THE GAME

• The Boston University women's soccer team advances to the NCAA Second Round for the fifth time in program history in its third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance as the Terriers head to No. 6/11 Penn State for a 6:30 p.m. game on Friday, Nov. 20.

TERRIER TIDBITS

• The Terriers own a 13-5-3 record and are on an eight-game win streak entering Saturday.
• BU finished the Patriot League schedule undefeated for the first time in program history, going

8-0-1, which allowed the Terriers to host the conference tournament for the first time.

• The Terriers advanced to the Patriot League title game thanks to a gritty 2-1 win over Loyola Md. in the semifinal round. The Greyhounds broke BU's shutout streak against conference opponents, which lasted five games. Loyola was also the last league foe to score a goal on the Terriers.

• BU then defeated No. 2 seeded Bucknell in another hard-fought contest that resulted in a 1-0 victory for the Terriers.

• Last weekend, BU orchestrated an overtime comeback win against St. John's, 2-1 to earn a trip to the NCAA Second Round. It was just the second time in program history that the Terriers have scored multiple goals in an NCAA game and the second time BU has won an NCAA game in overtime.

• The Terriers have kept nine clean sheets this season, including six in the last seven games.

BU IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

• BU is in the NCAA tournament for the 13th time in their 21-year history as a varsity program.
• BU made 10 appearances, including seven straight from 2005 to 2011, in the NCAA tournament as a member of the America East.
• This is the Terriers' third NCAA trip as a member of the Patriot League after having won their third consecutive conference crown on Nov. 8.
• BU is 5-12 all-time in the NAAs, having reached the second round in 2000, 2005, 2011, 2013 and last weekend against St. John's.
• The Terriers' first-ever postseason victory occurred in their first-ever NCAA appearance, winning the first round of the 2000 tournament against Holy Cross, 1-0.
• In 2005, the Terriers made it to the second round via a 1-0 overtime win over Northeast rival Connecticut on the Huskies' home turf.
• The Terriers made their third trip to the second round in 2011 when BU hosted an NCAA game for the first time and knocked off Harvard, 3-0.
• It was a similar story in 2013, as BU bested Harvard, 1-0, to move on to the second round.
