COACHES

Delaware: Martin Ingelsby (Notre Dame '01), fourth season overall and at Delaware, 44-55

Penn State: Patrick Chambers (Philadelphia University '94), ninth season at Penn State, 127-139; 11th season overall, 169-167

STORYLINES

- Delaware plays a charity exhibition game against Big 10 opponent Penn State in the Blue Hens' final tuneup prior to the 2019-20 regular season.

- Proceeds for today's Hoops 4 Disaster Relief exhibition will benefit Louisiana Tech University and Ruston, Louisiana to help offset the extensive damage to the community and campus following an EF3 tornado on Apr. 25, 2019. The funds will be earmarked for assisting Louisiana Tech students, faculty, and staff who have been directly impacted by the tornado, and for rebuilding and repairing damage to campus structures and grounds.

- UD opens its regular season in nine days when the Blue Hens host Division III Bridgewater College. Delaware then continues action in the Sunshine Slam Tournament with three games in Kissimmee, Fla. on Nov. 8-10.

- Delaware and Penn State have met 10 times in school history, but none since 1980. The Nittany Lions have won all 10 games.

- Ryan Allen, Delaware's leading scorer from a year ago, suffered a sprained left ankle during last Sunday's scrimmage vs. Loyola (Md.). He will not play today and is questionable for the season opener vs. Bridgewater.

- Delaware has increased its win total during all three years under head coach Martin Ingelsby. Last season Delaware finished fifth in the CAA standings, posting its highest win total and highest CAA finish since 2013-14. The Blue Hens also advanced to the CAA Tournament Semifinals for the first time in five years.

1/14/1980	Penn State 85, Delaware 53	State College, Pa.

Blue Hens vs. the Big Ten

Delaware has played just one Big Ten opponent in the first three years of Martin Ingelsby's tenure. Last year the Blue Hens opened their regular season with a 73-67 loss to Maryland at XFINITY Center.

Prior to that game, Delaware's previous game against a Big Ten school was a 93-78 loss to Michigan State in the first round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

Allen Out With Ankle Injury

Hens Looking To Continue Success Under Ingelsby

Delaware has increased its win total during all three years under head coach Martin Ingelsby. The Blue Hens won just seven games in 2015-16 prior to Ingelsby's arrival, but won 13 games during his first season. They then won 14 games in 2017-18, before finishing 17-16 a year ago.

Last season Delaware finished fifth in the CAA standings, posting its highest win total and highest CAA finish since 2013-14. The Blue Hens also advanced to the CAA Tournament Semifinals for the first time in five years after erasing a 14-point halftime deficit in the 85-79 win over William & Mary in the quarterfinals, the largest halftime comeback in CAA Tournament history.

Ingelsby Signs Contract Extension

Head coach Martin Ingelsby is entering his fourth year leading the Blue Hens. On June 20, he signed a two-year contract extension through the 2023-24 season.

Blue Hens in the Bahamas

Delaware took its first ever summer foreign trip on August 5-11 when the Blue Hens traveled to Nassau for three games in the Bahamas. UD won two of three games against local teams in Nassau.

Allen, Anderson Return in UD Backcourt

Delaware returns two starters in junior shooting guard Ryan Allen and junior point guard Kevin Anderson.

Allen a CAA Preseason Second Team selection, led the Blue Hens by averaging 16.0 points per game and ranked second on the team with 61 three-pointers a year ago. He appeared in 22 games while making 19 starts after missing the first 11 contests with a foot injury. Allen averaged 36 minutes per game, and scored a career-high 30 points in the double-overtime win at Towson.

Anderson appeared in 29 games while making 26 starts last season, averaging 10.7 points and 4.2 rebounds in 35.0 minutes per contest. He led the Blue Hens with 83 assists and tied for the team lead with 33 steals. Anderson ranked seventh in the CAA with 3.8 assists per game and 10th with a 1.3 assist/turnover ratio.

Darling, Mutts Eligible After Redshirting Last Season

Nate Darling and Justyn Mutts are eligible for the Blue Hens after sitting out last season per NCAA transfer regulations after transferring to Delaware during the summer of 2018.

