No. 17 NITTANY LIONS TAKE ON MIDS IN FINAL HOME MEET

The Lion women will take on the Mids following a convincing 212-178 win at Rutgers last week, in which they improved to 9-1 on the season. Penn State swept the top spots in all of the freestyle events, led by senior Megan Siverling (Chester Springs, Pa.) who touched first in the 1000 and 500, and posted the the top times in 13 of 17 swimming events. It was the first meeting in the pool between the two teams as Big Ten foes.

The squad is ranked 17th in the nation in the latest CSCAA poll, and 18th according to CollegeSwimming.com. Joining Siverling in the Class of 2015 are Carolyn Fittin (Sea Girt, N.J.), diver Meredith Harbison (Butler, Pa.), Caitlyn Karr (Reading, Pa.) and Katelyn Miller (Hershey, Pa.)

The Mids bring a 6-2 record and are ranked 15th by CollegeSwimming.com, but they are unranked in the CSCAA poll.

SERIES HISTORY

The Penn State women's team is a perfect 4-0 versus Navy with the teams' first meeting coming back in 1998. This is the fourth straight season both squads have competed in regular season dual meets with the Nittany Lions hosting the Mids in both 2011-12 and 2012-13. The Blue and White won 193-99 last season.
