LADY LIONS READY FOR EXHIBITION MATCH UP VS. CAL (PA.)

SERIES NOTES

// Cal (Pa.) head coach Jess Strom was a First Team All-Big Ten performer in 2005 and ranks 14th on Penn State's all-time scoring charts (1,466).

// Penn State is 60-46 against teams currently aligned in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference.

// The Lady Lions' last regular season meeting with current member of the PSAC came on Dec. 12, 1984 in a 94-64 win over Cheyney.

NEWS & NOTES

// Head coach Coquese Washington enters her ninth season at the helm of the Lady Lion program. Washington has won 148 games through her first eight seasons, including four 20-win seasons and three Big Ten regular season titles (2011-12, 2012-13, 2013-14).

// The 2015 recruiting class was ranked 15th nationally by ESPN.com/HoopGurlz, marking the third top-15 and fourth top-25 class signed by Washington.

// The freshmen class features a pair of guards, Amari Carter and Teniya Page, and two post players, Ashanti Thomas and Jaylen Williams. Carter and Page were each rated as five-star recruits coming out of high school, with Page ranking 27th and Carter sitting 32nd in the final ESPN.com/HoopGurlz player rankings. Thomas and Williams were each top-100 players, as well, sitting 87th and 80th, respectively.

// Junior guard Seirra Moore will miss the 2015-16 season due to injury (knee). Moore averaged 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.8 assists, and added 15 blocked shots and 35 steals in 30 games last season.

// The Lady Lions return 91 percent of their scoring, 90 percent of their assists and steals, 88 percent of their minutes played and 86 percent of their rebounds from a season ago.

// Sophomore Lindsey Spann was the team's leading scorer a season ago with 13.2 points per game, adding 88 assists and 32 steals.

// Brianna Banks will hit the floor for the first time since 2013-14 - at Connecticut - and the first time in the blue and white after sitting out last season due to NCAA Transfer Rules. Banks enters her final collegiate season with 397 points, 128 rebounds, 112 assists and 84 steals in 90 career games played.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Coach Washington's Availability
 All interview requests for head coach Coquese Washington should be directed to Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office.

Coach Washington will hold weekly press conferences during the season. A schedule is available by calling the Strategic Communications office.

Coach Washington will not be available on game day prior to tip-off. Post game press conferences will be held after each game, home and away.

Player Interviews
 All player interviews must be arranged through Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office at least two days in advance. Players will be available on a weekly basis throughout the season, in conjunction with head coach Coquese Washington's weekly press conference. Interviews will not be granted on game day prior to tip-off. Player phone numbers will not be released.

Following games, requested Penn State players will be brought to the post-game media interview room. The Penn State locker room is closed.

Credentials
 Single game and season press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for credentials should be directed to Greg Campbell, the women's basketball contact. Please submit requests for game credentials at least one week in advance of each game. Press credentials can be picked up at Media Will Call, which is located at the Media/Team entrance, on the south side of the Bryce Jordan Center, near Parking Lot 8.

Penn State is a member of the Big Ten Conference and all press box and game day policies will conform to Big Ten guidelines.

Photographers
 A photo pass must be issued to gain access courtside in the Bryce Jordan Center. Please contact Greg Campbell (gxc35@psu.edu), one week in advance for photo passes.

Courtside photographers must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas and the stands. Photographers must remain seated at all times.

Radio Networks
 The Penn State Sports Network originates from the first row of Booth C23 in the press area. Visiting radio stations are located on the first row of Booth C22 in the press area. Visiting radio is provided one phone line and one ISDN line.

Press Row Seating
 To access the press seating area, turn left out of the media room, walk down the hallway and take the elevator to the Concourse level. Please allow several minutes when taking the elevator to the press room or the media room. When leaving the elevator, turn right. The press area is at Portal 23. Electrical outlets are available throughout press row and in the radio booths. Final statistics and a running play-by-play will be available in the media room following the game.

Game Notes
 Game notes will be provided at least one day in advance of each game. Penn State, Big Ten and opposing team game notes will be available in the media room two hours prior to each game. If you would like to receive game notes via email, please contact Greg Campbell in the Penn State Strategic Communications office at 814-865-1759.

INSIDE THE SERIES

Agee Sending It Back

Candice Agee ended the 2014-15 season ranked tied for No. 13 on Penn State's career blocked shots list with 87 rejections through three seasons. Here are just some of Agee's experience with sending back opponents shots:

// Agee is tied with Reicina Russell (87; 2003-04) and Vicki Link (87; 1984-87) for 13th place on the career blocked shots list.

