this city and find people he knows. He has relationships with virtually all the AAU movers and shakers."

- Mike Jensen, Philadelphia Inquirer

Freshman Trey Lewis led Penn State with 17 points, 14 in the second half, in his first career game as the Lions extended a 10-point halftime lead (32-22) to as much as 26 with 2:21 to play. Tim Frazier added 16 points and Cammeron Woodyard posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4). Frazier's career-best five steals led a 15 steal effort for the Lions, the most by a PSU team since 2001, and helped cause 26 Hartford turnovers, the most for a PSU opponent since 2005. Penn State shot just 36 percent but turned 17 offensive rebounds into a 20-2 edge in second chance points and got 20 more shots (64-44) than Hartford, which was led by 12 points from Wes Cole.
