THE STARTING FIVE

1. Spartan Defense

Over the last 16 games, Michigan State is holding opponents to 60.9 points and a .370 FG%, including .291 from 3-point range. On the season, MSU is limiting teams to 61.9 points on .381 FG%, including .300 from 3-point range. The Spartans rank second in the Big Ten in FG pct. defense, third in 3-point FG pct. defense, and sixth in scoring defense. The all-time lows of the Izzo era were a .379 FG% in 2011-12 and .298 3FG% in 2001-02.

2. All-Time Block Leaders

Branden Dawson ranks fifth in Michigan State history with 98 career blocks, just behind Delvon Roe (106). With two blocks he will join Draymond Green and Adreian Payne as the only players in MSU history with 1,000 career points and 100 career blocks. Payne is the MSU career leader with 141 blocks. With 74 blocks in his twoplus seasons, Matt Costello could appear in the Top 10 later in the season. Paul Davis currently ranks 10th with 87 career blocks.

3. Dawson's Double-Doubles

It's been a good start to Big Ten play for Branden Dawson, as he has already posted double-doubles in three games (at Maryland, Northwestern, at Iowa). Against Iowa, he grabbed 15 rebounds, a personal best against a Big Ten opponent. Dawson has grabbed double-figure rebounds in four of five conference games, averaging a Big Ten-best 11.6 rebounds per game in Big Ten play (9.5 rpg overall). He has four doubledoubles this season and 16 for his career.

4. Breslin Advantage

Michigan State is 347-52 (.870) at home all-time since Breslin Center opened in 1989, including 179-39 (.821) in Big Ten play. Under Tom Izzo, the Spartans are 273-37 (.881) at Breslin, including a 138-26 (.841) conference record. MSU has won 54 of the last 62 (.871) games at Breslin.

5. Keeping The 3-Pointer In Perspective

Michigan State is shooting .401 from 3-point range this season, marking the best percentage of the Tom Izzo era. But on-target shooting does not equal an over-reliance on the outside shot. MSU has attempted 339 3-pointers in 1036 field-goal attempts, meaning 32.7 percent of its shots are from behind the arc. That is tied with 2010-11 squad for the third-highest percentage of the Izzo era, well behind the 36.3 percent from the 2013-14 Spartans and just behind the 2004-05 team (32.8%). It's the sixth time in Izzo's 20 seasons that more than 30 percent of the shot attempts have been 3-pointers, joining the 2003-04 (31.2%) and 1999-2000 (31.1%) squads.

GM. 18 RECAP • MARYLAND 74 - MICHIGAN STATE 59

Maryland defeated Michigan State 74-59 in College Park. The Spartans got off to a good start, leading 10-5 after seven minutes, but Maryland quickly answered with a 9-0 run to take a 14-10 lead it would not give up. Jake Layman scored the final seven points of the run. The Terrapins led 29-22 with four minutes left in the first half. MSU had two opportunities to cut into the lead but missed a pair of shots and Branden Dawson picked up his second foul with 3:13 remaining in the half, sending him to the bench. With Dawson out of the game, Maryland closed on an 11-4 run to take a 40-26 lead into the halftime locker room. In the second half, MSU made a couple of mini-pushes, but could never cut Maryland's lead into single digits.

MSU BASKETBALL NOTES

Izzo's 20th Season

In his 20th season as Michigan State head coach, the 2014-15 campaign is Tom Izzo's 32nd year in East Lansing. An eight-time National Coach of the Year, Izzo has guided MSU to seven Big Ten Championships, four Big Ten Tournament titles, 17 straight NCAA Tournaments, six Final Four appearances, and the 2000 NCAA Championship in his stint as head coach. He is MSU's all-time winningest coach with 480 wins, and is the longest serving active men's basketball coach in the Big Ten. In addition, his 468 victories are the fourth-most by a coach in his first 19 years of coaching in NCAA history. The only high-major coaches with longer active tenures at one school are Syracuse's Jim Boeheim (39th season) and Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (35th season).

