MEDIA INFO

Coch Washington's Availability

All interview requests for head coach Coquese Washington should be directed to Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office.

Coach Washington will hold weekly press conferences during the season. A schedule is available by calling the Strategic Communications office.

Coach Washington will not be available on game day prior to tip-off. Post game press conferences will be held after each game, home and away.

Player Interviews

All player interviews must be arranged through Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office at least two days in advance. Players will be available on a weekly basis throughout the season, in conjunction with head coach Coquese Washington's weekly press conference. Interviews will not be granted on game day prior to tip-off.

Players will return phone calls only upon clearance with the Strategic Communications office. They may also be scheduled for one-on-one interviews in person. Player phone numbers will not be released.

Following games, requested Penn State players will be brought to the post-game media interview room. The Penn State locker room is closed.

Credentials

Single game and season press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for credentials should be directed to Greg Campbell. Please submit requests for game credentials at least one week in advance of each game. Press credentials can be picked up at Media Will Call, which is located at the Media/Team entrance, on the south side of the Bryce Jordan Center, near Parking Lot 8.

Photographers

Courtside photographers must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas and stands. Photographers must remain seated at all times.

Radio Networks

The Penn State Sports Network originates from the first row of Booth C23 in the press area. Visiting stations are provided one phone line and one ISDN line, and are located on the first row of Booth C22 in the press area.

Press Row Seating

To access the press seating area, turn left out of the media room, walk down the hallway and take the elevator to the Concourse level. Please allow several minutes when taking the elevator to press row or the media room.

When leaving the elevator, turn right. The press area is at Portal 23. Final statistics and a running play-by-play will be available in the media room following the game.

Game Notes

Game notes will be provided at least one day in advance of each game. Penn State, Big Ten and opposing team game notes will be available in the media room two hours prior to each game. If you would like to receive game notes via email, please contact Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office.

LAST TIME OUT

GAME 19: AT PENN STATE 86, NEBRASKA 69

Jan. 19, 2017 | Bryce Jordan Center | University Park, Pa. | Attn: 2,645
Officials: Roy Gulbeyan, Michael McConnell, Tiara Cruise

- » Lindsey Spann became the 37th member of the Lady Lions' 1000-point club with 14 points tonight, doing so in 78 games.
- » She is also the 19th member of the 1000-point, 200-assist club, ending the night with 204 helpers and 1,005 points.
- » Teniya Page surpassed the 800-point mark with 18 points on the evening, ending the night with 809 points.
- » Adding a team-best five assists, it was her 23rd career game of at least 10 points and 4 assists, and her 17th career game with 5-plus helpers.
- » Page led the Blue and White in both scoring and assists in the same game for the 11th time in her career.
- » Peyton Whitted scored 14 points for her fourth double-digit game of the season and 23rd of her career.
- » Jaida Travascio-Green posted back-to-back double-figure scoring games for the first time in her career with 10 points vs. Nebraska. She also had 10 points in the victory over Wisconsin on Jan. 16.
- » Travascio-Green's passed Jess Brungo for No. 8 on the freshman 3-pointers made charts with to 29 connections from distance.
- » The three made 3-pointers give Travascio-Green five games with at least three makes from long range.
- » Kaliyah Mitchell blocked a career-best four shots vs. Nebraska.
- » Penn State improved to 10-1 at the BJC in 2016-17.
- » Penn State's posted back-to-back games with 10-or-fewer missteps, committing just six vs. Wisconsin (1/16) and 10 vs. Nebraska (1/19).
- » The consecutive games with 10 or fewer turnovers marks the first time since 2003-04 that Penn State had back-to-back games with 10 or fewer turnovers. Penn State turned the ball over just nine times in games vs. Minnesota (1/22/04) and at Ohio State (1/25/04).

Rare Scoring Company

- » On Sunday, Dec. 3 inside the Bryce Jordan Center, sophomore Teniya Page accomplished something that only one other Lady Lion has done in program history: record a 30-point game in both her freshman and sophomore season.
- » The Chicago native netted 31 points as a rookie vs. Michigan on Jan. 17, 2016 and equaled that output against Marshall on Dec. 3, 2016.
- » Page added her third career 30-point game vs. American on Dec. 18, 2016 with 30 tallies. MORE ON PAGE 11
- » Only Kelly Mazzante - Penn State's all-time leading scorer, men's or women's - scored 30 points in a game during her freshman and sophomore season or had three-or-more such efforts in her first two seasons. Mazzante did it twice as a rookie and 12 times as a sophomore.
- » Furthermore, Mazzante, Page, Maggie Lucas and Kadadeejah Herbert are the only players in school history with multiple 30-point games in their freshman and sophomore campaigns. Lucas and Herbert each tallied two 30-point efforts as sophomores, but did not reach the mark as freshmen.

JUST THE FACTS

Taking the Lead

- » Against Nebraska on Thursday, Jan. 19, Teniya Page led the team in scoring and assists, ticking off 18 points and five helpers. MORE ON PAGE 36.
- » It marked the 11th time in her career she led the team in both categories for the same game and the fifth time in 2016-17.
- » Overall, Page has led the team in scoring on 21 occasions and paced the team in assists in 29 contests.

- » In 49 career games in the blue and white, sophomore Teniya Page has produced 23 games playing at least 38 minutes, and of those games, 10 of them have featured at least 40 minutes.
- » Page has produced 10 games of at least 40 minutes in her career, including two in 2016-17.
- » Page has not fouled out of a game in her career, reaching four fouls in only eight games.
- » As a rookie, she finished ranked No. 14 in the NCAA and No. 3 in the BIG with 37.6 minutes per game.
- » The sophomore currently ranks No. 2 on the all-time list, with only four other players in school history averaging more than 34 minutes per game.

36.7	Jess Strom (133)	2001-05
36.1	Teniya Page (39 games)	2015-present
35.0	Suzie McConnell (128)	1984-88
34.9	Brianne O'Rourke (120)	2005-09
34.1	Kelly Mazzante (133)	2000-04
- » Perspective: Page's 16 games of at least 38 minutes last season were more than the rest of the team combined in 2015-16. Only four other players (12 times) played at least 38 minutes in a game.

