CHA Standings Oh So Close

- ▶ With Mercyhurst in first place with a 9-3-2 CHA record and 20 points, the Orange currently reside two points behind the Lakers with an 8-4-2 conference record.
- ▶ Robert Morris and Penn State are neck and neck behind Syracuse with 16 and 15 points, respectively. The Colonials will take on Mercyhurst this weekend for a two-game series while the Orange duke it out with the Nittany Lions.
- ▶ With only six CHA games remaining on the Orange schedule, Syracuse will need big weekends against Penn State and Robert Morris to close out a top-two seed in the CHA playoffs to secure a bye into the second round.

Scouting Penn State

- ▶ The Nittany Lions are currently on a five-game unbeaten streak that includes a series sweep of RIT last weekend. PSU shutout the Tigers on consecutive days, winning Friday 1-0 before a 2-0 win on Saturday.
- ▶ During the five-game unbeaten streak, three wins have come against RIT. The other two games were a PSU win over Robert Morris 3-2 in overtime and a 2-2 tie with the Colonials.
- ▶ Amy Petersen leads Penn State with 18 points this season. She leads the Nittany Lions with 13 assists while also having scored five goals. Laura Bowman leads PSU with 10 goals this season. Bowman also has six assists, residing second on the team with 16 points.
- ▶ Celine Whitlinger and Hannah Ehresmann have split time in between the pipes this season. During the five-game unbeaten streak, both goalies have played every other game. Whitlinger is 5-8-4 this year with a .944 save percentage and 2.54 save percentage. Ehresmann is 4-6-1 with a .916 save percentage and 2.54 goals against average.

SYRACUSE (12-13-3, 8-4-2 CHA) vs. PENN STATE (9-14-5, 5-4-5 CHA)

Battle For First Place

- ▶ The Orange battled Mercyhurst for the second series this season and a shot at first place. The Lakers defeated Syracuse 4-1 in Friday's contest, scoring twice on an empty net to prevail. Syracuse came back the following day by dominating possession and beating the Lakers 2-1 in overtime.
- ▶ Junior Jessica Sibley scored the game-winning goal in overtime on Saturday by blasting a shot past Mercyhurst goaltender Sarah McDonnell. With the goal, Melissa Piacentini tied the Orange program record with her 57th assist.
- ▶ Despite a loss in Friday's matchup, goaltender Jenn Gilligan had strong showings in both contests. The senior recorded 22 saves on Friday, and 10 on Saturday staying solid enough to secure the overtime victory.

Split With Rival RIT

- ▶ Despite outshooting RIT 42-18 in the first game of the weekend series, the Orange were unable to prevail against the Tigers, losing by a final score of 2-1 in overtime.
- ▶ Senior Nicole Ferrara netted her 12th goal of the season in Friday night's loss, which ranks first for Syracuse and second in the CHA.
- ▶ The Orange bounced back on Saturday night by beating the Tigers 3-0. Senior netminder Jenn Gilligan recorded her fourth shutout of the season. Sophomores Dakota Derrer and Alysha Burriss and junior Heather Schwarz each scored in the win.

Gilligan Continues to Impress

- ▶ Senior goaltender Jenn Gilligan is starting to come into her own in between the pipes. Gilligan has a career high four shutouts this season, totaling nine for her career.
- ▶ Gilligan recently secured the 2000th save of her collegiate career against Mercyhurst.
- ▶ The senior has played in a total of 99 games, which is more than any other goaltender at Syracuse. 39 of those games were played at New Hampshire.

Piacentini Among the Top of CHA

- ▶ Senior Melissa Piacentini is having another stellar season for the Orange, leading the Orange with 19 assists. She is second behind only Stephanie Grossi with 26 assists.
- ▶ Piacentini leads the CHA with a +/- of +17.
- ▶ The senior is only one assist away from passing Hollie Carrie-Mattimore for the program record of 57 career assists. Piacentini would then own every offensive record with the Orange.

Goals For Ferrara

- ▶ After sitting out the 2014-15 with an injury, redshirt senior captain Nicole Ferrara has offered an offensive spark at the forward position.
- ▶ Ferrara currently leads the Orange with 12 goals, which is second in the CHA.