Big Ten Success

Michigan State has captured at least a share of the Big Ten Championship or a Big Ten Tournament title in four of the last six seasons. After winning the title outright in 2009, the Spartans shared the conference crown in 2010 and 2012. In 2012, MSU also added a Big Ten Tournament title to its resume. Last season, MSU won the Big Ten Tournament after finishing tied for second in the regular season. During Tom Izzo's tenure, the Spartans have won seven regular-season titles and four tournament crowns.

Spartans On Target From Deep

Michigan State is shooting .401 (136-339) from 3-point range this season, leading the Big Ten and ranking 16th in the nation. In conference play, however, MSU is shooting just .341. Bryn Forbes (.463) ranks third in the Big Ten, while Denzel Valentine (.443) ranks sixth in the conference. Marvin Clark Jr. (.382) and Travis Trice (.385) also shoot better than 38 percent from behind the arc.

Dawson's Defense

Branden Dawson is known for dominating the backboard and his rim-rattling dunks, but he's also among the best defensive players in the conference, as his strength and athleticism give him the versatility to guard nearly any position on the floor. Consider what some of the best players in the Big Ten have done against Dawson: Maryland's Jake Layman (Dec. 30) (Avg. 15.8 ppg entering the game - 4 pts., 2-4 FG, 0-2 3FG, 9 rebs., 36 min.), Indiana's Troy Williams (Jan. 5) (13.6 ppg - 0 pts., 0-2 FG, 1 reb., 17 min.), Iowa's Aaron White (Jan. 8) (17.2 ppg - 8 pts., 2-4 FG, 1-1 3FG, 28 min.).

Branden Dawson is averaging 10.7 rebounds over his last nine games.

Balanced Scoring

Michigan State features a balanced scoring attack with three players averaging in double figures, four averaging 9.7 points or more, and seven players averaging 6.2 points or more. Six different Spartans have led the team in scoring in a single game, as seven different players have scored in double figures at least once. There have been five games in which five Spartans have reached double figures, one more time than all of last season. The Spartans are a perfect 8-0 when four or more players score in double-figures, and just 4-6 when three or fewer Spartans hit double-figures.

Spartans Strong On The Glass

Michigan State owns a Big Ten-best +7.3 rebounding margin, having out-rebounded 14 of 18 opponents. In the Tom Izzo era, MSU has out-rebounded 519 of 673 opponents (.771), posting a 411-108 (.792) mark in those games. The Spartans have led the nation in rebounding in four of the last 15 seasons (2000, 2001, 2009, 2010), ranking in the Top 10 nine times and the Top 25 on 12 occasions. MSU has led the Big Ten in rebounding margin in conference games in 11 of the last 17 years.

Free Basketbal

Michigan State is 1-3 in overtime games this season, as the four overtime games are the most since the Spartans played four during the 2003-04 season. MSU entered the season having won seven straight overtime games dating back to a loss to Minnesota in the 2010 Big Ten Tournament. The last time MSU played more than four overtime games in a season came during the 1987-88 season when it played five.

Big Ten Success, Part II

Michigan State has won 13 regular-season Big Ten Championships, including three of the last six, since joining the league prior to the 1950-51 season. The Spartans' first ever league game was at Northwestern, where MSU claimed a 67-62 victory on Jan. 6, 1951. All-time, MSU is 582-463 (.557) in league play, including 224-103 (.685) under Tom Izzo, who ranks fourth in league history with 224 conference wins. Izzo has guided MSU to seven of its 13 league crowns. Since Izzo's first season (1995-96), MSU has a Big Ten-best record of 224-103, 16.5 games better than second-place Wisconsin (207-119).

Izzo Moves Up Big Ten Coaching List

Tom Izzo ranks fourth on the career Big Ten victories list with 224. It's likely that Izzo will rank third by the end of the season, moving past Purdue's Ward Lambert (228 wins). Indiana's Bob Knight is the all-time leader with 353 Big Ten wins, while Gene Keady ranks second with 265 victories. In terms of most wins at a Big Ten institution, Izzo already ranks third with 480, trailing only Knight (661 wins) and Keady (512).

Trice From Distance

Travis Trice is situated to end his career as one of the most prolific 3-point shooters in MSU history. Midway through his senior year, Trice is tied with Jason Klein for seventh place in career 3-pointers (152), standing just nine out of sixth (Durrell Summers, 161). With a career 3-point field-goal percentage of .409 (152-372), Trice ranks ninth in MSU history.

