NOTES AND HEADLINES

PENN STATE READY FOR NON-CONFERENCE MATCH AGAINST OWLS
The Penn State men's soccer team is set for a mid-week non-conference match against in-state foe Temple University Tuesday, Sept. 27 at Jeffrey Field. The Nittany Lions and the Owls will take the field Tuesday night at 7 p.m. and the match will be featured on BTN Plus.

NITTANY LIONS AGAINST THE OWLS

Penn State owns a 39-19-8 all-time record against the Owls, however Temple has been adding to its tally in the past few meetings with the Blue and White taking a 2-0 win in the 2015 campaign over the Nittany Lions. Prior to the 2014 season, Penn State and Temple had not met on the pitch since the 1997 but the two teams restored the in-state competition in the 2014 season with both the Blue and White and the Owls earning one victory each in the past two seasons.

BOUNCING BACK AFTER LOSS

Despite a heartbreaking overtime loss to Maryland in its second Big Ten Conference match of the season, Penn State bounced back to earn a 2-1 double overtime victory over Wisconsin, who was undefeated in conference play coming into the match. The Blue and White used an own goal from the Badgers before Austin Maloney scored the game-winning goal on a penalty kick.

BRIEF LOOK AT TEMPLE

The Owls bring a 5-3-0 overall record into the mid-week contest against the Nittany Lions, suffering their latest loss to UCONN in its first conference match of the season. The Temple offense has scored a total of 16 goals in its first eight games, nine of which have come from Jorge Gomez Sanchez. Gomez Sanchez has tallied 21 points on the season, adding three assists for the Owls, while Joonas Jokinen has scored three goals and dished out five assists for 11 points.

Alex Cagle has appeared in all eight games and seen 710:17 minutes of action in a total of 726:23 minutes played by the Owls. Cagle has given up seven goals on the season and made 15 saves and had three shutouts for Temple.

MALONEY ON THE EDGE OF ETCHING HIS NAME IN THE RECORDS

Senior Connor Maloney has scored 23 goals in his career thus far donning the Blue and White. If Maloney scores at least six more goals this season, the senior will rank 15th all-time in Penn State career goals with 29. Furthermore, Maloney needs just two more assists to tie for 18th all-time in Penn State laurels.

PENN STATE NOTCHES FOURTH MULTI-GOAL GAME OF 2016

The Nittany Lions have tallied four multi-goal matches in the 2016 season with its most recent 2-1 double overtime victory over Wisconsin. Of its four multi-goal games, three have ended in victory for the Blue and White and it suffered one overtime loss to then-No. 4 Maryland after scoring two goals. If Penn State can manage two more multi-goal games in 2016 it will tie the six it had in the 2015 campaign.

HARRIS NETS TWO AGAINST THE TERPS

The No. 4 Maryland Terrapins did not have an answer for sophomore Dayonn Harris who found himself alone on three breakaways in the match. Harris was unsuccessful in his first attempt but scored easily on the next two to give Penn State the lead twice in the match. Harris showed success from both sides of the field scoring his first goal down the right side of the pitch into the bottom left corner. In his second goal of the match, Harris picked up the ball on the left side of the field and drove it into the net for the Nittany Lions.

REVIEWING THE MARYLAND MATCH

Penn State took the lead twice in the match against the No. 4 Terrapins on two Dayonn Harris goals, but Maryland was able to come away with the win using two penalty kicks and an overtime goal to secure the win.

2016 NOTES AND HEADLINES

BIG WIN OVER OHIO STATE ON MACK BRADY NIGHT

Behind a season-high four goals, the Penn State men's soccer team remained undefeated in Mack Brady Matches picking up a 4-2 victory over Ohio State in its first Big Ten Conference match of the 2016 season Tuesday, Sept. 13 at Jeffrey Field.

The Nittany Lions notched their first win over Ohio State since the 2014 season when they took a 1-0 victory at Jeffrey Field in the second Mack Brady Match. The four goals in the match marked the first time Penn State has scored four goals since the 2012 season when it tied Northwestern 4-4 in double overtime on the road.

KLERKS SCORES TWO AGAINST OSU

Senior Mason Klerks paced the team against Ohio State with two goals on the night, scoring both in the first 26 minutes of action. The two goals were the first time a Penn State player has netted two in one game since Connor Maloney had two against Maryland in the 2015 campaign.

