

100th Season PENN STATE LACROSSE 1913 2013

The Creator's Trophy was created in 2012 by the three Big Ten schools that sponsor men's lacrosse. While a Big Ten men's lacrosse conference does not exist, The Creator's Trophy honors the rivalries between the schools that play North America's first sport.

Today, Native Americans still refer to lacrosse as "The Creator's Game." The trophy is intended to pay homage to the sport's heritage, promote the budding rivalry of the Big Ten schools and encourage sportsmanship on and off the field of play. The night prior to each of the three games, the home institution will host the vistor for a "rivalry" dinner.

The inaugural trophy was awarded to Penn State after its 2-0 record, defeating Michigan, 16-9, and Ohio State, 5-2. If a three-way 1-1 record occurs, the team who last won the title retains the trophy.

Each school is represented by an alumnus:

- Michigan . . . . . Tedd Moon '89
- Ohio State . . . . . Michael Norton '03
- Penn State . . . . . Scott McKeon '87