Reaching Double Figures

- » In 49 career games, Teniya Page has reached double-figures in the scoring column on 41 occasions, including a streak of nine-straight games from Nov. 25-Dec. 28, 2016. MORE ON PAGE 14 & 36
- » Page scored 10-plus points in six-straight games from the 2015-16 season before getting only nine points vs. Georgia State on Nov. 24 and saw a nine-game stretch with 10-plus points come to an end at Purdue on Jan. 7.
- » For the Chicago native, just reaching 10 points is not enough. Of her 41 double-figure scoring games, 30 of them have seen her score more than 15 points.
- » The 41 games of 10-or-more points includes three 30-point effort and 10 other 20-point games.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"Film doesn't do [Page] justice... the way she moves, her pace, her timing and her decision making; she doesn't seem to get rushed and as a young player that is critical. She is so poised for a young player, and she has all three levels; she can get to the rim, she can shoot the mid-range jumper and she can hit the three-point shot."

-Stephanie White, former BTN analyst and current Vanderbilt head coach.

Giveth and Scoreth

- » One thing that sophomore Teniya Page has done well in her career is score, while also keeping her teammates involved in the game.
- » Of her 49 career games, Page has scored at least 10 points and handed out at least four assists in the same game on 23 occasions.

Tough Down the Stretch

- » They are the moments a player dreams about: time running out, team is down one and you have the ball in your hand. For sophomore Teniya Page, she has already had a number of these moments in her career.
- » Page has a trio of games with last minute moments already this season, including go-ahead buckets at Boston College and vs. Marshall.
- » vs. American, Page twice helped Penn State fight off a late charge from the Eagles, going 5-of-6 from the foul line in the final 33 seconds to seal the win and push her scoring total to 30 points for the game.
- » Against Marshall on Dec. 3, the Lady Lions found themselves trailing by one, 77-76 with 0:46 left to play. Page brought the ball up the court, hesitated and then cut through the lane for her 10th basket of the game to give the Lady Lions the lead for good.
- » In the ACC/Big Ten Challenge at Boston College on Nov. 30, Penn State found itself trailing 56-54 with 40 ticks left after a Mariella Fasoula basket. Page drove the baseline, hit runner and was fouled -- connecting on the free throw -- to give Penn State the lead for good.

B1G Crunch Time

- » As a freshman, Teniya Page averaged 5.8 points per game (35 points) in the fourth quarter of Penn State's six Big Ten victories, playing 57 of the 60 minutes.
- » As a rookie, Page was 12-of-19 from the floor (.632), including 3-of-4 from three-point range. She also hit 8-of-11 free throws (.727).
- » At Michigan State, Page scored eight points in the final 2:50 of the fourth quarter - including the go-ahead jumper with 1:01 remaining - to help PSU rally from a 14-point third quarter deficit for the road win over the nationally-ranked Spartans.
- » At Illinois, Page scored 13 fourth quarter points to help PSU complete a come-from-behind win.
- » Overall in the fourth quarter of Big Ten games in 2015-16, Page was 29-of-76 (.382) from the field and 10-of-20 (.500) from 3-point range. She had 16 assists and seven steals in 18 games.

BIG TIME

B1G POTW: Opening Act

- » After averaging 26.0 points per game and leading the Lady Lions to a pair of wins, including a victory over then No. 13 Tennessee, Teniya Page was named Big Ten Player of the Week.
- » Page also averaged 5.0 rebounds and 4.0 assists per game on the week.
- » It is the first Player of the Week honor for Page and her second career B1G honor, earning Freshman of the Week once during the 2015-16 season.

B1G POTW: Part 2

- » Page recorded back-to-back 20-point games for the second time in her career, both coming this season, after tallying 24 points at Boston College and tying a career-high with 31 points vs. Marshall.
- » She averaged 27.5 points, 3.0 assists and 2.5 rebounds per contest, while making 67 percent of her shots from 3-point range.
- » The sophomore continued to show the clutch gene, hitting the go-ahead buckets with under 35 seconds left in each victory on the week.

B1G POTW: Third Time

- » After logging a team-best three finals during finals week, Teniya Page was back to basketball on Sunday, Dec. 18 vs. American.
- » Page notched her third career 30-point game with 30 tallies, joining Kelly Mazzante as the only two players in program history with three 30-points games prior to the end of a sophomore campaign.
- » She connected on 15-of-17 free throws, with both totals ranking No. 2 on the Penn State single game charts.
- » Page added three assists and three rebounds.

B1G In the Books

- » With her third Big Ten Player of the Week honor of the season, Page joins a list that includes just four other Lady Lions that have earned three-or-more B1G POTW honors in the same season.
- » Her multiple B1G POTW honors mark just the 13th time in Penn State's 25 seasons in the conference that a Lady Lion earned multiple honors in the same season.

SPANN'S STORYBOARD

A Grand for Spann

- » Lindsey Spann reached the 1,000-point plateau on Jan. 19 vs. Nebraska with a fourth quarter jumper. MORE ON THE LEFT
- » Spann is the 37th member of the 1,000-point club and did it in 79 games.

Spann Hits For 30, Again

- » Only 11 Lady Lions have ever posted multiple games with 30 points in a career and junior Lindsey Spann is one of them after a career-high 31-point effort vs. Saint Peter's on Sunday, Nov. 13, 2016. MORE ON PAGE 11
- » Spann connected on 13-of-18 shots - including 4-of-8 from 3-point range - and made her only free throw attempt on her way to 31 tallies.
- » Spann notched 30 points on Jan. 3, 2016 at Minnesota, making 10-of-18 shots, including seven 3-pointers. She made three free throws vs. the Gophers.
- » In 2015-16, Spann and Teniya Page became just the second set of teammates to reach the 30-point mark during the same season. In 1999-2000, Maren Walseth netted 35 points vs. Michigan (1/27/2000) and Lisa Shepard had 31 points vs. St. Joseph's (11/27/1999).

Long Range Lindsey

- » In 79 career games, Lindsey Spann has ascended into the upper echelon of the single season and career charts for 3-point shooting at Penn State. MORE ON PAGE 12.
- » In 2015-16, she became just the 14th player in Penn State history to hit the century mark in shots from distance - doing so in just 60 games.
- » Spann moved into the top-10 in career 3-pointers made with her third of three makes on Dec. 7 at Holy Cross, moving her career total to 118 career makes.
- » She currently ranks No. 8 on the all-time charts with 132 makes. She trails Zhaque Gray's 149 made triples from 2009-12 for No. 7 on the list.
- » Her 65 makes from long range in 2015-16 sit tied with Kelly Mazzante (2000-01) for No. 11 on the single season charts.
- » Spann's seven three-pointers at Minnesota were the most in a single game in 2015-16 for Penn State and sit tied for No. 4 on the Lady Lion single game charts.