// She is just two rejections shy of tying Kathy Phillips (89; 1989-92) for 12th spot.

// Agee posted 17 multi-block efforts in 2014-15 and now has 24 career contests with two-or-more blocks.

// The Victorville, Calif., native enjoyed a 13-game streak with at least on blocked shot in 2014-15. She rejected shots in each game from Jan. 6 - Feb. 26, 2015.

// Agee recorded a career-high five blocks in a win over Rider on Dec. 14, 2014.

// Entering her final season in the blue and white, Agee owns the 10th best blocks per game average. She averages 1.0 blocks per game in 87 career games.

Double-Doubles

Eight of Penn State's 11 double-double performances from last season return for 2015-16.

// Candice Agee and Kalityah Mitchell each recorded three double-doubles last season. It was the first career double-double performances for each of them.

// Sierra Moore also chipped in a pair of double-doubles - the first of her career.

Spann Among Top Freshmen Scorers

Lindsey Spann opened her career with eight consecutive double-figure scoring games and became just the fifth rookie since 1981 to lead the team in scoring during her first season on the court.

// Spann reached the 10-point mark in each of her first eight career games, a feat not accomplished by Penn State's top two career scorers, Kelly Mazzante and Maggie Lucas.

// She ended the season ranked No. 7 on the PSU freshman scoring list with 384 points.

// Her 13.2 points per game was tops on the squad, making her just the fifth freshman since 1980-81 to lead the team in scoring average, joining Lucas (2010-11), Tyra Grant (2006-07), Mazzante (2000-01) and Susan Robinson (1988-89)

// Spann connected on 37 three-pointers to rank No. 6 on the freshman charts.

Record Setting Academics

A school-record seven Lady Lions earned Academic All-Big Ten honors during the 2014-15 academic year.

// The seven academic award winners surpassed the six honorees from the 2003-04, 2008-09 and 2012-13 squads.

// Jenny DeGraaf, Molly Dincher, Kalityah Mitchell, Sierra Moore, Lindsey Spann, Tori Waldner and Peyton Whitted all earned carried at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA through their competition season.

// Waldner was also named to the Big Ten Distinguished Scholars list, awarded to student-athletes that held a 3.7 or higher GPA during the academic year.

On The Recruiting Trail

Head coach Coquese Washington and her staff was able to ink the No. 15 signing class in 2015, netting a pair of five-star recruits and two other top-100 players.

// The class included a pair of guards, Amari Carter (Washington D.C.) and Teniya Page (Chicago), and two post players, Ashanti Thomas (Lexington, Ky.) and Jaylen Williams (Easton, Mass.).

// Carter and Page were each rated as five-star recruits coming out of high school, with Page ranking 27th and Carter sitting 32nd in the final ESPN.com/HoopGurtz player rankings.

// Thomas and Williams were each top-100 players, as well, sitting 87th and 80th, respectively.

// The class will also get a boost from Brianna Banks, who sat out last season after transferring from Connecticut with one year of eligibility remaining.

Moore Out for 2015-16

// Junior guard Seirra Moore will miss the 2015-16 season due to injury (knee).

// Moore averaged 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds and 3.8 assists, and added 15 blocked shots and 35 steals in 30 games last season.

// After sitting out the 2013-14 season, Moore was the only Lady Lion to start all 30 games and averaged a season-high 34.1 minutes per game.

COQUESE WASHINGTON

Head Coach • Ninth Season
Notre Dame '92 • Flint, Mich.

Coquese Washington enters her ninth season at the helm of the Penn State women's basketball program. She was introduced as the fifth head coach in the history of the program on April 23, 2007 and is the first female African-American head coach in Penn State history.

The recruiting trail was once again fruitful for the Lady Lions, as Washington and her staff inked its fourth top-25 class and third top-15 class since arriving in Happy Valley. The class featured a pair of five-star guards and two highly recruited post players, earning the No. 15 ranking from ESPN.com/HoopGurlz. The crop of newcomers also got a boost from Connecticut transfer Brianna Banks, who sat out 2014-15 due to NCAA transfer rules.

