Match Notes

NCAA First Round

Penn State earned the 6th bid in program history to the NCAA Tournament. They were selected to travel to the Charlottesville Regional. They take on UNC Wilmington in the First Round. The Seahawks were regular season and postseason CAA Champions. The winner of that match will face the winner of the Virginia-Army match. Virginia is the No. 4 national seed and won the 2013 National Championship. Army won the Patriot League.

Last Time in NCAA Tournament

The Nittany Lions were last in the NCAA Tournament in 2008, when they also traveled to Charlottesville. They knocked off VCU, 4-0, in the First Round, but fell 4-0 to No. 1 Virginia in the Second Round.

Nittany Lions in NCAA Singles, Doubles

Sophomore Leo Stakhovsky was selected for the NCAA Singles Tournament. He is 17-6 this spring. Stakhovsky and Russell Bader were selected for the NCAA Doubles Tournament with a 17-5 mark.

This is the first time in PSU history that they have representatives in both the singles and doubles tournament.

NCAA Tournament History

1997

NCAA Region I at Harvard, No. 5 seed
May 9 vs. No. 4 Virginia Tech L, 4-2

The Nittany Lions earned their first NCAA Tournament berth in 1997 with a mark of 12-9 in the regular season and five Big Ten wins. They were selected as a No. 5 seed in the regional hosted by Harvard. However, the Nittany Lions dropped a 4-2 decision to the No. 4 seed Virginia Tech. Michael Carter led the Nittany Lions with 29 singles wins that year and was an All-Big Ten honoree.

1998

NCAA Region I at Princeton, No. 5 seed
May 15 vs. No. 4 Columbia W, 4-1
May 16 vs. No. 1 Harvard L, 4-0

Penn State made it back to the NCAA Tournament the following year, entering the tournament with 11 wins. The Nittany Lions earned the first tournament win in program history, knocking off Columbia, 4-1, in the first round of the regional hosted by Princeton. In the second round, Penn State fell to top seed, Harvard, 4-0.

2006

NCAA Regionals at VCU, No. 3 seed
May 12 vs. No. 2 Washington L, 4-2

The Nittany Lions returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2006, being selected as the No. 3 seed in the VCU regional. Penn State entered the tournament ranked 45th in the FILA Poll with a record of 17-6 and won five Big Ten matches. However, they dropped their first round match, 4-2, against Washington. Penn State won the doubles point with victories at No. 1 and No. 2. Washington took a 2-1 lead with wins at No. 1 and No. 2 singles. Adam Slagter earned a win at No. 4 singles to tie it back up at 2-2, but the Huskies clinched the match with three-set wins at No. 5 and No. 6.

2007

NCAA First and Second Round at USC
May 11 vs. No. 20 Pepperdine L, 4-1

Penn State earned their second straight NCAA Tournament bid in 2007 with a record of 16-6, including six conference wins. The Nittany Lions were ranked No. 42 in the nation entering the tournament and battled Pepperdine, the defending national champion, in the first round. The Waves took the doubles point with wins at No. 1 and No. 2. Penn State's Michael James earned a 7-5, 6-4 win against Pepperdine's Andre Begemann at No. 1 singles, but the Wave claimed wins at the No. 3, No. 5 and No. 6 positions.

2008

NCAA First and Second Round at Virginia
May 10 vs. VCU W, 4-0
May 11 vs. Virginia L, 4-0

The Blue and White were selected for the NCAA Tournament again in 2008. Penn State, ranked 39th in the ITA Poll, entered the tournament with a 16-11 record and six Big Ten wins. They also had eight wins that year against ranked opponents. In the first round, they took on VCU, ranked 27th. Penn State won the doubles point with victories at No. 1 and No. 3, led by their 32nd-ranked doubles pair of Michael James and Brendan Lynch at the top spot. James then set the tone in singles with his victory at No. 1. The Nittany Lions also got wins at No. 2 and No. 4 to advance to the second round. In the next round, they matched up against No. 1 Virginia. The Cavaliers took the doubles point, including a win by their top-ranked doubles team. Virginia claimed singles wins at No. 2, No. 5 and No. 6 to clinch the match.

Head Coach Jeff Zinn

Jeff Zinn is in his third season at the helm of the Penn State men's tennis program.

