DEACONS TO FACE PENN STATE IN NCAA SECOND ROUND

- Wake Forest will take on fourth-seeded and 24th-ranked Penn State on Friday at 4 p.m. at Virginia's Klockner Stadium in Charlottesville, Va.
- The game will be streamed for free online on VirginiaSports.com.
- Live updates will also be available on the Wake Forest women's soccer Twitter account @WakeWSoccer.

WAKE FOREST BEATS MOREHEAD STATE IN OPENING RD.

- Wake Forest shut out OVC champion Morehead State 2-0 on Saturday in the first round of the NCAA Championship.
- Courtney Owen and Riley Ridgik scored goals 34 seconds apart - the third-shortest interval between goals in school history - to give the Demon Deacons the win.
- Owen's goal was the first of the senior's career, coming in her fourth career start.
- Wake Forest has reached the second round for the eighth season in a row. The Deacons are one of only seven teams in the country with eight-straight second round appearances.

TOP STORYLINES

- Riley Ridgik tied a school record by scoring in her fifth-straight game against Morehead State. Ridgik has scored 11 goals this season, tied for the seventh-highest single-season total in program history.
- With 59:42 minutes played against Penn State, goalkeeper Aubrey Bledsoe would move into second place in NCAA Division I history for minutes played by a goalkeeper. Bledsoe has started all 92 games of her Wake Forest career.
- Aubrey Bledsoe is a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. Fans are encouraged to vote for Aubrey at SeniorClassAward.com.

NEXT UP...

- The winner of Friday's game will take on the winner of the second round game between No. 1 seed Virginia and Georgetown on Sunday at 5 p.m. in Charlottesville.

DEACONS SHUT OUT MOREHEAD STATE

- Wake Forest made its debut in its 18th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance last Saturday against Morehead State, shutting out the Eagles 2-0 on its home turf at Spry Stadium.
- Senior Courtney Owen scored the first goal of her career in the game and it held up as the game-winner. Owen was making only her fourth-career start.
- Riley Ridgik assisted on Owen's goal before scoring the second one herself. The two goals came 34 seconds apart, ranking as the third-fastest back-to-back goals in program history.
- Jackie McSally assisted on both goals, tying the Wake Forest NCAA Tournament record for assists in a game.

WAKE FOREST TO FACE PENN STATE IN 2ND RD.

- The Demon Deacons will take on No. 4 seed Penn State in the second round.
- The Deacons and Nittany Lions last met in the third round of the 2011 NCAA Championship with the Deacs posting a 4-2 win on their way to reaching the College Cup.
- Wake Forest's only other game against Penn State ended in a 1-0 victory during the 2009 regular season. Demon Deacon midfielder Ally Berry, a redshirt senior, played in both contests and scored against the Nittany Lions during the 2011 meeting.
- The Demon Deacons have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the eighth-straight year, tied for the sixth-longest active streak in the country.

FOUR DEACONS EARN ACC AWARDS

- Wake Forest had four players included in the annual ACC awards with Aubrey Bledsoe, Riley Ridgik and Katie Stengel earning All-ACC honors and Sarah Teegarden being named to the All-Freshman team.
- Bledsoe was the only goalkeeper named to the All-ACC first team, a de facto nod as the conference's goalkeeper of the year. Ridgik and Stengel made the second team.
- Stengel joins Emily Taggart (1998-01) as the only players in program history to earn All-ACC honors four times. Bledsoe was honored for the third time and Ridgik for the first time.

STENDEL SIDELINED WITH DEEP VEIN THROMBOSIS

- Wake Forest star forward Katie Stengel was diagnosed with deep vein thrombosis (blood clots) in her left leg at the beginning of October, sidelining her for the remainder of the season.

RIDGIK GOES FOR RECORD SCORING STREAK

- Junior Riley Ridgik has scored a goal in five straight games for the Demon Deacons, tied for the longest scoring streak in school history. If Ridgik finds the back of the net against Penn State Friday, she will be the first Deacon to score in six consecutive games.
- The last Demon Deacon to put together a five-match scoring streak was Katie Stengel, who did so during the 2011 postseason.
- Ridgik has totaled 11 goals this season, which is tied for seventh-highest total in school history. Another goal to give her 12 would move her into a four-way tie for the fourth-highest single-season goal total.
- A defensive midfielder who scored only three total goals in her first two seasons at Wake Forest, Ridgik started this season as an attacking midfielder before moving to forward when Stengel got injured.
- She has a blistering shot that can score from long distance as evidenced by her four goals from 30+ yards from goal.

Wake Forest Single-Season Goal Chart

Name (Year)	Goals

BLED SOE CLIMBING THE RECORD BOOKS

- Goalkeeper Aubrey Bledsoe kept the 32nd shutout of her career in Wake Forest's first round win over Morehead State, moving her into eighth place in ACC history.
- A two-time All-American and the starter of all 92 games of her Wake Forest career, Bledsoe can move into second place in NCAA Division I history for minutes played by a goalkeeper during Friday's game against Penn State.
- With 14:42 minutes against the Nittany Lions, she will pass Virginia's Chantel Jones (2007-11) for third place on the all-time charts and with 59:42 played she will move past Erin McNulty, who played at Florida State and Penn State in 2007, 09 and 11-12, for third place.
- The senior from Cincinnati, Ohio is also a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. Fans can vote for Aubrey at SeniorClassAward.com.

NCAA Record - Goalkeeper Minutes Played

Name	Minutes
1. Emily Oleksiuk, PSU (1998-01)	8,853:12

3. Chantel Jones, UVA (2007-11)	8,531:53
4. Aubrey Bledsoe, WF (2010-present)	8,517:09

BLED SOE NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

- Aubrey Bledsoe earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors for the third season in a row, again making her a candidate for the Academic All-America team.
- Bledsoe became the first Academic All-American in program history last season, earning second team honors.
