ABOUT THE LIONS

Penn State is off to a 10- 1 start, its best start since the 1995- 96 season. The Nittany Lions have won eight in a row, including four by three points or less. In their last outing the Lions whipped George Washington, 64- 51. D.J. Newbill scored 20 points to lead PSU, while Brandon Taylor added 17 points.

Newbill, a Philadelphia product who transferred from Southern Miss, leads the team with 21.9 points per game. He is also leading the team in assists. Shep Garner, a Roman Catholic graduate, chips in with 10.5 points per game, while Taylor adds 10.4 point per contest. The Lions shoot 43 percent from the floor and average more than 72 points per game.

Penn State's only loss came at the hands of Charlotte in the Charleston Classic.

HEAD COACH • BRUISER FLINT

Saint Joseph's '87 • 14th Season at Drexel • Career Record: 316- 252

James "Bruiser" Flint is now in his 14th season as the head coach at Drexel University. The longest tenured coach in the CAA, he has established Drexel as one of the top programs in the league since arriving in 2001. Flint, who signed an extension with the school at the end of the 2012 season, was named the CAA Coach of the Year in 2012 for the fourth time, one of just two coaches in league history to win the award on four occasions. He was also named the District 10 Regional Coach of the Year by the NABC, giving him four District Coach of the Year awards. Flint has led the Dragons to 20 or more wins three times and has had at least 10 CAA wins in nine of his 13 seasons at the school. The Dragons have finished .500 or better in CAA play in 11 of his 13 seasons, including each of the last six seasons, the longest current streak of any team in the league.

Flint has a 316- 252 career record on the sidelines. He has a 230- 180 record at the school and an impressive 139- 93 mark in CAA play. Last season, the Dragons defeated Elon, 71- 64, in the NIT Season Tip- Off. That victory gave Flint 300 career wins and 214 at Drexel, passing Sam Cozen for the school- record for career coaching wins. Since his arrival, the Dragons have had the CAA Defensive Player of the Year on four occasions, have had 22 All- CAA selections, 11 members of the conference's All- Defensive team, six players named to the league's All- Rookie team and two CAA Rookies of the Year.

Despite major injuries to two key starters, the Dragons finished 2013- 14 with a 16- 14 mark and an 8- 8 record in CAA play. Drexel started off hot and advanced to the NIT Season Tip- Off Semifinals at Madison Square Garden. In New York, the Dragons narrowly missed upsetting No. 4 Arizona, 66- 62. In the consolation, the Dragons defeated Alabama in triple OT, 85- 83, Drexel's first ever win over an SEC team.

Flint's Dragons had a record- breaking season in 2011- 12. His squad set a school record with 29 wins and won the CAA regular- season title, going 16- 2. The Dragons won a program- best 19 straight games and advanced to the CAA title game for the second time ever. Drexel came up just three points short against VCU in front of a sellout crowd in Richmond. Drexel was snubbed by the NCAA committee and settled for an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament. It was the fifth time under Flint that Drexel earned an NIT berth. The team won two postseason games and advanced all the way to the NIT quarterfinals.

During Flint's tenure, Drexel has been an unfriendly foe for some of the nation's top teams. In 2010- 11, Drexel stunned No. 20 Louisville, handing the Cardinals their first- ever loss in their new building. The Dragons also defeated NCAA teams Old Dominion and VCU. In 2006- 07, on its way to a 23- 9 overall record, Drexel won 13 road games (tied for most in Division I). The Dragons won at Syracuse, Villanova and Creighton. Flint became the first coach in Drexel history ever to beat three Philadelphia Big 5 teams in one season.

Flint returned home to his native Philadelphia when he took over as Drexel's head coach on April 5, 2001. In his first year, Flint led a team that was picked to finish ninth in the CAA to an 11- 7 mark, tying them for third in the league. For his efforts, Flint was named the CAA Coach of the Year. Flint has had three stints with USA Basketball since coming to Drexel. In 2007, Flint was an assistant coach for the USA Under 19 National Team in Novi Sad, Serbia. In 2005, Flint was an Assistant Coach for the USA Under 21 World Championship Team that went 7- 1 in Mar del Plata, Argentina. His first stint came as a court coach prior to the Global Games.

