NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP SECOND ROUND: WAKE FOREST VS. PENN STATE

THE MATCHUP

- Wake Forest continues NCAA Championship play against Penn State in Morgantown, W. Va. on Friday at 4 p.m.
- This is the 12th time in program history the Demon Deacons will be competing in the second round of the tournament.

LAST TIME OUT

- Wake Forest played Georgetown to a scoreless draw on Friday, Nov. 10 in Spry Stadium. The Demon Deacons advanced on penalty kicks, 2-1.
- Nonie Frishette came in off the bench to record a heroic performance in net during PKs. Frishette saved three of the Hoyas' five attempts, missing one while another hit the post. Maddie Huster and Bayley Feist hit their attempts to give the Deacs the 2-1 final.

WAKE FOREST STORYLINES

- Wake Forest women's soccer debuted in the national rankings for the first time since 2014 the week of Aug. 28 after starting the season 4-0-0. Currently, the Demon Deacons are ranked No. 24 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll, No. 23 in the Soccer America poll and No. 18 in the TopDrawerSoccer poll.
- The Demon Deacon defense is among the best in the ACC. Wake Forest's 0.67 GAA is third in the league while the 14 goals allowed is tied for third. The Deacs' 11 shutouts are third in the league. Lindsay Preston sits fourth in the conference with her .811 save percentage, while her 0.70 goals against average is also fourth in the ACC and 33rd in the country.
- The Deacs finished with a 5-3-2 record in conference play, the most victories since 2013 when they also tallied five ACC wins.
- The Demon Deacons have 11 total shutouts this season, the most since they tallied 14 in 2011. With the shutout against Georgetown, the Deacs have recorded at least one shutout in seven-straight NCAA Championship appearances, dating back to the 2007 season. The 11 shutouts also stand alone in fourth for single-season team records.
- Wake Forest has four ties this season, all scoreless draws. The four ties matches the program record of four set in 2011.

SCOUTING THE NITTANY LIONS

- The Demon Deacons and Nittany Lions last met in second round of the 2013 NCAA Championship, with Wake Forest posting a 1-0 victory in Charlottesville, Va. The two squads also met in the third round of the 2011 tournament, with the Deacs earning a 4-2 win in Spry Stadium. Overall, Wake Forest holds a 3-0-0 record over Penn State.
- Laura Freigang leads Penn State with eight goals this season while Megan Schafer follows with five. The Nittany Lions are averaging 1.86 goals per game while holding opponents to just 0.67 goals per game.
- Penn State has recorded 12 shutouts this season, with keeper Rose Chandler holding sole possession of eight of those. The Nittany Lions have a combined .785 save percentage this season while Chandler, who holds a 13-4-3 record, has a .755 save percentage and a 0.65 goals-against average.

SPRY STADIUM UPGRADES

- Prior to the season, a state-of-the-art video board was installed at Spry Stadium that will feature stats, instant replay and more.
- With the addition of the board, Wake Forest becomes the only school in the NCAA to have a 10-millimeter display at a soccer venue. Spry Stadium is the first soccer-specific venue in the United States, and fifth soccer-specific venue in the world, to feature 10-millimeter line spacing on a main video display.
- The board ranks in the Top-10 in square footage for a soccer display in college installed by Daktronics. The 466.61 square foot board clocks in at sixth.
- The board features nearly 420,000 LEDs.

PRESTON IN THE SPOTLIGHT

- Senior keeper Lindsay Preston made a diving save in the scoreless draw at Michigan.
- The play ended up as the No. 3 play on the SportsCenter Top 10 on Tuesday, Sept. 12.
- This is the second year in a row that a Wake Forest soccer program has had an 'SCTop10' play, as Ema Twumasi's bicycle kick during the men's game against Cal Poly was featured in the Top 10 as well.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

- This season, the Demon Deacons faced seven 2016 NCAA Tournament qualifying teams throughout the regular season, earning a 4-2-1 record.
- The Deacs also faced four Power 5 competitors in the non-conference schedule, earning a 3-0-1 record in those contests, including a 2-0-1 mark on the road.
- Wake Forest is one of two teams in the ACC to beat three different top 20 RPI opponents in the regular season, joining the regular-season conference champion Duke.
- Wake Forest defeated 2017 regular-season SEC Champions South Carolina, handing the Gamecocks their only loss of the season. The Deacs also defeated 2016 ACC Champions Florida State for the first time since 2011 and went on the road to defeat Notre Dame, giving the Deacs three top 20 RPI wins.