Costales, Gilligan Garner CHA Player of the Week Honors

- ▶ After a successful week on the ice for the Syracuse women's ice hockey team, sophomore Emily Costales was named College Hockey America Player of the Week while senior Jenn Gilligan was chosen as Goaltender of the Week, the conference office announced on Monday afternoon.
- ▶ Costales and Gilligan led Syracuse (10-11-3, 6-2-2 CHA) to a 2-1 record over the week. Costales started off the week by dishing out a career-high two assists in a 4-0 win over Union. Costales then guided the Orange to a crucial 2-0 win over Mercyhurst on Friday afternoon by scoring a third period goal that iced the game for Syracuse.
- ▶ Gilligan shut out her opponents in two of the three games over the week. The senior netminder started the week with a 20-save shutout of Union as the Orange cruised to a 4-0 win. Gilligan then made 16 big saves to hold Mercyhurst scoreless on Friday, delivering a 2-0 CHA win for the Orange.

CHA Series Split With Mercyhurst

- ▶ After beating the Lakers 2-0 on Friday afternoon, Mercyhurst came back and down Syracuse 3-1 on Saturday to retain first place in the CHA.
- ▶ Senior Jenn Gilligan kept the Lakers scoreless on Friday afternoon by blocking all 16 shots that came her way. Freshman goaltender Sarah McDonnell came back strong the following day, making an astounding 39 saves against the Orange to help the Lakers come away with a 3-1 win.
- ▶ Penalties hurt the Orange on Saturday afternoon, as Syracuse gave up two power-play goals in the first period. The Lakers then scored their third goal on a break-away opportunity. Senior Nicole Ferrara scored the lone goal for Syracuse in the third period, but it was not enough.

Orange Down Dutchwomen 4-0

- ▶ Backed behind a 20-save shutout from senior netminder Jenn Gilligan, Syracuse defeated Union by a final score of 4-0 in its final non-conference contest of the season.
- ▶ Sophomores Alysha Burriss and Emily Costales each finished with two points in the contest. Burriss scored the game's first goal while dishing out an assist. Costales had a career-high two assists in the win.
- ▶ The Orange outshot the Dutchwomen 38-20 in the contest. After the Burriss goal, senior Nicole Renault scored 21 seconds later to give Syracuse a 2-0 lead headed into the second intermission. The Orange's third and fourth goals came only 30 seconds after each other, as sophomore Stephanie Grossi and junior Jessica Sibley found the back of the net.

Penn State Series

- ▶ The Orange went 1-0-1 last weekend against CHA rival, Penn State. After a dominant 3-1 victory on Friday, the Orange scored early on Saturday before ending in a 1-1 draw.
- ▶ Jessica Sibley scored in both games, and recorded an assist on a Nicole Ferrara on Friday. Melissa Piacentini had three assists on the weekend, giving her 15 assists on the season and a program record 102 career points.

3 Points At Lindenwood

- ▶ Piacentini scored the game-winning goal for the Syracuse women's ice hockey team against Lindenwood on Friday night, leading the Orange past the Lady Lions by a final score of 3-1 in College Hockey America play.
- ▶ Grossi gave the Syracuse women's ice hockey team a 1-0 lead seven minutes into the first period on Saturday afternoon, but Lindenwood notched the game up late in the third, as the Orange skated to a 1-1 tie against the Lady Lions.
- ▶ With the three points picked up by Syracuse, the Orange are currently tied with Mercyhurst atop the CHA with seven total points.

Split With Robert Morris

- ▶ Sophomore Alysha Burriss scored twice and dished out an assist in Friday night's game against Robert Morris, leading the Orange into overtime. Syracuse eventually won on a game-winning goal from Sibley.
- ▶ Robert Morris beat Syracuse in Saturday's game by a final score of 2-0. Colonials goaltender Jessica Dodds made 23 saves to keep the Orange scoreless. Syracuse salvaged two points against the Colonials.
- ▶ Over the weekend series, Syracuse and Robert Morris tied each other in shots, faceoff wins and penalties. Through two games, each team won 48 faceoffs, took 59 shots and had nine penalties.
- ▶ In Friday's win over the Colonials, sophomore Dakota Derrer scored her first collegiate goal.

Grossi, Gilligan Garner CHA Player of the Week Honors

- ▶ After a successful week on the ice for the Syracuse women's ice hockey team, sophomore Stephanie Grossi was named College Hockey America Player of the Week while senior Jenn Gilligan was chosen as Goaltender of the Week, the conference office announced on Monday afternoon.
- ▶ Grossi and Gilligan led Syracuse (3-4-0, 1-0 CHA) to a 1-1 record over the week, including a big 7-1 win over CHA rival RIT in its conference opener. Grossi finished with six points through two games while Gilligan secured 37 total saves in between the pipes, registering a .902 save percentage.
- ▶ In the win over RIT, Grossi tied the Syracuse single-game record with five points, tallying a hat trick to go with two assists. Gilligan made 15 saves, allowing just one goal in the conference victory over RIT. The Orange lost a tough game on the road against St. Lawrence by the final score of 3-2. Grossi dished out an assist in the losing effort while Gilligan finished with 22 saves.

