The Lindenwood women's hockey team (5-25-0, 5-11-0 CHA) heads to University Park Pa. to take on the top-seeded Penn State Nittany Lions (24-8-2, 14-1-1 CHA) in a best-of-three CHA semifinal series. Game one on Friday is set for 1:30 p.m. CT, while game two will begin at 11:30 a.m. The if necessary game three is set for 12:00 p.m. CT.

The Lions dropped their final two games of the regular season last weekend against Mercyhurst by scores of 3-0 and 2-0, respectively. Despite the scores, both Natalie Ferenc and Julia Maguire made 40 or more saves in each game between the pipes.

So far this season, Lindenwood netminders have compiled 1,084 saves, which ranks sixth in the country. Ferenc made 66 saves in a game against nationally ranked Wisconsin on September 29. The 66 stops are tied for the fourth-most in a single game in CHA history. The West Bloomfield, Mich. native made 31 saves alone in the second period, which are the most in a single period in conference history.

The Lions will be looking for their first win over Penn State this season, as the Nittany Lions won all four meetings during the year. The first time these two teams met this season was a one-goal game, seeing Penn State pick up a 4-3 victory. The Lions also held an early lead over the Nittany Lions back on January 28 but fell 6-3.

Lindenwood is led offensively by Morgan Neitzke who had an outstanding sophomore campaign. She paces the team in goals (20) and points (32). The Jackson, Mich. natives 20 goals ranked 13th nationally and second in the conference. During the season, Neitzke was named CHA Forward of the Week twice, while earning Forward of the Week honors one time.

The Lions will be looking for their first win at the CHA Tournament since 2016-17 when they beat Mercyhurst in the opening round, 3-2.

LINDENWOOD WOMEN'S HOCKEY

HEAD COACH | SHELLEY LOONEY

Shelley Looney is entering her fourth season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey team in 2022-23

Lindenwood finished with a record of 6-22-1, including a 4-9-1 mark inside the CHA during the 2021-22 campaign. Under Looney, the Lions had nine players record double-digit points, while four individuals earned CHA weekly honors, including a pair of accolades from defenseman Casey Adimey. During the season, Lindenwood won four-consecutive games for the first time since 2011-12

Navigating the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020-21, the Lions finished 2-14-1 during the season, including a mark of 2-13-1 within the conference. The team picked up a series sweep at RIT, winning 2-0 in game one, and 5-1 in game two. Looney coached Annika Asplundh to CHA Goalie of the Week honors following the two-game series at RIT. Under Looney, Sierra Burt and Bailey Coyne both finished as the team leader in points with eight.

In her first season, Looney and the Lions compiled a record of 5-24-5, 3-15-2 CHA in 2019-20. The Lions claimed four CHA Player of the Week honors, including three CHA Goalie of the Week accolades. Lindenwood had a pair of players with double-digit points, including Sierra Burt who registered 11 assists to lead the team.

The Lions earned a 1-1 tie against No. 4 Clarkson University on October 25. Lindenwood earned a two-game sweep against RIT on January 17 and 18, posting wins of 3-0 and 2-0, respectively. It was the first time the Lions shutout a CHA opponent in back-to-back games since joining the league. Lindenwood registered a 3-2 victory over the top team in the conference, Mercyhurst, on February 7.

On November 1, 2019, Looney and the 1998 U.S. Women's Olympic Team was inducted into the 2019 U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Hall of Fame. Looney scored the game-winning goal in the gold medal game, to secure the country's first Olympic gold in women's hockey.

Looney came to Lindenwood after spending many years with USA Hockey, finding great success as a player and a coach. In 1998, Looney scored the game-winning goal to lead the United States to an Olympic gold medal in Nagano, Japan. Looney served as the head coach for the 2017 and 2019 World University Women's National Team. Looney was an assistant coach for the 2016 World University Women's Hockey National Team. She assisted the coaching staff for the 2010 U18 and 2004 U22 Women's National Teams. Looney has also worked as the Chief Evaluator at Annual District Development Camps, while serving as a head coach and coaching director of select development festivals.

In her five years prior to Lindenwood, Looney served as the Director of Hockey for the Buffalo Bison Youth Hockey Organization. Looney designed and implemented hockey development curriculum to help maximize the potential of boys and girls of all ages across 25 different teams. Looney was a key contributor in the player recruitment at all college levels.