Dawson Attacks The Glass

Branden Dawson leads the Big Ten in rebounding at 9.5 boards per contest. In conference games, he's averaging a Big Ten-best 11.6 rebounds, recording double-figure rebounds in four of five games. Over his last nine games, he's averaging 10.7 boards. Earlier this season, he grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds (nine offensive boards) at Notre Dame. The 18 rebounds are tied for the most by a Spartan since Goran Suton grabbed 20 vs. Oakland in 2007. Dawson's nine offensive rebounds against the Irish are tied for the third-best single-game effort in MSU history (since 1986-87). He pulled down 15 rebounds at lowa, marking his personal best against a Big Ten opponent.

The Costello-Schilling Combination

Junior Matt Costello (7.7 ppg, 5.9 rpg) and sophomore Gavin Schilling (7.1 ppg, 4.4 rpg) have combined to give Michigan State a solid post presence. The two Spartans average a combined 14.8 points and 10.3 rebounds, shooting .647 (110-170) from the field. Schilling leads the Big Ten in field-goal percentage, while Costello ranks second.

A Thin Line Between Victory And Defeat

In four of Michigan State's six defeats, the Spartans have either led or been within a possession in the final minute of the contest, with three of the losses coming in overtime (one in double overtime). Against Kansas, MSU trailed by just three points in the final minute with possession of the ball. At Notre Dame, MSU led by six with under eight minutes left, before falling by a single point in overtime. In an overtime upset loss to Texas Southern, MSU led by eight points with eight minutes to play, and by six with under four minutes to play. In the Big Ten opener, MSU led Maryland by five with under five minutes to play and by four with under two minutes left in overtime, before losing a two-point game in double overtime. Outside of the loss to Texas Southern, MSU has lost five games to four Top 13 teams with a combined mark of 65-9 (through Jan. 19).

Valentine Brings Florida Heat Up North

Joined by teammate Travis Trice on the Orlando Classic All-Tournament Team, Denzel Valentine had an exceptional Thanksgiving weekend in Florida. In three games, Valentine averaged a team-best 19.3 points, shooting .543 (19-35) from the field and .609 (14-23) from 3-point range. He scored a career-high 19 points in the quarterfinals vs. Rider, only to better that effort one night later with 25 points against Marquette. His solid play continued at Notre Dame, scoring a team-high 22 points, shooting 7-of-13, including 4-of-7 from 3-point range. He's averaging 14.9 points and shooting .487 (38-78) from 3-point range in the last 14 games.

Costello Playing Well

Matt Costello is averaging 9.4 points over the last 10 games, in addition to 5.6 rebounds, shooting .632 from the field in 20.0 minutes per contest. Costello started the first six games of the season, averaging 6.2 points and 7.5 rebounds in 20.2 minutes, shooting .593 from the field. He's come off the bench in the last 12 games, averaging 8.5 points and 5.2 rebounds in 19.0 minutes, shooting .625 from the field. Costello has posted two double-doubles on the season.

Valentine's Continual Improvement

Always known for his versatility, Denzel Valentine has worked hard to become a terrific shooter. After shooting .281 (16-57) from 3-point range as a freshman and improving to .377 (43-114) as a sophomore, Valentine is one of the best shooters in the conference this season. He ranks sixth in the Big Ten in made 3-point field goals per game (2.5) and 3-point field-goal percentage (.443; 43-97). Over the last 14 games, he's shooting .487 from behind the arc (38-78).

Dawson's Injury

Branden Dawson suffered a stable, non-displaced fracture on his left wrist after taking a hard fall in the Dec. 17 contest vs. Eastern Michigan. He missed MSU's next two games vs. Texas Southern (Dec. 20) and The Citadel (Dec. 22). He returned to the lineup against Maryland (Dec. 30), totaling nine points and 11 rebounds, while wearing a brace. He had the brace removed prior to MSU's second game vs. Maryland (Jan. 17). Earlier this season, Dawson missed the game against Santa Clara with the flu, and came off the bench vs. Rider and Marquette while recovering from the same illness.

