On their tails is Matty Beniers with 26 points (12g, 14a) while defenseman Owen Power (3g, 20a), the nation's highest-scoring blueliner, has 23 points. Freshman defenseman Luke Hughes has also been a standout; his seven goals and 12 assists for 19 points is tied with Thomas Bordeleau (6g, 13a) for fifth-most.

HELPING HAND

Kent Johnson is tied with NMU's Hank Crone for first in the country with 23 assists.

CROWN: CLAIMED

Last week, Michigan hosted the defending national champion UMass Minutemen. Much of Coach Carvel's tenth-ranked squad was on the roster last season when the team defeated St. Cloud State, 5-0, in the 2021 Frozen Four to claim the school's first NCAA ice hockey championship. This year's Wolverines battled to claim a pair of wins (4-1, 4-2), earning the sweep to bolster their positioning in the Pairwise rankings.

BY THE NUMBERS

25

Last week, the line of Johnson-Beniers-Brisson put 25 shots on goal as they tallied five of six goals allowed by Matt Murray.

28

Kent Johnson, leading U-M in scoring, is tied for fourth in the NCAA with 28 points. KJ has an NCAA-best 23 assists in addition to five goals.

332

The Wolverines have been the second-most penalized team in the NCAA (trailing Arizona St.), with 332 PIMs on 113 penalties.

NOTES

STARRING ROLES

- Michigan took two of three Big Ten Stars of the Week with Brendan Brisson being named Second Star and Erik Portillo earning Third Star.
- Brisson had a five-point weekend as Michigan swept No. 10 UMass with three goals and two assists. He scored the game's first goals on back-to-back nights and finished +5. On Saturday (Jan. 8), he scored just 1:14 into the game and followed by the primary assist on the game-winner and a second goal. The Vegas Golden Knights draft pick then had a point in each of the first two goals for Michigan on Sunday (Jan. 9), scoring the first and assisting on the second.
- Erik Portillo stopped 56 shots this weekend as Michigan swept No. 10 UMass. He stopped 28 shots in a 4-1 game on Saturday (Jan. 8) and picked up an assist -- his second of the season. The Buffalo Sabres draft pick made another 28 saves on Sunday (Jan. 9) in a 4-2 win. For the weekend, Portillo recorded a .949 save percentage.

IT'S BEEN 67 YEARS

Michigan's scoreless tie against Michigan Tech on December 29th made history. Before the 0-0 game with the Huskies, it had been 67 years and ten months since the Michigan hockey program had recorded a scoreless draw, with the last occurrence coming on the road on Feb. 19, 1954 vs. Michigan State when Dwight D. Eisenhower was President.

WORLD JUNIORS' BLUE CREW

- The 2022 World Junior Ice Hockey Championship was cut short due to COVID-19.
- Owen Power became the first defenseman in Canada history to net a hat trick, as he tallied three goals in his opening game. Teammate Kent Johnson scored as well.
- Matty Beniers, Luke Hughes and Mackie Samoskevich were on USA, with Beniers being named an alternate captain in his return bid. Samoskevich scored and Beniers had an assist in the USA's lone goal of the tournament.

PORTILLO PATROL

The sophomore goaltender, who has started every game this season for the Wolverines, recorded his second career shutout last month against Michigan Tech. The Swede pushed aside all 27 Michigan Tech shots that he faced to earn his second blank slate of the year.

STOP IT

Erik Portillo has stopped both penalty shots that he's faced this season. Ethen Frank (WMU) took the first shot that Portillo stuffed, while Justin Misiak of Michigan Tech was also denied in OT.

COLUMBUS, OHIO: SPLITSVILLE, USA

- The Wolverines closed out the first half with a split on the road at Ohio State.
- With several key pieces out of the lineup in advance of the WJC, U-M won 5-2 on Friday night before falling on Saturday, 6-1. Blankenburg was the lone scorer in Saturday's loss.

STAR FOR PASTUJOV

Michael Pastujov was named the Big Ten First Star of the Week for the week ending Dec. 5. He is the fourth Wolverine to earn the top billing on the weekly awards this season. Pastujov recorded his first career hat trick on Saturday (Dec. 4) in a 6-2 win over No. 11 Minnesota. Pasta's feat was all the more impressive because it was a natural hat trick; the senior scored Michigan's second, third, and fourth goals. With the tallies, Pastujov's status as U-M's active leading goal-scorer was padded with 32.