Darling, who transferred from UAB, has two years of eligibility while Mutts, who transferred from High Point, has three years.

Darling appeared in all 33 games while starting all but one in 2017-18 for the Blazers, leading the team with 61 three-pointers and shooting a team-high 40.9 percent from behind the arc. He ranked fourth on the squad with a 10.1 scoring average, while his 90 assists ranked third. Darling reached double figures in 17 games, including a career-high 23 points during UAB's win over Western Kentucky when he finished 6 of 6 from beyond the arc.

Mutts appeared in 28 games while starting 18 at High Point during his lone season with the Panthers, when he earned Big South All-Freshman Team honors. Mutts ranked fourth on the team with a 6.0 scoring average while leading the squad with 32 blocks.

Redshirt Freshman Novakovich Eligible For Blue Hens

Forward Aleks Novakovich is also eligible for Delaware after sitting out last season as a freshman redshirt.

Novakovich, a 6-9 forward from Hobart, Ind., was a first team All-Conference selection at Hobart High School. Novakovich averaged 11.1 points and 7.7 rebounds as a senior at Hobart, before spending the 2017-18 season at Don Bosco Prep.

Painter Eligible Following Fall Semester

Dylan Painter, who transferred to Delaware from Villanova following the 2018 fall semester, will be eligible for the Blue Hens after the 2019 fall semester. He has one and a half years of eligibility with UD.

Painter appeared in the first two game of last season for the Wildcats, and started the season opener vs. Morgan State. He tallied five points and five rebounds in those two contests.

Painter appeared in 23 games as a freshman in 2016-17, posting 20 points and 31 rebounds. He then sat out the 2017-18 campaign as a redshirt when Villanova went on to win the national championship.

Freshmen McCoy, Asamoah Join Blue Hens

Freshmen Johnny McCoy and Ebby Asamoah will be making their Blue Hen debuts. McCoy was the 2018 Hockomock League MVP as a senior at Mansfield (Mass.) High School, before spending a prep year at Tilton School (N.H.). Asamoah was a first team All-State and All-Metro selection a year ago at Magruder (Md.) High School.

Gardner To Sit Out Season as Redshirt

Junior guard Reggie Gardner will sit out this season after transferring to Delaware from North Carolina Central during the summer.

Gardner appeared in 33 games for the Eagles last year, averaging 5.8 points per game. He was a second team All-MEAC selection in 2017-18, when he started all 35 games and averaged 10.8 points per outing.

What's Lost

Delaware lost three starters from last year's squad in graduating seniors Eric Carter and Darian Bryant along with freshman Ithiel Horton.

Carter, a second team All-CAA and All-District selection last year, ended his career ranked third in UD history with a 55.7 field goal percentage, sixth with 818 rebounds and 27 double-doubles, and 28th with 1,087 points.

Bryant was the only Blue Hen to start all 33 games last year, averaging 6.7 points and 3.2 rebounds while tying for second on the team with 75 assists.

Horton, who transferred to Pitt in the summer, was a CAA All-Rookie Team selection after ranking third on the team with 13.2 points per game.

Allen Moving Up Three-Point List

Ryan Allen has appeared in just 52 games during his Blue Hen career, but already is tied for ninth place in school history with 147 three-pointers made. He has hit a three-pointer in all but two of his appearances for Delaware.

Ryan Allen connected on 86 three-pointers during his rookie season, tying the UD single season mark also held by John Gordon in 1998-99.

Allen hit a three-pointer in the first 29 games of his career, the second longest streak in school history. Peca Arsic drained a triple in 36 consecutive games from 1994-96.

Blue Hens To Feature Older Lineup

Delaware started a veteran starting lineup during last Sunday's scrimmage vs. Loyola (Md.). Collin Goss is 23 years old while Ryan Allen, Kevin Anderson and Nate Darling are each 21. Justyn Mutts will turn 21 on Jan. 4.

Rookie Success

Delaware has featured a pair of CAA Rookies of the Year recruited by Martin Ingelsby, while the Blue Hens are the only school to feature a CAA All-Rookie Team member during each of Ingelsby's three seasons.