Starting Suits Trice Nicely

In his first year as a primary starter, senior Travis Trice is proving he is up to the challenge. He ranks second in the Big Ten in assists (5.8 apg) and paces the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio (3.5), leading the Spartans in both categories. He is eighth in 3-point field goals made (2.2). His 5.8 assists are the most by a Spartan since Mateen Cleaves averaged 6.9 as a senior. Trice entered the year having started just eight games in his career, but he did average 9.3 points and 3.6 assists in those eight games last season.

Long Range Firepower

Michigan State established a school single-season record in 2013-14 with 307 made 3-pointers, 54 more than the previous school record. The Spartans made 10 or more 3-pointers in 14 games, including a school single-game record 17 at Purdue, tying the Big Ten record for a conference game. This season, MSU is averaging 7.6 made 3-pointers per contest, ranking fifth in the Big Ten. Denzel Valentine leads MSU and ranks sixth in the Big Ten with 43 made 3-pointers (2.4 pg). The Spartans have made eight or more 3-pointers in nine games, including six games with 10 or more.

MSU is 8-0 when four or more players score in double-figures.

The 1,000-Point Club

With four points against Eastern Michigan before leaving with a wrist injury, Branden Dawson became the 46th Spartan to reach 1,000 career points at MSU. With 1,066 career points, he ranks 41st in MSU history, needing 16 points to pass Goran Suton (1,081 points), and 34 to pass Bill Kilgore (1,099 points). Bryn Forbes (1,079 points) has also eclipsed the 1,000-point career mark this season, although 905 of those came in his first two seasons at Cleveland State.

Spartans Share The Ball

Unselfishness is a trademark of all Tom Izzo teams. That was never on display more than it was last year, as the Spartans established a school single-season record with 637 assists, leading the Big Ten with 16.76 assists per game. This season, MSU is averaging 18.0 assists per game, leading the Big Ten and ranking third in the nation, recording an assist on 65.2 percent of its baskets. In 10 games, MSU has recorded an assist on more than 70 percent of its baskets (vs. Navy 18 ast., 25 FG - 72.0%; vs. Loyola 27 ast., 36 FG - 75.0%; vs. Santa Clara 22 ast., 29 FG - 75.9%; vs. Ark.-Pine Bluff 27 ast., 30 FG - 90.0%; vs. Oakland 25 ast., 34 FG - 73.5%; vs. Eastern Michigan 17 ast., 20 FG - 85.0%; vs. The Citadel 23 ast., 32 FG - 71.9%; vs. Maryland 15 ast., 21 FG - 71.4%; vs. Indiana 21 ast., 28 FG - 75.0%; vs. Iowa 19 ast., 27 FG - 70.4%).

Playing The Best

Since the 1997-98 season, the year of Michigan State's first of 17 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans have played 190 games against ranked opponents. That total ranks first among teams that have appeared in a Final Four since then. The Spartans are followed by North Carolina (173), Kentucky (165), Illinois (164), Texas (163), and Duke (162). (Through games of Jan. 19)

Making Up For Lost Time

After missing the first 10 games of the season while recovering from a broken right foot, freshman Javon Bess made his Michigan State debut against Eastern Michigan. The 2014 Ohio Co-Division I Player of the Year, Bess checked in about six minutes into the second half and promptly grabbed a rebound. He finished with five rebounds and one point in just nine minutes of play. He made his first career start at Maryland, totaling six points and four assists in 22 minutes. Through eight games, he's averaging 2.9 points and 3.3 rebounds per game. His development was further stunted by a pair of sprained ankles suffered since the return from the holiday break, limiting him to just 33 total minutes in the first four Big Ten games.

Double-Double Trouble

Four different Spartans have posted a double-double this season as Branden Dawson (vs. Notre Dame-16 pts., 18 reb.; vs. Indiana-14 pts., 13 reb.; vs. Iowa-14 pts., 15 rebs.; vs. Maryland-14 pts., 10 reb.) leads MSU with four. Matt Costello (vs. Loyola-13 pts., 11 reb.; vs. Texas Southern-17 pts., 10 reb.) has two, while Gavin Schilling (vs. Santa Clara-14 pts., 11 reb.) and Denzel Valentine (vs. Santa Clara-13 pts., 11 reb.) each have one. For his career, Dawson has 16 double-doubles, while Valentine has totaled five.