A Helping Hand

- » Of the 37 members of the 1,000-point club, only 18 of them have reached the century mark and handed out over 200 assists.
- » Junior Lindsey Spann joined this exclusive group on Thursday, Jan. 19 vs. Nebraska, as she passed the 200-assist plateau on Jan. 11, 2017 at Maryland. MORE ON PAGE 8.
- » The club gets even more exclusive when you talk about 250 assists, with just 12 Lady Lions a member of the 1,000-point, 250 assist club.

Spann Solid From The Stripe

- » Junior Lindsey Spann has moved her named into the discussion as one of the top free throw shooters in school history. MORE ON PAGE 12.
- » Spann has made 149-of-189 shots from charity stripe in her career to rank tied for No. 13 on the career free throw percentage list at .788.
- » Her .877 free throw percentage (57-of-65) in 2015-16 ranks tied for No. 8 on the single season charts with Jess Strom's 71-of-81 effort in 2002-03.

In the Scoring Column

- » In Penn State history, only 10 players have ever averaged in double figures for four seasons, and junior Lindsey Spann is working on her third such season on the floor.
- » Spann led the team with a 13.2 points per game average as a rookie and followed that with a 13.0 points per contest as a sophomore.
- » This season, Spann is again among the double-figure scorers on the team and her career per-game average of 12.7 points per game ranks No. 18 on the all-time scoring charts. MORE IN LEFT SIDE BAR.

MOORE'S MEMOIRS

RECORD WATCH ~ CAREER

Moore Is Better

- » Senior Sierra Moore missed the entire 2015-16 season due to injury, meaning her last on-court appearance before the 2016-17 season opener came on March 3, 2015 in the Big Ten Tournament.
- » Her absence spanned 617 days before she returned on Friday, Nov. 11, 2016 at Drexel.
- » Against the Dragons, Moore tied for the team lead with 15 points, connecting on 7-of-8 shots from the floor and 1-of-2 attempts from the free throw line. She added four rebounds and two assists in 32 minutes on the floor.

Starting Five

- » After missing all of 2015-16 due to injury, Sierra Moore made her first start of the season at Rutgers on Jan. 31, 2016 and has started four games in 2016-17, so far.
- » Her last start came vs. Indiana on March 4, 2015 at the Big Ten Tournament, a start that made her the only Lady Lion to start all 30 games in 2014-15.
- » She scored 14 points for the Lady Lions and grabbed five rebounds, with two steals and one assist.
- » Moore got the starting nod at No. 3/3 Maryland and vs. Wisconsin, scoring 10 points in each game. She added nine points against Nebraska.

Benching It

- » In 19 games this season, senior Sierra Moore has made four starts, but that is not something the fifth-year college player is going to let have an effect on her game.
- » Mostly coming off the bench, she ranks No. 3 on the team in scoring and No. 4 on the team in rebounding.
- » Her efforts and example has led to one of the most productive benches in recent years for the Blue and White. This season the Penn State reserves are averaging 23.9 points per game, more than 11.0 points per game better than the opposition.
- » Overall, Moore has added 30 assists and 12 steals in 22.6 minutes per game.

Different Degrees of Moore

- » Senior guard Sierra Moore walked across the stage at the Bryce Jordan Center last April as a member of The Pennsylvania State University's graduating class of 2016.
- » The Hanover, Pa., native accepted her diploma, a B.A. in broadcast & journalism, and is now working on a master's degree in human resources & employment relations.
- » Moore missed the 2015-16 season due to injury (knee), after averaging 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.8 assists in 2014-15.

Loving the Game

- » In three-plus seasons on the University Park campus, senior Sierra Moore has appeared in just 40 games, but that is not a reflection of her skill or ability on the court.
- » Moore began her collegiate career as at Duke University and played in 25 games as a true freshman.
- » She transferred following the 2012-13 season and sat out the 2013-14 campaign due to NCAA transfer rules.
- » After being the only player to start all 30 games during the 2014-15 campaign, Moore missed the entire 2015-16 campaign due to injury (knee).
- » Perspective: In her first 1,095 days on campus, Moore had played in only 30 basketball games.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"As a head coach, it is great to look down the bench and see a player like Sierra Moore down there that you know can come in and make an impact. She brings a lot of intensity and speed to our lineup and is hard to defend. She can also defend a guard or a post, which gives us a lot of flexibility in our lineup. She is such a great teammate and sets a really good example."

-Coquese Washington, Penn State head coach

CARTER COMMENTARY

FULL BIO ON PAGE 30

Careful Carter

- » Early on as a collegiate basketball student-athlete, Amari Carter is already making an impact in the right ways.
- » Her 3.19 assist to turnover ratio leads the Big Ten and sits No. 8 in the NCAA as of Jan. 20.
- » Her 4.5 assists per game are tops on the team and No. 9 in the Big Ten.
- » In 19 games, the floor general has 10 games with at least five assists and two-or-fewer turnovers.
- » Overall, Carter has 16 games with two-or-fewer turnovers and 10 games with at least five assists.

Turtle Power

- » Amari Carter honed her skills at St. John's College High School in Washington D.C., with her high school gym just nine miles from the University of Maryland's XFINITY Center.
- » On Jan. 11, she played her first collegiate game in front of her hometown faithful and delivered one of the finest performances of her career.
- » Against the Terps, Carter netted a career-high 22 points on 11-of-19 shooting, added a game-high-tying eight assists and only posted two turnovers in a career-high 39 minutes on the court.
- » She pulled down four rebounds and added one steal to her stat line vs. the Terps.

Helping Hand

- » Amari Carter is looking to become the fourth different player in the last four years to lead the team in assists.
- » It would be the first time in school history that four different players topped the assist charts in consecutive seasons. From 1983-84 to 2012-13 (30 years), only nine Lady Lions led the team in assists, with seven of them doing so for four-straight years.
- » Carter looks poised to become the next in the long line of Point Guard U protégés, averaging 4.5 assists per game through 19 contests.
- » She has led the team in assists on 11 occasions this season, including 10 games with at least five helpers.

TEAM TIDBITS

Forcing the TO

- » It is no coincidence that time out and turnovers go by the same acronym; TO, because when a rash of turnovers occur, it usually prompts a time out. MORE ON PAGE 15
- » Penn State has been forcing a lot TOs this season, ranking No. 3 in the Big Ten with 17.16 turnovers forced per game.
- » Penn State has 12 games this season forcing 16-plus turnovers, including a season-high 24 turnovers forced at Holy Cross on Dec. 7.
- » Penn State forced 20-plus turnovers in back-to-back games on Jan. 11 and Jan. 17, coaxing No. 3/3 Maryland in 21 missteps and Wisconsin into 23 turnovers.
- » Penn State's turnover margin of +3.21 ranks No. 3 in the Big Ten and No. 57 nationally.
- » Merely forcing turnovers hasn't been enough for the Lady Lions, as they have turned those turnovers into 402 points, or an average of 21.1 points per game.