STAYING CLASS-Y

Nick Blankenburg was named a top-20 candidate for the Senior CLASS Award it was announced on Wednesday, Dec. 8. In February, 10 finalists will be determined with a fan votes coupled with votes from coach and media will determine the winner - announced at the Frozen Four. Michigan has had two finalists: Kevin Porter in 2008 and Sam Piazza in 2018.

THANKFUL FOR SWEEP

- On the two days following Thanksgiving, Michigan swept Niagara by a combined score of 10-2. Erik Portillo earned a pair of wins in net; the Swede now owns a .917 save percentage along with a 2.37 goals against average. Each of the two goals that he allowed against the Purple Eagles came with the visitors on the power play.

"THIS IS BLANKENBURG'S TOUR"

Captain Nick Blankenburg had a five-point weekend against Niagara, doubling his season point total with a pair of multi-point games. In recognition of Blanks' play, the Big Ten named him the First Star of the Week, Michigan's fifth of the season.

HALF A HUNDO

Blankenburg's three goals and two assists versus Niagara brought him to 50 career points for Michigan, a feat he achieved in 107 games. Sophomore sensation Kent Johnson also hit the 50-point threshold with a multi-point weekend vs. Niagara, his 42nd career game. Classmate Matty Beniers reached 50 points against UMass, his 46th career game.

LET'S GO STREAKING

- Owen Power recently recorded points in eight straight games between Oct. 28-Nov. 27 with 13 points on 2 goals and 11 assists.
- Matty Beniers notched three consecutive two-goal games (Nov. 5-11) followed by a one goal, three-assist performance. Prior to Beniers, the last Wolverine to have 3+ multiple-goal games was Tyler Motte in 2015-16, who had a hat trick vs. OSU followed by three straight two-goal outings.

APPLE PICKER

Florida Panthers' first-round pick Mackie Samoskevich recorded his first multi-point game versus Notre Dame on Nov. 20 with three assists on the team's four goals.

HOT START

Freshman defenseman Luke Hughes started his career with a six-game point-scoring streak, notching at least one point in the first six games of the year. He has had two three-point games (2-1-3) versus Michigan State and Penn State. Hughes leads the nation's rookies defensemen in scoring with 19 points in 22 games.

IS THIS GOOD?

- Owen Power has eclipsed his season point total from last season. He had 16 points in 2020-21 playing in 26 games. In the first 12 games this year, he totaled 18 points.
- Matty Beniers surpassed his goal total from last year in just 16 games. In 24 games as a freshman, he had 10 goals. This year, it took him just 16 games to pass the mark.

WINNING

Michigan's 5-2 win at Ohio State on Dec. 12 marked Coach Mel Pearson's 200th career victory. Pearson earned 118 of his wins over six years at Michigan Tech, before coming to Michigan. He coached his 400th game on Sunday, Jan. 9 vs. UMass.

DA DA DA, DA DA DA

Michigan has made ESPN's SportsCenter Top 10 Plays three times this season. The latest was a two-save series by Erik Portillo in a win at Penn State on Nov. 11.

ICE BREAKER CHAMPS

- At the Ice Breaker, U-M faced off against Minnesota-Duluth for the first time since the 2011 National Championship, as well as last season's canceled NCAA tournament game. After falling behind in the first period, Luke Hughes netted a power-play goal to tie the game at 1-1 with less than one minute remaining in the opening frame. U-M would score the next four to earn a 5-1 win and set up a showdown against #1 Minnesota State.
- On Saturday, Michigan scored twice at even strength in the third period to finish off a come-from-behind 3-2 win over the Mavericks and secure the Ice Breaker trophy.

BACK-TO-BACK

For each of the season's first two weeks, Brendan Brisson was honored as the B1G's First Star. After setting the standard as week one's honoree, Brisson repeated by potting the game-winning goal in each contest at the Ice Breaker. The forward added an assist in Michigan's comeback win over Minnesota State for a three-point weekend.

POWER UP

Michigan has the seventh-ranked power-play unit in the nation, converting on 25 percent of its opportunities. The Wolverines have tallied 21 power-play goals on their 84 chances, with sniper Matty Beniers leading the way at seven PPGs.

MORE GOALS

Michigan has the nation's fourth-ranked scoring offense, averaging 3.87 goals per game. The Wolverines are also eighth-best in scoring margin at +1.52 goals/gm.

HEY, SHORTY

Garrett Van Wyhe recorded the team's first short-handed goal of the season on Friday, Oct. 15 in a 5-1 win over Minnesota Duluth. The goal came in the third period. It marked the first short-handed goal by a Wolverine since Luke Morgan had a shorty against Penn State on Dec. 6, 2019 - which was set up by Garrett Van Wyhe.