Under his leadership, Penn State is 21-5 this spring and went 8-3 in the Big Ten. Both of those marks set new program records for wins. The Nittany Lions also set school records for wins against ranked opponents with 10 and road wins against ranked opponents with 5. Penn State entered the ITA Top 25 for the first time in program history on March 26 and have been ranked among the Top 25 for six straight weeks, including a highest ranking of 16. Zinn helped to coach Leonard Stakhovsky and Russell Bader, who were both selected as All-Big Ten honorees. Stakhovsky was selected to compete in the NCAA Singles Championships, while both Bader and Stakhovsky were selected for the NCAA Doubles Tournament.

The Nittany Lions finished Zinn's second year as head coach with an 8-17 record. Penn State earned Big Ten wins over Iowa and Wisconsin. Penn State faced 19 teams that were ranked at some point during the season, including wins against New Mexico, Rice and Wisconsin. Penn State was ranked for two weeks, March 5-19, and reached as high as No. 69. It was Penn State's first appearance in the ITA Poll since March 8, 2011.

In his first campaign, Penn State went 11-14, 1-10 in the Big Ten. The squad went 10-4 during non-conference play, highlighted by a 4-3 home victory over #63 Princeton. The team went 8-1 during non-conference home games, including a five game win streak. The team also won seven of their last eight non-conference matchups. The Nittany Lions defeated Iowa 6-1 in their lone Big Ten victory. The Nittany Lions went winless in the Big Ten the previous season.

In 2012, Jason Lee and Russell Bader put together one of the top doubles performances in program history, going 14-1 on the year and 6-0 against ranked opponents. The duo advanced to the NCAA Doubles Championships, where they were defeated by #10 Oklahoma's doubles team. Bader and Lee finished the season ranked 28th in the final ITA Doubles Poll. Bader won a total of 24 doubles matches on the season, ranking third in program history for most doubles wins in a season.

Zinn came to Penn State after spending the 15 seasons with the Wake Forest Demon Deacons. Zinn's career record speaks for itself, as he posted a superb 231-157 record while at Wake Forest, including a 78-62 record in the rugged Atlantic Coast Conference.

Zinn has been credited with pushing the Wake Forest team from a perennial top-75 squad to a top-25 team. He also transformed the Demon Deacons into a top tier club in the ACC and NCAA. In just 15 years, Zinn led Wake Forest to 12 NCAA tournament appearances, including the current streak of 11 straight. Before his arrival in Winston-Salem, the Deacons never made the NCAA tournament.

Under Zinn's guidance, Wake Forest finished among the top four in the ACC seven times in his last 11 years there. The Deacons reached at least the semifinals of the ACC Championships for four straight years from 2007 to 2010, the longest such streak in the school's rich tennis history.

In 2011, Wake Forest posted a 14-12 record under Zinn's watch, notching his 11th straight winning season. He led the Demon Deacons to 10 wins against nationally ranked opponents, including a 4-0 win over No. 30 Wisconsin to open the season and a 4-0 victory against No. 46 Virginia Commonwealth in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Zinn has seen individuals blossom under his tutelage. In 2008, he led two players to the school's first ever individual NCAA Championship as the duo claimed the NCAA's Division I doubles title and became first team All-Americans. During Zinn's 15 years at Wake, his players collected 23 All-ACC honors. The school had only 12 all-conference players in the 42 years prior to his arrival.

The 1984 Cincinnati graduate continued his head coaching career as the head men's and women's tennis coach at Arkansas-Little Rock, where he was named the 1994 Sun Belt Coach of the Year and led Arkansas-Little Rock to the NCAA tournament in 1995 and 1996. He was also the 1992 Sun Belt Coach of the Year for his work with the Arkansas-Little Rock women's team. He coached in Little Rock for six seasons, amassing a combined 133-88 record, including a 79-48 mark with the men.

Zinn's collegiate coaching career began at Northern Kentucky where he coached for one year (1990). In just one season, he led Northern Kentucky to a conference championship, earning conference Coach of the Year honors. Prior to his season at Northern Kentucky, he spent seven years as the Director of Tennis at the West Side Racquet Club in Cincinnati.

