MEN'S GYMNASTICS IN SEARCH OF FOURTH BIG TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team will make the trip to Champaign, Illinois Friday, April 7-Saturday, April 8 in search of its fourth Big Ten Conference Championship. The Nittany Lions will compete in the team championships Friday, April 7 at 7 p.m. before going on to compete in the individual event finals Saturday, April 8 at 7 p.m. All sessions will be featured on the Big Ten Network.

SCOUTING THE FIELD

The Nittany Lions will have a tough battle as they compete for their fourth Big Ten Championship. All seven B1G men's gymnastics teams rank in the top-10 in the national rankings with Ohio State coming in at a league-best No. 3 nationally. Also ranking in the top five are Illinois and Minnesota, who come in at fourth and fifth, respectively. Nebraska comes in sixth overall and Penn State sits in seventh nationally heading into the championship. Finally, Iowa and Michigan round out the Big Ten in the eighth and ninth spots, respectively.

The Golden Gophers lead the conference on the floor exercise averaging a 69.190 and coming in third nationally, while Ohio State ranks second in the nation on the pommel horse and Penn State follows just behind in third overall. Moving to the still rings, Minnesota comes in on top of the Big Ten in third overall and Penn State ranks fourth with a 69.006 average. The Golden Gophers have excelled all season on the vault, ranking second nationally with a 72.175 average, while Iowa ranks fourth with a 71.239 average. On the parallel bars, Ohio State ranks third and Penn State ranks fourth, while Illinois leads the Big Ten on the high bar with a 69.472 season average.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2016 CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Penn State men's gymnastics team placed fourth at the 2016 Big Ten Championships hosted by Ohio State with a final score of 427.150. Ohio State captured its 13th Big Ten title with a score of 434.450, while Illinois placed second with a 429.700 and Minnesota rounded out the top three with a 429.100. Ohio State's Sean Melton earned the all-around title with an 89.750, which included three individual event victories for the redshirt-sophomore. Five Nittany Lions qualified for the individual event finals paced by senior Trevor Howard who will compete on the floor exercise, vault and high bar in Saturday's competition. Also earning spots in the event finals were freshman Michael Burns, who will join Howard on the high bar, redshirt-junior Leroy Clarke, Jr., who will compete on the parallel bars, Dominic DiFulvio, who will compete on the still rings and Alexis Torres, who will compete on the vault.

PENN STATE VS. THE BIG TEN IN 2017

at Illinois - The Nittany Lions suffered a 411.350-404.650 setback in their first Big Ten meet of the season to the Fighting Illini. Freshmen Stephen Nedoroscik and Favian Valdez both took home titles for the Blue and White with a first-place finish on the pommel horse and the all-around, respectively.

vs. Ohio State - Penn State notched its second BIG loss of the season, this time at the hands of the defending Big Ten Champion Buckeyes, 419.150-417.750 at Rec Hall. Freshman Sam Zakutney was the lone event winner for the Nittany Lions, taking home the parallel bars title and the all-around victory.

at Nebraska w/Iowa - The Blue and White fell to both Nebraska and Iowa in the tri-meet, scoring a 409.600. Seniors Leroy Clarke, Jr. and Dominic DiFulvio came away victorious for Penn State as DiFulvio took home a still rings title and Clarke earned the parallel bars win.

vs. Michigan - After weeks on the road, the Nittany Lions returned to Rec Hall and earned their first Big Ten Conference victory with a 409.200-405.300 win over Michigan. Penn State won six individual event titles with Sam Zakutney taking home the floor exercise, parallel bars and all-around wins, while Leroy Clarke, Jr. won the pommel horse and high bar and Dominic DiFulvio captured the still rings victory.

vs. Iowa - In a senior day meet, the Nittany Lions captured their second-straight Big Ten victory, defeating the Hawkeyes after falling to them earlier in the season. Dominic DiFulvio picked up the still rings and vault title, while Stephen Nedoroscik and Leroy Clarke Jr. tied for first on the pommel horse and Wyatt Tyndall earned the parallel bars title.