Bench Warmers

- » The Penn State reserves have given the team a huge lift this season and are averaging 24.6 points per game, which is more than double its average from a season ago.
- » As a team, Penn State holds a plus-11.9 points per game average in bench scoring, 24.6-12.7.
- » Senior Sierra Moore has been the catalyst off the bench, averaging 8.2 points per game in 15 appearances off the pine.
- » Five players are averaging better than 5.0 points per game when coming off the bench this season
- » Senior Peyton Whitted at 6.4 ppg in 17 games as a reserve, while true freshman Jaida Travascio-Green is adding 5.6 points when coming off the bench.
- » More recently, junior Lindsey Spann and senior Kalayah Mitchell have moved into a bench role. Both are making an impact, averaging 10.2 and 6.7 points per game, respectively.
- » Perspective: In 2015-16, Penn State's bench scored just 10.6 points per game and only Candice Agee averaged better than 5.0 points per game for the season.

3-Point Prowess

- » Penn State has shown a tendency to connect on the shot from distance this season, averaging 6.6 makes per game from 3-point range.
- » Penn State currently ranks No. 6 in the Big Ten and No. 103 nationally in 3-pointers made per game.
- » The Lady Lions have connected on at least eight 3-pointers in nine games in 2016-17.
- » The Lady Lions are on pace to move into the upper echelon in school history for makes from 3-point range in a single season.
- » Penn State is on pace to make over 190 3-point shots this season, which would rank among the top-5 in school history.

Scoreboard Workout

- » Penn State wanted to make sure they played at the pace that head coach Coquese Washington wanted and to be sure all of the scoreboard's lights were working with a 106-point effort vs. Saint Peter's.
- » The 106-50 win marked the 49th time in program history the Lady Lions hit the century mark and their 106 points are tied for 19th on the all-time single game scoring list.
- » Furthermore, Penn State scored 64 points in the first half, marking the first time the Lady Lions scored over 60 points in a half since November 8, 2013 vs. Saint Francis (Pa.).
- » The 106-point game against Saint Peter's was the first time the Lady Lions scored over 100 points since beating Saint Francis (Pa.), 117-77 in 2013.
- » The Lady Lions won by 56 points, the largest margin of victory since a 101-44 victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 2, 2012.

Toppling Rocky Top

- » Penn State came close last season in Knoxville, but Tennessee was able to hold on for a victory on Nov. 18 in Thompson-Boling Arena, but on Nov. 20, 2016, the Lady Lions came through with a 70-56 defeat of the Lady Vols.
- » The Blue and White picked up its first double-digit win over a top-25 team since it defeated No. 23/22 Iowa 87-71 Jan. 5, 2014.
- » The Lady Lions improved to 2-9 all-time against Tennessee, with both wins coming at home. The victory Saturday was preceded by a 79-74 victory in Rec Hall on Jan. 27, 1985.
- » Head coach Coquese Washington now has 22 wins over ranked opponents in her 10 seasons at the helm of the Lady Lion program.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"Right now i think a positive is that we are playing with composure and poise, especially in close games. We have been able to make winning plays on both ends of the floor and that has made a big difference. It is good to see a young team making smart decisions in tough situations."

-Coquese Washington, Penn State head coach

900 In the Books

- » In its 53rd season playing women's basketball, Penn State became just the 16th program in Division I women's basketball to earn 900 victories in program history with a convincing win over Saint Peter's, 106-50, on Sunday, Nov. 13.
- » Penn State joins Big Ten brethren Ohio State, Maryland and Rutgers in the exclusive 900-win club.

Starting Strong at Home

- » Penn State won each of its first seven home games, marking the 15th time in program history started with at least seven victories to open the home slate.
- » Head coach Coquese Washington won the first seven games of a home slate in three of her 10 seasons.
- » The Lady Lions have 10 unblemished seasons at home, including the 2012-13 squad that went 14-0 and the 2002-03 which won a school-record 16 games.

Opening on the Road

- » Penn State opened a season on the road for the first time since the 2010-11 season (at Dayton) with an 83-60 loss at Drexel on Friday, Nov. 11.
- » Since 2006-07, Penn State has now opened on the road four times; at Dayton (2010-11) and at Drexel (2016-17, 2009-10 and 2006-07).
- » Starting its 53rd season on the road, Penn State has opened with a true road game on 18 occasions. The Lady Lions are 11-7 in those contests, with the season-opening loss to the Dragons snapping a three-game winning streak.

First Timers

- » The 2016-17 season brings five new teams to the Lady Lion record books, with four of the five games being played at the Bryce Jordan Center.
- » Penn State posted a 5-0 record against teams it met for the first time; defeating Akron, Georgia State, Iona, Marshal and Saint Peter's.

BALL CONTROL

- » Penn State picked up right where it left off during the 2015-16 season: limiting turnovers. After becoming just the fifth Lady Lion squad to average under 15.0 turnovers per game last year, they are sitting among that company again this season.
- » Of the top-10 seasons in fewest turnovers, four of them have come under head coach Coquese Washington.
- » The top-10 seasons for offensive efficiency are below;

No.	TOpg	Season
1.	13.1	2003-04
2.	13.8	2004-05
3.	13.9	2002-03

8.	15.4	2007-08
9.	15.6	1993-94
	15.6	1992-93

- » Penn State posted back-to-back games with 10-or-fewer turnovers vs. Wisconsin (6) and Nebraska (10), marking the first time since 2003-04 it accomplished that feat. That season the Lady Lions committed nine turnovers each vs. Minnesota (1/22/04) and Ohio State (1/25/04).
- » Of the 27 games Penn State has had with eight or fewer turnovers since 1990-91, 13 have come from Coquese Washington coached teams.
- » Penn State had seven games with 10 or fewer turnovers in 2015-16 and have four such efforts in 2016-17.
- » A list of the fewest single game turnovers since 1990-91 is below with Coquese Washington coached teams in bold.

PLAYER PARABLES

Mitchell a 10 on the Boards

- » The first double-double of the 2016-17 season came via a 17-point, 12-rebound effort from Kaliyah Mitchell on Wednesday, Nov. 16 evening vs. Akron.
- » Mitchell followed that with a 12-point, 11-rebound effort vs. No. 13/13 Tennessee.
- » It is the second time in her career she has posted back-to-back double-doubles, the first time coming on Jan. 22 and Jan. 25 vs. Indiana and Northwestern, respectively.
- » Overall, Mitchell has nine career double-doubles. MORE ON PAGE 14 & 40.
- » The senior also nabbed 10 rebounds at Boston College on Nov. 30 to give her 16 career games with 10-plus rebounds, including three this season.