SHOOTER'S TOUR

Nick Blankenburg scored his first career game-winning goal on Oct. 23, a 3x3 OT goal in a 3-2 win at Western Michigan. The senior captain now has 15 goals at U-M.

MAKE IT 3,000

This year's season opener marked the 3,000th game in Michigan Hockey history. The Wolverines were the second program to reach the 3,000-game mark, joining Minnesota. U-M celebrated the feat in style with a 6-1 win over Lake Superior State.

WEEK ONE'S PAIR OF STARS

- In the first week of B1G honors, Brendan Brisson was named First Star of the Week. He had a five-point weekend as U-M opened the season with a sweep of Lake Superior State.
- No. 1 overall NHL Draft pick Owen Power captured B1G Second Star of the Week after recording his first four-point game in Michigan's 6-1 win over LSSU on Oct. 8. He assisted on the first three Wolverine goals before netting his first goal of the season. In the second game, he added another assist for a five-point weekend.

POLL POSITION

Earlier this season, Michigan received its first #1 ranking in a decade, as the team was at the top of both the USCHO and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine polls. In fact, the announcement came exactly 10 years and 1 day after the last time the Maize & Blue sat in pole position.

IRON D RETURNS

- Michigan and Michigan State return to Little Caesars Arena on Saturday, Feb. 12 to battle for the "Iron D" Trophy at the Duel in the D.
- The Duel in the D matchup features the most-played rivalry in college hockey. Michigan has claimed the "Iron D" Trophy in each of the last three Duel in the D meetings (2017-19) and holds a 166-137-24 edge in the all-time series.

PRESEASON PICKS

Michigan was selected to finish second in the Big Ten Preseason Coaches Poll. Thomas Bordeleau and Owen Power were named Preseason First-Team All-B1G, while Kent Johnson and Matty Beniers were named second-team selections.

DID YOU FEEL THAT DRAFT?

Michigan has seven first-round draft picks on the roster this year, the most ever by a collegiate hockey team in history. 13 of 28 players have been selected in the NHL Draft, across all rounds.

HISTORY MADE

- Michigan made history at the 2021 NHL Draft with four of the top five picks. Owen Power was the first overall selection, with Matty Beniers second, Luke Hughes fourth and Kent Johnson fifth. Mackie Samoskevich also went in the first round at No. 24.
- Power is the first-ever Michigan player selected with the first overall pick in the NHL Draft.
- The defenseman is also just the sixth Wolverine to ever be picked No. 1 in their respective draft, joining Tom Harmon (NFL, 1941), Elmer Madar (NFL, 1947), Cazzie Russell (NBA, 1966), Chris Webber (NBA, 1993) and Jake Long (NFL, 2008).
- Power is the fourth college player selected No. 1 overall in the Draft (Joe Murphy, Michigan State in 1986; Rick DiPietro, Boston University in 2000; Erik Johnson, Minnesota in 2006).
- Power and Beniers became the first pair of NCAA teammates to be selected with the first two picks in the NHL Draft. When Seattle picked Beniers, Michigan became the first NCAA program to have a player drafted by all 32 NHL franchises.
- The selections of Power, Beniers and Johnson made Michigan the first school to have three current players taken in the first round in a single draft.
- The five Wolverines selected Friday night set a new standard, as Michigan became the only school to have five players/recruits selected in the first round of one draft.

COACH MEL PEARSON

Mel Pearson enters his fifth season with the Wolverines for the 2021-22 season after being named the ninth head coach in University of Michigan hockey history on April 24, 2017.

During his first season he led the team to a 22-15-3 record, and a Frozen Four birth. The Wolverines only suffered losses to three teams following the annual Great Lakes Invitational, which concluded January 2, 2018. Michigan won its last five regular season games in regulation before heading off to the Big Ten Tournament. Pearson guided his team to a quick two game sweep in the first round against Wisconsin, before falling in overtime in the semifinals. He then led the Wolverines to an NCAA Northeast Regional Championship, defeating Northeastern and Boston University to return Michigan to the Frozen Four for a record 25th time.

The following year while posting a 13-16-7 record, Quinn Hughes was a first-team All-America and a finalist for the Hobey Baker trophy. Hughes was one of three that signed entry-level NHL contracts at the conclusion of the season, signing with Vancouver, while Josh Norris inked with Ottawa and Joe Cecconi with Dallas.