NITTANY LIONS IN CHAMPAIGN

The 2017 Big Ten Championships will mark only the second time in program history that Penn State has competed in Champaign, Illinois in the postseason. The last time the Nittany Lions competed at Illinois in postgame competition was in the 1955 National Championships where they finished second overall.

In the regular season, Penn State holds an 8-4 overall record when competing against Illinois in Champaign, while four of the Nittany Lion's top 10 scores in school history have happened at Illinois. The Blue and White scored a 77.250 on the still rings, which ranks second all-time in Penn State laurels at Illinois, while its 73.950 and sixth-best score in school history also happened in Champaign. Finally, the Blue and White recorded its 10th-best score in PSU laurels on both the floor exercise and team score at Illinois.

PENN STATE CLOSSES OUT REGULAR SEASON WITH WIN OVER IOWA

The Penn State men's gymnastics team became one-of-seven teams in the 2017 season to notch a 420.000-or-better as it took home a 420.400-414.000 victory over Iowa in a Big Ten Conference meet. The Nittany Lion's 420.400 ranks fifth in the nation in the 2017 season and is a season-high for the Blue and White in its senior day competition. Head coach Randy Jepson and the rest of the Penn State squad honored its six seniors, Joseph Boyle, Franz Card, Leroy Clarke, Jr., Dominic DiFulvio, Christian McSwain and Jeremy Munn following its win over Iowa. The Blue and White saw two season-best with a 72.350 on the pommel horse and a 70.950 on the parallel bars, while the team saw six individual personal-bests and four individual season-bests. Penn State brought home four event titles with DiFulvio earning the still rings and vault victories in his final event at the Rec Hall, while freshman Stephen Nedoroscik grabbed the third pommel horse title of his career and Clarke tied with Nedoroscik for the title. Finally, Wyatt Tyndall garnered the parallel bars title for the Blue and White.

CLARKE HAS PREMEIRE WEEK IN ALL FOUR EVENTS

Penn State gymnastics senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. has been named the College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Gymnast of the Week. The honor marks the first of Clarke's career and the first time a Penn State gymnast has earned the award since Trevor Howard captured the honor January 14, 2016. This past weekend, Clarke picked up two individual event titles with a win on the pommel horse and a win on the high bar against Michigan. The senior competed in four events on the day, earning a podium finish in each. Clarke placed second on the still rings and nabbed a third-place finish on the parallel bars in the Nittany Lions victory. For his efforts, Clarke was also named Big Ten Gymnast of the Week for the first time in his career donning the Blue and White. Heading into the final week of the regular season, Clarke ranks seventh on the pommel horse (14.000) and ties for ninth on the parallel bars (13.727). In his final season donning the Blue and White, Clarke has earned seven individual event titles and has stood on the podium a total of 20 times in the 2017 campaign.

ZAKUTNEY BRINGS HOME FOURTH FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

Freshman Sam Zakutney earned his fourth freshman of the week honor of the 2017 season after bringing home three titles against Michigan. Zakutney notched three first-place finishes for Penn State against Michigan with his first floor title, his fifth parallel bars title and his third all-around title. Zakutney also secured a podium finish on the high bar, placing third overall for the Blue and White.

NITTANY LIONS TAKE ONE FROM MICHIGAN

Penn State men's gymnastics saw one season-best as it closed out the meet with a 68.250 on the parallel bars and had five individual event wins with senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. and freshman Sam Zakutney each earned two event titles and senior Dominic DiFulvio earned the still rings title. Zakutney also picked up the all-around win as the lone competitor.

STEPPING IT UP ON FLOOR AND VAULT

The Blue and White saw two season-high scores in its tri-meet at Nebraska with Iowa, notching a 70.650 on the floor exercise and a 71.900 on the vault, while two Nittany Lions took home individual event titles. Senior Dominic DiFulvio tallied his fifth still rings title of the season and redshirt-senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. earned his first parallel bars victory of the year.

The Ottawa, Ontario native secured his first podium finish with a third-place spot on the vault with a career-best 14.250 before sweeping the final two rotations of the day with a first-place finish on the parallel bars and a win on the high bar. Finally, Zakutney secured his first all-around title donning the Blue and White with an 82.650. Overall, Zakutney set five career-highs and earned three titles for the Nittany Lions at Springfield.