Ryan Daly was named CAA Rookie of the Year, in 2016-17, Ryan Allen won the award in 2017-18, and Ithiel Horton was named to the All-Rookie squad last year.

Delaware has won 16 CAA Rookie of the Week awards during the last three years, by far the most in the league (Drexel is second with nine winners).

Delaware Picked Fifth in CAA Preseason Poll

Delaware was picked fifth in the CAA Preseason Poll announced during the league's Media Day.

Delaware Basketball on the Internet

University of Delaware athletics information is available via the internet through www.bluehens.com.

Box scores and game stories are usually posted within an hour of the conclusion of each UD basketball game, while cumulative statistics are also updated and posted after each contest. Media notes are available in a PDF format within 24 hours of the start of each game. In addition, livestats and live streaming are available for all UD home games.

Delaware Basketball on the Radio

For the 16th straight season, all University of Delaware men's basketball games will be carried on FM radio. All games will be carried on 94.7 WDSB. Scott Klatzkin (play-by-play) and Bill Harman (analyst) will call the action.

Additionally, all Blue Hen men's basketball home games will be broadcast by the UD student radio station, WVUD 91.3 FM. Real Audio links for both broadcasts are available through the UD athletics website.

MARTIN INGELSBY

HEAD COACH
4TH SEASON
NOTRE DAME '01

Martin Ingelsby is currently in his fourth season as University of Delaware men's basketball head coach during the 2019-20 season.

On June 20, Ingelsby signed a two-year extension through the 2023-24 season.

After spending the previous 13 years on the Notre Dame coaching staff from 2003-16, Ingelsby led the Blue Hens to 13 victories during his first season in Newark, including a win over Hofstra in the CAA Tournament.

During his second year Delaware won 14 games, and earned a CAA Tournament victory for the second consecutive year by defeating Elon in the first round.

Last season the Blue Hens finished 17-16 and were fifth in the CAA standings, posting their highest win total and highest CAA finish in five years. UD increased its win total for the third straight season, and advanced to the CAA Tournament Semifinals for the first time since 2013-14. Delaware erased a 14-point halftime deficit in the 85-79 win over William & Mary in the quarterfinals, the largest halftime comeback in CAA Tournament history.

A Blue Hen earned the CAA Rookie of the Year award in both of Ingelsby's first two years, while Delaware is the only CAA school to earn an All-Rookie Team selection in each of the last three seasons.

Ingelsby, the 24th head coach in UD men's basketball history, is a native of Berwyn, Pa., and was a stand-out point guard for Notre Dame from 1997-2001. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Wagner College during the 2002-03 campaign before returning to his alma mater as Notre Dame's coordinator of basketball operations. He spent six seasons in that position before being promoted to assistant coach in July 2009, a position he held for seven years. During his tenure in South Bend, Ingelsby, 39, helped lead the Irish to eight NCAA Tournament appearances.

"I really believe this is a great fit for me," Ingelsby said at the time of his hiring. "Coming from Notre Dame, to have the opportunity to be the head coach at a place like the University of Delaware is something I could not pass up. This is a great academic institution and a great community and we will be able to recruit young men who will excel in the classroom and on the basketball court. We want to win and we want to win the right way. It all starts with high character and highly competitive kids who will represent this basketball program and this University in a first-class manner on and off the basketball court. I can't wait to get started."

"We want to dream big dreams and talk about winning CAA championships and getting into the NCAA Tournament. There is a process that goes into place in building a basketball program and we will work hard to get there. Together, with the student body, faculty, alumni, community and fans, we can accomplish great things."

"I am incredibly excited for our student-athletes, our university and all of Blue Hen Nation to welcome Coach Ingelsby," said University of Delaware Director of Athletics and Recreation Services Chrissi Rawak. "Martin demands excellence in all that he does and has a keen focus on getting young men to go beyond their limits academically, athletically, and in the community. He will have an immediate impact not only on our basketball program, but on our entire department."