The Captains

- ▶ After sitting out 20 months with an injury, redshirt senior captain Nicole Ferrara returned to the lineup and has been a huge help at the forward position. Ferrara leads the team with five goals while also dishing out two assists, totaling seven points.
- ▶ Assistant captain Melissa Piacentini has been one of the best forwards to wear the Orange and Navy in her four years and she is showing why in her senior year. Piacentini already owns the all-time goals record with 48 total and is now second on the all-time points list with 93. The senior has four goals and seven assists, totaling 11 points.
- ▶ Senior assistant captain Nicole Renault had solid performances against UConn and Providence, scoring a goal while registering two assists. Renault has two goals and four assists this season for six total points.
- ▶ Junior Larissa Martyniuk has two assists on the backline this season.

Piacentini Earns CHA Player of the Week

- ▶ After a successful the week with three points for the Syracuse women's ice hockey team, senior forward Melissa Piacentini was chosen as the College Hockey America Player of the Week, the conference office announced Monday afternoon.
- ▶ Piacentini finished the weekend with a goal and two assists, guiding the Orange ice hockey team (2-3-0) to a 1-1 record. The senior co-captain registered a goal and assist in a tough 4-3 loss against Connecticut before dishing out an assist to classmate Nicole Ferrara in a 4-0 win over Providence
- ▶ After the two games over the weekend, Piacentini finished with a plus/minus of +3.
- ▶ So far this season, Piacentini leads the Orange with seven points, including a team-high four goals to go with three assists. 'Cuse vs. Connecticut

- ▶ The Syracuse women's ice hockey team opened up a two-goal advantage in the first frame against UConn on Saturday afternoon, but was unable to hold on, losing to the Huskies by a final score of 4-3.
- ▶ Ferrara gave Syracuse a 1-0 lead just 23 seconds into the contest, which was eventually followed by a score from Renault eight minutes later. Despite the two-goal lead, UConn tied the game up at two in the first period by scoring two goals in a matter of 16 seconds.
- ▶ Freshman goaltender Maddi Welch made her first collegiate start in between the pipes for the Orange, registering 15 saves while allowing all four goals.
- ▶ Syracuse tallied 36 shots on net as UConn goaltender Annie Belanger made 33 saves to secure the first victory of the season for the Huskies.

SYRACUSE (12-13-3, 8-4-2 CHA) vs. PENN STATE (9-14-5, 5-4-5 CHA)

Flanagan's Return To St. Lawrence

- ▶ Despite controlling a 1-0 lead after the first period, Syracuse let up three consecutive goals to St. Lawrence, losing to the Saints by a final score of 3-2.
- ▶ Sophomore Alysha Burriss put Syracuse (3-4) up 1-0 at the 14:16 mark, which held up for the remainder of the period, but St. Lawrence (3-5-1) scored twice in the second frame and once more in the third period to prevail.
- ▶ After going down 3-1 in the third period, the Orange pulled senior Gilligan late in the game and utilized a goal from sophomore Megan Quinn to cut the deficit down to one. Quinn's goal came with only nine seconds left on the clock, leaving not much time on the clock for a shot at the comeback.
- ▶ Head coach Paul Flanagan spent eight years at the helm with the St. Lawrence women's ice hockey team and it was his first return to Canton, N.Y. since coming over to Syracuse. Flanagan is now 1-1 against the Saints.

Grossi's Career Game

- ▶ Sophomore Stephanie Grossi scored the first hat trick of her career while also dishing out two assists, finishing with five points in a 7-1 rout of RIT. Grossi's five points tie the Syracuse single-game record for most points in a game.
- ▶ Piacentini dished out four assists for four points in the win, moving her into fifth all-time on the Syracuse all-time list for assists.
- ▶ The Orange outshot the Tigers by a total of 38-17, dominating RIT from start to finish.
- ▶ Senior goaltender Jenn Gilligan registered 15 saves in net to come away with the win.

Finishing the Friars

- ▶ The Orange women's ice hockey team dominated Providence in non-conference play on Sunday afternoon, taking down the Friars by a final score of 4-0 at Schneider Arena.
- ▶ Four different Syracuse (2-3) players found the back of the net, including junior Morgan Blank who registered the first collegiate goal of her career. The Orange bounced back from a tough loss on Saturday to handily defeat Providence (0-4).
- ▶ "Today was a big bounce back win for us after a disappointing loss yesterday," head coach Paul Flanagan said. "The team played a full, solid 60 minutes from start to finish. We made some different combinations and I thought the kids responded well."