Flint arrived at Drexel after 12 years at UMass. He was an assistant coach for seven seasons before becoming the school's 17th head coach. He was 86- 72 at UMass (52- 28 in A- 10 play), led three of his teams to postseason play and was the NABC District I Co- Coach of the Year in 1998. Flint was the winningest first- year coach ever at UMass. Previously, he spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Coppin State. A 1987 Saint Joseph's graduate, Flint was a four- year letterwinner with the Hawks. He earned All- Atlantic 10 honors as a senior and led the Hawks to the 1986 A- 10 championship and the NCAA Tournament as a junior. The Hawks also made NIT appearances in 1984 and 1985. He was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 and graduated with a degree in financial management.

DREXEL UNDER BRUISER FLINT

Bruiser Flint has been a fixture at Drexel since 2001. Only Sam Cozen (16 years) and Eddie Burke (14) have walked the Drexel sideline as long as Flint. The Philadelphia native has won the CAA Coach of the Year four times and is the winningest coach in school history with 230 victories. Flint's teams have finished at .500 or above in CAA play in each of the last six seasons, the longest streak of any team in the league.

GRADUATION LOSSES

The Dragons graduated more than 4,000 career points at the end of last season. Gone are Chris Fouch and Frantz Massenat, the fifth and sixth leading scorers in school history. The duo combined for 3,590 points during their four years. In addition, Dartaye Ruffin, the seventh leading rebounder in school history also completed his eligibility.

Percentage of Offense Lost to Graduation

Points	1,232 of 2,064	59.6%

CAA SUCCESS

Drexel is now in its 14th season in the CAA after moving to the conference from the America East Conference. In the previous 13 seasons, Drexel has a 139-93 record in league play. The Dragons have advanced to two title games in that time and have recorded 10 or more league wins in nine of the 13 seasons in the CAA.

NAVIGATING THE NON-CONFERENCE

The Dragons have one of their toughest non-conference schedules in recent memory. For the second straight season the Dragons opened up at a Pac-12 opponent, this year against Colorado. The Dragons returned home to face Saint Joseph's before going to Charleston to play in the Charleston Classic against Miami, USC and Cornell. Southern Mississippi, a team that won 29 games a year ago, was here in November, while La Salle was a Sweet 16 participant two years ago. Drexel also played at Buffalo, play today against Big 10- foe Penn State and will host Iona in its final non-conference game on Dec. 28. The Gaels went to the NIT last year and won 22 games.

ABOUT THE DRAGONS

The Dragons have lost three straight games after falling at the University at Buffalo on Tuesday, 80-70. The Dragons were clawing from behind all night after falling behind early. Drexel trailed by just two midway through the second half, but the Bulls went on a run to take the lead and earn the win. Damion Lee led the team with 24 points. It was his fifth 20-point game of the year, and he leads the league in scoring at 20.7 per game. Freshman Rashann London set a career-high with 17 points on 7-for-9 shooting.

The Dragons defense has played well most of the year. Opponents average just 61 points per game. Drexel has struggled with possessing the ball, however. The team averages 13 turnovers per game.

DREXEL VS. PENN STATE

Today will be only the fifth meeting between the two schools. The last time the two teams played was back in December of 1992. Penn State won, 73-64. The Lions have won all four meetings in the series which started back in 1981. Next season, Penn State will come to Philadelphia to play at a neutral site to be determined.

INSEASON TOURNAMENTS

The Gildan Charleston Classic was Drexel's ninth in-season tournament under Flint. The Dragons fell to Miami and USC before defeating Cornell on the final day. Last year, the Dragons were in the NIT Season Tip-Off and advanced to the semifinals in MSG. Drexel lost to Arizona in the semis and defeated Alabama in the consolation game. In 2012, Drexel went 1-2 in the Anaheim Classic, beating Rice and losing to St. Mary's and Xavier. In 2011, the Dragons were 1-2 at the Paradise Jam. They beat Winthrop but lost to Virginia and Norfolk State. Drexel's last in-season tournament championship came in 2007, when they won the Liberty Bracket of the Philly Classic. They also won the 2003 Florida International Tournament in Miami.

INJURY BUG

For the fourth straight season, the Dragons have had at least one player go down with a season-ending injury. Major Canady fractured his ankle in practice in late October and will miss the entire season. Kazembe Abif was hurt in the spring and is out for the year. In addition, the latest casualty is freshman Austin Williams, who is out indefinitely with a foot injury. Last year, Preseason All-CAA pick Damion Lee went down with a knee injury in the NIT Season Tip-Off against Arizona. The year before, Chris Fouch, the school's fifth all-time leading scorer, was sidelined for the season in the third game of the season. Back in 2011, the year Drexel won 27 games, Tavon Allen was hurt in the preseason and missed his freshman year.

