The Lindenwood women's hockey team (3-21-0, 3-7-0 CHA) will hit the road for the first time in eight games and will take on No. 12 Penn State (18-8-2, 8-1-1 CHA) in a two-game set from University Park, Pa. Game one will begin at 5:00 p.m. CT, while puck drop in the series finale is scheduled for 1:00 p.m.

The Lions are coming off a series split with Syracuse last weekend, dropping the first game, 4-1 before earning a win in the second contest by a score of 6-3. The six goals in the series finale were a season high, aided by multi-point efforts from four different players.

Among those four players was Morgan Neitzke who recorded a hat trick and an assist on Saturday. The hat trick was the first by a Lindenwood player since January 5, 2019, when Jada Burke scored three goals in a 12-0 win over Post. In total, Neitzke tallied five points (4 G, 1 A) in the series against the Orange, earning CHA Forward of the Week honors. The Jackson, Mich. native continues her stellar sophomore campaign, leading the team in goals (15), assists (11) and points (26). The 15 goals rank second in the conference, while the 26 points is fourth-most.

Rachel Goff is the other Lindenwood player with double-digit points as the Naperville, Ill. native has recorded 16 (9 G, 7 A) so far this season. The nine goals are a career-high for the senior forward who has found the back of the net in three out of the last five games.

After going the first 23 games of the season without a point, Sydney Rarick earned three in the series finale, registering one goal and two assists. The second assist came on the Neitzke empty netter, letting her teammate finish off the hat trick.

Julia Maguire was solid between the pipes, making 37 saves in the series finale, including 15 in each of the second and third period. Penn State and Lindenwood will meet for the second time this season, as the Nittany Lions earned a pair of wins earlier this year.

LINDENWOOD WOMEN'S HOCKEY

HEAD COACH | SHELLEY LOONEY

Shelley Looney is entering her fourth season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey team in 2022-23

Lindenwood finished with a record of 6-22-1, including a 4-9-1 mark inside the CHA during the 2021-22 campaign. Under Looney, the Lions had nine players record double-digit points, while four individuals earned CHA weekly honors, including a pair of accolades from defenseman Casey Adimey. During the season, Lindenwood won four-consecutive games for the first time since 2011-12

Navigating the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020-21, the Lions finished 2-14-1 during the season, including a mark of 2-13-1 within the conference. The team picked up a series sweep at RIT, winning 2-0 in game one, and 5-1 in game two. Looney coached Annika Asplundh to CHA Goalie of the Week honors following the two-game series at RIT. Under Looney, Sierra Burt and Bailey Coyne both finished as the team leader in points with eight.

In her first season, Looney and the Lions compiled a record of 5-24-5, 3-15-2 CHA in 2019-20. The Lions claimed four CHA Player of the Week honors, including three CHA Goalie of the Week accolades. Lindenwood had a pair of players with double-digit points, including Sierra Burt who registered 11 assists to lead the team.

The Lions earned a 1-1 tie against No. 4 Clarkson University on October 25. Lindenwood earned a two-game sweep against RIT on January 17 and 18, posting wins of 3-0 and 2-0, respectively. It was the first time the Lions shutout a CHA opponent in back-to-back games since joining the league. Lindenwood registered a 3-2 victory over the top team in the conference, Mercyhurst, on February 7.

On November 1, 2019, Looney and the 1998 U.S. Women's Olympic Team was inducted into the 2019 U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Hall of Fame. Looney scored the game-winning goal in the gold medal game, to secure the country's first Olympic gold in women's hockey.

Looney came to Lindenwood after spending many years with USA Hockey, finding great success as a player and a coach. In 1998, Looney scored the game-winning goal to lead the United States to an Olympic gold medal in Nagano, Japan. Looney served as the head coach for the 2017 and 2019 World University Women's National Team. Looney was an assistant coach for the 2016 World University Women's Hockey National Team. She assisted the coaching staff for the 2010 U18 and 2004 U22 Women's National Teams. Looney has also worked as the Chief Evaluator at Annual District Development Camps, while serving as a head coach and coaching director of select development festivals.

In her five years prior to Lindenwood, Looney served as the Director of Hockey for the Buffalo Bison Youth Hockey Organization. Looney designed and implemented hockey development curriculum to help maximize the potential of boys and girls of all ages across 25 different teams. Looney was a key contributor in the player recruitment at all college levels.

In a feature aired on February 17, 2019 by NBC Sports, Looney was highlighted on the 21st anniversary of scoring the game-winning goal in the gold medal game of the 1998 Winter Olympics as part of celebrating 2019 Hockey Day in America. Looney and the Buffalo Bison hockey organization was recognized by Discover Card for their commitment to empower girls and women through sport. Discover Card awarded $10,000 to the organization and arranged a day with the Stanley Cup for the youth program.