First Win of the Season

- ▶ The Orange defeated New Hampshire for its first win of the 2015-16 campaign, taking down the Wildcats by a final score of 3-2.
- ▶ Ferrara scored the eventual game-winning goal while also dishing out an assist for Syracuse.
- ▶ Although the Orange was outshot 17-15 in the game, Syracuse utilized a strong performance from senior goaltender Jenn Gilligan in between the pipes. Gilligan made the return to face her former squad, securing 15 total saves to help Syracuse prevail.
- ▶ Sophomore Emily Costales and junior Heather Schwarz each scored their first goal of the season in the win.

Hosoyamada Looks to Fulfill Olympic Dream

- ▶ Orange alumna Akane Hosoyamada is playing professionally in the Japanese 'A' League for the Daishin Ice Hockey Club based in Kushiro, Hokkaido.
- ▶ Hosoyamada is attending camps and training with hopes of representing Japan on the national team in the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, South Korea.
- ▶ Akane needs to play professionally for one year in order to be eligible, and must reside in Japan for 12 months.

Veteran Group

- ▶ Syracuse returns its six top scorers from last season, including CHA Rookie of the Year Stephanie Grossi. Grossi finished the 2014-15 campaign with nine goals and 21 assists for 30 total points to lead the Orange. Syracuse returns 95% of its offense in 2015-16.
- ▶ The Orange's leading goal-scorer will also be back out on the ice. Senior Melissa Piacentini returns after registering a team-leading 18 goals. The senior also tallied 11 assists and 29 points. Alysha Burriss is back for the Orange, putting up 13 goals and 11 assists last year to finish the season with 24 points.
- ▶ Senior goaltender Jenn Gilligan is back in between the pipes for the Orange after finishing the 2014-15 season with an overall record of 11-13-9. Gilligan had a .901 save percentage and 2.40 goal against average, ending the season with 750 total saves.

Last Season In The Past

- ▶ Syracuse made it all the way to the CHA Championship last season, but lost in the title round to RIT in double overtime by a final score of 2-1.
- ▶ The Orange are still looking for its first NCAA appearance since starting the program eight years ago.
- ▶ Stephanie Grossi and Alysha Burriss were one of only five freshmen tandems to combine for over 50 points last season. Joining Kenzie Kent and Tori Sullivan from Boston College (61 combined pts.), Wisconsin's Annie Pankowski and Emily Clark (57 combined points), Minnesota's Kelly Pannek and Cara Piazza (52 combined points) and Boston's Victoria Bach and Rebecca Leslie (52 points).

Road Warriors

- ▶ Syracuse's road games have come in bunches this season, including 12 of the first 15 games to start the year.
- ▶ Last season, the Orange went 2-10-4 on the road, defeating North Dakota and Lindenwood, and tying the No. 9 team in the nation, Mercyhurst, 1-1.

SYRACUSE (12-13-3, 8-4-2 CHA) vs. PENN STATE (9-14-5, 5-4-5 CHA)

Paul Flanagan

Head Coach • 8th Year (17th overall)

Paul Flanagan joined Syracuse in March 2008 as women's ice hockey head coach and over the following seven seasons has built the program from an upstart to a perennial contender in the CHA.

In his seventh year at the helm, Flanagan led the Orange to its fourth CHA Championship Game appearance, guided a league-high six student-athletes to all-conference accolades and was named CHA Coach of the Year for the third time.

In 2014-15, Akane Hosoyamada and Melissa Piacentini were named to the All-CHA First Team, Nicole Renault and Jenn Gilligan picked up second team honors and Alysha Burriss and Stephanie Grossi were added to the All-CHA Rookie Team. Grossi also was named CHA Rookie of the Year.

Flanagan also reached the century mark in wins at Syracuse, notching the program's 100th win in program history on Feb. 14, 2015 vs. Lindenwood.

Flanagan coached the squad to its best record in program history, 20-14-3 in 2013-14. In addition, Flanagan also reached a career milestone, becoming the ninth all-time winningest coach in women's college hockey with 332 wins including 102 at Syracuse.

Four Orange were named to the All-CHA team for their regular season performances. Nicole Renault earned a spot on the first team while Melissa Piacentini was voted to the second team. Jessica Sibley and Larissa Martyniuk each earned All-Rookie honors.

In 2012-13, Flanagan coached the squad to a 20-15-1 record and its highest finish in the CHA at second place with a mark of 13-6-1 in conference play. Flanagan also reached a coaching milestone, earning his 300th career victory and 70th at Syracuse.