An outstanding collegiate player himself, Zinn played number one singles and doubles at Eastern Kentucky and Cincinnati. Serving as the Bearcat captain, he was also named the team's Most Valuable Player as both a junior and senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology in '84. Zinn then went on to earn his master's degree in public administration from Arkansas-Little Rock in 1994 and worked as an adjunct professor in the sociology department. He is certified by both the USPTA and the USPTR.

Assistant Coach Paul Tobin

Paul Tobin is in his first season as an assistant coach after joining the program in August 2013.

Tobin joined the Nittany Lions with seven years of college coaching experience, including three years as the head men's and women's coach for the Division I, Saint Francis University.

Prior to Penn State, Coach Tobin successfully turned around the Division I, Saint Francis University Men's and Women's programs into top teams in the NEC conference. In less than four seasons coaching the Red Flash, the team compiled 52 wins and over 523 individual wins in singles and doubles.

During his stay at Saint Francis, Tobin led both squads to three quarterfinal Northeast Conference appearances from 2010-2013. The women's program finished a historic year in 2013, picking up 13 wins and a .600 record, the largest increase in Red Flash history. In 2013, the Red Flash women's team clinched the #1 Northeast Conference Team Sportsmanship Award.

Under Coach Tobin's tenure, his players held stellar academic records with an overall GPA of 3.4. Twelve members of his squad made Honor Roll during his term. In 2011, the men's tennis program was recognized by the NCAA for its high academic achievement, posting an APR score among the top 10% in men's tennis.

While at Saint Francis, he was instrumental in raising over $12,000 for cancer research. In Feb of 2012, Coach Tobin was honored at an award ceremony hosted by the University of Pittsburgh Cancer Center for his generous contribution and support.

Prior to Saint Francis, Tobin was the assistant coach for the 9th ranked men's and 19th ranked women's tennis teams at Division II Georgia College & State University. During his three seasons there, Coach Tobin helped the men compiled a 51-18 record while the women achieved 36-19. The men also made NCAA Regional appearances in 2009, 2010 and 2011, winning the Peach Belt Conference in 2009. Both programs qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and 2010, advancing to the quarterfinals and semifinals in both years.

In 2009, Tobin helped lead the squad to an 18-4 overall record with a perfect 7-0 mark in conference play for the first PBC Men's Tennis Championship in school history. A major highlight of the season came when Georgia College defeated then-No. 1 Armstrong Atlantic during the regular season 5-4 and reached a school-record ranking of 4th in the nation. During Tobin's Tenure at GA College, he helped develop five All-American singles players.

During the off-seasons, Tobin works at the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing Meadows, N.Y. assisting USTA player development and as a staff professional for the NTC advanced academy. From 2005-10, Tobin served as the Head Tennis Professional for the City of Macon, Georgia, JDS Tennis Center - one of the largest public facilities in the south.

Coach Tobin has also worked with University of Georgia Head Coach Manny Diaz and ATP tour player John Isner, as their director of on-court drilling for their summer tennis programs. Tobin spent time as a travelling professional for Tennis Europe, a program designed to train junior tennis teams traveling throughout Europe competing in ITF tournaments.

Tobin holds the highest levels of certification, receiving a P-1 rating from USPTA, Professional rating from PTR and is one of only 155 USTA High Performance Coaches in the United States. He also holds a Level 3 Certification from the International Tennis Federation.

In 2011, Tobin was named the Northeast Representative for the ITA Operating Committee. The operating committee works with the NCAA and USTA helping to oversee and regulate tennis policies for Division I men's and women's tennis. Coach Tobin was chosen from a pool of candidates, all representing Division 1 programs on the east coast.

In addition to his accomplishments in coaching, Tobin is also the developer of SlingHopper Drill Bags - a worldwide tennis-teaching product endorsed by legendary coaches Nick Bollettieri and Brad Gilbert, who serve as the company's spokespersons. The product has become widely used in the coaching community and can be found on the practice courts at many Grand Slam events.

As a collegiate player, Tobin competed at the Division 1 level for top NEC ranked Quinnipiac University and the University of Maryland. Tobin, who was named captain, played #1 singles and doubles for the Bobcats and posted a .700 record in regular season play.

A Long Island, N.Y. native, Tobin received his bachelor's degree from the University of Maryland and a Master's degree in Athletic Administration and Coaching from Concordia University.