NITTANY LIONS SWEEP TITLES AT SPRINGFIELD

Penn State swept all six events for the first time in the 2017 campaign with senior Dominic DiFulvio and freshman Sam Zakutney earning three titles each for the Blue and White. DiFulvio picked up his first floor exercise win of the season, his third still rings title and his second vault title of his senior campaign, while Zakutney notched his first collegiate titles with wins on the parallel bars, high bar and all-around. Returning to his home state for the first time in his young collegiate career, freshman Stephen Nedoroscik collected his first victory for Penn State, securing the win on the pommel horse.

VALDEZ EARNS SECOND-STRAIGHT BIG TEN HONOR

Freshman Favian Valdez notched his second-straight Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor as announced by the conference office for the week ending Jan. 22.

The freshman earns the honor for the second time in his career after garnering it following his first collegiate appearance at the West Point Open. The Kearny, N.J. native picked up three top-five finishes in his second collegiate outing for the Blue and White against Army, Jan. 21.

Valdez earned his second title of the 2017 season with a 14.050 on the pommel horse for a victory against Army West Point in Penn State's first home meet. Valdez also placed fourth overall on the vault with a 14.050 and placed third in the all-around.

PENN STATE EARNS VICTORY OVER ARMY

The Penn State men's gymnastics team picked up a 414.200-396.050 victory over Army West Point in its home-opener against Army West Point. All-arounder and senior captain Dominic DiFulvio notched his first all-around title of the 2017 campaign with an 82.600, while Favian Valdez placed third overall in the all-around with a 79.800. Penn State saw three season-best team scores and one tie as it put up a season-high 69.650 on the floor exercise, a 68.950 on the still rings and a 70.150 on the vault, while tying a season-best 67.300 on the high bar.

The Blue and White won five out of six events with Wyatt Tyndall taking the floor exercise, Valdez earning the pommel horse title, DiFulvio notching the still rings win and tying on the vault and Franz Card taking home the parallel bars title.

BLUE AND WHITE CLINCHES FOURTH-STRAIGHT WEST POINT OPEN TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team captured its fourth-straight title at the 26th Annual West Point Open Friday, Jan. 13. The Nittany Lions scored a 412.350 in their first meet of the season to win the open for the 19th time in program history.

Big Ten Conference foe Nebraska placed second overall with a 410.600 and Army rounded out the top three with a 393.500. The Blue and White used a strong parallel bars routine in its sixth rotation of the day to propel itself to the victory in West Point.

Freshman Favian Valdez picked up his first victory donning the Blue and White, notching a 14.500 on the floor exercise, while Christian McSwain placed second with a 14.400.

The Nittany Lions saw their second individual event title of the evening when Colin Coates nabbed the pommel horse win for the second-straight year with a 14.700. Last season, Coates helped Penn State to the individual event title sweep, winning the pommel horse with a 15.050 in the event. Redshirt-senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. placed second on the pommel horse after finishing first in the team event Friday night, while Valdez placed fourth overall.

Penn State grabbed its third-straight individual event when senior Dominic DiFulvio came up big on the still rings with a 14.750 and Benjamin Cooperman placed second overall with a 14.250.

Sophomore Michael Burns capped off the four individual event titles for the Blue and White as he picked up his second-straight high bar title with a 14.650 at the West Point Open, winning the event in the 2016 season as well.

VALDEZ EARNS BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

After capturing the floor exercise title at the West Point Open, freshman Favian Valdez notched Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors as announced by the conference office for the week ending Jan. 15.

The honor marks the first of Valdez's career as he made his first collegiate appearance at the West Point Open.

Valdez notched three second-place finishes in the team portion of the West Point Open, grabbing a 14.300 on the floor exercise, a 14.250 on the pommel horse and an 82.400 in the all-around. The Kearny, N.J. native capped off the individual event finals with a floor exercise title nabbing a 14.500 and a fourth-place finish on the pommel horse.