Flanagan was named the 2013 College Hockey America Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. During the 2012-13 CHA tournament, the Orange advanced to its third title game before falling to Mercyhurst, 4-1. Akane Hosoyamada and Kallie Billadeau garnered all-conference first team honors in 2013 while Nicole Ferrara and Margot Scharfe were named to the second team. Nicole Renault was named to the All-Rookie team. Scharfe was named the CHA's best defensive forward for the second-straight year while Hosoyamada was honored as the best defenseman.

Flanagan is one of the most recognized names in collegiate ice hockey, leading St. Lawrence to four consecutive NCAA Frozen Four appearances which places second among active coaches.

The 300-Club

With a 4-1 win against Lindenwood on Feb. 27, 2013, Flanagan became just the sixth active coach in women's ice hockey to win 300 career games. The win against Lindenwood was also his 70th as the head coach of the Orange.

Coaching the 'Cuse

After just six seasons, Flanagan and the Orange have made a name for SU ice hockey and are contending with the nation's best. Syracuse finished the 2009-10 season with an overall record of 18-17-1 and its first post-season victory in program history with a win against Niagara in the semifinals of the CHA tournament, doubling its win total after posting a 9-16-3 record in its inaugural season in 2008.

Flanagan has recruited an all-star roster including Syracuse's first Winter Olympian, Stephanie Marty, who competed for her native Swiss National Team at the 2010 Olympics in Vancouver and the 2014 Olympics in Sochi, where she helped earn Switzerland's first-ever medal in women's hockey. Marty's impressive work on and off the ice during the 2009-10 season earned her Second Team All-CHA, CHA All-Academic and ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors.

The 2010 College Hockey America (CHA) Coach of the Year led the Orange to its second consecutive appearance in the CHA Championship game in 2010-11, finishing the year with an overall record of 14-16-6.

Flanagan's squad boasted three members with CHA honors in 2010-11 led by Isabel Menard, who picked up her second straight selection to the All-CHA First Team list. Defender Akane Hosoyamada and goaltender Kallie Billadeau were both named to the CHA All-Rookie Team, making SU the only team with multiple student-athletes on the list.

Success at St. Lawrence

Flanagan was the head coach for the St. Lawrence women's ice hockey program from 1999-2008. He led the Saints to the women's NCAA Frozen Four Championship five times in his nine-year tenure, tying him for the most appearances in the country. Flanagan's four-year run (2003-07) of Frozen Four appearances is also tied for best in college hockey.

The Canton, N.Y. native accrued a 230-83-24 record with the Saints. His .692 win percentage is the sixth-best in the nation among active Division I coaches. Flanagan also has the sixth-most victories among active coaches.

While at St. Lawrence, he directed his fleet to the ECAC Hockey Tournament in each of his nine years. Flanagan's 2003-04 team shared the ECAC Hockey regular-season crown and the 2005-06 team won it outright. The 2005-06 Saints became the first squad in any sport at St. Lawrence to win more than 30 games in a season.

Accolades for Accomplishments

Flanagan made his presence felt in the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) hockey league. After Flanagan led St. Lawrence to its first National Championship game in only his second year, he was awarded the 2000-01 ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year and the American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) Coach of the Year.

Flanagan's student-athletes have garnered numerous awards, as well. Behind the Saints' bench, Flanagan generated 10 All-Americans, three ECAC Goaltenders of the Year, one ECAC Player of the Year, two Sarah Devins Award Winners and more than three dozen ECAC All-Stars. He has coached two Olympians and several members of the Canadian National team.

National Prominence

Flanagan was an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's Select and National teams that competed at the Four Nations Cup in Sweden in November and won the gold medal in summer of 2008. Flanagan also assisted the U.S. Women's National team to the World Championship in April held in Harbin, China. Flanagan was on the national coaching staff with Ohio State's Jackie Barto and Plattsburgh State's Kevin Houle.

Introduction to Hockey

A 1980 St. Lawrence graduate, Flanagan was a defenseman for the Saints, serving as a team captain his senior season. He began his coaching career as head coach at Canton High School in 1982. Prior to the 1988 season, Flanagan joined the St. Lawrence men's staff as an assistant coach and helped the Saints to two ECAC championships and NCAA appearances in 1989, 1992 and 1999.

Flanagan earned his master's degree in education from St. Lawrence in 1992. Flanagan and his wife, Sharon, reside in DeWitt with their three children, Shannon, Brendan and Connor. national coaching staff with Ohio State's Jackie Barto and Plattsburgh State's Kevin Houle.
