SCOUTING THE NITTANY LIONS

No. 14 Penn State will host Illinois as part of a three-game home stretch. The Nittany Lions hosted Iowa and Nebraska last weekend, earning a 2-0 and 2-1 victory, respectively. Goalkeeper Amanda Dennis earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors following the series as she grabbed seven saves including a penalty kick to help carry Penn State over both Iowa and Nebraska. Junior Frannie Crouse leads PSU with seven goals and an assist this season. She's scored three game-winners.

LAST TIME OUT

Illinois headed to Maryland and Rutgers for its first Big Ten road series last weekend. Three Terrapin goals in the first half carried Maryland over the Illini on Thursday, despite senior Allison Stucky's goal in the ninth minute. The Illini then shutout No. 22 Rutgers on Sunday, playing the Scarlet Knights to a scoreless draw in double overtime.

D'ADDARIO'S HELPING HAND

Senior Hope D'Addario has racked up three assists so far this season, already nearing her total of five from last year. Her three assists are tied for fifth in the Big Ten.

SCHAFFER SCORES

Senior Summer Schaffer netted her first career goal this season, lifting Illinois over Morehead State. She didn't stop there, however, also scoring the game-winner against Evansville. Schaffer's two game-winning goals are tied for third in the Big Ten.

SPREADING THINGS OUT

The Illini have spread the scoring out this season as six players have netted at least one goal. Seniors Allison Stucky and Summer Schaffer lead the squad with two goals each. Eight players have each taken 10 or more shots this season, while sophomore Patricia George leads the team with 10 shots on goal so far.

A TOUGH ROAD

The Illini have not taken the easy road this season. Illinois will face six opponents listed among the NSCAA Preseason Rankings, including No. 16 Penn State and No. 14 Texas A&M. The squad started the year on a challenging road trip to Missouri and Saint Louis before heading to Texas to face the No. 14 Aggies and TCU. Illinois will also take on No. 22 Rutgers in Piscataway, holding the Scarlet Knights to a scoreless draw.

DENLEY EARNS WEEKLY HONORS

Fighting Illini senior Michelle Denley earned the first weekly conference honor of her career on Aug. 23 as she was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week. The Oakville, Ontario, native earned her first career shutout against Morehead State before grabbing a career-high 10 saves against Illinois State on Aug. 21. She made a major play for the Illini against the Redbirds, denying a penalty kick attempt in the second half of the game. Denley played all 90 minutes in both of the weekends' matches.

STARTING WITH SHUTOUTS

Illinois kicked off the year on a high note, shutting out both Morehead State and Illinois State last weekend. Illini seniors Summer Schafer and Alia Abu-Douleh both scored their first career goals in this year's season opener, while senior Allison Stucky netted the game winner against Illinois State. Several newcomers saw their first collegiate action over the weekend, including defender Alicia Barker who earned the start in both matches. The two shutouts ranked Denley at the top of the Big Ten to start the year.

ILLINOIS IN THE RANKINGS

Illinois made its way into the NSCAA Women's Rankings to open the season, as the Illini were receiving votes in the week one poll. The Orange and Blue last appeared in the poll during the 2014 season, appearing for three consecutive weeks (Week 4-6), entering the poll at No. 22 on Sept. 16 and checking in at No. 19 the following two weeks before dropping out of the Top 25.

EXHIBITION VICTORY

Fighting Illini soccer kicked off the 2016 season with a 1-0 exhibition victory over nationally-ranked Notre Dame on Sunday, Aug. 14. The only goal in the game came from Illini senior Hope D'Addario, who dropped a free kick just beyond the Notre Dame goalkeeper in the second half. The Illini were strong on the offense, firing nine shots to Notre Dame's five, and putting five on goal. The Fighting Irish put just one shot on frame, saved by freshman Jaelyn Cunningham late in the second half. Five Illini newcomers saw action on the field, including Alicia Barker, who earned the start for the Orange and Blue.

