

POST-GAME NOTES:

Team

- No. 13 Penn State defeated Saint Francis (Pa.) in three sets (25-19, 25-14, 25-20) to win the 2017 EIVA Tournament.
- With tonight's victory, Penn State clinched their 18th tournament title in the last 19 years.
- Senior Chris Nugent and redshirt junior Aidan Albrecht led the Nittany Lions with nine kills each. Redshirt freshman Calvin Mende and redshirt senior Matt Callaway each finished with six kills.
- Penn State out dug Saint Francis (Pa.) 31 to 21.
- Redshirt sophomore Royce Clemens led the team with 10 digs.]
- The Nittany Lions averaged 8.5 blocks. Redshirt junior Aidan Albrecht and redshirt junior Kevin Gear each recorded four blocks.
- Chris Nugent (MOP), Aidan Albrecht, Calvin Mende and Luke Braswell were all named to the All-EIVA Tournament Team.

Players

Aidan Albrecht, redshirt junior opposite: Albrecht led the offense with nine kills, five digs, and four blocks.

Calvin Mende, redshirt freshman opposite: Mende tallied six kills and three digs.

Chris Nugent, senior outside hitter: Nugent led the office with nine kills, five digs, and one block.

Kevin Gear, redshirt junior middle blocker: Gear finished fifth on the team with five kills. He also recorded five digs and four blocks.

Matt Callaway, redshirt senior middle blocker: Callaway recorded six kills and three blocks.

Royce Clemens, redshirt sophomore libero: Clemens led the team with ten digs, two assists, and one kill.

Luke Braswell, redshirt freshman setter: Braswell finished with a team-high 33 assists and also tallied three digs and two blocks.