Whitted Doubles Up

- » After logging her first seven career double-doubles in 2015-16, Peyton Whitted added her career totals with a 15-point, 11-rebound effort off the bench vs. Georgia State on Friday, Nov. 25 at the San Juan Shootout.
- » Whitted had just one 10-plus rebound effort in her career entering 2015-16, a 10-board performance at Illinois on Jan. 19, 2014 - her freshman season.
- » As a junior, Whitted ripped off 11 games with 10-or-more rebounds, including the seven double-double efforts. MORE ON PAGE 14 & 48.

600 Club

- » More exclusive than Penn State's 1,000-point club, the 600-rebound group currently has just 22 members, including senior Kaliyah Mitchell. Fellow fourth-year Peyton Whitted is also knocking on the door. MORE ON PAGE 8
- » Mitchell secured her 500th rebound in the opening game of the 2016 Big Ten Tournament vs. Illinois and corralled career rebound No. 600 vs. Wisconsin on Jan. 16, 2017, just 19 games later.
- » Mitchell currently sits No. 22 on the career rebound charts with 612 caroms.
- » For Whitted, she notched rebound No. 500 vs. Georgetown on Nov. 25 in Dayton Beach, Fla., thanks largely to her 256-rebound season in 2015-16.
- » Overall, Whitted ranks No. 26 on the list with 571 rebounds, trailing only Kim Calhoun for a spot in the top-25.

Boykin Strong in Debut

- » Redshirt-freshman De'Janae Boykin waited a season and a half for the day to come. After transferring from Connecticut last season and missing the first 10 games of 2016-17 due to NCAA Transfer rules, Boykin finally suited up for her first collegiate basketball game vs. American on Dec. 18.
- » The Springdale, Md. native, scored 10 points on 5-of-9 shooting and tied for game high with six rebounds. She also added one assist in her debut.
- » In her second game versus Iona, Boykin tallied 12 points and pulled down nine rebounds in just 20 minutes of play.
- » Boykin transferred to Penn State in December 2015 and sat out the first semester to fulfill the NCAA Transfer Rule requirements.

Strong in the Classroom

- » As a basketball student-athlete you are in a position to start the fall and end the spring focused mainly on academics, but the middle of the year features basketball and books.
- » From traveling to away games, studying on planes and finding time to eat, sleep and stay healthy, it was good news for head coach Coquese Washington when her team came through the fall semester with better than a 3.00 team GPA.
- » The quartet of Sarah McMurtry, Kaliyah Mitchell, Lindsey Spann and Peyton Whitted all earned Dean's List honors, while McMurtry and Mitchell came through with perfect 4.00 GPAs for the semester.

Books & Basketball

- » Senior guard Sierra Moore walked across the stage at the Bryce Jordan Center last April as a member of The Pennsylvania State University's graduating class of 2016.
- » The Hanover, Pa., native accepted her diploma, a B.A. in broadcast & journalism, and is now working on a master's degree in human resources & employment relations.
- » Moore missed the 2015-16 season due to injury (knee), after averaging 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.8 assists in 2014-15.
- » The trio of Kaliyah Mitchell, Lindsey Spann and Peyton Whitted all excelled on the court and in the classroom during the 2015-16 campaign, earning Academic All-Big Ten honors.
- » Along with her academic honor, Spann was an honorable mention All-Big Ten performer, as well.
- » Mitchell and Whitted were also members of the Dean's List following the 2016 spring semester.

PROGRAM POSTSCRIPT

#WePlayOn

- » Penn State ended the WNBA season with three players on active rosters, including Tanisha Wright, who helped the New York Liberty to the third-best record in the league.
- » Wright ended her 12th season in the league with 6.7 points and 3.6 assists per game.
- » Her assists-per-game average ranked 16th in the WNBA and she moved into No. 13 in league history with 1,231 helpers in 393 career regular season games.
- » Alex Bentley finished her third season in Connecticut and ranked among the top-30 in the WNBA in scoring average (22nd, 12.9), minutes played per game (25, 28.8), 3-pointers made (8th, 48) and assists (29th, 85).
- » Bentley was an All-Star in 2015, scoring a team-best 23 points off the bench for the East to go along with five assists.
- » Maggie Lucas missed the 2016 season due to injury (knee), after seeing action in 30 games during 2015, helping the Fever to an Eastern Conference title and a WNBA Finals.

Naming Captains

- » After a summer of growth and improvements on and off the court, the Penn State women's basketball team named seniors Kaliyah Mitchell and Peyton Whitted, and sophomore Sarah McMurtry as tri-captains for the 2016-17 season.
- » Mitchell won't be the first to raise her voice, but her actions on the court and in the classroom speak loud enough. A two-time Academic All-Big Ten performer, she also ranks among the school's career leaders in rebounds and free throw percentage.
- » Whitted's leadership role continued to expand following her breakout junior campaign. Whitted is a two-time Academic All-Big Ten performer that spent the summer interning with WPSU Penn State as a member of their video production unit and leading workouts with younger players.
- » Every team needs someone that continually places team before self, and McMurtry embodies what it is to be a great teammate. After joining the team as a walk-on in October 2015, she quickly stood out as one of the hardest working and most respected players in the program.

McDonald's All-Americans

- » The Lady Lions have a pair of McDonald's High School All-Americans suiting up this season in redshirt-freshman De'Janae Boykin and graduate student Sierra Moore.
- » Boykin was a part of the 2015 game, while Moore was among a pair of current or former Lady Lions to suit up in the 2012 contest, joining Candice Agee.
- » Prior to Coquese Washington taking the reins, the Lady Lions only had one McDonald's High School All-American in program history, but now boast seven total.
- » Since arriving in Happy Valley, Washington has attracted six McDonald's All-Americans;
 - » Dara Taylor - 2009 Game
 - » Maggie Lucas - 2010 Game
 - » Brianna Banks - 2011 Game
 - » Candice Agee - 2012 Game
 - » Sierra Moore - 2012 Game
 - » De'Janae Boykin - 2015 Game