BIG PRESEASON HONORS

Three Illini were named to the Big Ten Conference Preseason Honors List, as announced by the Big Ten Conference. Seniors Hope D'Addario and Taylore Peterson join junior Kara Marbury on the conference's honor list. The Preseason Honors List is decided upon by the league's coaches and is composed of 42 student-athletes. The league also announced the 2016 Preseason Women's Soccer Poll, where the Illini checked in at No. 9 on the list. Coming in at No. 1 is Defending National and Big Ten Champion, Penn State, who the Illini will see on Sept. 30.

ILLINOIS ON THE BIG TEN NETWORK

The Illini soccer team will appear live on Big Ten Network on Thursday, Sept. 22 against Maryland. The game is slated to start at 6 p.m. CT in College Park, Maryland. BTN will also air the Big Ten Tournament beginning Oct. 30 and continuing through the championship game on Sunday, Nov. 6.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Illinois has been strong on its home turf this season, shutting out three opponents in non-conference play. The Illini limited Morehead State to just three shots, and also held Miami (OH), Evansville, Purdue and Indiana to single-digit shots in consecutive games. Last season the Orange and Blue were dominant on their home turf, outscoring opponents 21-11. Illinois held four opponents to single-digit shots at home, and took 45 corner kicks to its opponents' 29.

ILLINOIS ONLINE

All nine of Illinois' regular season home contests will be live streamed on one of two platforms. The four non-conference home games, in addition to senior night against Wisconsin, will be streamed for free on FIGHTINGILLINI.com, while Illinois' games versus Purdue, Indiana, Michigan and Michigan State will be streamed on BTN+. On the road, Illinois at Rutgers, at Iowa and at Nebraska will also air on BTN+.

SUMMER SOCCER

Several Illini stayed quite busy over the summer, playing for their local WPSL teams. Sophomore Katie Murray played for the Dayton Dutch Lions, tallying a goal and an assist for the squad. Senior Allison Stucky spent her summer with AF Cleveland, while Katherine and Caroline Ratz played for FC Pride in Indiana. Stucky also netted one goal and an assist while Katherine Ratz carded a goal.

ILLINI ADD SEVEN NEWCOMERS

The Illinois roster will have an interesting look this season with the addition of seven newcomers. The newcomers will be led by an experienced upper class, composed mainly of 11 graduating seniors. The 2016 signing class includes Alicia Barker (Woodville, Wash.), Alexandra Carrier (Cincinnati, Ohio), Jaelyn Cunningham (Reynoldsburg, Ohio), Taylor Haynes (Rowlett, Texas), Kelly Maday (Winnetka, Ill.), Lauren Smitherman (Oklahoma City, Okla.) and Arianna Veland (Elkhorn, Neb.). "I am confident that the class of 2016 is going to have an impact on this program, make a difference in the athletic department and leave a positive mark on this campus," Rayfield said of the new members of the Illinois soccer program. "These seven young women have great individual personalities, high academic standards, and lofty athletic aspirations. I am excited about the contributions they will make on the field, but I also know we have a class that understands the core values of our program, that are committed to those values, and that will be great representatives of Illinois Athletics.

RAYFIELD LEADS U23 USWNT

Head Coach Janet Rayfield had a busy summer in 2016, as she served as head coach of the U-23 US Women's National Team. Rayfield led the squad to a victory at the Nordic Tournament in England. The U-23 squad topped both Sweden (3-1) and Norway (2-1) before clinching the tournament victory with a 1-1 draw against England.

MADAY NAMED GATORADE POY

The Illini freshman, Kelly Maday, was named Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year prior to coming to Champaign. Maday was not only active in New Trier High School's soccer program, but she volunteered at her local homeless shelter and as a youth soccer coach. Maday is a junior board member of Misericordia also, which is a home for people with developmental and physical abilities. The Gatorade State Girls Soccer Players of the Year were selected based not only on athletic production for the 2015-16 season, but also on academic achievement and exemplary personal character.