BURNS HAS CAREER WEEKEND AT WEST POINT

Sophomore Michael Burns posted four career-bests while also earning the high bar title in the individual event finals and the high bar and all-around title in the team event at the West Point Open, Jan. 13-14. Burns first earned the high bar title in the team portion with a 14.200 before posting a season-high 14.650 in the individual event finals to earn the title for the second-straight season. Burns also tallied a career-high 14.150 in the floor exercise, a 13.800 on the pommel horse, a 14.300 on the still rings and an 82.700 in the all-around.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED FOURTH IN BIG TEN PRESEASON POLL

Penn State was picked fourth in the 2017 Big Ten Men's Gymnastics Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by the conference office Thursday, Dec. 15. Along with the preseason coaches' poll, seniors Leroy Clarke, Jr. and Dominic DiFulvio were named to the Gymnast to Watch List for the upcoming season.

For the third-straight season Ohio State grabbed the top spot in the Big Ten Poll, while Minnesota was picked to finish second and Illinois rounded out the top three places. With the Nittany Lions coming in at fourth, Nebraska, Iowa and Michigan complete the Big Ten Preseason Coaches' Poll for the 2017 campaign.

PENN STATE COMES IN SIXTH IN THE CGA PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

The Penn State men's gymnastics team enters the 2017 campaign ranked sixth in the College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Preseason Coaches' Poll as announced Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Oklahoma was picked to finish first in the nation for the third-straight season with 17 first-place votes, while Stanford was picked to finish second with one first-place vote and Ohio State was projected to round out the top three with one first-place vote. Minnesota and Illinois ranked fourth and fifth, respectively with Penn State coming in as the No. 6 team to start the 2017 season.

NITTANY LIONS SET TO APPEAR ON BTN THREE TIMES

The Penn State men's gymnastics team will have two home meets featured on the Big Ten Network, while the network will also air the 2017 Big Ten Championships. The Nittany Lions and the Wolverines of Michigan will square off at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 18 on BTN before the Blue and White closes out its season against Iowa Saturday, Mar. 25 at 3 p.m. on the Big Ten Network.

The 2017 Men's Big Ten Championships will be hosted by Illinois in Champaign, Ill. Friday, Apr. 7 and Saturday, Apr. 8. The team championship will be handed out on Friday, while individual event winners will be crowned Apr. 8. Both sessions will be aired live on BTN starting at 7 p.m.

JEPSON KICKS OFF 26TH SEASON AT THE HELM OF MEN'S GYMNASTICS

The 2017 campaign marks the 26th season for Head Coach Randy Jepson as the program leader of the Nittany Lions. Jepson came to Penn State in 1982 as a senior gymnast, earning All-America honors on the rings and being a Nissen-Emery Award nominee. From there, he went on to be the graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming an assistant coach from 1985-1991. In 1992, Jepson served as the acting head coach and was promoted to head coach in 1993 and since has led the Nittany Lions to three national championships and three Big Ten titles.

Jepson has been the National Coach of the Year on three occasions (2000, 2004 and 2007) and garnered the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011, which is given to the coaches who have 25 years of service or more to the sport of gymnastics. Additionally, Jepson is a two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year honoree and has coached 43 All-Americans on 100 occasions, 30 First Team All-Big Ten selection and 11 NCAA Individual Event Champions.

CLARKE RETURNS FOR FINAL SEASON AFTER ALL-AMERICAN FINISH IN 2016

The 2017 men's gymnastics team sees the return of senior Leroy Clarke, Jr., who is the lone All-American returner for the Blue and White. Clarke capped off the 2016 season with an All-American finish on the still rings, placing eighth overall. The redshirt-senior from Maplewood, N.J. will be in search of his third All-American title in his final season with Penn State as he earned the honor on the parallel bars in the 2015 season.

JEPSON WELCOMES FIVE FOR 2017

Head Coach Randy Jepson will welcome five freshman in the 2017 campaign. The five newcomers include: Brayden Borromeo, Isaac Hammett, Stephen Nedoroscik, Favian Valdez and Sam Zakutney. Nedoroscik, Valdez and Zakutney have been tabbed as three of the top pommel horses performers in the country in their respective classes, while Borromeo and Hammett will hope to make an impact on a variety of events in their freshman campaigns.