While in South Bend Ingelsby primarily worked with the Notre Dame guards and played an integral role in elevating the program's national recruiting efforts. The Fighting Irish reaped the benefits of that recruiting success over his final two seasons as Notre Dame advanced to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight in both 2015 and 2016.

The Fighting Irish enjoyed a magical 2014-15 campaign as Notre Dame won the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament title, made its first Elite Eight appearance since 1979, and posted the second 30-win season in school history by finishing with a 32-6 mark.

Despite losing Jerian Grant and Pat Connaughton to the NBA, Notre Dame followed with another outstanding campaign in 2015-16, advancing to the ACC Tournament Semifinals before making its second straight Elite Eight appearance.

Ingelsby helped mentor Grant, a first team consensus All-American and unanimous first team All-ACC pick in 2015 before getting selected by the New York Knicks with the 19th pick in the 2015 NBA Draft. He also

Coaching Career:

2002-03: Assistant Coach, Wagner College (2003 NCAA Tournament)

2003-2009: Coordinator of Basketball Operations, University of Notre Dame (2 NCAA Tournaments; 3 NIT Tournaments)

2009-2016: Assistant Coach, University of Notre Dame (6 NCAA Tournaments, 2 NCAA Elite Eights, 1 NIT Tournament)

2016-Present: Head Coach, University of Delaware

worked extensively with Connaughton, who played in a school-record 139 games and was the 41st pick in the 2015 NBA Draft by the Brooklyn Nets. That season marked the first time since 1992 that two Notre Dame players were selected in the same year of the NBA Draft.

Under Ingelsby's tutelage, Irish point guard Demetrius Jackson enjoyed an outstanding season in 2015-16, earning second team All-ACC and NCAA East Regional All-Tournament Team accolades.

Ingelsby helped lead Notre Dame to a school-record seven consecutive 20-win seasons from 2006-13, while the Irish posted 97 victories from 2009-13, the most wins in a four-year period in school history. During Ingelsby's 13 seasons at his alma mater, Irish teams went 290-146 (.665) and the program posted a 168-76 record with six NCAA Tournament appearances in seven years once he assumed assistant coaching duties.

During Ingelsby's lone season at Wagner in 2002-03, he was part of the most successful season in school history as the Seahawks finished 21-11, won both the Northeast Conference regular season and tournament titles, and earned the school's first-ever berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Ingelsby was Notre Dame's starting point guard during three of his four seasons in South Bend. As a senior in 2000-01 he averaged 8.2 points and a team-high 6.4 assists as a starter in all 30 games. A team captain during his senior year, he guided the Irish to a 20-10 overall record and the Big East's West Division championship, the school's first ever conference title. Additionally, Notre Dame advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after earning a berth in the field for the first time in more than a decade in Mike Brey's first season.

Ingelsby also started for the Irish as a freshman and sophomore, and led the team in assists during three of his four seasons. He handed out a team-high 150 assists as a freshman and earned a spot on the 1998 Big East All-Rookie Team.

A two-time member of the Big East Academic All-Star Team, Ingelsby was the recipient of the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley Rockne Student-Athlete Award during his senior season. He graduated from the Mendoza College of Business with a bachelor's degree in marketing in May, 2001.

Ingelsby enjoyed an outstanding career at Archbishop Carroll High School in suburban Philadelphia where he finished as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,425 points and led his teams to an 80-12 record during his three years on the varsity squad.

Following his senior year in 1997, he won the prestigious Markward Award, given annually to the top high school player in the Philadelphia area, and was the Gatorade Player of the Year for Philadelphia while also earning All-Catholic League honors three times. Ingelsby was also named South Catholic League MVP as a senior and was a McDonald's All-America honorable mention selection.

Ingelsby's father, Tom, was a standout guard at Villanova from 1970-73 and served as his son's head coach at Archbishop Carroll. Tom led Villanova to the 1971 NCAA championship game and played for the Atlanta Hawks during the 1973-74 season and for the Spirits of St. Louis in the ABA the following year.

Ingelsby and his wife, Colleen, are the parents of twins Will and Kate, and sons Jack and Ben.