AMMANN MAKES IDENTICAL PK SAVE IN MACK BRADY MATCH

Exactly one year to the day of the 3rd Mack Brady Match and Penn State's 1-0 win over then-No. 10 Indiana, freshman goalkeeper Arie Ammann found himself in the same situation that Matt Bersano was in one year earlier. At the 2015 Mack Brady Match, Bersano came up with a huge penalty kick save when he dove to his left and knocked the ball to the sideline in an effort to keep the match scoreless. In the 2016 Mack Brady Match, Ammann made the same exact save in the same exact goal to keep the Nittany Lion three goal lead intact on a night that is meant to honor goalkeepers.

MALONEY TALLIES FIVE POINTS AGAINST THE BUCKEYES

Senior Connor Maloney was the leader on the field for the Blue and White against the Buckeyes tacking on at least one point in each of Penn State's four goals. The senior captain assisted both of the goals from Mason Klerks before netting his fourth goal of the season on a penalty kick and adding an assist on junior Aymar Sigue's goal.

NITTANY LIONS LOOKING TO BOUNCE BACK AFTER SFU LOSS

After falling in a 3-1 match against Saint Francis, Penn State is looking to bounce back in its Big Ten opener against Ohio State. The Blue and White were down 3-0 against the Red Flash before freshman Christian Sload found his first collegiate goal off a pass from Noah Pilato.

SLOAD SCORES FIRST COLLEGIATE GOAL

In his first collegiate appearance late in the match against Saint Francis, freshman Christian Sload found the back of the net on his first shot. The freshman traveled up the right side of the field as Noah Pilato gathered the ball in the middle of the field. Pilato brought the ball up about six-yards before passing it up to Sload who shot the ball past the keeper to net his first collegiate goal donning the Blue and White.

WARMING EARNS 450TH CAREER VICTORY

Head coach Bob Warming notched his 450th career victory as a head coach when the Nittany Lions picked up a 2-1 overtime win over Oakland Sept. 5. Warming ranks second among active Division I coaches in victories just behind South Carolina's Mark Berson who has 484 career wins as a head coach. Furthermore, Warming was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 after leading PSU to a pair of league titles. Moreover, Warming leads all Division I active coaches with a 28 combined regular season and conference tournament championships.

PSU REMAINS PERFECT UNDER WARMING IN HOME OPENERS

Under the tutelage of head coach Bob Warming, the Nittany Lions are a perfect 7-0 in home openers since he arrived at Penn State in 2010. Furthermore, his squads have outscored opponents 10-1 on opening day and have not given up a goal since Warming's inaugural season in 2010 when they defeated Bucknell 2-1.

SIGUE RETURNS FROM COSTA RICA TO SCORE GAME-WINNER

Junior transfer Aymar Sigue made a week-long trip to Costa Rica to play for the Canadian National Team, missing two regular season games for the Nittany Lions. The junior transfer missed Penn State's contest against Cal and its match against JMU before returning in time for its Labor Day match against Oakland. Playing just seven minutes in the second half after 10 hours of travel, Sigue found the ball six yard outs from the net in the first minute of overtime. Sigue blasted the ball right at the keeper who was able to make the save. However, the shot was too hard as it squeaked out of his hands, allowing Sigue to rip a shot into the lower half of the net for the game-winner.

AMMANN NAMED BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the second consecutive week, Penn State men's soccer has been awarded with the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week as freshman Arie Ammann earned his first career honor getting the win in both matches this past weekend.

Ammann earned the nod for both starts after an injury to senior goalkeeper Evan Finney and proved to be a good choice for the Nittany Lions as he played 181:42 minutes on the pitch and conceded just one goal in two matches.

The Round Hill, Va. native made his first start donning the Blue and White in Friday's home-opener against the JMU Dukes in which he made a career-high five saves in the match and tallied his first career shutout. Moving into Monday's contest, Ammann gave up one goal late in the match but held on in the remaining minutes as the Nittany Lions went on to a 2-1 overtime victory over Oakland. Ammann made two saves in the match and picked up his second victory in as many games.

On the week, Ammann tallied seven saves and gave up just one goal. The freshman keeper has made a total of nine saves in 191:01 minutes on the pitch and carries a .818 save percentage.

MALONEY FINDING THE NET

Senior Connor Maloney has found ways to score in the 2016 campaign, scoring one goal in each of the last three games for the Nittany Lions. Maloney scored the first goal of the 2016 for the Blue and White at UC Berkeley before returning to Happy Valley for the final home opener of his collegiate career. The senior captain netted what would be the winning goal against JMU as he tapped the ball into the lower half of the net as he fell to the ground. Maloney's scoring continued into Penn State's match against Oakland as he again scored the first goal of the match in the off a free kick just outside the 18-yard box.

