PENN STATE NITTANY LIONS

At-large 12-6

FLORIDA GATORS

No. 1 seed 18-2

Quarterfinals | Saturday, May 19 | 12:30 p.m. | Dizney Stadium | Gainesville, Fla.

SETTING THE SCENE

- The Nittany Lion women's lacrosse team will continue its NCAA Championship journey on Saturday afternoon in a familiar place against a well-known foe.
- Penn State, the lone at-large team remaining in the 2012 field, will travel to Gainesville for the third time this season to face American Lacrosse Conference champion and No. 1 seed Florida (18-2) in a 12:30 p.m. quarterfinal match-up at the Gators' Donald R. Dizney Stadium.

STORYLINES

- Penn State (12-6) faced Florida in an ALC contest in Gainesville earlier this season and visited there again just two weeks ago when the Gators hosted the 2012 ALC Championship, playing Johns Hopkins.
- The Nittany Lions have been exceptional on the road in 2012, posting an 8-1 record, with its lone loss coming to UF in the teams' April 1 regular season meeting.
- The eight road wins are the most by a Penn State team since the national championship season of 1989 but the Nittany Lions are 0-3 all-time at Dizney Stadium.

CHAMPIONSHIP COVERAGE

- Fans can follow all of the action of the Penn State-Florida contest with live stats from GameTracker or receive game updates through the official Twitter account of the Penn State women's lacrosse team, @GoPSUWLax.
- The NCAA Championship quarterfinal battle will also be streamed live online for free.
- Find links on the front page (click on Schedule/Results) of the official website of Nittany Lion athletics, www.GoPSUsports.com, and on the women's lacrosse schedule page.

LAST TIME OUT

- Last weekend, Penn State made a triumphant return to the NCAA postseason, advancing to the elite eight with a convincing 15-8 first round win over No. 8 seed Towson at the Tigers' Johnny Unitas Stadium.
- The Nittany Lions used a dominating second half performance, outscoring Towson, 9-3, to secure a win in the program's first NCAA appearance since 2005.

- The victory, the program's first in NCAA Championship play since 1999, upped Penn State's overall postseason record to 30-17.
- Baltimore native junior Molly Fernandez scored a game-high four goals while the freshmen duo of Maggie McCormick (1 goal, 3 assists) and Haley Ford (3 goals) combined for seven points.
- Senior goalkeepeer Dana Cahill starred on defense in her hometown return, recording six saves, including four key stops in the decisive second half.
- Sophomore defender Lizzy Carney held the Tigers' leading scorer, who entered the game with 66 points, to just two and netted her fourth goal of the season.

PREVIEWING PENN STATE

- After her four-goal effort versus Towson, Molly Fernandez has taken over the team lead with 35 for the season but is followed closely in the rankings by sophomore Mackenzie Cyr and freshman Tatum Coffey, who each have scored 34.
- Coffey leads the Nittany Lions in free position goals with eight and draw controls with 52.
- Maggie McCormick tops Penn State with 59 points, the most by a Nittany Lion in a decade, and her 30 assists are the highest total since 2000
- Senior Theresa Zichelli (22 goals, 4 assists) and freshmen Kelly Lechner (20 goals, 5 assists) and Haley Ford (14 goals, 3 assists) have also made significant contributions throughout the season on the offensive end.
- Two-time ALC Goalkeeper of the Year Dana Cahill and First Team All-ALC selection Lizzy Carney headline the No. 24 Penn State defense.
- Cahill is ranked fourth nationally in saves (167), 10th in save percentage (.488), and No. 25 in goals against average (9.82).
- Senior Colleen Shea and junior Katie Guy, who is second on the team with 29 draw controls, are also key to Penn State's defensive efforts.

SCOUTING FLORIDA

- Florida, which moved into the No. 1 spot in the national rankings following its ALC Championship win over Northwestern, defeated Albany, 6-4, in Gainesville in the first round to advance to the NCAA quarterfinals.
- Powering the Gators to the championship's top seed is the nation's No. 1 defense and third-ranked offense.
- Junior goalkeeper Mikey Meagher, who leads the NCAA in goals against average and save percentage, anchors a UF defense that is allowing an average of just 6.40 goals per game.
- The Gators offense is balanced and prolific, featuring three players with 60 or more points and six players with 36 or more goals.
- Kitty Cullen leads the team with 65 points while Gabi Wiegand (45) and Brittany Dashiell (23) top Florida in goals and assists, respectively.
- Freshman Nora Barry, the ALC Rookie of the Year, ranks first on the team in ground balls (45) and draw controls (44) and has totaled 43 points (36 goals, 7 assists).