Though the 2019-20 season ended abruptly due to the COVID-19 pandemic, he had Michigan poised to go on a run in both the B1G and NCAA Tournaments. The Wolverines were ranked No. 17 in the nation and No. 14 in the Pairwise with an 18-14-4 record. As the No. 3 seed in the B1G tournament, the Wolverines had posted back-to-back shutouts over Michigan State and were set to play Ohio State in the semifinals. The Wolverines went undefeated on the road from January on with a 6-0-2 record to move from last place in the B1G standings (seven points) into a three-way tie for second place. Michigan's scoring offense moved from 44th in the nation to 9th in the second half, improving from 2.16 goals per game to 3.36 gpg. Pearson was a finalist for the Big Ten Coach of the Year, had seven players named to the all-conference teams and the Wolverines had a finalist in every major award. Strauss Mann took home Michigan's first ever Big Ten Goaltender of the Year honor and was also a finalist for the Mike Richter Award. Mann also became just the third Wolverine to earn Academic All-America honors, Michigan's first since Zach Hyman in 2011.

COVID-19 halted another season in 2020-21 as Michigan earned its 38th bid the NCAA Tournament. Set to play Minnesota-Duluth in the Fargo Regional, the season was called on the day of the game. The Wolverines made their 38th NCAA appearance - tying an NCAA record for the most all-time. Michigan's high flying offense, averaging 3.50 gpg, ranked eighth nationally while the defense limited opponents to just 1.96 gpg, fourth best nationally. Freshman Thomas Bordeleau was named the Tim Taylor Rookie of the Year after capturing B1G Rookie of the Year. Bordeleau along with the other nine members of the freshman class accounted for 49.2 percent of the team's scoring (126 of 256 points). Cam York was named the B1G Defensive Player of the Year and signed with Philadelphia following the season, becoming the 101st Wolverine to play in the NHL.

It was an unprecedented draft for Michigan in 2021, as the Maize & Blue took four of the top five selections. Owen Power became the first Wolverine in program history to go first overall, to Buffalo, followed by Matty Beniers becoming the first ever draft selection of the Seattle Kraken at No. 2. Incoming defenseman Luke Hughes followed at No. 4 by New Jersey and Kent Johnson at No. 5 to Columbus. Incoming forward Mackie Samoskevich went later in round 1 for a total of 5 first-round picks for Michigan.

Pearson returned to Ann Arbor following an impressive six-year stint as head coach at Michigan Tech. There, he led the Huskies to two NCAA Tournament appearances in the last three years while winning a WCHA regular-season title and a WCHA Championship in that span. Pearson registered a 118-92-29 overall record, including a 75-34-14 mark over the past three seasons. Under Pearson's leadership, the Huskies finished the 2016-17 season ranked in the top 20 for a third consecutive year, all of them featuring 20-win campaigns. Pearson also earned two WCHA Coach of the Year honors in his time at Michigan Tech, which claimed the program's first-ever No. 1 national ranking on Nov. 17, 2014.

Pearson served as a U-M assistant coach from 1988-89 through 1998-99 and as associate head coach from 1999-2000 through 2010-11. He played an integral role in developing the Michigan program into one of the most successful in the country. During his tenure, the Wolverines posted a 667-243-71 record while capturing 11 Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular-season titles, nine CCHA Tournament crowns, two NCAA championships (1996 and 1998), and making 11 NCAA Frozen Four appearances.

Pearson assisted head coach Red Berenson with on-ice coaching and performed many of the program's administrative functions. He was also heavily involved in the Wolverines' recruiting efforts, helping Michigan land the core of its 1996 and 1998 NCAA champion teams.

After he helped Michigan to the 1999-2000 CCHA regular-season championship, Pearson was awarded the Terry Flanagan Award by the American Hockey Coaches' Association, which honors an assistant coach's career body of work. Pearson also served as a coach with the 1996 United States World Junior Championship team, and helped the Americans to a silver medal, the country's second-best finish at the event.

Perhaps destined to coach with the Wolverines, Pearson's prep (Willard Ikola) and college (John MacInnes) mentors earned varsity letters as goaltenders at Michigan. Pearson was a standout high school player for Ikola (1952-54) at Edina East (Minn.) High School, while playing his collegiate career out at Michigan Tech University under MacInnes (1946-50), one of college hockey's legendary coaches.

As a collegian (1977-81), Pearson collected 56 points (21-35-56) in 97 games, helping Michigan Tech to a third-place finish at the 1981 NCAA Championship. Ironically, Pearson's most "famous" goal was scored against the Wolverines in the championship game of the 1979 Great Lakes Invitational. He broke a 4-4 tie at 2:28 of the third overtime to give the Huskies the GLI title. The game still stands as longest in the 43-year history of the tournament.
