Series Notes

-The Lindenwood women's hockey team travels to University Park, Pa. for a two-game series on February 12-13 from the Pegula Ice Arena. Puck drop is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. EST on Friday and 3:00 p.m. EST on Saturday afternoon.

-This past weekend, the Lady Lions concluded the home portion of their regular season schedule with a two-game series vs. RIT. Lindenwood dropped the first matchup by a final score of 3-2, before winning the final game of the series on Saturday afternoon 2-1.

-Earlier this season on Oct. 30-31, the Nittany Lions arrived in Wentzville, Mo. for a two-game series at the Lindenwood Ice Arena. Heading into the third-period during the first game Penn State held a 2-1 lead. The Lady Lions responded with four unanswered goals during the final period, winning by a score of 5-2. The two teams skated to a 1-1 tie the following evening. Lindenwood leads the all-time series 8-6-2 dating back to the 2012-13 season.

-Penn State enters into the weekend series with a 9-16-5 record and a 5-6-5 mark within the CHA. The Nittany Lions currently sit fourth in the conference standings with a total of 15 points. Penn State is led offensively by Amy Petersen who has compiled a team-high 21 points. Between the pipes for the Nittany Lions, Celine Whitlinger leads the CHA in save percentage at .943 and in goals against average with a mark of 1.64.

Lindenwood Notes

-Shara Jasper was named as the CHA Player of the Week for the third time this season for the week of Feb. 1-7. Jasper tallied two goals and two assists during the two-game series vs. RIT.

-Following her two-goal performance on Saturday, Jasper recorded her program record fourth game-winning goal of the season. It was Jasper's eighth multi-point game of the season.

-Sarah Bobrowski also contributed four points during the weekend series with RIT, scoring two goals on Friday night before adding two assists on Saturday.

-Bobrowski has tied the Lindenwood single-season assist record with 17 helpers to her credit this season.

-For the second-time in program history the Lady Lions have three scorers with at least 20 points. Jasper leads the team with 29, followed by Bobrowski's total of 24, and Shannon Morris-Read with 21.

-Lindenwood has outshot its opponent in the last three consecutive games, averaging 38 shots per game.

-The Lady Lions set a program record with their 96th team assist of the season on Saturday vs. RIT. The previous program record of 94 assists was set by the 2011-12 team.

-Corbin Welsh continues to be a force in the faceoff circle for the Lady Lions, raising her season winning-percentage to 51%. Jasper ranks second on the squad with a winning percentage of 47%.

-Following her two starts in goal vs. RIT, Nicole Hensley raised her season save percentage to a career-best .927, the 16th best percentage in the NCAA.

-Lindenwood will conclude the regular season portion of its 2015-16 schedule with a road series vs. Syracuse on Feb. 19-20. Puck drop is scheduled for 7 p.m. EST on Friday evening and 3 p.m. EST on Saturday.

Head Coach Scott Spencer

Scott Spencer is in his second season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey program in 2015-16. He has been a hockey coach for the last 12 years, including the last nine in women's hockey.

In his first year in charge of the program, the Lady Lions had the best season in their short NCAA history. Lindenwood reached double-figure wins for the first time, picked up at least one win over every CHA program, and had a win over three WCHA programs, including nationally-ranked Bemidji State. Lindenwood became a tough team to beat at the Lindenwood Ice Arena, winning more games than its first three seasons combined.

Under Spencer, Lindenwood's offense had its highest goals per game total against NCAA Division I competition. On defense, the Lady Lions' Goals Against Average was 0.41 lower than the previous season, and they allowed nearly 10 shots a game fewer than 2013-14.

Spencer helped two players earn first-team all-conference honors in Nicole Hensley and Shara Jasper. Nicole Hensley also earned Academic All-American honors, and was one of 16 players to earn CHA Academic honors.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Spencer was the Director of Female Hockey and Female Midget Head Coach at the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna, British Columbia for two years. Pursuit of Excellence is one of North America's premiere hockey academies and Spencer oversaw all facets of the women's program, as well coaching both under-19 AAA hockey teams.

His Pursuit of Excellence teams had success on the ice, including being a bronze medalist at the 2013 World Sport School National Championships and a silver medalist at the 2014 World Sport School National Championships. Seven players at Pursuit of Excellence became under-18 national team members, and 100 percent of his graduates moved on to play college hockey. His teams had an overall record of 77-38-20 in his two seasons at Pursuit of Excellence.

In 2011-12, Spencer was an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He helped the Buckeyes go 16-16-4 that season, an improvement by several wins over the last season. Among the players he coached that season included Natalie Spooner, an All-American and finalist for the Patty Kazmaier National Player of the Year Award.

Spencer was an assistant coach at Robert Morris University from 2006-2011, including being the Associate Head Coach in 2010-11. He coached seven all-conference players, two conference Rookie of the Year award winners, and one rookie All-American. Spencer was the head recruiting coordinator for the Colonials, including having a hand in recruiting every member of the team that won the 2012 CHA Tournament Championship.

Spencer played collegiately at the ACHA Division I level for Minot State. He was a four-year letterwinner and helped the team make three national tournaments. Minot State finished in the top-10 nationally three times, including coming in third in 2001-02. He was a team captain and earned the Player's Player Award in 2000-01 for his work ethic and putting the team first. Spencer received honorable mention honors at the 2002 ACHA National Tournament.

Spencer received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State in 2002 in Physical Education, with a minor in Coaching. He earned his Master's in Sports Studies from Bemidji State in 2012.