PENN STATE-FLORIDA SERIES

- Penn State owns an 0-3 series record versus Florida, including this season's 20-11 road loss to the Gators.
- The Nittany Lions played that game without top offensive weapon, Mackenzie Cyr, who was out with an injury, and lost their best match-up defender, Lizzy Carney, early on after she was issued two quick yellow cards.
- The 20 goals Penn State allowed were a season high and the 11 goals scored by the Lions were the second most surrendered by Florida's defense in 2012.

WHAT'S AT STAKE

- Should Penn State advance, the Nittany Lions will face the winner of the North Carolina-Syracuse game in the semifinals of the 2012 NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship.
- Hosted by Stony Brook University, the game will take place on Friday, May 25 at either 5:30 or 8 p.m. at Kenneth P. LaValle Stadium in Stony Brook, N.Y and will be broadcast live on ESPN3.

DOHERTY COLLECTS 100TH WIN

- Head coach Missy Doherty earned her 100th career win on April 21 when the Nittany Lions defeated Johns Hopkins, 12-9, at Penn State Lacrosse Field.
- Doherty, in her second year at the helm of the program, owns a 101-60 (.627) career record, including a 22-14 mark in Happy Valley.
- The milestone win for Doherty was also significant in that it pushed Penn State past the 10-win plateau for the first time since 2005, the last year it earned a berth to the NCAA Championship, and clinched a second consecutive winning conference record for the Nittany Lions.
- Prior to taking over the reins at Penn State, Doherty served as the head coach at Towson for seven years, where she compiled a 79-46 record and led the Tigers to the program's first ever at-large berth in the NCAA postseason.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Penn State has excelled away from home in 2012, posting a 8-1 record.
- The eight road victories are the most by a Nittany Lion team since 1989, the year of the program's last national championship, when it also won eight.
- The Penn State record is nine wins, set in 1987 by another national championship team.

CAHILL NAMED TEWAARATON NOMINEE

- Senior goalkeeper Dana Cahill was named a nominee for the 2012 Tewaaraton Award, an honor presented to the nation's top female collegiate lacrosse player.
- The veteran anchor of the Nittany Lions' 25thranked defense, Cahill has played an instrumental role in Penn State posting its most wins since 2005, including three against top 10 opponents, and earning as high as a No. 8 team national ranking.
- A starter of all 18 games in 2012 and 36 straight overall, she is highly ranked nationally in saves, save percentage, and goals against average.
- Cahill has recorded double digit saves in a total of nine games this game, including five of the last eight.
- She earned ALC Defensive Player of the Week honors on March 5 for her standout play in Penn State's 14-7 upset win over No. 6 Virginia.
- In 2011, Cahill established herself as one of the nation's top goalkeepers, earning First Team All-West/Midwest Region and All-ALC honors in addition to being named ALC Goalkeeper of the Year.

FRESHMEN IMPACT

- The Penn State freshman class has made an immediate impact on the program and has had a major influence on the fortunes of the 2012 Nittany Lions.
- Maggie McCormick and Tatum Coffey, who have each started every game this season, are receiving mention for national rookie of the year honors.
- McCormick, a three-time ALC Rookie of the Week and Second Team All-ALC honoree, is the team's quarterback behind the net on the attacking end.
- She tops Penn State with 30 assists and 59 points.
- McCormick's 59 points are the most by a Nittany Lion since Colleen O'Hara equaled that total in 2002.
- McCormick's 30 assists are the most by a Nittany Lion since Julie Tice tallied 33 in 2000.
- Coffey has quickly established herself as a force in the midfield.
- She ranks second on the team with 34 goals and leads PSU in draw controls (52) and caused turnovers (17).
- Kelly Lechner (20 goals, 5 assists) and Haley Ford (14 goals, 3 assists) have also been key offensive contributors.
- · On defense, Cat Layne has emerged as a dependable part of the back line, starting the last seven games and nine overall.

SOPHOMORE SUCCESS

- Penn State's stellar freshman class is not the only component of the program's youth movement.
- The play of sophomores Mackenzie Cyr and Lizzy Carney is another main reason for the Nittany Lions' success in 2012.
- Cyr is second on the team in 34 goals and 56 points, despite missing time with an injury.
- Carney, who often draws the assignment of getting matched up with opponents' primary offensive weapon, has quickly developed into a top defensive stopper.
- She ranks second on the team in ground balls (35) and caused turnovers (16) and has also scored four goals.
