SERIES NOTES

- The Lindenwood women's hockey team plays its final regular season series of the year on February 23-24 at Penn State. The two-game series will be played at Pegula Ice Arena in University Park, Pa.

- Regardless of the results from around the CHA this weekend, Lindenwood and Penn State will meet in the quarterfinal round of the CHA Tournament on March 1 in Buffalo, N.Y. Depending on the results of their two-game series this weekend, Lindenwood and Penn State will finish the regular season as the No. 4 and No. 5 seeds, respectively.

- Lindenwood and Penn State have met 24 times since the start of the 2012-13 season, with the Nittany Lions holding a slight 11-10-3 lead in the all-time series. Lindenwood has a 5-5-2 record in games played at Penn State.

- The Lions and Nittany Lions split a two-game series earlier this season on January 12-13 from Wentzville, Mo.

LINDENWOOD NOTES

- Taylor Girard totaled a team-leading three points during the two-game series versus Syracuse. Girard netted her 13th goal of the season on Feb. 16, before dishing out two assists on Feb. 17.

- Girard leads Lindenwood with 24 points this season, and has 14 points in 12 games against CHA opponents. Girard ranks second in the CHA with a 1.17 point-per-game average in conference games.

- Hannah Alt scored two goals on Feb. 17 against Syracuse, the first multi-goal game of her career. Alt ranks second on the team with 10 goals, the third-most by a freshman in program history.

- Cierra Paisley tallied a point in each game against Syracuse, finishing the series with one goal and one assist. Paisley is tied for second on the team with 18 points.

- Courtney Ganske registered her 18th assist of the season on Feb. 17, and is just one assist away from tying the program's single-season record of 19.

- Jolene deBruyn earned her eighth win of the season and third-career shutout on Feb. 16, stopping 31 shots during Lindenwood's 1-0 win.

- Following her shutout victory, deBruyn elevated her season save percentage to .932 in 14 games against CHA opponents, the third-best mark in the conference.

- Erin Near scored the first goal of the game on Feb. 17 against Syracuse, her second goal of the season.

- Lindenwood scored first in both games against Syracuse, and has now scored first in four of its last six games. The Lions are 8-3-0 when scoring first this season.

Head Coach Scott Spencer

Scott Spencer is in his fourth season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey program in 2016-17. He has been a hockey coach for the last 14 years, including the last 11 in women's hockey.

The 2016-17 season was highlighted by the program advancing to the CHA semifinals for the first time. Spencer led the Lady Lions to a 3-2 first-round win over Mercyhurst in the CHA Tournament. Lindenwood also defeated two nationally-ranked opponents during the year, with a 4-1 win over No. 10 North Dakota and a 2-1 road win at No. 7 Robert Morris.

Courtney Ganske was named to the all-rookie team. Twenty-three of the program's 24 players earned the CHA Academic award.

In his first two seasons, Spencer played a key role in the development of Nicole Hensley. After her senior season, Hensley earned the NCAA Top 10 award, given to the top 10 student-athletes in any sport and division for the 2015-16 school year. Hensley was the first CHA player to receive the award and fifth recipient from the sport of women's hockey. Hensley, the first Division I player with over 4,000 career saves, has won two gold medals for Team USA at the World Championships, and will be a member of Team USA at the 2018 Winter Olympics.

In 2015-16, the Lady Lions recorded nine wins. That total included a 4-2 win over nationally-ranked Northeastern, marking the first time Lindenwood defeated a team that would go on and compete in the NCAA Division I National Tournament. The Lady Lions won six road games and also won a game for the first time in the CHA Tournament.

Lindenwood continued to improve defensively, allowing a school record 2.57 GAA, 0.87 lower than before Spencer arrived at Lindenwood. The team also allowed under 30 shots per game for the first time in program history. Offensively, the team scored 64 goals, a new program record against NCAA Division I competition.

Two Lady Lions were named first-team all-CHA in Nicole Hensley and Shara Jasper, and Shannon Morris-Read was an all-rookie selection. Hensley was also named to the United States national team for the 2016 World Championships, and helped Team USA win a gold medal at the event. Academically, 17 players earned CHA Academic Honors. Hensley was also named a first-team Academic All-American.

In his first year in charge of the program in 2014-15, the Lady Lions had the best season in their short NCAA history. Lindenwood reached double-figure wins for the first time, picked up at least one win over every CHA program, and had a win over three WCHA programs, including nationally-ranked Bemidji State. Lindenwood became a tough team to beat at the Lindenwood Ice Arena, winning more games than its first three seasons combined.

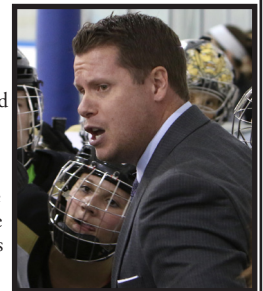

Under Spencer, Lindenwood's offense had its highest goals per game total against NCAA Division I competition. On defense, the Lady Lions' GAA was 0.41 lower than the previous season, and they allowed nearly 10 shots a game fewer than 2013-14.

Spencer helped two players earn first-team all-conference honors in Hensley and Jasper. Hensley also earned Academic All-American honors, and was one of 16 players to earn CHA Academic honors.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Spencer was the Director of Female Hockey and Female Midget Head Coach at the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna, British Columbia for two years. Seven players at Pursuit of Excellence became under-18 national team members, and 100 percent of his graduates moved on to play college hockey.

In 2011-12, Spencer was an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He helped the Buckeyes go 16-16-4 that season, an improvement by several wins over the last season.

Spencer played collegiately at the ACHA Division I level for Minot State. He was a four-year letterwinner and helped the team make three national tournaments. Minot State finished in the top-10 nationally three times, including coming in third in 2001-02. He was a team captain and earned the Player's Player Award in 2000-01 for his work ethic and putting the team first. Spencer received honorable mention honors at the 2002 ACHA National Tournament. Spencer received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State in 2002 in Physical Education, with a minor in Coaching. He earned his Master's in Sports Studies from Bemidji State in 2012.