JEFFREY FIELD DOMINANCE

Penn State has enjoyed success at Jeffrey Field with over 300 victories at the famed field. Impressively, the Nittany Lions have never posted a losing season at Jeffrey Field in 43 years, going 323-84-35 all-time for a winning percentage of .771. Last season, PSU went 4-3-1 at the Jeff and over the past four seasons the Nittany Lions are 31-10-4 en route to a pair of Big Ten titles in 2012 and 2013. In the 43-year history of the stadium, Jeffrey Field has welcomed over 540,000 fans through its gates.

FINNEY NAMED BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior goalkeeper Evan Finney was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the period ended Aug 28. The award marks the first of its career and the second consecutive season that the Nittany Lions has earned B1G Defensive Player of the Week honors in opening weekend.

Finney had an outstanding weekend in net for the Nittany Lions, playing 191:32 minutes in goal. The San Francisco, Calif. native returned to his home state to keep the defending National Champion Cardinal scoreless through 110:00 minutes of play. Finney stopped six shots in the match and helped the Nittany Lions to a 0-0 double overtime tie over the No. 1 ranked Stanford Cardinal.

The senior keeper continued to look strong in net for the Blue and White in Sunday's match against UC Berkeley, stopping two shots and allowing just one goal before coming out due to an injury in the second half of play.

OPENING WEEKEND ON THE WEST COAST

The Nittany Lions fended off defending national champion Stanford in its season-opener on the west coast. The Blue and White played the Cardinal to a 0-0 draw in double overtime, firing off eight shots and getting one on goal. Senior Evan Finney made six saves in the opener for the Nittany Lions.

Penn State concluded its west coast trip with a game against UC Berkeley. The Nittany Lions and the Golden Bears each played their second overtime match in as many games, this time with Cal coming out on the winning end with an early overtime goal. Senior Connor Maloney netted his 20th career goal and first of the 2016 for the Blue and White in the sixth minute of the match to give Penn State the early lead, but Cal was able to come away with the late win over the Nittany Lions.

SENIOR CLASS LOOKING TO GET BACK ON TOP

Three of the members of the 2016 senior class have been a part of a championship squad as the Nittany Lions nabbed a Big Ten Championship in the 2013 campaign. Then-freshman Connor Maloney paced Penn State with seven assists, while scoring two goals for the Blue and White. Also seeing time on the pitch in his freshman season for the Nittany Lions was Mason Klerks, who dished out three assists.

COACHING CLOUT

Among the elite coaches in the sport for the last three decades, head coach Bob Warming is back for his seventh season at Penn State. Warming has an incredible coaching pedigree, including 451 career Division I victories -- second all-time among active Division I coaches and ninth all-time at DI. He was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 after leading PSU to a pair of league titles. Furthermore, Warming leads all Division I active coaches with a 28 combined regular season and conference tournament championships.

TOUGH SCHEDULE AHEAD FOR PENN STATE

Head coach Bob Warming scheduled one of the toughest slates for the Nittany Lions in 2016 as they will take on six teams that were ranked in the top-25 of the NSCAA Preseason Coaches Poll. Penn State kicks off the season with No. 1 Stanford, Aug. 26, before taking on No. 18 Ohio State for its Big Ten Conference opener, Sept. 13. The top-25 tour continues Sept. 18 when Penn State travels to No. 4 Maryland before meeting up with No. 15 Indiana, Oct. 8. Finally the Nittany Lions will go up against No. 2 Akron and No. 25 Rutgers in back-to-back matches, Oct. 18 and Oct. 21.

Last season, Penn State took one from then-No. 10 Indiana in the Third Annual Mack Brady Match off a goal from defender Robby Sagel and earned a 2-0 victory over Rutgers with goals from Brian James and Riley Grant. The Nittany Lions fought to a 1-1 double overtime tie against the eventual Big Ten Champions Ohio State but were unable to overcome Akron and Maryland in the 2015 campaign.

THREE NITTANY LIONS LAND PRESEASON HONORS

Seniors Evan Finney, Connor Maloney and Robby Sagel each earned Big Ten Preseason Honors as announced by the conference office. Finney closed out the 2015 season as the starting keeper for the Blue and White tallying a 2-2-1 overall record. The San Francisco, Calif. native earned one shut out and made 22 saves in his junior campaign, playing 476:10 minutes in the net. Maloney heads into the 2016 after earning First Team All-Big Ten for the second time in his career. The starting midfielder scored a team-high seven goals in 2015 and tallied two assists for a team-best 16 points. Finally, Sagel will take the pitch for his second season with the Nittany Lions after transferring to Penn State following his sophomore season. Sagel manned the backline for the Blue and White in 2015 and scored the game-winning goal against then-No. 10 Indiana at the Third Annual Mack Brady Game.