In 2016, Looney was named as the head coach of the girls' varsity ice hockey program at The Nichols School in Buffalo, N.Y., a top 10 private preparatory hockey programs in North America.

In 2015, Looney was co-head coach with the Buffalo Beauts of the National Women's Ice Hockey League (NWHL). The Beauts were one of four inaugural professional women's teams, which included four USA Hockey National Team players. Previously, the New Jersey Colonials brought Looney on board from 2006-12 as the girls coaching director.

Looney spent the 2004-05 season as the assistant coach of the University of Vermont. Prior to her time in Burlington, Looney was an assistant coach on the USA Hockey U17 Boys National Team Development Program.

During her playing career, Looney won the gold medal at the 2005 IIHF Women's World Championships and a silver medal at the 2002 Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. Looney is a seven-time silver medalist at the IIHF Women's World Championships, and a two-time gold medalist at the IIHF 4 Nations Cup Tournament.

Looney earned her Bachelor of Science degree in recreation and leisure studies from Northeastern University.

LINDENWOOD WOMEN'S HOCKEY

NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

In the News

- DeSmet Reaches 2,000 Career Saves: Syracuse graduate student Arielle DeSmet became the 14th goaltender in College Hockey America history to reach 2,000 career saves with her first stop in the Orange's Jan. 20 contest at Lindenwood. Entering play Wednesday night DeSmet's career save total stood at 2,064, trailing 13th place Jolene deBruyn of Lindenwood, who holds the No. 13 spot on the list with 2,098 saves from 2015-19.
- Bellefontaine Joins Century Club: Syracuse graduate student Lauren Bellefontaine became the 35th College Hockey America player to reach 100 career points and the second to do it this season. Bellefontaine's three points against the Lions on Jan. 21 pushed her career total to 101. She added an assist in Tuesday's game at RIT and sits in 32nd place on the CHA career scoring chart, one point behind Penn State junior Kiara Zanon, who joined the Century Club earlier this season.
- Penn State's No. 1 Power Play Unit Leads CHA in Goals: Penn State's power play unit of Izzy Heminger, Kendall Butze, Julie Gough, Kiara Zanon and Tessa Janecke tops College Hockey America with eight goals on the man-advantage. Mercyhurst's Mary Sweetapple, Sydney Pedersen, Sara Boucher, Thea Johansson and Vanessa Upton rank second with four goals. Three power play units have notched three goals and are tied for third.
- Bothun Moving Up CHA Career Wins Charts: Penn State junior Josie Bothun is rapidly moving up the CHA's career wins charts for all games and conference games as we enter the homestretch of the 2022-23 season. The Wyoming, Minn., native became the fifth netminder in CHA history to reach 50 career wins with a 5-2 victory at Mercyhurst on Jan. 22. She currently has at 51 wins. Bothun is also tied for fifth with Mercyhurst alum Laura Hosier (2004-08) on the CHA conferences games only list with 26 victories against conference foes.
- CHA in the National Rankings: Penn State remains No. 12 in the DCU/USCHO poll for Week 17. In the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine poll, the Nittany Lions remain No. 11.

By the Numbers

- 871: Saves by Lindenwood netminders, which ranks third nationally. Senior Natalie Ferenc leads the Lions with 565 saves. Senior Julia Maguire has stopped 241 shots, while freshman Emily Finach has padded aside 65 shots.
- 310: Faceoff wins by Penn State freshman Tessa Janecke, which leads College Hockey America and ranks eighth nationally.
- 179: Defensive zone takeaways by Mercyhurst sophomore Sydney Pedersen, which leads the CHA.
- 153: Games played by Syracuse graduate student Lauren Bellefontaine who ranks second among active players, and leads the Orange.
- 30: Career games with 30+ saves for RIT sophomore Sarah Coe.

The Week Ahead

- RIT at Syracuse: RIT defeated the Orange, 5-3, in Tuesday's contest. Syracuse leads the head-head this season, 2-1. The Wednesday match-up was moved from Jan. 27 to accommodate the rescheduling of the postponed Syracuse-Mercyhurst series.
- Lindenwood at (12/11) Penn State: Game one of the series will be the 44th time these two have faced, as the Nittany Lions hold a 26-11-6 record against Lindenwood. PSU swept the Lions on Oct. 28-29 by scores of 4-3 and 7-0, respectively.
- Syracuse at Mercyhurst: This is the first meeting between the two since Syracuse won the 2022 CHA championship game, 3-2. The Lakers lead the series, 33-13-3.

About College Hockey America

College Hockey America is marking its 21st season of competition in 2022-23. The five-team NCAA Division I conference consists of Lindenwood University (Lions), Mercyhurst University (Lakers), Pennsylvania State University (Nittany Lions), Rochester Institute of Technology (Tigers) and Syracuse University (Orange). The CHA will grow to six teams with the return of Robert Morris University (Colonials) for the 2023-24 season. For more information, visit chawomenshockey.com.