In a feature aired on February 17, 2019 by NBC Sports, Looney was highlighted on the 21st anniversary of scoring the game-winning goal in the gold medal game of the 1998 Winter Olympics as part of celebrating 2019 Hockey Day in America. Looney and the Buffalo Bison hockey organization was recognized by Discover Card for their commitment to empower girls and women through sport. Discover Card awarded $10,000 to the organization and arranged a day with the Stanley Cup for the youth program.

In 2016, Looney was named as the head coach of the girls' varsity ice hockey program at The Nichols School in Buffalo, N.Y., a top 10 private preparatory hockey programs in North America.

In 2015, Looney was co-head coach with the Buffalo Beauts of the National Women's Ice Hockey League (NWHL). The Beauts were one of four inaugural professional women's teams, which included four USA Hockey National Team players. Previously, the New Jersey Colonials brought Looney on board from 2006-12 as the girls coaching director.

Looney spent the 2004-05 season as the assistant coach of the University of Vermont. Prior to her time in Burlington, Looney was an assistant coach on the USA Hockey U17 Boys National Team Development Program.

During her playing career, Looney won the gold medal at the 2005 IIHF Women's World Championships and a silver medal at the 2002 Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. Looney is a seven-time silver medalist at the IIHF Women's World Championships, and a two-time gold medalist at the IIHF 4 Nations Cup Tournament.

Looney earned her Bachelor of Science degree in recreation and leisure studies from Northeastern University.

LINDENWOOD WOMEN'S HOCKEY

NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

The seeds are set for the 2023 College Hockey America Postseason, which will take place Feb. 24-March 4.

The winner of the 2023 CHA Postseason championship will receive the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Women's Ice Hockey Championship.

The CHA Postseason will open on Feb. 24-26 with best-of-three semifinal series featuring No. 4 Lindenwood at No. 1 Penn State and No. 3 Syracuse at No. 2 Mercyhurst. The winners of both series will advance to the CHA Championship Game on March 4 at the site of the highest advancing seed.

CHA regular season champion Penn State enters the postseason on a 14-0-1 run since Nov. 26. The Nittany Lions are led offensively by junior Kiara Zanon and freshman Tessa Janecke. Zanon ended the regular season with 47 points on 24 goals and 23 assists and won the CHA Scoring Championship for the second time in her career with 27 points in conference play. Janecke has turned in one of the top rookie campaigns in CHA history with a 19g-21a/40p line in 2022-23 to share the lead in freshman point scoring nationally. Senior defenseman Izzy Heminger skates into the postseason ranked in the CHA career top-10 for defenseman assists (61) and points (75) to headline a blueline group that fronts junior goaltender Josie Bothun. Bothun has posted a 23-8-1 mark for PSU this season with a .920 save percentage and 1.87 goals-against average.

No. 2 seed Mercyhurst boasts two of the conference's top scorers in junior Sara Boucher and freshman Thea Johansson. Boucher ranks No. 3 in the CHA in scoring with 35 points on 15 goals and 20 assists. Johansson is fourth with a 14g-19a/33p line. The duo sits at tied for No. 2 and alone at No. 6, respectively, on the CHA assist list entering the postseason. Forward Liliane Perreault is the Lakers' No. 3 scorer with 28 points and shares the team lead in goals with Boucher. Goaltender Ena Nystrom posted a 2.28 goals-against average for the Lakers - including a 1.44 mark in CHA play - to headline a goaltending unit that led the CHA in save percentage (.923) and shutouts (nine) this season.

Third-seeded Syracuse is led by graduate student Lauren Bellefontaine. The Kemptville, Ont., native is the CHA's No. 2 active scorer with a career line of 37g-69a/106 pts. Bellefontaine enters the CHA Postseason having played in 161 career games, which ranks No. 3 in CHA history. At the blueline, Hannah Johnson leads the CHA in blocked shots, and ranks No. 4 nationally, with 73 this season. The Orange are backstopped by goaltender Arielle DeSmet. The graduate student leads the CHA in saves this season with 847 and ranks No. 10 on the conference's career saves list with 2,271 stops in her stellar career.

The Lindenwood Lions hold the CHA's No. 4 seed and are led by sophomore Morgan Neitzke, who ranks No. 2 in the CHA in goals scored at 20 and No. 5 in scoring with 32 points. A two-time CHA Forward of the Week and the conference's Forward of the Month for January, Neitzke leads the CHA in shots on goal with 167 (5.57 per game). Senior forward Meara Ryan is No. 7 nationally in blocked shots with 66 and is the national leader among forwards in that category. Senior Natalie Ferenc leads the CHA in saves per game with an average of 33.71.