Robinson Bestowed Silver Anniversary Award

- » Lady Lion legend Susan Robinson Fruchtl was selected as one of six recipients of the 2017 NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, bestowed upon outstanding former student-athletes on the 25th anniversary of the end of their intercollegiate eligibility.
- » The Silver Anniversary Awards will be presented at the Honors Celebration in Nashville on January 18.
- » Robinson Fruchtl is the first Big Ten women's basketball student-athlete to earn the Silver Anniversary Award.
- » After four seasons on the court for the blue and white, graduated in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. She also earned a master's degree in higher education from Penn State in 1998 and a master's degree in secondary guidance from Slippery Rock University in 2000.
- » The fourth Penn State student-athlete to receive the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, Robinson Fruchtl joins Mike Reid (1995), Dave Joyner (1997) and Todd Blackledge (2008) as honorees to don the blue and white.
- » Robinson is one of only two players in Penn State history to score 2,000 points and record 1,000 rebounds.
- » Ending her career as the school's career leader in points scored, Robinson Fruchtl currently sits No. 3 on Penn State's all-time scoring charts at 2,253 points and remains No. 2 on the career rebounds charts with 1,070 boards.
- » As a senior, she was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America first team, Kodak Women's Basketball Coaches Association All-America first team and U.S. Basketball Writers Association All-America first team. She earned the 1992 Wade Trophy as the national player of the year and was recognized by the NCAA as a Top VIII Award recipient.

Adding to the Family

- » On Wednesday, Nov. 9, the Penn State women's basketball program added a pair of student-athletes for the 2017-18 campaign; guard Kamaria McDaniel and post Alisia Smith.
- » McDaniel and Smith both inked their National Letters of Intent on Wednesday to attend Penn State.
- » McDaniel is an attacking-style guard that put up 20 points, five rebounds and four assists per game as a junior to earn All-State Class B Honorable Mention honors in 2015-16.
- » A 6-foot-3 post, Smith has averaged double figures in scoring in each of her last two seasons, including 13.4 points as a sophomore and 17.0 as a junior.
- » Both play AAU basketball for Michigan Crossover and coach Emez Oliver.

Upon arriving on the University Park campus as the fifth head coach in Penn State women's history - and first female African-American head coach in Penn State history - Coquee Washington quickly returned the program to national prominence with her up-tempo, aggressive style of play. Entering her 10th season on the sideline in Happy Valley, her passion for creating a winning culture, predicated on innovative coaching techniques, tireless recruiting, cultivating meaningful relationships with student-athletes and an unmatched enthusiasm for teaching the game she loves, Washington is in the conversation as one of the nation's top head coaches.

Washington has seen success at every level of basketball and in every role she has filled on the sidelines. She became the first player at Flint Central High School to earn a starting position all four seasons and helped her squad to the program's first Saginaw Valley League and district championships, while earning all-state honors on two occasions.

She went on to earn four varsity letters at the University of Notre Dame, leading the team in steals four times and assists on three occasions, before moving on to professional basketball where she was a member of the 2000 WNBA Champion Houston Comets squad.

On the sidelines, she has appeared in the postseason 13 times, with 12 of those being NCAA Tournament appearances. She helped the Lady Lions to four straight berths in the NCAA Tournament - including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances - and was an assistant coach on Notre Dame's 2001 NCAA National Championship team. Her three straight Big Ten Championships make her one of just four coaches in Big Ten history with three-or-more consecutive Big Ten regular season championships (Jim Foster, Ohio State; C. Vivian Stringer, Iowa & Tara VanDerveer, Ohio State), taking home outright crowns in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the 2014 title.

Growing the Game

The professionals that are most successful often share one trait; they are thinkers, and Washington is no different. As a student-athlete at Notre Dame, Washington earned her degree in just three years. After her collegiate career was complete, Washington went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from her alma mater, while simultaneously playing in the professional ranks for the American Basketball League's (ABL) Portland Power. Her passion for learning is matched only by her love of family and basketball.

Washington has served on the WBCA Board of Directors since becoming Penn State's head coach, currently holding the role of President with the organization that is tasked with solving issues, preserving the history and growing the game of women's basketball. She was also the Vice President/President-Elect from 2013-15.

Her service to the game also includes time with USA Basketball, the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She won a gold medal with Team USA in Kazan, Russia at the 2013 World University Games and served on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Committee from 2009-12. Her work with the Kay Yow Cancer Fund Board of Directors ran from 2012-15 and she served five years on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee.

Of her many accomplishments, Washington was the founding President of the WNBA Players Association in 1999 and was a primary force in negotiating the association's first two collective bargaining agreements.

Recruiting Premier Talent

The recruiting trail has always been a place of success for Washington, with the Lady Lions signing four top-25 recruiting classes - including three top-15 classes - since her arrival in Happy Valley. Her top-25 recruiting classes have included a pair of 14th-ranked classes (2009, 2013), one that sat at No. 15 (2015) and one that came in 22nd nationally (2010).

Prior to Washington's arrival, Penn State had only signed one McDonald's All-American in program history, but the seasoned recruiter has brought six to campus in her nine years as head coach. Candice Agee (2012), Brianna Banks (2011), De'Janae Boykin (2015), Maggie Lucas (2010), Sierra Moore (2012) and Dara Taylor (2009) have all donned the McDonald's All-American uniform before matriculating to the University Park campus.

Led by the All-American duo of Indiana native Alex Bentley and Lone Star State product Nikki Greene, Washington's 2009 class also included all-state performers Gizelle Studevent (California) and Marissa Wolfe (Pennsylvania), along with transfer Mia Nickson (Virginia), who was a top-100 recruit coming out of high school in 2008. In 2010, Washington landed a pair of Pennsylvania's top players in shooting guard Maggie Lucas and forward Talia East, while the three-person class was boosted by New York wing and WBCA High School All-American Arielle Edwards.

In 2013, Washington and her staff inked a seven-person class that included four ESPN HoopGurlz Top-100 players, including the Georgia duo of Kaliyah Mitchell and Peyton Whitted, and Maryland guard Lindsey Spann. The 2013 class was also bolstered by the addition of Duke transfer Sierra Moore, who was a top-50 national recruit in the class of 2012.

A pair of five-star guards in Chicago native Teniya Page and Maryland product Amari Carter led the way for the class of 2015. Adding to a strong recruiting haul was the highly recruited post pair of Kentucky's Ashanti Thomas and Boston-area product Jaylen Williams.

Washington came to Happy Valley after eight seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach under Muffet McGraw at Notre Dame, her alma mater. One of the top recruiters in the country, Washington was instrumental in helping the Irish secure eight consecutive top-25 recruiting classes, a feat only accomplished by two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee).

WNBA: Pioneer and Pupils

A pioneer in advancing the WNBA both on and off the court, Washington continues to supply the league with top notch talent, including six Penn Staters play in the world's most competitive professional league.