MILESTONES

Damion Lee

*Is 23rd all-time at Drexel with 1,146 career points and is 14 points away from moving past Walt Fuller into 22nd place

*Is now 10th in career three-pointers at Drexel and is nine away from moving into ninth place

Tavon Allen

*Is one assist away from 100 in his career

THE RETURN OF DAMION LEE

Damion Lee is back on the court this season after missing all but five games a year ago. The junior was a Preseason All-CAA pick a year ago after an outstanding first two seasons. However, Lee's season ended with a knee injury against Arizona.

The Baltimore native leads the Dragons this year with 20.7 points per game. He poured in 32 points against USC in the Charleston Classic, the fourth-highest total ever in the Classic. Lee also had eight three-pointers in the game, one shy of the Drexel record. In the next game, Lee had 28 points and was named to the All-Tournament Team. He has five games with at least 20 points this season.

As a sophomore, Lee was a Second Team All-CAA pick. He finished third in the CAA in points per game (17.1), second in FT% (.829), sixth in 3-Pt.% (.360) and fourth in three-pointers per game. Lee has 1,146 career points and already has 157 three-pointers.

POINT GUARD PROGRESS

The Dragons found themselves without the services of their starting point guard when Major Canady was injured. In the early going, the team has struggled to get consistent play at the spot. Freshman Rashann London has been pressed into duty and has started every game. The freshman from Philadelphia had 17 points at Buffalo and is averaging 7.4 points per game. Senior Freddie Wilson has also seen some time at the point. He played mostly on the wing last year. Wilson chips in with 3.8 points per game.

UNDERCLASSMEN CONTRIBUTORS

If you are looking for players who could step up this year, the Dragons have three distinct possibilities. Junior Tavon Allen was off to a strong start as a sophomore. Allen scored in double figures in 10 of his first 15 games, including four in a row, before being injured. After his injury, Allen was inconsistent but was still able to average 11.7 points per game.

His play this year could be a key to Drexel's success. Allen averages 9.8 points per game but is shooting just 27 percent.

Up front, another breakout candidate is Rodney Williams. The sophomore moved into the starting line-up due to injury last year and made steady progress. He was named to the CAA All-Rookie team and averaged 5.4 points and 5.0 rebounds. Williams is the team's top post presence. This year, he is averaging 8.9 points and 8.0 rebounds.

Joining Williams up front is Mohamed Bah. The sophomore is an exceptional athlete who has the chance to be a solid rebounder and shot blocker. Bah's offensive game hasn't caught up to his defensive skills, but Bah has a high ceiling and has the physical presence to play at a high level. He has started every game and is second on the team in blocks.

SUMMER TOUR

The Dragons had a memorable end to the summer of 2014. Drexel traveled to China on a foreign tour in August. The 10-day escapade took the Dragons to Beijing and Shanghai. During that time, the Dragons played four games, winning three of them, and were able to have a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see a part of the world that very few have seen.

The team departed from Philadelphia on Aug. 23, loading a bus and driving to Newark International Airport. A little more than 14 hours after getting on the plane, the Dragons touched down in Beijing. While in Beijing, the team visited the Forbidden City, Tiananmen Square and the Great Wall of China. The Great Wall was one of the highlights of the trip, as the team tobogganed down from the top of the wall.

After picking up a pair of wins in Beijing, the Dragons packed their bags and flew to Shanghai, one of the world's most populous cities. The group attended two receptions with alumni and Drexel students from China. The team also visited the 101-story Shanghai World Financial Center and took a Huangpu River river cruise at night which gave spectacular views of the Shanghai skyline. The Dragons split their two games in Shanghai before returning home to the States.

PLAYERS IN THE PROS

Since taking over in 2001, Drexel Head Coach Bruiser Flint has had at least 17 players sign professional contracts. Four members of last year's team are currently playing professionally. Frantz Massenat is now in Germany. Dartaye Ruffin and Goran Pantovic are each playing in Sweden and Chris Fouch recently signed to play in Slovakia.

Daryl McCoy (Denmark), Samme Givens (France), Chaz Crawford (Ecuador), Scott Rodgers (Ecuador), Frank Elegar (Estonia), Robert Battle (Argentina), Phil Goss (Italy), Eric Schmiieder (France) and Tim Whitworth (Sweden) are still currently active overseas.