The 2014-15 season saw the emergence of a pair of first-year players for Penn State, guards Lindsey Spann and honorable-mention All-Big Ten guard Sierra Moore. Spann, who missed 2013-14 due to injury, stepped right into a starting role and responded with double-figure scoring games in each of her first eight career contests, a feat not accomplished by Penn State's top two career scoring leaders, Kelly Mazzante and Maggie Lucas. She ended the season ranked No. 7 on the Penn State freshmen scoring list, with her 37 made three-pointers ranking No. 6 all-time on the freshmen charts. Moore enjoyed success in her first season in the blue and white, starting all 30 games and averaging a team-best 34 minutes per game. Moore ranked among the team leaders in nearly every category, averaging 12.1 points, 5.1 rebounds, 3.8 assists, 1.2 steals and 0.5 blocks per game.

Washington led the 2013-14 Lady Lion squad to a feat that no other Penn State team has accomplished, winning three consecutive conference regular-season titles with a 13-3 record in Big Ten action. Led by the play of a strong senior class, the Lady Lions advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the second time in three years. The graduating class of Maggie Lucas, Ariel Edwards, Dara Taylor and Talia East produced 101 wins, which is the second-highest total by a Lady Lion class. The Lady Lions finished the season 13th in the Associated Press poll and 14th in the USA Today Sports Coaches' Poll.

Along the way to collecting her second Big Ten Player of the Year award, Lucas finished second in school history and fourth in Big Ten history in scoring (2,510) and broke the Penn State and Big Ten records for career three-pointers made (365) and career free throw percentage (.907). She was selected in the second round of the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury. Edwards became the 36th member of the 1,000-point club en route to collecting All-Big Ten first team accolades. She finished seventh in the Big Ten in scoring (15.7) and was 11th in free throw percentage (.814). Edwards signed a free agent contract with the WNBA's Tulsa Shock. Taylor also had a stellar senior campaign and collected the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award after leading the conference in steals. East also earned postseason honors as she was named All-Big Ten honorable mention. In addition, Washington was honored with her third consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year honor.

The Lady Lions continued their run in the national spotlight in 2012-13 as they collected their second-straight Big Ten regular-season title and seventh overall with a 26-6 overall record and 14-2 mark in conference play. In each of Washington's first six years, Penn State improved its Big Ten win total. The Lady Lions posted their third consecutive 25-win season, joining the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 squads as the only teams in program history to accomplish the feat. Penn State also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over Cal Poly. The Lady Lions were consistently ranked in the Top 10 for most of the season and finished eighth in the Associated Press Top 25 and 12th in the USA Today Sports Coaches' Poll.

With another stellar campaign, the accolades continued to roll in for the Lady Lions. Washington was selected as the Big Ten Coach of the Year by the media for the second-straight season and became just the fifth mentor in Big Ten history to win back-to-back Coach of the Year accolades. She was also the WBCA Region 6 Coach of the Year and a finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year for the second-straight season.

The awards also piled up for Penn State's dynamic backcourt of Lucas and Alex Bentley. Lucas was selected as the Big Ten Player of the Year, was a Wade Trophy Finalist and was an All-America choice by four outlets, including the WBCA (honorable mention), Associated Press (second team), USBWA (first team) and Full Court (second team). She is just the third Lady Lion in program history to win Big Ten Player of the Year honors, joining Helen Darling and Kelly Mazzante. Bentley earned her third-straight first team All-Big Ten award and honorable mention All-America bids from the WBCA and Associated Press. She was also selected as the 2013 recipient of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, which is presented to the nation's outstanding female collegian 5-8 and under. Bentley was the third Lady Lion to win the honor, joining Darling and Suzie McConnell. Nikki Greene also capped a stellar career for the Lady Lions with third team All-Big Ten accolades. She also became the first player in school history to accumulate 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks.

Both Bentley and Greene heard their names called on WNBA Draft night. Bentley was selected with the 13th overall pick by the Atlanta Dream to become the highest draft pick for the Lady Lions since Tanisha Wright (12th) in 2005. Greene was the 26th overall selection by the Phoenix Mercury to give Penn State two draft picks for the first time since 2004 (Mazzante, Jess Brungo).

With five graduating seniors in 2012-13, Penn State was stout on the recruiting trail, bringing in a seven-member class that was ranked 14th by ESPN/HoopGurlz. The Lady Lions also added transfer Moore from Duke to complete the eight-player class. The addition of Moore gave the Lady Lions four McDonald's All-Americans on the roster heading into the 2013-14 campaign, with Taylor (2009), Lucas (2010) and Candice Agee (2012).