Alex Bentley and Maggie Lucas are two of Washington's pupils succeeding on the grand stage, with Bentley playing in the WNBA Finals as a rookie and earning WNBA All-Star status in 2015. Lucas also competed in the WNBA Finals, helping the Indiana Fever to the WNBA Championship series against the Minnesota Lynx during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Lucas was selected with the 21st overall pick (second round) by the Phoenix Mercury, then was traded to the Indiana Fever during training camp. In her third year as a professional, Lucas saw her court time increase each season, before suffering a season-ending injury in the fourth game of the 2016 campaign. Also in 2014, Ariel Edwards inked a free agent contract with the Tulsa Shock.

In 2013, for the third time in program history, the Lady Lion program saw a pair of student-athletes selected in the WNBA Draft. Alex Bentley went 13th overall to the Atlanta Dream and Nikki Greene was selected 26th overall by the Phoenix Mercury. Bentley has found a home with the Connecticut Sun after competing one season for the Atlanta Dream, and playing in the WNBA Finals that year. A WNBA All-Rookie selection in 2013, she was among the MVP candidates in 2015 before missing the final nine games of the season with an injury.

Greene played two years in the league, suiting up for the Los Angeles Sparks in 2014 before teaming up with Bentley in Connecticut during the 2015 season.

Tyra Grant capped off her career by being selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the second round of the 2010 WNBA Draft, and Washington was also instrumental in helping Kam Gissendanner sign a free agent contract with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks following in the 2008 campaign. Ariel Edwards and Zhaque Gray have also signed free agent contracts with WNBA teams, inking deals with the Tulsa Shock and Chicago Sky, respectively, in 2014.

During her time at Notre Dame, Washington saw seven players earn roster spots on WNBA teams.

Dancing Shoes

In 17 years as a collegiate coach, Washington has laced up her dancing shoes and headed to the postseason on 13 occasions, including 12 trips of the NCAA Tournament. While coaching the Blue and White, Washington has guided the program to four NCAA Tournament berths and one appearance in the WNIT.

From 2011-14, the Lady Lions advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season, reaching at least the second round on all four occasions. The 2012 and 2014 squads moved on to the Sweet Sixteen with a pair of postseason wins, before falling to top-five ranked opponents.

In their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the 2014 squad hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament inside the Bryce Jordan Center for the 14th time in school history. Wins over Wichita State in the opening round and a 22-point rout of Florida in the second round sent the program to its 13th Sweet Sixteen. A date with No. 5/6 Stanford awaited in Palo Alto, as the No. 3 seed Lady Lions fell to the No. 2 seed Cardinal at Maples Pavilion to close out a 24-8 campaign, which included a Big Ten regular season title.

In 2013, Penn State again advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over Cal Poly in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The 26-6 campaign ended with a loss to LSU on their home court. Lady Lions advanced to the 2012 Sweet Sixteen with wins over UTEP and LSU in Baton Rouge before falling to No. 3/3 Connecticut en route to a 26-7 overall record.

The Lady Lions worked their way back to the "Big Dance" for the first time since 2004-05 and advanced to the second round for the first time in seven years with a win over Dayton in the first round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament in front of a raucous Bryce Jordan Center crowd. Washington's first appearances in the tournament as a head coach started with a 75-66 win over Dayton.

Washington's first taste of postseason play as a head coach came against Hofstra in the 2010 WNIT. The Lady Lions hosted the contest on the University Park campus, but the Pride got the best of a young Lady Lions squad in the opening round.

During Washington's eight years on the bench, Notre Dame reached the NCAA Tournament each season, including four Sweet Sixteen runs and the 2001 National Championship.

Trophies & All-Americans

Washington's competitive side shines brightest on the biggest stages and that is a trait that her teams have taken on as well during her tenure on the University Park campus. Washington's teams have advanced out of the first round of the NCAA Tournament in all four of their trips, while earning berths in the Sweet Sixteen twice.

From 2012-14, the Lady Lions claimed three straight Big Ten regular season titles, making them one of just four teams in conference history to win three-or-more regular season titles in a row. Washington's squads took the title outright in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the crown in 2014.

Washington is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2012, 2013 & 2014), a two-time WBCA Region Six Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013) and two-time finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013). She was also selected as the 2011 and 2014 Black Coaches Association (BCA) Female Coach of the Year.

On the national awards front, Washington's players have earned a host of national honors from All-America laurels to honors for community service and selflessness. Maggie Lucas finished her Penn State career as one of the most decorated student-athletes to pass through the Lady Lion program. Lucas was a two-time finalist for the Wade Trophy and Wooden Award, while earning nine All-American honors, including first team honors from the United State Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) in 2013 and 2014. She was a three-time AP All-American, garnering second team (2013), third team (2014) and honorable mention (2012) accolades during her career.

Alex Bentley was a two-time All-American, earning AP honorable mention laurels in 2013, and WBCA naming her honorable mention All-America in 2012 and 2013. One of the toughest defenders in the nation and a scoring threat from anywhere on the court, Bentley was the 2013 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winner as the nation's top player under 5-foot-8.

Bentley and Lucas were both named to Freshman All-America teams during their rookie seasons of 2010 and 2011, respectively, while Tyra Grant was Washington's first All-American, garnering honorable mention honors in 2010 from the Associated Press.

On-court accolades are not the only ones celebrated by the Lady Lion program, with Gizelle Studevent and Maggie Lucas each earning national attention for their off-court undertakings, as well. Studevent was a member of the 2013 Allstate WBCA Good Works Team, honoring student-athletes that have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement. Studevent was the lifeblood of the anti-bullying program Penn State Athletes Take Action (PSATA). Earning a selection to the 2014 Senior CLASS Award All-American Team, Lucas was one of 10 women's basketball student-athletes to be celebrated for the award that is an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School.

During her tenure at Notre Dame, Washington coached five All-Americans in her role as the guards coach, and was directly responsible for developing three All-Americans and two Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winners: Niele Ivey and Megan Duffy. Washington also worked with Alicia Ratay, who is the NCAA's career 3-point field goal percentage leader.

B1G Things Happening

In nine seasons on the sideline, Washington has seen 15 players earn All-Big Ten laurels on 26 occasions, along with three earning Big Ten All-Freshman Team and Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors. Among the All-Big Ten honorees, four of Washington's pupils account for nine first team selections and Penn State has seen multiple players earn all-conference in eight of her nine seasons on the sideline.