Spartans Strong On The Road

Michigan State owns a Big Ten-best 34-22 (.607) mark in conference road games over the last six-plus seasons (since the start of 2008-09 Big Ten play). Ohio State is 32-25 on the road, while Wisconsin is 30-26.

MSU's M.A.S.H. Unit

Michigan State has dealt with injury issues for much of the season. Freshman Javon Bess underwent surgery in late October on a broken bone in his right foot. After missing the first 10 games, he made his debut against Eastern Michigan. Two minor ankle sprains since Christmas have further hampered his development. Sophomore Alvin Ellis III suffered a severe sprained right ankle after just three minutes against Navy and did not return to action until playing five minutes against Notre Dame. Junior Bryn Forbes did not miss any time, but he played with a brace on his left (non-shooting) hand while recovering from a broken bone for the first 10 games. Senior Branden Dawson missed MSU's game vs. Santa Clara with the flu, which also limited his minutes at the Orlando Classic. Against Eastern Michigan, he suffered a wrist injury that kept him out of action for two games. In total, MSU has lost 19 games due to illness and injury.

Trice Nominated For Good Works Team

Travis Trice is one of 158 male nominees for the 2015 Allstate NABC Good Works Team. This prestigious community service award recognizes a distinguished group of student-athletes who have demonstrated a commitment to enriching the lives of others and contributing to the greater good in their communities. From the nominees, a distinguished voting panel will select a 10-member team comprised of five student-athletes from the Division I level and five from Divisions II, III and the NAIA.

MSU's Sunrise Connection

Freshmen Marvin Clark Jr. and Lourawls "Tum Tum" Nairn Jr., both products of Sunrise Christian Academy in Bel Aire, Kansas, are making big contributions as Spartan freshmen. Clark Jr. ranks seventh on the team in scoring at 6.2 ppg. Nairn Jr. ranks third on the team with 2.7 assists per game, and has shown remarkable leadership skills for a freshman.

Ranked Opponents

Michigan State is currently not ranked, but is receiving votes in both the USA Today Coaches Poll and the Associated Press Top 25. Seven Spartan opponents are ranked in the Top 25: Duke (No. 5 AP/No. 6 USA Today), Wisconsin (6/5), Notre Dame (8/9), Kansas (11/14), Maryland (13/8), Indiana (23/23) and Iowa (25/-).

Preseason All-American

Branden Dawson was named a preseason first-team All-American by The Sporting News. He was a preseason first-team All-Big Ten selection as chosen by Lindy's Sports and Sporting News. ESPN.com ranked Dawson No. 15 in its player rankings, while ESPN.com's Jeff Goodman named him a third-team All-American. Dawson was also selected to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 list and the Naismith Award Watch List.

Prep Teammates

Michigan State's roster features three pairs of high school teammates. Junior Denzel Valentine has been reunited with high school classmate Bryn Forbes, who spent his first two seasons at Cleveland State. The duo teamed to appear in three-straight Michigan Class B title games from 2010-2012, capturing the state championship in 2011 and 2012. Forbes transferred to MSU this past June, and later received a waiver from the NCAA allowing him to play this season. Freshmen Lourawls "Tum Tum" Nairn Jr. and Marvin Clark Jr. both attended Sunrise Christian Academy in Bel Aire, Kansas. They were teammates during the 2012-13 season, posting a 29-1 record, with Clark as a senior and Nairn as a junior. Clark then did a year of prep school at Sunrise Christian last season, while Nairn finished his high school career. Sophomores Alvin Ellis III and Gavin Schilling were teammates at Chicago De La Salle as juniors in 2011-12. Ellis graduated from De La Salle, while Schilling spent his final season at Findlay Prep in Nevada. Big Ten Schedule

Moving to a 14-team conference for 2014-15, each Big Ten team will play five schools twice, four schools on the road, and four schools at home. Michigan State will go home and home with Maryland, Indiana, Northwestern, Michigan, and Illinois. The Spartans will host Penn State, Ohio State, Minnesota, and Purdue, while traveling to Iowa, Nebraska, Rutgers, and Wisconsin. Eight of Michigan State's 13 Big Ten opponents appeared in the 2014 postseason, including five in the NCAA Tournament (Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio State, Wisconsin), two in the NIT (Illinois, Minnesota) and one in the CBI (Penn State).