Washington returned the Lady Lions to Big Ten prominence in her fifth season as she guided Penn State to the Big Ten regular-season title with a 13-3 record in conference play. Additionally, the Lady Lions advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet Sixteen with wins over UTEP and LSU en route to a 26-7 overall record. The Lady Lions posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 2002-03 and 2003-04. It was also the first Big Ten crown and Sweet Sixteen berth for the Lady Lions since 2003-04. The Lady Lions were ranked throughout the season and finished ninth in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' Poll and 11th in the Associated Press Top 25.

For her efforts in rebuilding the Penn State program, Washington was honored as the Big Ten Coach of the Year and the WBCA Region 6 Coach of the Year, making her a finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year. The accolades were not just limited to Washington; all five Lady Lion starters earned All-Big Ten recognition, including first team bids for Bentley and Lucas. Both Bentley and Lucas also garnered honorable mention All-America honors from the WBCA and Associated Press, respectively. Bentley became the 33rd player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau and just the 15th junior to reach the milestone. Lucas also joined the 1,000-point club in 2011-12, becoming just the third sophomore in program history to accomplish the feat.

On the recruiting trail, the Lady Lions' 2012 class earned a Top-20 class from Dan Olson's Collegiate Girls Basketball Report. The class included transfer Taylor, who sat out the 2011-12 season due to NCAA transfer rules, and McDonald's High School All-American Agee from California. Additionally, Agee earned a gold medal with the USA Basketball U18 National Team Trials at the 2012 FIBA Americas Championship in August.

The Lady Lions returned to the national stage in Washington's fourth year with a second-place finish in the Big Ten regular season standings, a runner-up finish in the Big Ten Tournament and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State tallied its 23rd 20-win season with a 25-10 overall record and an 11-5 mark in conference play. The Lady Lions worked their way back to the "Big Dance" for the first time since 2004-05 and advanced to the second round for the first time in seven years with a win over Dayton in the first round in front of a raucous Bryce Jordan Center crowd.

Penn State was a dominating force from the perimeter as the Lady Lions tied the school record with 228 three-pointers and led NCAA Division I from deep with a .415 three-point field goal percentage. Pacing the Lady Lions from downtown was Lucas, who broke the Big Ten three-pointers record with 112 triples to go along with a .426 shooting percentage. For her efforts, Lucas was selected as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year while breaking the Penn State freshman season scoring record (552 pts.). Additionally with Washington's guidance, Bentley became the 11th different player in school history to take home first team All-Big Ten accolades after finishing second in the conference in assists. After outstanding seasons, both Lucas and Bentley were invited to the USA Basketball World University Games Trials.

Washington was also instrumental in the development of Greene, who earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive team and All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades after recording 75 blocks on the year. Julia Trogele also claimed All-Big Ten honorable mention honors to close out her career.

Washington's third season saw the Lady Lions return to the postseason for the first time since 2004-05 with a WNIT berth. The Lions earned their most overall wins (17) and conference wins (8) since the 2004-05 campaign en route to a sixth-place finish in the Big Ten. Penn State picked up a pair of wins over ranked opponents in #15/15 Pittsburgh and #20/23 Michigan State.

Washington led Tyra Grant to back-to-back first team All-Big Ten honors and Associated Press Honorable Mention All-America accolades in her senior season. Grant capped off her career by being selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the second round of the WNBA Draft. The four-time all-conference pick left Penn State third in school history in scoring with 2,044 points. Washington also guided Bentley to third team All-Big Ten honors, as well as a unanimous selection to the Big Ten All-Freshman team.

That year, Washington and the Lady Lions garnered one of the top recruiting classes in the country, finishing 22nd on the ESPN/HoopGurlz recruiting chart. The class included just the second McDonald's High School All-American in Penn State history in Lucas, WBCA High School All-American Ariel Edwards and All-State selection Talia East.

In Washington's second season, the Lady Lions moved up three positions in the Big Ten standings, finishing in a tie for seventh place. Under Washington's guidance in 2008-09, Grant became the 10th different player in school history to earn first team All-Big Ten honors. Grant was also a semifinalist for the Naismith Player of the Year award. Additionally, Brianne O'Rourke closed out her career with All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades and left Penn State as one of just six players in school history with 1,000 points and 500 assists.