Earning Big Ten Player of the Year on two occasions (2013 & 2014), Maggie Lucas was also the 2011 Big Ten Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year. Lucas joins Alex Bentley as three-time All-Big Ten first team selections under Washington, while Tyra Grant (2009 & 2010) and Ariel Edwards (2014) round out the group of first teamers.

Dara Taylor became the first Lady Lion under Washington to win the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, claiming the award in 2014, while also getting the nod to the All-Defensive Team in 2013. Alex Bentley was also a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive Team choice (2012 & 2013), while Nikki Greene earned her selection to the squad for her shot blocking prowess in 2011.

In 2016, Penn State placed three players on the All-Big Ten team, highlighted by freshman Teniya Page's selection to the All-Big Ten second team. Her second team selection makes her just the third Penn State rookie to earn either first or second team honors at season's end, joining Lucas (2nd Team, 2011) and Kelly Mazzante (1st Team, 2001). Adding to the haul of all-conference honors were Brianna Banks and Lindsey Spann, each earning honorable mention selections.

During Washington's first Big Ten Championship run in 2012, her squad put five players on the All-Big Ten squad. Bentley and Lucas each earned first team honors that season, and Greene, Zhaque Gray and Mia Nickson all noted honorable mention accolades. Both the 2011 and 2014 teams placed four players on the All-B1G squads, with the 2016 team joining the 2008 and 2013 teams that each had three representatives.

Washington is a stout believer in getting her best players on the floor regardless of position or class, with three student-athletes earning a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman squad. Bentley (2010) and Page (2016) were both unanimous all-rookie picks, and Lucas secured a spot on the 2011 list.

The success of her student-athletes isn't confined to the hardwood, as the Lady Lion program has 42 Academic All-Big Ten honorees over her nine seasons. The 2015 squad set a school record with seven honorees on the list, while her 2009 and 2013 teams each saw six honorees for academic success.

Play to Your Strengths

Washington's style of play lends itself to being up-tempo and high scoring, which has enabled the program to rise to new heights and return to the national spotlight. As a member of the Big Ten Conference, her teams are playing one of the toughest conference slates in the country, but that doesn't stop Washington from scheduling key non-conference games against the nation's best teams – home and on the road.

In each of Washington's first six years, Penn State improved its Big Ten win total and the Lady Lions posted three consecutive 25-win seasons, joining the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 squads as the only teams in program history to accomplish the feat.

During Washington's first nine seasons, Penn State has topped ranking opponents in seven of those seasons; winning multiple games against ranked foes during each of those campaigns. Her first season in Happy Valley included wins over No. 20 Pittsburgh and No. 10 Duke. The 2011-12 squad traveled to No. 16/13 Texas A&M for a top-20 showdown with the Aggies and walked away with 63-58 victory to snap a 58-game non-conference home court winning streak for TAMU.

The 2016 squad also had its share of success against ranked opponents, pushing No. 4 Tennessee to the brink in an early season road test, before opening the Big Ten schedule with a 79-72 victory over then-No. 14 Northwestern at the Bryce Jordan Center. Avenging an earlier loss to Michigan State, Penn State traveled to East Lansing and handed the then-No. 15 Spartans a 65-61 defeat in front of a national television audience on the Big Ten Network.

The Penn State record books have also been invaded by Washington's teams and student-athletes.

Teniya Page was a catalyst on the court in 2015-16, as she was the only freshman in the NCAA to average at least 15 points and four assists per game. She became just the third rookie in Penn State history to reach the 400-point and 100-assist mark - and first since Suzie McConnell (1984-85).

After reaching the 10-point mark in each of her first eight career games in 2014-15 – a feat not accomplished by Penn State's top two career scoring leaders – Kelly Mazzante and Maggie Lucas – Lindsey Spann moved her name into elite company on Penn State's 3-point list. Spann enters the season ranked No. 14 on the career charts with 102 shots made from distance.

Maggie Lucas finished her career second in school history and fourth in Big Ten history in scoring (2,510) and broke the Penn State and Big Ten records for career 3-pointers made (365) and career free throw percentage (.907). Lucas left Penn State ranked among the top-five on 25 different single season or career charts.

Nikki Greene became the first player in school history to accumulate 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks, while Alex Bentley is one of only two players (Suzie McConnell) in program history with 1,500 points, 500 assists and 250 steals. Brianna O'Rourke closed out her career as an All-Big Ten performer and left Penn State as one of just six players in school history with 1,000 points and 500 assists.

On the team side of things, the 2013-14 graduating class of Maggie Lucas, Ariel Edwards, Dara Taylor and Talia East produced 101 wins, which are the second-most wins by a senior class in Lady Lion history.

The 2010-11 team was a dominating force from the perimeter as the Lady Lions tied the school record with 228 3-pointers and led the NCAA from deep with a .415 3-point field goal percentage.

Serving the Community

Be it on the hardwood, on the golf course, or out on a speaking engagement, Washington is among the most active Penn State coaches in the community. Her annual efforts include Coquese's Drive for the Centre County Women's Resource Center, championing the fight against breast cancer for Penn State Play4Kay game and supporting her team during their many hours of giving back to the Centre region.

One of the first relationships that Washington established in State College was with the Executive Director of the Centre County Women's Resource Center, Ann Ard. The relationship grew quickly, with the focus shifting to helping the local non-profit find a way to raise funds and provide resources in the fight against domestic violence. In its nine years, Coquese's Drive has raised more than $170,000 to benefit the CCWRC.

While the event that has spread nationally, Penn State women's basketball were trendsetters in spreading awareness for breast cancer by being the first team in the country to wear pink uniforms. Washington has embraced Pink Zone at Penn State and helped it grow into an annual "can't miss" event for survivors and supporters alike. During her tenure, Washington has seen their Play4Kay game grow in both attendance numbers and funds raised. The 698 survivors at the 2014 game are the most in program history, while the $310,000 raised that year are a benchmark for years to come.

Along with her community involvement, Washington has appointed Miriam Powell as the Director of Community Outreach for the Lady Lion program. Powell has been charged with creating powerful and impactful relationships for the women's basketball program within the Penn State and surrounding communities, through service and volunteerism. This role was created by Washington to make sure the Lady Lions are serving those who spend much of their own time supporting Lady Lion Basketball on the floor and in the classroom.

The Personal Side

Washington and her husband, Raynell Brown, have a son, Quenton (11), and a daughter, Rhaiyna (7). Raynell is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Penn State Law School and is a former partner at Hicks & Brown Sports Agency, where he represented athletes in the NFL, FIBA, NBA, and WNBA. They reside in Port Matilda.