FEIST ON FIRE

- Junior midfielder Bayley Feist has eight goals this season, the most by a Deacon since Riley Ridgik had 11 in 2013. Feist had seven goals in her career entering this season -two her freshman season and five her sophomore year.
- With her steady success this year, Feist has broken into the top 10 in multiple career categories.
- Her 15 career goals are tied for 10th and her 109 shots attempted have sole possession of 10th in the all-time individual career records. Her 56 shots on goal are tied for ninth.
- Her 0.63 career points per game average sits 10th and 0.26 career goals per game average are good for ninth.

EXPERIENCED DEACS

- Nine Demon Deacons on the roster have logged over 2,500 minutes of playing time while the same nine have made 30 or more starts.
- Seniors Ally Haran, Maddie Huster and Lindsay Preston have 5,000 plus minutes on the field in their careers while recording over 50 starts each. Huster leads the trio with 70 starts.
- With her start at George Mason on Sept. 1, Haran had started in 50 straight contests. She has started in 65 of 66 games played for Wake Forest.
- Preston ranks second all-time in goalie minutes played with 5,816. She sits behind Aubrey Bledsoe who recorded 8,692 minutes between the posts.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- The women's soccer program welcomed six true freshmen to the team this season.
- The recruiting class was ranked No. 14 in the country, according to TDS.
- The class includes three All-Americans in Ryanne Brown, Abby McNamara and Sofia Rossi.
- Three new Deacs also have some form of national team experience in Brown, Vicky Krug and Hulda Arnarsdottir.
- Hannah Betfort is currently second on the team in goals this season with five and second in points with 11.
- Estelle Laurier is a redshirt freshman for the Deacs this season. She has played with the French national team and leads the team with four assists.

2016 SEASON REVIEW

- The Demon Deacons finished the non-conference regular season schedule unbeaten with an 8-0-0 record. It was the second time in program history the Deacs finished the non-conference slate undefeated, also in 2013.
- The Deacs recorded seven shutouts, the most since they had since eight in 2013. Their five-straight shutouts matched the program record (also 2009 and 2006), while it was the second time in program history they earned five consecutive shutout victories (also 2006).
- Maddie Huster recorded the program's ninth all-time, and first since 2011, hat trick against FIU on Aug. 25.
- The squad finished with a 10-8-0 record.

DEACONS IN THE PROS

- Three former Demon Deacons are currently with professional teams. Aubrey Bledsoe and Katie Stengel are playing in the NWSL while Sarah Teegarden is playing abroad in Sweden.
- Stengel, who is on loan in Australia, plays for the Boston Breakers while Aubrey Bledsoe plays for the Orlando Pride.

TONY DA LUZ

HEAD COACH

ALMA MATER: SAN DIEGO, '85
21ST SEASON

WF RECORD: 248-155-41 (.605)

As head coach of the Wake Forest women's soccer team for 20 of the program's 23 seasons, Tony da Luz has built the Demon Deacons into an ACC and national powerhouse. Through 2016, he holds a 237-150-39 record at Wake Forest, with his 237 wins ranking third among coaches of ACC programs since the conference first recognized women's soccer in 1987.

Da Luz is one of only 10 coaches in Wake Forest history across all sports to win 200 games at the helm of the Demon Deacons. Under da Luz's guidance, Wake Forest has earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament in 18 out of 21 seasons. In 2011 he achieved his greatest success to date, leading the Demon Deacons to their first-ever College Cup appearance.

Recent years have seen Wake Forest reach a new level of women's soccer prominence. The Deacons captured the 2010 ACC Championship, the first in the history of the program, and made a return trip to the ACC Tournament final in 2011. The 2012 Wake Forest squad finished in a tie for second place in the ACC standings, equaling the program's best-ever finish.

Wake Forest's success under da Luz has not only been limited to the conference level. In addition to their 18 straight NCAA Tournament appearances through 2015, the Deacons also advanced to at least the second round in eight straight seasons and have reached the NCAA Quarterfinals twice - culminating in the program's first College Cup in 2011.

Prior to Wake Forest, da Luz spent five seasons at San Diego, where he finished with a 45-41-3 record. Da Luz was entrusted with starting the San Diego program from the ground up in 1992 and in his final two seasons he guided his teams to a 25-13-2 mark.

Da Luz achieved success as a player as a midfielder and defender while at San Diego. He was an All-WCC honorable mention selection in both 1981 and 1982. As team captain in 1982, he led the Toreros in assists and earned the team MVP award. Da Luz earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from San Diego in 1985.