NCAA

MSU leads all Big Ten schools with eight players appearing on NBA rosters this season.

Spartans In The NBA

Michigan State leads all Big Ten schools with eight players appearing on NBA rosters this season. Gary Harris (Denver) and Adreian Payne (Atlanta) are in their rookie seasons after being selected in the first round of the 2014 NBA Draft. They join former Spartans Alan Anderson (Brooklyn), Shannon Brown (Miami), Draymond Green (Golden State), Zach Randolph (Memphis) and Jason Richardson (Philadelphia) in the NBA. Kalin Lucas (Memphis) signed a free-agent contract in November and appeared in his first career game on Nov. 19.

Spartans Sign Strong Recruiting Class

Michigan State signed three talented players to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period. Kyle Ahrens (G, 6-5, 195) led Versailles (Ohio) High School to the Ohio Division III state title game as a sophomore. He was averaging 22 points, seven rebounds as four assists as a junior before suffering a season-ending leg injury in the sixth game of the season. Deyonta Davis (F/C, 6-10, 215) is a five-star big man who averaged 15.0 points, 13.6 rebounds and 7.1 blocks as a junior at Muskegon High School, leading his team to a perfect 28-0 mark and a Michigan Class A state championship. He established a Michigan state high school single-season record with 199 blocks in 2013-14. Matt McQuaid (G, 6-5, 180) averaged 14.7 points and 5.7 rebounds as a junior at Duncanville (Texas) High School. He exploded during the off season, averaging 15.6 points in the 2014 Nike EYBL circuit, shooting 45.1 percent from 3-point range. ESPN.com's Jeff Goodman called him "arguably the best pure shooter in the country."

Quotable: "I had been frustrated with B.J. (Branden Dawson) for the right reasons and tonight proved it. To his credit, he is healthier, too. B.J. did a very good job. - MSU coach Tom Izzo

Key Moment: MSU led 54-47 and was threatening to pull away. Following a Notre Dame basket, Branden Dawson turned the ball over and Demetrius Jackson converted on a transition layup and was fouled. Dawson's nine offensive rebounds tied the thirdbest effort in MSU history (since 1986-87) ... The loss snapped MSU's streak of seven-straight wins in overtime games, dating back to a loss in the 2010 Big Ten Tournament ... MSU grabbed half of its missed shots, collecting 18 offensive rebounds, compared to 18 defensive rebounds for ND ... Notre Dame held a decisive 16-4 advantage in points off turnovers, committing just four turnovers, compared to 12 for Michigan State ... Jan. 17, 2015 · College Park, Md. XFINITY Center

Key Stat: 3-Point FG Percentage MSU - .176 (3-17); MD - .524 (11-21)

Quotable: "I think you saw a combination of two things. One of the poorer performances by a Michigan State team. We were awful. We didn't make layups. We didn't guard. And I thought one of the better performances by the Maryland team"

- MSU coach Tom Izzo

Key Moment: With MSU trailing 29-22, Branden Dawson went to the bench with 3:13 remaining after picking up his second foul. Maryland outscored MSU, 11-4, to close the half, taking a commanding 40-26 lead.

Notes: Javon Bess made his first career start, becoming the third Spartan freshman to start a game this season ... Branden Dawson matched his career high with four blocked shots, moving into fifth place on the MSU career list ... Maryland matched its season high with 11 made 3-pointers, while its .524 percentage from behind the arc was a season high, and a season high for a Spartan opponent ... Maryland made 20-of-22 shots from the foul line, while MSU connected on just 4-of-13 attempts, marking a season low for made free throws and free-throw percentage for the Spartans ... The 14 combined points for Travis Trice (5 points) and Denzel Valentine (9 points) were a combined season low for the duo Maryland converted 12 Spartan turnovers into 20 points ... MSU made its first trip to College Park to play Maryland since 1955 ... Matt Costello's 12 points were a personal best against a Big Ten opponent.