Washington's second recruiting class was rated in the Top 20 by many publications, peaking at No. 10 by "Blue Star Basketball." The four-player class featured a pair of All-Americans in Greene and Bentley, as well as All-State performers Gizelle Studevent and Marisa Wolfe.

In May 2009, Washington's protégés Grant and Greene were invited to the USA Basketball Trials for the World University Games and U19 World Championships, respectively.

The Coquese Washington era started in style as the Lady Lions won their first three games of the season, including a win over #20/21 Pittsburgh, to claim the WBCA Classic title. Just three weeks later, Washington guided the Lady Lions to their first ever win over perennial contender and 10th-ranked Duke in the inaugural Big Ten/ACC Challenge, a game that was televised on ESPN2. The Lady Lions also appeared on CBS, earning a road win over Michigan State to kickoff the New Year. Washington was also instrumental in helping Kam Gissendanner sign a free agent contract with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks.

Washington came to Happy Valley after eight seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach under Muffet McGraw at Notre Dame, her alma mater. During Washington's eight years on the bench, Notre Dame amassed a 188-69 record with eight NCAA Tournament appearances, including four Sweet Sixteen runs and a National Championship in 2001.

One of the top recruiters in the country, Washington was instrumental in helping the Irish to secure eight consecutive Top 25 recruiting classes, according to "Blue Star Index," a feat only accomplished by two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee).

During her tenure at Notre Dame, Washington coached five All-Americans and had seven players that were drafted into the WNBA. Washington, in her role as the guards coach, was directly responsible for developing three All-Americans and two Frances Naismith Pomeroy Award winners for the nation's top player 5-8 or under, including Niele Ivey and Megan Duffy. Washington also directed Alicia Ratay, who is the NCAA's career three-point field goal percentage leader.

Washington was a four-year starting point guard for Notre Dame under McGraw and was the team captain on Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA Tournament team. She was a two-time All-Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) selection and led Notre Dame to three MCC Tournament titles. Washington led the team in steals in each of her four seasons and was tops on the squad in assists three times. Washington is first on UND's all-time steals per game list (2.7), third in career steals (307), sixth in assists (554).

The epitome of a student-athlete, Washington graduated from Notre Dame in 1992, a full year ahead of schedule, with a bachelor's degree in history. She went on to attain "Double Dorer" status in 1997 after earning her Juris Doctorate from the Notre Dame Law School.

Washington juggled finishing her law degree with the start of her professional basketball career. She returned to the hardwood as a professional in 1997-98, playing for the ABL's Portland Power before spending a two-year stint with the WNBA's New York Liberty (1998-99). Washington moved to Houston for the 2000 season, where she played an instrumental role in leading the Comets to the WNBA title. She had a solid season in 2001 with the Comets and Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor, finishing ninth in the WNBA in assists and fourth in steals as Houston earned its fifth consecutive playoff berth. Washington started the 2002 campaign with Houston before being traded to the Indiana Fever at the midway point of the season. Washington guided the Fever to their first-ever playoff berth and became the first player in WNBA history to lead three different teams to the postseason. She finished her professional career in 2003 as a member of the Fever.

Utilizing her law degree, Washington was a central figure in helping create the WNBA Players Association (WNBPA), serving as the founding president of the WNBPA from 1999 until 2001. She also served as the Executive Vice President of the WNBPA from 2001 until her retirement in 2003. Washington led negotiations for the association's first collective bargaining agreement as the association's president, and as the executive vice president was a mainstay in the negotiations for the league's second collective bargaining agreement, which brought about the first free agency system in women's professional sports.

In addition to assisting with the efforts of the Pink Zone at Penn State to raise money and awareness for breast cancer, Washington created Coquese's Drive for the Women's Resource Center. Coquese's Drive for the Women's Resource Center has raised more than $135,000 for the Centre County Women's Resource Center to aid in the fight against domestic violence in its history.

Washington is currently serving as the President of the WBCA Board of Directors 29-member panel, after stints as the Vice President/President-Elect of the Executive

A standout at Central High School in Flint, Mich., Washington was inducted into the Greater Flint Area Sports Hall of Fame in December 2009.

A native of Flint, Mich., Washington and her husband, Raynell Brown, have a son, Quenton (10), and a daughter, Rhaayna (6). They reside in Port Matilda, Pa.
